CRAIG SCHMERSAL WINS SWRHA BILLINGSLEY FORD OPEN FUTURITY ON SHINING ON RUF

It was a rowdy, wild, and exciting evening at the Hardy Murphy Coliseum. The Southwest Reining Horse Association Billingsley Ford Open Futurity provides a last-minute opportunity for reiners across the country to evaluate their three-year-olds who will soon be competing in the big arena at Oklahoma City.

This year, it was Arizona's Craig Schmerral who claimed the $18,488 bounty. Schmerral was riding Shining On Ruf, owned by Vaughn Zimmerman. In addition to the great prize money, the win also came with a custom golf cart and prizes from Shelley Martinez, SmartPak, and Dennards.

Schmersal has only been riding Shining On Ruf, by Not Ruf At All out of Boom Shine Sally, for two months. "Bobby Avila Jr. trained this horse, but broke his leg. He called and asked if I would like to try him. I said absolutely!" Schmersal recalled. "So for the last two months he has been with me. Bobby had him super broke, so that was nice. He's been easy to follow, and tonight this horse was especially good."

Schmersal expertly guided Shining On Ruf through Pattern 8, earning a score of 225. "He turned big and his circles were good and consistent every time, and his rollbacks are good every time. He's a really physical, really pretty horse,"

Schmersal said. "He's in the hunt for one of my three for the futurity. We've got to go home and regroup and make some decisions."

He added, "I thank Bobby for giving me the shot and calling me when he got hurt, and Justin and Vaughn Zimmerman for going along with it. We've had a lot of fun riding for those guys. They're a fun group."

Andrea Fappani rode Gotta Shiny Spook, owned by

Wright Reining LLC, to tie for second in the level 4 with a 224.5. The reserve co-championship came with a check for $9,847. Gotta Shiny Spook is by Spooks Gotta Whiz out of Shiny Diamond Lady.

Brian Bell Pilots Bamn Bam to Open Level 3 Championship

Brian Bell and Bamn Bam won the Open Level 3 and tied for reserve in the Level 4 with a 224.5, winning $20,228, a saddle sponsored by Shelley Martinez, and other prizes from SmartPak and Dennards.

Competing as draw 5, Bell and Bamn Bam put pressure on the field from the start. "He turned really big both ways, and circled really good. He stopped super big two out of three times. We had a little rollback trouble on one stop, but he was great," Bell recalled. "This horse has always been easy about everything, but rollbacks have been a struggle. He's getting it figured out now."

Bell has had his eye on Bamn Bam, by Yellow Jersey out of Fabulous Guns, since the colt was a two-year-old. "Me and one of my customers, Jenna Webb, bought him together. We were third at the Colorado Summer Slide, and now we did good here," he said. "He just had a bunch of stop and turnaround, and was pretty quiet. I just wanted him."

So how is Bell feeling going into Oklahoma City? "I'm confident. When you mark a 224.5 before the futurity, you're ready to go," he said. "I thank my wife Naike, my sister, and Jenna Webb. I bought this horse from Ruben Vandorp. I'm really thankful to all the people that have been a part of this horse," he said.

There was a three-way tie for second in the Level 3. Dany Tremblay had two horses, Gunnastepya and Lil Gun Affair, and Martin Larcombe rode Drinkin Moonshine, all of which marked a 222. That score also tied them for eighth in the Level 4, bringing his total earnings to $8,389. Gunnastepya (Gunnatrashya x SDP A Lasting Step) is owned by ADH-Mor Ranch, while Lil Gun Affair (Lil Joe Cash x Gun Affair) is owned by Martin Brisebois/Tremblay Reining Horses LLC. Cade McCutcheon Takes Open Level 2 Championship on Tidal To The Buckles Cade McCutcheon has been on a roll his first year as a professional trainer, and on Saturday night, added an additional $5,621 to his lifetime earnings when he won the Level 2 championship on Tidal To The Buckles. Along with other prizes, the win also came with a saddle sponsored by Shelley Martinez.

Tidal To The Buckles, by Show Me The Buckles out of Starlights Tidalwave, is owned by Rebeca Martin. "This horse is a sweetheart all the time, and he just keeps getting better. We had some things we had to work on after Tulsa, but he's gotten better. He wants to help all the time, and it makes my life easier," McCutcheon said. "Tonight he was really good and easy to show. There were a few places he could have been a little stronger, but that was just green spots. He wanted to be on my side the whole time."

Martin, who also owns Tidal To The Buckle's sire, noted that the colt's attitude has been there from day one. "He's always been a sweetheart, and Cade has brought out the best in him. I have liked Cade and his riding for a couple years already. He's incredible," she said. "I thank Tom (McCutcheon) for taking in Buckles as a stallion. Because of that, I brought all my Buckle babies here, and they're in the best hands possible."

McCutcheon is now looking towards the NRHA futurity. "I feel pretty good about my horses now going to the futurity," he said. "I thank Rebeca, my parents, and everyone at the barn. There are 20 or 30 people I could thank, but we don't have that much time."

Finishing second in the Open Level 2 was Francesco Martinotti and Smoking Trash, owned by Enjoy LLC. The pair also placed in the Level 3, winning $3,657. Smoking Trash is by Gunnatrashya out of Snip O Gun.

Josh Visser Wins Open Level 1 Title with Inwhizzable Dream

Josh Visser brought Inwhizzable Dream to the SWRHA Futurity with a plan to simply have a smooth run before Oklahoma City, and wound up with the Level 1 championship. They also placed in the Level 2, bringing total earnings to $4,395.

"I was just hoping to have a nice, confidence building run today and just show him without him thinking he was getting shown. He was really honest everywhere. I couldn't have asked for a purer run," Visser said. "I came in here trying to step him up a little bit without putting too much stress on him. I'm more focused on the big futurity in a few weeks so I just cruised him around and kept him happy. I'm very confident about the futurity now."

Inwhizzable Dream, owned by Terry Martin, is by Visser's stallion Magnum With A Dream and out of Adarable. "This customer raised this colt, and this is that dam's first foal. We're very excited about that cross," Visser said. "I thank the owners for trusting me with him and for breeding to our stallion. I also got some help from Gunny Mathison on his rundowns. It's a team effort for sure."

Dalton Vanlandingham rode Not Ruf Again to a score of 216.5 to finish second in the Open Level 1 and place in the Level 2, collecting $2,455. Not Ruf Again, by Not Ruf At All and out of Moses Glow, is owned by Clayton Reeves.

Tom McCutcheon & Colonels Big Nite Win Open Prime Time

Tom McCutcheon won the Open Prime Time on Colonels Big Nite, owned by Clark Reining Horses LLC, with a 220, taking home a check for $719. Colonels Big Nite is by Gunners Special Nite out of Miss Hickory Tari. "This horse is owned by a group of guys who have been in my barn a couple years now. I was really happy with him. He's a little bit green, but he gets better and better all the time," McCutcheon said.

McCutcheon said he was pleased with the horse's performance. "Overall I was happy with him. Hopefully between now and the futurity he'll get better. I think he really turned a corner at this horse show. I feel like we're on the right track," he said.

Mike McEntire rode Gunna Love Ya to a score of 218 to take reserve in the Open Prime Time, winning $571. Gunna Love Ya, by Gunnatrashya out of Shiners Valentine, is owned by Andreas Braeuer.

Abby Lengel & Makendiamonds Win Open Mare Award

The highest scoring mare in the Billingsley Ford Open Futurity wins a $1,000 bonus, sponsored by Rancho Sereno and Premier Equine Veterinary Services. In addition to the $1,000 check, Humphrey Quarter Horses donated a breeding to Guns R For Shootin to the high scoring mare.

This year's winner was Makendiamonds, ridden by Abby

Lengel, who won the bonus with a score of 222.5. Lengel and the mare also won an additional $5,225 for a sixth place tie in the Open Level 4.

Makendiamonds, by Whizkey N Diamonds out of Makeit In Tinseltown, is owned by Dallas Schwerdt.

Snipers Smoking Gun Wins Stallion Auction Golf Cart

All stallions who have donated a breeding to the SWRHA Stallion Auction that sells in the auction are entered to win an SWRHA Golf Cart, which is drawn for and awarded at the conclusion of the Billingsley Ford Open Futurity.

The winner of this year's golf cart is Snipers Smoking Gun, a seven-year-old stallion by Gunner out of Miss Starlight Smoke. "I'm absolutely excited about this," noted owner Heath Jones. "This is great!"

as the publicity and promotion we get for our stallion. Plus it's a great place to take your young horses out and futurity them," he said.

Located in Ashtown, Arkansas, Snipers Smoking Gun has been an open finalist at major derby events, primarily shown by Trey Pool. To date he's accumulated more than $35,000 in earnings. "He will be shown again next spring. We plan to take him back out and do some fun shows, but the pressure is off now. He gets to enjoy the stallion life," Jones said. "He has about 100 foals on the

Jones is a longtime supporter of the SWRHA, and has donated breedings to the stallion auction for several years in a row. "I just love the SWRHA and what they offer, as well ground now. We're excited about his babies and what they will do in the next few years."

MCCUTCHEON, SCHMERSAL, AND SCHMERSAL CLAIM WINS IN SWRHA CUSTOM MADE DUNIT NON PRO FUTURITY

The Custom Made Dunit Non Pro Futurity was held Friday, October 25, at the Hardy Murphy Coliseum in Ardmore, Okla. The one go-round event provides reiners looking towards Oklahoma City a chance to compete for big money and last-minute experience.

Mandy McCutcheon Wins Level 4 Championship on Coronas At Night

Mandy McCutcheon's entry, Coronas At Night, has shown she has all the talent to compete in the upper echelons of reining competition - but a win hadn't happened yet. "She has had her ups and downs this fall. She's always had enough talent, and all her maneuvers have been good. She's just had some quirks we've had to overcome," McCutcheon said. "We were just trying to see what we need to do to get her ready for the big futurity."

If Friday's run is any indication, the pair is on the right track, marking a 219.5 to win $5,594. "She just walked in and did everything I asked her to do. She stayed real hooked up. She walked in and turned well. We might have had a turn penalty on my first turn, but I was really happy with her," McCutcheon said. "She was much better this week than she's been at other shows."

Mandy and her husband Tom raised Coronas At Night, by Gunners Special Nite out of One Last Corona. "We had raised a couple others out of her dam that I did well with," she said.

With 30 horses at the SWRHA Futurity and Horse Show, the McCutcheon crew is going many directions. "Cade, Carlee, Tom, Fernando, and Debbie are all showing here, so we're staying busy," she said. "It takes a whole village. All the people in the barn play a part in getting me where I need to go. We are all always looking out for each other."

Ginger Schmersal Wins Non Pro Level 3 and Non Pro Prime Time on Mobstop

Ginger Schmersal hadn't been in the market for a futurity horse. She'd won the Rocky Mountain Reining Horse Association Non Pro Futurity on Black Gun Face. But when her daughter Addisyn's horse was lost to colic, it was a no-brainer today. In the makeup pen she was a little up-tight. It was cold and we didn't have anywhere to lunge yesterday or today because of the weather, and she's the type that needs to be out to play a bit.

"I got her out early and took my time warming for her to pass him on. "It was hard to give him up, but there was no hesitation. She needed a horse. She works hard at it - harder than I do. She eats, breathes, and sleeps it, and puts the time in," Schmersal said.

The search was on, and she found Mobstop, a three-year-old mare by HF Mobster out of Stop Little Sister. "I purchased her from Connie and Amy Stoney in Tulsa at the beginning of September. She's new to me and to the program, but the Stoneys did a great job getting her to where she is, and then she's had a crash course with our program," she said.

Schmersal took the mare to the Best of the West, finishing near the top of the leaderboard and pocketing close to $5,000. "She was super out there. I'm tickled with her." She added, "She is super-minded. She has handled all the pressure we put on her."

At the SWRHA Futurity, Schmersal and the mare marked a 217.5 to finish second in the Level 4, and win the Level 3 and Prime Time, collecting $6,792. "She was fantastic up. I missed, like, six lead changes out there on her, but the minute we walked through the gate she took a deep breath and was with me the whole time. I was stunned," Schmersal said. "She showed like a champ. She did that with me at the Best of the West. I think she's a show horse and wants to be by herself and have the stage."

Schmersal noted that Friday's performance gave her more confidence going into Oklahoma City for the Futurity. "I thank my husband. Without him I wouldn't be where I am. Of course I thank Connie and Amy Stoney, as well as our staff, friends, family and customers that are there to support us," she said.

Kelle Smith and Spookadoodle, by Tricked Out Spook out of Tivitos Top Starlet, finished reserve in the Level 3 and Prime Time with a 216.5, and also placed fourth in the Level 4. All totaled, Smith won $4,380.

Addisyn Schmersal & Black Gun Face Win Non Pro Levels 1 & 2

Addisyn Schmersal has never shown a futurity horse, with Black Face Gun she has now won big money at two of the three events they've competed at. Scoring a 215.5, the pair won the Non Pro Levels 1 and 2, and placed in Levels 3 and 4, for earnings totaling $5,339.

"I showed him in Tulsa but over spun, and then I showed him at Best of the West and won the Level 1 & 2. He's a really fun horse. I love to circle him, and his stops are fun, too. He's really sweet," she said of Black Gun Face, by Pale Face Dunit out of Blazing In Black. "The first couple of days riding him were difficult because I've never had a three-year-old to ride, but it's been fun ever since."

Despite a small bobble, Schmersal noted most of Friday's run was good. "He spun really well both ways. I over spun a bit on the second one. Our left circles were good. When we changed leads, he spooked at the judges, but everything else was really good," she said. "It was fun to watch my mom show today. I didn't get to watch all of it because I was right after her."

Schmersal is done showing in Ardmore, but will be helping her father with his futurity horses on Saturday. "I thank my parents for letting me show this horse, and all our help, my friends, and my family," she said.

Ronny Colston and Colonels Special Gun, by Gunners Special Nite out of Miss Cielo, finished second in the Level 2, and placed in levels 3 and 4 to win $3,181. Robin Mazzocca rode My Dad Is Shiny to finish reserve in the Level 1 and place in levels 2 through 4, for $2,678.

My Dad Is Shiny is by Smart And

BIG WINS IN SWRHA FUTURITY ANCILLARY ACTION

Randy Shepherd Wins Outta Dough Masters Non Pro Shootout on Sparkin Affairs

The premier event for Friday evening was the Outta Dough Masters Non Pro Shootout, and it was an impressive roster of 24 seasoned riders aged 60 and over. Prizes included a trophy saddle, gift bags, and products thanks to sponsors including Outta Dough, Merrill's Salon And Spa, Santa Cruz Animal Health, and Platinum Performance. Every entry in the class received a gift bag.

In the end, it was Randy Shepherd and Sparkin Affairs who won the class with a 213, taking home $704, a saddle, and numerous awards.

"My horse was really good tonight. It was a pretty big win for him. He ran in and stopped, turned, and circled good. One stop down the side could have been a little better, but he was really good everywhere," Shepherd said of his horse, an eight-year-old gelding by Shining Spark.

Shepherd gave a lot of credit for his win to his daughter Kylie. "She got him ready for me. She also got her daughter, my granddaughter, ready this morning, and she won her class. I ride with Yonathon Baruch and his barn, and he found this horse for me," he shared. "I thank Kylie and Yonathon."

Shepherd added a thank you to the sponsors of the event. "Thank you for sponsoring the saddle and prizes. That's really cool. Thank you to all the sponsors. Without them we couldn't have a horse show," he said.

Ron Thompon and Taris Dreamer took second in the Outta Dough Rookie Shootout with a 211, winning $704.

Trevor Dare Wins Nov. Horse Open Levels 1 & 2 on Jerseys Baby Driver

With a score of 73.5, Trevor Dare and Jerseys Baby Driver bested the field of 95 in the Novice Horse Open Levels 1 & 2. The win netted $1,946 for owner Janice Laney. “Thank you to Janice Laney for giving me the opportunity to ride this horse for her,” he said.

Dare and Jerseys Baby Driver, by Yellow Jersey out of Wind Her Up Chic, have only competed at one other event. “I showed this horse at Tulsa, and it was really good, and we marked a 220. We had some weak turns I wanted to work on, and today they were a lot better,” Dare said. “It was pretty good today. I’m going to show this horse at Oklahoma City, and I just wanted to get in there and have a good confidence builder.”

It was a great start to the week, which will quickly turn busy. Dare plans to show a couple horses in the Open classes on Thursday, help a non pro rider for the Futurity on Friday, and then show a couple horses himself in the Bill-ingsley Ford Open Futurity.

Once the SWRHA Futurity is completed, Dare turns his attention to the American Quarter Horse Association World Championship Show. “After that we’ll be focusing on the NRHA Futurity,” he said. “I thank my wife, Laura Dare. She’s always there helping me. Thanks also to Thiago Boechat, who runs Silver Spurs Equine Oklahoma, and of course the whole team at Silver Spurs Equine. They make everything happen for us.”

Taking second in the Novice Horse Open Level 2 was Cade McCutcheon and Lil Jersey, owned by Anne-Marie Burns, with a 72, worth $798. Claiming reserve in the Novice Horse Open Level

1 was Casey Deary and Quik Draw McGraw, who also marked a 73. Quik Draw McGraw, who won $610, is owned by Jody Puno and Jolan Puno.

Kary Key and Oh Yes I Can Jac Win Nov. Horse Non Pro Levels 1 & 2

Kary Key, of Millsap, Texas, competed early in the day as draw two on her horse Oh Yes I Can Jac, piloting the talented reiner to a 71.5. Unbeknownst to her, Dee Dee Boeckman and Lauren Love would also mark 71.5s, leading to a three-way tie in the Level 2 and a two-way tie in the Level 1.

Although not expecting a run-off, Key and Oh Yes I Can Jac, nicknamed “Phelps”, managed to pull off the win to win both classes, taking home prizes and checks totaling $863.

“I was actually napping when I got the call. My trainer had already gone back to the hotel, so we had to come back. I just had time to throw everything on him, lope a circle, and go in the pen,” Key recalled. “My horse was like, ‘Well, I’ve already done this before. Let’s do it again a little faster so we get it done a little quicker.’ So he wasn’t with me as much as he was earlier today, but his last stop was great and probably what did it for us.”

Key purchased Phelps, by Marthas Mega Jac out of Smart Juicy Lucy, as a three-year-old. “Lindsey McCutcheon had shown him once in Minnesota. I went and saw him and fell in love, and I’ve shown him since then,” she said. “He’s a quirky horse. Not every day is a day we can get around the pen, because he sees everything, but he’s my rock solid show horse.”

According to Key, Phelps serves an additional purpose. “He’s my Steady Eddie. He keeps me calm so I don’t think too much about my futurity horse.

My trainer is really happy I have something else to focus on,” she said with a laugh.

Key will stay busy in Ardmore, showing Phelps in more ancillary classes as well as her horse in the Custom Made Dunit Non Pro Futurity.

"I thank my mom, Pat Fletcher. She's my number one supporter. I also thank my trainer, Jonathon Gauthier. He's been great and really helps me focus in," Key said. "I have so many people who have helped. We don't have enough time to thank everyone."

What's next for Key and Phelps? The North American

Affiliate Championships held during the National Reining Horse Association Futurity in Oklahoma City.

Tying for second in the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 were Dee Dee Boeckman and Shezmylilwhizkeygirl with Lauren Love and Show Like A Dream. Both took home checks for $368. Love won an additional $197 for second in the Level 1.

Jarvis Anderson Wins Nov. Horse Open Level 2 (2) on Wicked Pretty

Jarvis Anderson and his horse Wicked Pretty have mainly shown in the major events, but Anderson elected to slow it down for the SWRHA. "It was kind of nice to show him in a more laid-back way. I was taking my time and doing everything slow. I felt like I was messing around out there," Anderson recalled of the run, in which he marked a 73.5 to win $470. "I got the score and watched the video, and decided I needed to take my time a little bit more when I showed because it looked better than my runs at the major events."

Wicked Pretty is by Pretty Peppy Chec, out of The Whizards Magic, a daughter of Whizard Jac Anderson had shown years ago. "He's a nice solid horse. He's been a finalist at the Futurity, the Derby, and the NRBC," Anderson said.

Anderson will stay busy this week. "I'm schooling a whole bunch. I have two pretty nice horses to show in the Futurity. One will go on to Oklahoma City. I've also got one to show tomorrow in the Open and Int. Open. We'll see how we can do," he said.

Anderson was quick to thank his wife, Stephanie. "She's been really supportive of me on this horse. I am always telling her she needs to show him, but I think she knows I don't want to give him up just yet, so she keeps telling me to show him. I thank her for not taking him from me just yet," he said.

Finishing second in the Novice Horse Open Level 2 was Trey Pool and Chics Gunna Gig Em with a 73, worth $323. Chics Gunna Gig Em is owned by Tracy Higgenbottom.

Dany Tremblay Pilots SB Kachinatinseltown to Nov. Horse Open Level 1 (2) Win

Dany Tremblay hadn't decided whether to school or show SB Kachinatinseltown, but the talented mare made the decision for him. "We walked in and she wanted to show. We went maneuver by maneuver, and she was super good," Tremblay said. The pair marked a 73.5 to win $397.

SB Kachinatinseltown, owned by South of the Border Horses, LLC, is a five-year-old mare by Hollywoodstinseltown out of Smart Kachina Olena. "I had her earlier this year. She has always been super talented, and we get along really good," Tremblay said. "We're qualified for the AQHA World Show and I'm excited to show her there. The owner is a nice guy and fun to work with."

Tremblay will be showing in Thursday's Open ancillary classes, and has two other entries for the Billingsley Ford Open Futurity on Saturday. "Thank you to my team. They are always helpful. Ethan Wiley, Abel Garcia, and my brother (Fred) were all here to help me," he said.

Josh Tishman and Lenas Lil Joe, owned by Steve Carr, finished second with a 73, earning $259.

Courtney Battison & Corona Tag Win Wednesday's Nov. Horse Non Pro Levels 1 & 2 (2)

During Wednesday's Novice Horse Non Pro classes, Courtney Battison piloted Corona Tag to the pair's highest score ever - a 71.5. "We had a great run. Every time I show her, she feels better," Battison said.

Battison has owned the talented mare, by Whiz N Tag Chex out of Kachina Oak Olena, for approximately four years. "She comes from a great family of horses. There are a lot of winners from that cross," Battison explained. "She's the only horse I'm showing here. We've qualified for the AQHA World Show, so that will be our next adventure."

Battison, of Purcell, Okla., rides with Marie Kleiner of Xtra Quarter Horses. "Thank you to Marie. She does a great job. Of course, thank you to my horse, too," Battison said.

There was a three way tie for second in both levels of the Novice Horse Non Pro classes. Teresa Putman, William Clutter, and Lauren Love each marked a 71. Putman was riding Ruf Dixie Racer and Clutter rode Shiney Spooky Whiz. Love, who rode Show Like A Dream, won the high point buckle for both levels.

Trey Pool & Chics Gunna Gig Em Claim Nov. Horse Open Level 2 High Point Championship

Trey Pool entered Chics Gunna Gig Em in the Novice Horse Open Level 2 classes at the SWRHA Futurity & Horse Show with plans to school the mare for owner Tracy Higgenbottom. The mare, however, had other plans. "Both times I was going to school her, but she kept horse showing, so there wasn't any reason to go off pattern. She showed good and was pretty honest," Pool said of the mare. The pair's consistency paid off with the Novice Horse Open Level 2 High Point Championship.

Pool has only had Chics Gunna Gig Em, by Colonels Smoking Gun and out of Smart Scooter Chic, for a couple months. "She's a nice filly. Tracy had asked me to try her a little after Tulsa," he said. "I have a big crew. Thank you to my wife, our customers, and all our help."

The Weatherford, Texas, trainer is schooling futurity horses this week, and also has some non pro clients showing. "I'll just be riding and coaching a little bit," Pool said.

Casey Deary Wins Nov. Horse Open Level 1 High Point Championship on Quik Draw McGraw

Casey Deary brought Quik Draw McGraw to Ardmore for experience. The three-year-old reining horse, owned by Jody Puno and Jolan Puno, put together two consistent runs in both slates of the Novice Horse Open Level 1 to win the High Point Championship. "I wanted to get him out and put a few runs together and make sure all the parts were working," Deary said. "It was pretty good. There were a few places where we still have a little homework to do, but he was pretty good for me. I had Mike McEntire there telling me what I needed to do to pull it off. We were laughing and cutting up through the whole run."

Quik Draw McGraw is by HF Mobster out of Nestle Quik Chic, the dam of In Like Flinn, who Deary piloted to multiple wins, including two AQHA World Championships. "This colt is cute as can be and is a talented little horse. I just had to modify a little of what I like to do to operate the way he needs," Deary explained.

Deary plans to show the flashy buckskin in Saturday's Billingsley Ford Open Futurity. "I thank his owners Jody and Jolan. They've always been great to have a really nice horses for me to go show, and they let me do what I think is best for the horses. I thank them for being great customers," Deary said.

Lauren Love Wins Nov. Horse Non Pro Levels 1 & 2 High Point Buckles with Show Like A Dream

Lauren Love only purchased Show Like A Dream a month ago, but the pair are already winners, securing the high point buckle for both levels of the Novice Horse Non Pro classes. The pair took second in the Level 1 and tied for second in the Level 2 on Tuesday, and followed that with a tie for second in both classes on Wednesday.

"She was great. I decided to bring her here and see how she was. It was my first time to take her to a show, and I didn't know what to expect. She was good and listened to me. I could tell she was paying attention to what I'd been working on," Love, of Pilot Point, Texas, said.

Love purchased Show Like A Dream, by Magnum Chic Dream out of Miss Danakanic, off of a Facebook ad. "I've just been playing with her and having a good time. She's sweet to be around," she explained. "I ride with Casey Hinton and Jimmy Van der Hoeven. I've only been riding two years and I've learned a lot from both of them. I thank them both."

Trevor Dare & Xtra Wimpys Catalyst Win Open (1)

Trevor Dare and Xtra Wimpys Catalyst have qualified to compete at the American Quarter Horse Association World Championship Show, so Dare elected to show the four-year-old reiner in the Open class in Ardmore. "I was just going to cruise him through. The last couple times we showed were really high pressure situations, so I just wanted a nice, cool down run. He ended up giving me more and was really good," Dare explained.

Dare and Xtra Wimpys Catalyst, by Wimpys Little Step out of Im Not Blonde, marked a 74.5 to win the class, collecting $1,187. Xtra Wimpys Catalyst is owned by Ixtul Quarter Horses LLC.

"I didn't do much to prepare him. The last couple times we showed I had to ask for everything he had. I've been letting a guy I work with exercise and keep him fitted up for me. I brought him here and he felt good," Dare said. "I thank the owner, Ixtul Quarter Horses, Thiago Boechat, and the whole team at Silver Spurs Oklahoma."

Dany Tremblay and Tinker With Dreams finished second in the Open. The pair marked a 74 and won $816. Tinker With Dreams is owned by Diamond Dub Quarter Horses.

Melanie Petroll Wins Int. Open (1) Co-Championship on Dun Its Red Berry

Melanie Petroll wasn't expecting to show Dun Its Red Berry at the SWRHA Futurity & Horse Show, but when owner Lisa Klaus suffered an injury, Petroll took the reins. "Unfortunately she broke her arm three days ago. She was going to show him, but I got to instead. I can't wait until she gets to show him," Petroll said. Petroll and Dun Its Red Berry marked a 71 to tie for the win of the Intermediate Open class, winning $472.

Petroll and Dun Its Red Berry, a 10-year-old gelding by Hollywood Dun It out of Great Red Berry, was owned by another of Petroll's customers for several years before Klaus purchased the gelding. "She had to retire her old show mare, so this horse is pretty special for her," Petroll explained. "He's easy to get ready. He felt good everywhere. We probably had a one-point penalty on a turn, but everywhere else he was really solid. He was very honest today."

Melanie's husband Sebastian will be showing in the Billingsley Ford Open Futurity on Saturday, and the couple have several customers showing throughout the week. "I thank Lisa Klaus, my husband, the girls who work for us, and all our customers," she said.

Tying for the win of the Intermediate Open was Gloria Spiaggi and Mizzen You, owned by Reign Quarter Horses

LLC. Mizzen You, by Jacs Electric Spark out of West Coast Mizzen, won $472.

Eva Rittner & Shesa Lil Joe Win Ltd. Open and Rookie Pro (1)

It was the first time for Eva Rittner to show Shesa Lil Joe, and the pair marked a 71.5 to win both the Limited Open and Rookie Professional on Thursday, pocketing $434.

Shesa Lil Joe is owned by Terry Ranch. "We have had her in the barn since the beginning of the year. She's a five-year-old mare. I've been riding her just a little bit," said Rittner, who hails from Germany but now lives in Gainesville, Texas. "She was great. She's really physical, so everything is easy for her. I didn't know what to expect in the show pen because it was my first time to show her. It was kind of like a test ride, but she was with me all the time. I had so much fun showing her," Rittner said.

Rittner added, "I thank my husband, Luke, and her owner for letting me show her. I also thank all my friends and everyone working so hard around the ranch."

There was a three-way tie for second in the Limited Open between Lorenzo Concarella, Melanie Petroll, and Matteo Rondanina. Concarella was riding Gotta Shotta Whiz, owned by ELC Performance Horses LLC, while Petroll rode Dun Its Red Berry, owned by Lisa Klaus. Rondanina was riding Ruf HeartedChic, owned by Angelo Capitelli.

Taking second in the Rookie Professional was Niv Bar-Am and Mr Gunna Chic, owned by Misty Valley Performance Horses.

McKinnon Larcombe & Designed With Shine Sweep First Slate of Non Pro Ancillary Classes

The team of McKinnon Larcombe and Designed With Shine have dominated Non Pro ancillary classes in 2019. The duo did it again in Ardmore, winning the Non Pro, Int. Non Pro, and Ltd. Non Pro classes on Thursday with a score of 74.5. The day's work netted $1,603.

"She was good like she always is. She always has a certain feeling about her that I know when she is going to be good, and I was warming her up out back and she had that feel. I knew if the run wasn't good it was because I screwed up. We went in and she was good everywhere," she said. "This is one of those arenas that horses can have a hard time focusing. She was looking around as we went in, but as soon as we started to show she was all business and did her job."

The first time Larcombe showed Designed With Shine, by Smart And Shiney out of Taris Designer Genes, was at the Tulsa Ride & Slide. "I only showed her twice there, and then we've only really gone to the major events. I've really, in the scheme of things, haven't shown her all that much," she said. "But she's always the same and keeps getting better."

Larcombe will show Designed With Shine again on Sunday in the Non Pro and Youth classes, but throughout the week will be helping her father, Martin Larcombe, and taking care of her other business. "I have my photography business. I also work for a handful of trainers and owners running their social media and doing their marketing. It is enjoyable to me because that is something I really love to do. I love the horse industry and helping people out. It's become a full time thing," the 18-year-old said. "Plus, at the barn I'm always saddling and helping my dad out. I can't complain. I could be saying I'm bored with nothing to do."

Larcombe added, "I thank my Aunt Shauna Larcombe, who owns this mare, my parents, and the whole crew back at the barn."

Taylor Sheridan and his horse Hot Hollywood Whizky finished second in the Non Pro and Int. Non Pro, and tied for second in the Ltd. Non Pro, with a score of 72. The pair won $1,281. Dana Pastorino and her horse Scootin Through Town also marked a 72 to tie for second in the Ltd. Non Pro, winning $73.

Maria Renzi & Mobster Bay Win Rookie Level 2 (1) and Prime Time Rookie (1)

With her horse Mobster Bay, Maria Renzi won the first slate of both the Rookie Level 2 and the Prime Time Rookie. The pair had a bobble in Thursday's classes, so Renzi's goal for the day was to fix what had gone wrong. "We fixed that today. Mathieu (Buton) gave me a few cues to show him. We went in quietly and I let him look around, and I felt like he was going to be there for me," she said. "I won just by fixing what was bad yesterday. It was awesome."

Billy Williams had shown Mobster Bay, by HF Mobster out of Shiney My Bay, as a three-year-old, and Renzi elected to keep the now four-year-old reiner. "I needed a new horse. I loved him, and even though he wasn't really for me, we fought through it, and I think we clicked today," she said. "First and foremost, I thank Mathieu Buton. He's amazing. I also thank Billy. He trained that horse and kept him honest and quiet, and I'm so appreciative of that."

Renzi, of Fairview, Texas, is looking forward to possibly showing in the derbies in 2020. "Hopefully, we have work to do, but that's what I'm hoping for next year," she said. "I'm so glad we have these rookie classes for us to start out with."

Valencia Pitzing took second in the Prime Time Rookie, second in the Rookie 1, and tied for second in the Rookie 2 on her horse RC Fashion Chic. Tying with Pitzing for second in the Rookie 2 was Natalie Mauzerall and Heavens Bells.

Emilee Radford Wins Rookie 1 (1) on Wimpyslittlecadillac

Emilee Radford bought Wimpyslittlecadillac at the 2018 NRHA Futurity. "He's just been awesome. We love him," she said of the horse they call "Skip".

Radford and Skip marked a 70.5 to win the Rookie Level 1. "It was really good. I just tried to be slow and correct. He was good and there with me, and very patient. Mirjam Stillo is a great coach, and this horse is pretty easy going," she said.

It was the last show of the year for Radford and Wimpyslittlecadillac, by Wimpys Little Step out of Tejana Chic. "We're actually going to head home and get warm. We'll be back next year," Radford said. "I thank the whole team at Mirjam's. She and Andrea are great, and so are their help. I also thank my husband who supports all the shenanigans."

Layton Tishman & Chics Love Me Wimpy Win Green Reiner Levels 1 & 2 (1)

It was only Layton Tishman's second time to ride Chics Love Me Wimpy - the first being at last year's SWRHA Futurity and Horse Show. This time the duo won the Green Reiner Levels 1 & 2 with a 71. Chics Love Me Wimpy, by Wimpys Little Step out of Dream About Magic, is owned by Debra Good.

"Debbie was sweet enough to let me ride him again today, and he was super fun. He was good today. He was smooth and he takes care of you so you don't have to worry about much," Tishman said. "This might be an addiction now, so I might need a horse of my own soon."

Tishman will show Chics Love Me Wimpy again in Saturday's Green Reiner classes, and watch her husband, Josh Tishman, compete in open classes. "I thank Debbie and Josh. I have a great team to help me," she said.

Eduardo Ramirez took second in both the Green Reiner Levels 1 and 2 on his horse Jeweled Out with a 70.5.

Debbie Rhodes Wins Green Prime Time (1) on Mercedes Gotta Gun

Riding her horse Mercedes Gotta Gun, Debbie Rhodes won the first slate of the Green Prime Time. "It went well. She was listening to me. My circles were good. I need to work on my lead changes, but other than that I felt good about it. It was fun," Rhodes said.

Rhodes purchased Mercedes Gotta Gun, by Cromed Out Mercedes out of Gun Zandwich, two years ago from Nick Valentine. "She's just a sweet mare. She takes care of me and gives me confidence," she said. "I thank my trainer, Pierre-Luc Phaneuf. If it wasn't for him I couldn't do any of this. He's my rock. I also thank Olivia, my daughter-in-law. She helps me a lot," Rhodes said.

Rhodes will show in a few more classes over the week-end, and then Mercedes Gotta Gun will go with home with Phaneuf. "She'll stay with him for a few months and then we will start back the first of February," she said.

Skyler Deshotels Ties for Win of Youth 14-18 (1) on Xtra What A Voodoo Riding her five-year-old mare Xtra What A Voodoo, Skyler Deshotels tied for the win of the first slate of the Youth 14 - 18 class. Deshotels, of Sherman, Texas, has had the mare, by Shiners Voodoo Dr out of What A Hen, about a year. "We're just now starting to get along really well. Today she was really great. She and I both held it together, and everything came together today," she said.

Deshotels, who is 16 years old, added, "Thank you to my trainer Sebastian Petroll, his wife, Melanie, and all the people who work for them."

Deshotels will return to show in the youth classes on Sunday.

Josie Spratt & Whiz I Was An Okie Tie for Win of Youth 14-18 (1)

Josie Spratt says her mare, Whiz I Was An Okie, can be quite a brat, but is a good horse. The mare proved it when she helped Spratt tie for the win of the Youth 14 - 18 with a 71.5. "She's a star. I just sit up there and hope I stay on. I'm done showing today but will come back Sunday to show in the Youth classes," Spratt, of Purcell, Okla., said.

Whiz I Was An Okie, a six-year-old, is by Pale Face Dunit out of HR Foxie Okie Whiz. She and Spratt will next show at the North American Affiliate Regional Championships in Oklahoma City. "I thank Matt Cunningham for being my trainer, and my mom Stacy Wilkes. I've had some bad runs and she keeps letting me show," Spratt said.

Manon Fontaine Wins Unrestricted Youth (1) on Mobster Bay

Mobster Bay pulled double-duty on Friday, winning the Rookie Level 2 and Rookie Prime Time with owner Maria Renzi earlier in the day, then topped the unrestricted youth in the afternoon with Manon Fontaine.

"This was the first time I showed her. It was just incredible. The horse was super nice and it was really fun," Fontaine said.

Fontaine, an 18-year-old from France, is interning for Mathieu Buton. "I thank Maria. She is so nice and is a really good person. She gave me a super opportunity to show her horse today. I also thank Mathieu," she said.

Sorrel Schreibvogel Wins 13 & Under (1) on Dun Its Chico

Riding the veteran reiner Dun Its Chico, Sorrel Schreibvogel marked a 70.5 to win the Youth 13 & Under. "It was cold and he was pretty fresh, but we did lots of walking and trotting around to calm him down," she said.

Schreibvogel has been showing Dun Its Chico, by Hollywood Dun It out of Smart Chinas Chic, for four years. "He's just great. I love stops on him. I thank my parents and grandparents for working with me and helping me," the 12-year-old said.

Tying for second in the 13 & Under were Faith Horner with Dreamin Ruf, and Natalie Mauzerall on Heavens Bells.

Kynley Bell & Chics Want My Number Win Youth Short Stirrup (1)

Kynley Bell bested the field of Short Stirrup riders to win the class with Chics Want My Number. The pair marked a

70. "I had a great run. I just hope I do better on my circles tomorrow. I'll do my best," she said. "I didn't get much practice in because it's been really raining at home."

Kynley and her sister Lydia share Chics Want My Number, an eight-year-old by Wimpys Little Step out of Dixie Chic Olena. "My sister helps me a lot. She really knows him and gives me tips because she knows how to ride him more. You need an hour to get him focused," Kynley explained. "I thank my sister and my mom and dad. They really help me."

William Horner Wins Walk/Trot on Dreamin Ruf

Riding Dreamin Ruf, William Horner won the Walk/Trot class at the SWRHA Futurity and Horse Show for the second year in a row. "It went good today. I had a plan. I studied the pattern before I went in," he said of his winning strategy.

Dreamin Ruf, by Magnum Chic

Dream out of Lil Ruf Jessie, is typically ridden by William's sister Faith. "I thank my mom, my sister, and my dad," William, who wants to be a YouTuber when he grows up, said.

Multiple Champions Crowned in Leadline

The Leadline class at the SWRHA Futurity and Horse Show was full of dragons, sharks, ghosts, cowgirls, princesses, and more, making it extra hard for the judge to declare a winner. In the end, all the entries were tied and declared grand champions.

Sadie Crawley, Nino Buton, Josoph Tallone, Etta Piper, Ryder Pole, Bae Cruz, Triston Visser, Adeline Heule, Lani Pool, Lexi Laster, Joy Deary, Olivia Deary, Laney Petroll were the winners.

Layton Tishman Wins Green Reiner Level 1 & 2 (2) and Green Reiner Level 1 & 2 High Point

With an impressive 72.5, Layton Tishman and Chics Love Me Wimpy swept the Green Reiner Levels 1 & 2 classes and secured the high point buckle for both classes. It was only the third time for Tishman to show the talented reiner who is owned by Debra Good.

"I pushed him a little harder today than yesterday, and he stayed with me pretty good. He had his turns working better so that was even more fun," Tishman said. "My husband Josh helped me with some of my circles, but other than that we stayed consistent."

Chics Love Me Wimpy is a nine-year-old gelding by Wimpys Little Step out of Dream About Magic. His owner, Good, will be showing him in classes at the NRHA Futurity. "Debbie has been really gracious to let me show him here." She added, "I thank Debbie. She is awesome and so sweet and kind to let me use him. I also thank Josh for helping me, and the whole Deary team."

So will Tishman be getting a reiner of her own? "The seed has been planted. I would love to, but we will see. I'm definitely hooked," she said.

Finishing second in Green Reiner Level 2 was Faith Horner and Dreamin Ruf with a 72. Reserve in the Green Reiner Level 1 was Abigail Zuch and Dun Smarter, who also marked a 72.

Debbie Rhodes & Mercedes Gotta Gun Win Green Prime Time High Point

Consistency paid off for Debbie Rhodes and her horse Mercedes Gotta Gun. They paired two solid runs to win the Green Prime Time High Point Championship. "I've been playing at reining for about four years, but I'm getting serious now," Rhodes shared.

"Today was ok. It wasn't as good as yesterday, but she did good for me. It was all rider errors."

Rhodes gave credit for her win to several people. "I thank Pierre-Luc Phaneuf, my trainer. I couldn't do it without him. I thank my husband for being supportive, and my friend Mindy Grey who is always there for me. I also thank my daughter-in-law Olivia who is always helping and pushing me," she said.

Mercedes Gotta Gun, by Cromed Out Mercedes out of Gun Zandwich, will be spending the winter with Phaneuf. "She's going back to PLuc's for few months, and we will start back showing in February. I hope by then we will have improved more," she said.

Denise Severson-Hobbs Wins Green Prime Time (2) on Spin N Wimp

Denise Severson-Hobbs believes age is just a number, and proved that when she began riding reiners a few years ago. On Friday night she competed in the Outta Dough Non Pro Masters Shootout, and on Saturday she won the Green Prime Time class. "I'm thrilled to win and be here riding in prime time. I have to tell everyone it is never too late to start," she said. "Today was really fun, and the Masters last night was very exciting. I think the Masters and Prime Time are so important to our industry."

Hobb's found her equine partner, Spin N Wimp, through her trainer Josh Crawley. "My horse is a big boy. Josh found him at the McCutcheon's. He called and told me he found a one in a million horse, and this horse is that!" Severson-Hobbs shared. Spin N Wimp is by Wimpys Little Step out of Spinning Beauty. "I thank my trainer Josh Crawley who has been completely dedicated to me and my horse, and my husband who has to drag me home. I also thank the organization for having this event. It's been a great show."

There's no denying that Severson-Hobbs jumped in with both feet. "I own a futurity horse, too, that Josh is showing today. Then we're going to show at the Futurity in Oklahoma City," she shared.

Kahlayah Rehkopf finished second in the Green Prime Time on her horse Annies Custom Pistol.

Renata Lemann & Survivorman Win Ride & Slide Non Pro Level 2 (1)

On Friday, Renata Lemann won the Ride & Slide Non Pro Level 2 (1) with her horse Survivorman. "It was our second run of the day. We were a 70 in the Green Reiner, and our second run was steady. I just went in to school, and in the end we marked another 70, so that was a nice surprise," she recalled.

Lemann, of Miami, Florida, has been riding reiners for several years. "I have been riding on and off. I am a person who has never been close to my horse because I live in the city. I'm a clinical psychologist and work with tough patients, so the horse is an escape from my world. I don't get to train like everyone else," she said. "I live in Miami and I see patients online in Brazil and I'll go to Brazil to see patients,

Lemann made sure to thank several people, including her trainer Eduardo Salgado. "Thank you to Eduardo for all his hard work with me, and his wife Tatiana. Thank you to my cousin. She always supports me through the competition, and thank you to the sponsors here," she said.

Finishing second in the Ride & Slide Non Pro Level 2 (1) was Emily Ramsay and Montana Code.

Barak Perera Wins Ride & Slide Open Level 2 (2) and High Point on Guns Fortunate Son

Consistency paid off for Barak Perera and Guns Fortunate Son in the Ride & Slide Open Level 2. They marked identical scores in both slates, winning the class both days and securing the high point buckle.

It was the first buckle for Perera, who works for Yonathon Baruch. "It's very exciting to win the buckle," he said. "He's an easy horse to ride. It was pretty much the same run as yesterday."

Guns Fortunate Son, a six-year-old by Colonels Smoking Gun out of Custom Made Dunit, is owned by Kristin Catacuzene. "I appreciate the opportunity the owner gave me to ride this horse. I also thank Yonathon," Perera said.

Taking second in the Ride & Slide Open Level 2 (2) was Jose Arturo Sanchez with Tinseltown Sniper.

Yoshichika Ando & Redd Snapper Win Ride & Slide Non Pro Level 2 (2) and High Point

Yoshichika Ando resides near Osaka, Japan, but several times a year flies to the United States to ride reining horses with Joe Schmidt. At the SWRHA Futurity and Horse Show, Ando piloted his horse to back-to-back wins in the Ride & Slide Non Pro Level 2, securing the class's high point buckle.

"For me she is difficult, but she is very good to study reining," Ando said of Redd Snapper, by Master Snapper out of A Ruf Mistress. "I have been riding her for two years."

The next stop for Ando will be the Futurity in Oklahoma City. "I thank my wife, Joe Schmidt, and the Joe Schmidt Reining Horses staff," he said.

Zoe Campanga Wins Ride & Slide Open Level 1 (2) and High Point on Steppin Down

Zoe Campanga rode Steppin Down to win the Ride & Slide Open Level 1 (2) and high point championship. The duo won the class both days. "It went pretty good today. We had some things we did today that were better than yesterday, and I was happy," Campanga said. "I took more time and was more relaxed than yesterday. I was glad to win the buckle."

the opportunity to have a horse that was experienced to ride in the show pen," Meyers said.

Campanga, who has only been riding reiners for a year, was thankful. "I thank Susan, Jared Leclair, and Shotgun," she said. Meyers added, "Thank you to all the people that help us get ready for these shows."

Steppin Down, by Wimpys Little Step out of GS Shot Gun Wedding, is owned by Susan Meyer. "I wanted Zoe to have Click Here to watch Zoe's interview with Virtual Horse Help.

Candice Noyce & Traditional Fudge Win Ride & Slide Non Pro Level 1 (2)

Candice Noyce grew up riding hunter-jumpers, but recently decided to try her hand in the reining pen. On Saturday, she competed twice, finishing tied for sixth in the Green Reiner Level 1 and winning the Ride & Slide Non Pro Level 1 on Traditional Fudge. "I thought today went really well. Normally I zero because I overspin on my first turnarounds, and I was really proud of myself that I didn't do that today," she said.

Traditional Fudge is owned by JD and Stacey Roberson. "I lease him from JD and Stacey. They were kind enough to lease him to me after my mare got hurt. I've been showing him all summer, and it's been fun," she said.

Competing in Ardmore was a last minute decision. "I wanted to show here because I knew the ground would be good, and this is a really fun show to be at, so I decided to come," she said. "I definitely thank JD and Stacy, and Mike Keller has been a huge help for me. My husband Kyle Noyce helps me, too, but as you can expect, sometimes having a husband tell you what to do doesn't always work so well."

Taking second in the Ride & Slide Non Pro Level 1 (2) was Sarah Catherine North and Serenades Dream.

Abigayle Mixon Wins Open High Point on Lil Miss Whizzy

Abigayle Mixon and Lil Miss Whizzy won the Open high point buckle with two consistent runs. "She's a four-year-old mare I got in May this year. She hadn't been shown before I got her, and she just needed to be finished and get in the show ring," Mixon explained. "She really felt like she came on here. Things started clicking and she showed really well."

Lil Miss Whizzy, by Topsail Whiz out of Shining Lil Miss, is owned by Donald Duke. "She'll get the rest of the year off and then we will get ready for shows next spring. I hope to hit some derbies with her next year," Mixon said. "I thank Donald Duke for giving me the opportunity to show her and my husband and family who are amazing. I have some awesome help. It's a team effort from our barn. Everyone pitches in and helps me do what I do. I couldn't do it without any of them."

Dany Tremblay & Thug Life Win Open (2)

With a score of 73, Dany Tremblay and Thug Life won Sunday's Open Class, pocketing a cool $509. "It was a good run. I didn't go really, really hard. I wanted to get some confidence for my horse. He's been showing quite hard lately," Tremblay said.

Thug Life is a four-year-old stallion by HF Mobster out of West Coast Smart. He was an Open Futurity finalist, and also an Open finalist at the National Reining Breeders Classic. "I thought he just needed to go in the pen and not go too hard, but he was still good and honest. I want to have him be a nice horse for next year," Tremblay said. "We've had a great show this weekend. The SWRHA Futurity is a fun show every year. It's close to home and is a great show."

Shane Brown and Xtra Chex Step finished second in the Open with a 72.5, winning $396 for owner Susan Harding.

Niv Bar-Am Wins High Point for Ltd. Open & Rooke Pro. on Mr Gunna Chic

Riding Mr Gunna Chic, Niv Bar-Am won the high point buckle for both the Limited Open and the Rookie Professional. Mr Gunna Chic, by Gunnatrashya out of Sanger Chic, is owned by Misty Valley Performance Horses. "We just brought him back to work recently, and here we are," Bar-Am said. "The horse was really good in the first go, and the second run was really consistent.

We did some homework and got it done."

Bar-Am said the next step is to go home, regroup, and plan for next year. "I thank Yonathon Baruch, and the owner of the ranch John and Christy. Thank you to everyone," he said.

Hava Vital & FM Cottonwood Win Int. Open (2) and High Point

Hava Vital piloted FM Cottonwood to not only win the Intermediate Open (2), but also the high point of the class. FM Cottonwood, by Colonels Smoking Gun out of Sonita Lena Chic, is owned by Carlton and Khris Crowe.

McKinnon Larcombe & Designed With Shine Sweep Non Pro Classes and Win High Point Buckles

McKinnon Larcombe saved the best for the last day of competition. Riding the talented mare Designed With Shine, Larcombe won the Non Pro, Intermediate Non Pro, and Limited Non Pro classes, as well as the Youth 14 - 18. The pair also claimed the high point buckles for each of those classes and collected more than $900. Larcombe also was awarded the commemorative Carla Clay buckle.

"She was exceptional in the Non Pro. This morning I probably only loped around five minutes in the pen. She felt ready. That back pen is probably not the most horse-friendly pen to show in, but she just went in there and did her thing. She turned well and circled pretty like she always does. I was really happy with her," Larcombe said of her 73.5 in the Non Pro classes.

Shortly after, the pair marked a 72.5 in the Youth. "I probably went a little less with the speed in the youth. I didn't want to run her hard. A few spots she beat me to a few things, but she is so consistent everywhere I can't blame her. If she beats me every now and then I'm not going to get mad," she said.

Larcombe and Designed With Shine, by Smart And Shiny out of Taris Designer Genes, are qualified to compete in the North American Affiliate Championships in the Non Pro, Intermediate Non Pro, Limited Non Pro, and Youth 14 - 18. "I feel very confident going into the affiliates. She gives me all the confidence in the world. I know I have the same horse underneath me every time I go in the pen," Larcombe said. "I'm really excited and looking forward to showing in Oklahoma City. I thank my aunt Shauna, my parents, and everyone in the barn."

Sabrina Pickett and Lil Ruf Rhinestone finished second in the Non Pro and Intermediate Non Pro, and tied Tina Ellis and Whatacromedmercedes for second in the Limited Non Pro with a 72.

Lydia Bell and Chics Want My Number took second in the Youth 14 - 18 with a 72.

Sorrel Schreibvogel Wins Youth 13 & Under (2) and High Point on Dun Its Chico

With a 71.5, Sorrel Schreibvogel won the Youth 13 & Under (2) as well as the Unrestricted Youth (2). She also won the high point buckle for the Youth 13 & Under.

Her partner for the class was 17-year-old Dun Its Chico. "He was very good. I was very happy with him. He went to the ground so good today," Schreibvogel said of the gelding, by Hollywood Dun It out of Smart Chinas Chic. "I think we just did a little less warming up and he had more energy today. I don't think we will change anything. We will keep going with what we have and hopefully we will do good."

Schreibvogel added that Dun Its Chico loves treats. "He likes mint ones. He will definitely get some today, and he will get the week off," she said. "I thank my parents and my grandparents for working with me and helping me."

Finishing second in the Youth 13 & Under was Faith Horner and Dreamin Ruf with a 71. Emma Vanlandingham and Okie Jo Wrangler took second in the Unrestricted Youth with a 70.

Kynley Bell Wins Short Stirrup High Point on Chics Want My Number

Chics Want My Number pulled double-duty on Sunday, finishing second in the Youth 14 - 18 with Lydia Bell, and turning around to take second in the Short Stirrup and win the High Point buckle for Bell's younger sister Kynley. "We both marked a 72 today. My run went good. I did better on my circles, my stops, and my turns. I tried to ride the same as before," Kynley said. "I'm going to go home and practice and just do my best."

Chics Want My Number is by Wimpys Little Step out of Dixie Chic Olena. "I will probably take him over when she (Lydia) goes to college. She's 17, so in two years," Kynley said. "I thank my sister, my mom, and my dad."

Elle Russell Wins Short Stirrup (2) on Sunamac Red

Elle Russell had some trouble earlier in the week, so she worked extra hard for Sunday's Short Stirrup class. That dedication paid off, as she and her horse marked an impressive 72.5 to win the class. "It was a fun run," she said.

Russell was riding Sunamac Red. "I like his stops, spins, circles, and rollbacks," she said. "I think he's 13. We will probably show at Waco next."

Greg Burchett Wins Rookie Level 2 (2) and High Point on Electric Shine

Winning the Rookie Level 2 High Point buckle was extra special for Greg Burchett because his horse, Electric Shine, was one he had raised. "It's definitely exciting to win on a horse I raised. I'm looking forward to showing him more next year," he said of the four-year-old reiner, by Electric Code out of My Baby Shiner.

Burchett and Electric Shine won the Rookie Level 2 class on Sunday to clinch the high point title. "Our run was good. I was pleased with it. We need to work on a few things, but that's the way it goes," he said. "I thank Jared Leclair, Kayleigh Gerring, and all of Jared's crew that helps everyone get ready."

Brianne Forrest and her horse GT Lite tied Terry Pannell and High Roller Rooster for second in the Rookie Level 2.

Valencia Pitzing & RC Fashion Chic Win Rookie Level 1 High Point

Valencia Pitzing had never won a buckle before, but that changed on Sunday when her consistency paid off. She and her horse, RC Fashion Chic, took home the Rookie Level 1 high point buckle. "I'm so excited. This is my first I've ever won, so this is pretty special. I'll probably put it on display," she said. RC Fashion Chic is by RC Fancy Step out of Shesa very good. We're getting in sync. He's very light, and I'm having to be consistent. We're coming together, and it's awesome," she said. "It went really well today. Every run is getting better and better."

Pitzing rides with Ruben Vandorp. "My horse has been with him for four years, and Ruben is teaching me how to ride him. I thank Ruben for his help, and my family for allowing me to chase these buckles," she said.

Brianne Forrest Wins Rookie Level 1 (2) on GT Lite

Brianne Forrest piloted her horse GT Lite to win the Rookie Level 1 class on Sunday. "It went well today. We were a little short in our rundowns, but that's ok. We still had a great score," Forrest said.

Forrest purchased GT Lite, a four-year-old gelding by Gunners Tinseltown out of Nicastar Lite, earlier this year. "I bought him at the NRBC this year. This is our third show together. We've been learning and getting it together, but it's going really well," she said. "I thank the Brian Bell team for getting me prepared, as well as my boyfriend and my friends. It's been a great year."

Taking second in the Rookie Level 1 was Tiecheng Chen and Smart As A Bug.

Terry Pannell & High Roller Rooster Win Rookie Level 2 (2) and High Point

Terry Pannell says her horse High Roller Rooster is a one-in-a-million horse, and on Sunday the talented gelding helped Pannell win the Rookie Level 2 High Point championship. "He takes such good care of me. I can mess up in the show pen and he corrects himself for me. I'm very fortunate to have him," she said.

Pannell has owned High Roller Rooster, a 16-year-old by Gallo Del Cielo out of Hustlers High Roller, for 10 years. "He's the only 16-year-old two-year-old in the barn. He jumps at everything," Pannell said with a laugh.

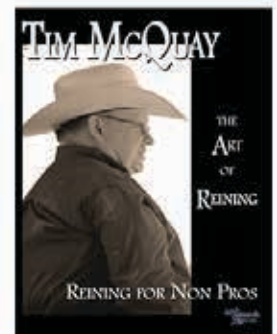

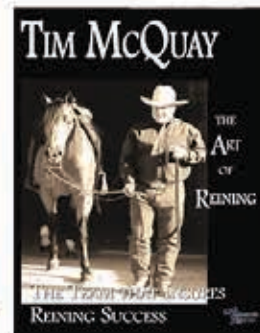

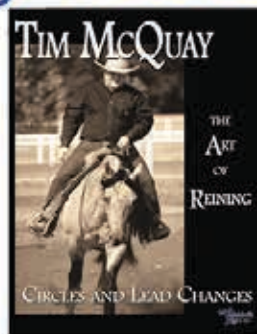

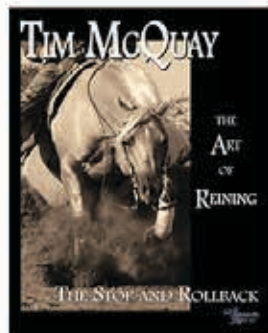

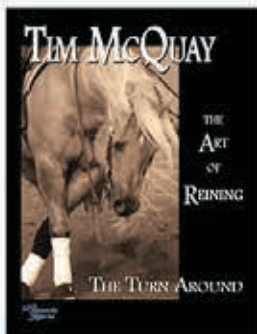

Pannell rides with Jared Leclair. "I don't know what I would do without him. He will probably have no hair or be grey by the time I quit riding. He's a wonderful coach," Pannell said. "I was his very first customer years ago. When you've got the best, why go anywhere else?"

Valencia Pitzing and RC Fashion Chic finished second in the Prime Time Rookie.

LETTER FROM JULEE SMITH REGARDING THE KRHA REIN IN CANCER BENEFIT SHOW

I found out the day after Christmas that I had Breast Cancer - stage 2 invasive ductile carcinoma to be specific. As you know that is something no one ever wants to hear. I am very grateful that they found it early and after having surgery, radiation and medication, I am learning to find my new normal and have since made it my mission to encourage everyone I encounter to have their yearly screenings for all types of cancer. Early detection truly saves lives - it did mine.

Through it all, I have had so much encouragement and well wishes from our reining family. I am and have been a member of KRHA for quite some time. My husband is a trainer and the shows in Kentucky are a barn favorite. Everyone there is so friendly and helpful. The owner of the facility, Bruce Brown, will go out of his way to accommodate in any way that he can.

The thought of wanting to raise money for Rein In Cancer to help others exceeded any of my wildest dreams, but when I brought up the idea of having a cancer awareness fund raiser to KRHA member Jessica Heskell, she said without hesitation, "Let's do it!!" With her amazing efforts and the support from so many wonderful sponsors we were able to put on a fun ride for the ribbon competition, raffle and silent action at the last KRHA show of the year!

Monica Curtis Stephens & her young friend winning paintings donated by Kara Gray

To all of my KRHA family, be proud to know you will be making someone else's journey in the fight against this dreaded disease easier with your loving hearts and generous support! My heart is so full!

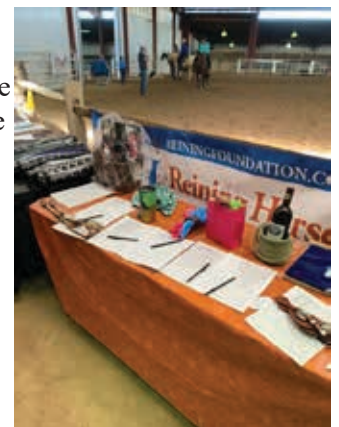

Sincerely,
Julee Smith

The members and show participants were so supportive, raising $3,665 for Rein In Cancer! Not one person refused to donate to the silent auction, to prizes for our ribbon honor classes, or to those raffles! Riding teams were formed, people were bidding on auction items, and many wanted purchased raffle tickets for the Shorty's gift certificate and the Saguaro Show Pads!

It is so wonderful knowing the funds raised will go to help others at a time when their lives have also been turned upside down by the words "you have cancer." My hope is that those at the show were encouraged to not put off the life saving screenings.

I can't begin to thank everyone enough, especially Jessica Heskell - my partner with the same dream - and everyone from our sponsors to our participants for making it happen! I love them all! Congratulations to Faye Morris, winner of the Shorty's drawing, as well as Shelby Logan Friedman and Amy Jo Riffiee each having won the Saguaro Show pads and to Team McGuire for winning the team competition!

OUR CONDOLENCES: PAT FEUERSTEIN

On October 18, 2019, the reining family lost a beloved member and longtime supporter of the industry, NRHA Hall of Fame inductee Pat Feuerstein. Pat first became involved with NRHA in 1972, competing as a non pro before she began assisting the East Coast Reiners Association with show administration and more. As an accomplished writer, Pat served as the feature editor of the NRHA Reiner at the magazine's launch in 1980. She held that position until 1993 and continued to work closely with NRHA and contribute to the NRHA Reiner for many years. She also served as senior reining editor for NRHA Corporate Partner Quarter Horse News and was published in several other equine publications throughout her career. In 2004, Pat was inducted into the NRHA Hall of Fame as a tribute to her many contributions to the sport. Throughout her life, Pat remained dedicated to the reining industry, and her influence will live on in the hearts of all who knew her. Our deepest condolences to Pat's husband of 54 years, Bob, and their two children, Jean and Paul.

HERE COMES THE BOON AND LANCE JOHNSTON EARNED $155,000 AS CHAMPIONS OF THE NRCHA OPEN FUTURITY[®], PRESENTED BY METALLIC CAT, AND CINCH INTERMEDIATE OPEN

The highly anticipated National Reined Cow Horse Association Snaffle Bit Futurity[®], presented by Metallic Cat, completed its 50th year and third in Fort Worth, Texas, the NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity is among the most challenging contests in the Western performance horse industry. The event payout exceeded $1.2 million with the Open Futurity Champion receiving a hefty $125,000.

The action took place at Will Rogers Memorial Center October 4 - 19, 2019. With record entries, an expanded schedule and literally something for everyone, such as horse sales, banquets and shopping, the NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity was the event to attend!

The reined cow horse discipline is known to produce finished bridle horses that embody the training pinnacle of

the only digital magazine on an app entirely dedicated to the sport of reining, its horses and all its protagonists throughout the world

In the March magazine:

- Our cover trainer of March is Duane Latimer, reigning Champion of the NRBC Open, who we interviewed in the lead-up to the 2019 edition. The Canadian-born trainer talked about his system for teaching the stop and rollback, and how experience is healthy for a trainer to learn how to control his own stress as well as that of his horses and to understand when it is time to stop

- The 28th of February marked the deadline for presenting the 'non-binding expression of interest' in hosting the next edition of the World Championships in 2022 for the various equestrian disciplines: Italy stepped forward to take pole position in this great challenge, with the splendid facility of Elementa near Rome. At the very same time by coincidence, members of the McCutcheon family (Tom, Mandy and Cade) were present in Rome as guests of Maria Cecilia Fiorucci of Elementa. We chatted with them about the WEG, among other things...

- We present another four-legged star, getting to know more about the beautiful mare Dun It For Chex, owned by Cardinal Reining Horses (Aubrey, Tx) and NRHA Hall of Famer since June 2018. She looks to be the horse that will become the second Million Dollar Dam in history after Ebony Shines

- A much-appreciated guest in this issue is Doug Allen from Great Britain: a rider and judge at the highest levels, for the readers of Horsense he reveals all the secrets of the freeze-up as seen from the 'chair' as well as answering some more general questions on the work of an NRHA judge

- Finally, our journey continues among those companies proposing innovative ideas for the sports horse and reining in particular: this time we talk with Gianni Guidolin, of the international feed group that bears this surname. Gianni explains how despite its size it has retained an 'artisan's' vocation traditional Vaquero horsemanship, progressing from the snaffle bit through the hackamore and two rein phases. Elite bridle horses and snaffle bit horses were both showcased today at the $1.2 million National Reined Cow Horse Association Snaffle Bit Futurity®, presented by Metallic Cat, in Fort Worth, Texas, at Will Rogers Memorial Center.

In customary reined cow horse fashion, Open, Intermediate Open and Limited Open championships at the $1.2 million dollar National Reined Cow Horse Association Snaffle Bit Futurity®, presented by Metallic Cat, would be decided by the outcome of the fence work. The 50th running of the NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity opened with red carpet introductions honoring the 25 Open Finalist owners and riders, after which time the Open Futurity rein work, Intermediate and Limited Open cow work, and thrilling Open cow work finals rocked the famed Will Rogers Coliseum in Fort Worth, Texas.

After posting an outstanding 220 in the rein work, Lance Johnston and Here Comes The Boon (Once In A Blu Boon x Sta Outta My Shorts x Shorty Lena) trailed the leaders, Kelby Phillips and Nineteen Ten (Hickory Holly Time x Lil Miss Shiney Chex x Shining Spark), by 7.5 points going into the cow work. Never a hair out of position on a challenging cow, Johnston and the 2016 roan stallion owned by Rocking BS Ranch and bred by Rob A. Brown, lowered the boom to overtake the lead with a score of 226.5. After working 11th in the draw to tie for the lead, Johnston waited as one by one the greatest 3-year-old three-event equines ridden by some of the most accomplished horsemen and –women challenged his cumulative score of 664.5 (220 rein/ 218 herd/ 226.5 cow)—but came up short despite valiant efforts. While Johnston and Phillips were tied for the overall lead after Phillips rode Nineteen Ten to a solid 219 on the cow, with the tiebreaker being the cow work score, Nineteen Ten would finish as reserve champion with a 664.5 (224 herd/ 221.5 rein/ 219 cow). The $125,000 Open Futurity paycheck was officially awarded to Here Comes The Boon ridden by Lance Johnston for Rocking BS Ranch.

When interviewed by in-arena color commentator and NRCHA professional Brady Weaver, a jubilant Johnston says he knew he needed to lay down a precise run to challenge the lead.

“I thought it was going to take a Charolais cow to beat Kelby,” said Johnston, knowing they’d been tough but yielded high marks if mastered. “But then Kelby told me we were only working black cows and I thought ‘oh, they’re not going to be enough.’ I thought, ‘well I just need to be really accurate and they’ll pay me if I’m accurate.’ But then that black cow came out and he threw his head up and snorted at me a little bit and I knew I had my cow.”

Indeed he did. Having already cashed a fourth place paycheck for $8,512 in the NRCHA Western Bloodstock Sale Incentive Open composite, Johnston said how pleased he was that Brent and Susie Stewart of Rocking BS Ranch purchased Here Comes The Boon at his urging.

“They’re awesome,” said Johnston of his owners. “Anybody who knows them knows what great people they are.”

Kelby Phillips & Nineteen Ten

Johnston expressed appreciation for his wife Tammy and her unyielding support and hard work, as well as for his cow horse friends and family. “Without my wife Tammy I couldn’t make it here,” said Johnston. “She does everything for me. Three years ago at the [NRCHA] Stakes I couldn’t even dress myself, she had to do everything for me.”

Johnston has straightforward plans for the future—to continue showing great horses in the NRCHA. “I ain’t quitting,” he said. “I love this. I love the reined cow horse family.”

The Open Futurity Champion was awarded a host of first-class awards including a stunning Martin Saddlery Custom Saddle courtesy of Matthews Cutting Horses, an original CR Morrison Bronze Trophy, Gist Silversmith’s custom buckle sponsored by The Final Cut Ranch, pair of Rios of Mercedes cowboy boots, 100X custom cowboy hat from the Western Legacy Company, Classic Equine monogrammed polar fleece cooler, product from Platinum Performance, monogrammed jacket by CINCH JEANS, and 25 pounds of UltraCruz EQ Advanced Gastric Support. As owner of the Open Futurity Champion, Rocking BS Ranch was awarded a pair of Rios of Mercedes cowboy boots. Third place received a Gist Silversmith's custom buckle sponsored by Lone Oak Performance Horses, one gallon of UltraCruz Detangler Spray, product from Platinum Performance and a monogrammed CINCH jacket.

Winning fourth in the Open Futurity was Fabulous Fletch

(Royal Fletch x Little Smart Ginger x Smart Little Lena), ridden by Boyd Rice for Kit and Charlie Moncrief to a 660 (220 herd/ 217.5 rein/ 222.5) worth $55,000. Fourth place received a Gist Silversmith's custom buckle sponsored by Corey Cushing Performance Horses, product from Platinum Performance and a monogrammed CINCH jacket. Rice added another $20,000 to Fabulous Fletch's earnings by finishing third in the CINCH Intermediate Open.

In addition to significant cash rewards, fifth through 10th place in the Open Futurity received a Gist Silversmith's custom buckle sponsored by Burnett Ranches and 6666's, product from Platinum Performance and a monogrammed CINCH jacket. Eleventh place in the Open Futurity received a Gist Silversmith's custom buckle sponsored by Lil Catbaloo, product from Platinum Performance and a monogrammed CINCH jacket. Twelfth through 25th place in the Open Futurity received a Gist Silversmith's custom buckle sponsored by Burnett Ranches and 6666's, product from Platinum Performance and a monogrammed CINCH jacket. All finalists received a paycheck of $10,000 or more depending upon their final placing. All Open Finalists received a commemorative Gist Pin sponsored by Cowboy Publishing Group, monogrammed jacket by CINCH Jeans and product from Platinum Performance.

CINCH Intermediate Open Futurity

Here Comes The Boon (Once In A Blu Boon x Sta Outta My Shorts x Shorty Lena), owned by Rocking BS Ranch and ridden by Lance Johnston, took the CINCH Intermediate Championship and $30,000 home to Lindsay, California. In addition to their Open Futurity prizes, the CINCH

Intermediate championship was accompanied by a first-class prize package including a Bob's Custom Saddle courtesy of CINCH, a CR Morrison bronze finish trophy and Gist Silversmith's custom buckle sponsored by Kit Kat Sugar, Classic Equine monogrammed polar fleece cooler, product from Platinum Performance, and monogrammed jacket by CINCH JEANS.

Reserve CINCH Intermediate Open Champion TBR

Wright Moonshine (Cats Moonshine x Wright Time To Play x Lenas Wright On), ridden expertly by Shane Steffen to a 221.5 down the fence for a 664 composite, earned $25,000 for owner Darci Roat. Steffen, of Powell Butte, Oregon, scored 220.5 in the rein work and 222 out of the herd en route to the cow) to finish fourth in the Intermediate for $14,450. Third through 10th place in the CINCH Intermediate Open Futurity received a Gist Silversmith's custom buckle sponsored by Kit Kat Sugar, product from Platinum Performance, and monogrammed CINCH jacket.

Limited Open Futurity

Bringing the Limited Open Futurity Championship and $17,534 home to Earth, Texas, was Tripp Townsend riding the Tongue River Ranch bred TRR Lucky Brazos (Pepcid x TRR Ms Lucky Gun x Playgun), thanks to a dominating fence run of 223 for a 653 composite (214 herd/ 216 rein).

TRR Lucky Brazos is owned by Kyle Brewer and Tripp Townsend. The Limited Open Futurity Champion was presented with a Bob's Custom Saddle courtesy of Todd and Pam Crawford, a Gist Silversmith's custom buckle sponsored by Boyd and Halee Rice, a CowTrac System, CR Morrison bronze finish trophy, Classic Equine monogrammed polar fleece cooler, product from Platinum Performance, and a monogrammed CINCH jacket.

Vintage Ambrosia (One Fine Vintage x Miss Fancy Juice x Smart Like Juice), ridden by James Ferreira, scored a 219.5 in the fence worth to combine with 216's in both the herd and rein for a 651.5 worth $13,158. The 2016 mare is owned by Robertson Ranches and was bred by Mike and Linda Silveira. The Limited Open Futurity Reserve Champion was awarded a Gist Silversmith's custom buckle, $300 Farnam gift certificate, product from Platinum Performance, and a monogrammed CINCH jacket.

Third in the Limited was Cantankerous Kitty (One Time Pepto x Cancan Kitty x High Brow Cat), ridden by Clayton Anderson for Troop Quarter Horses to a 432 (215 herd/ 217 rein/ 215.5 cow). The 2016 mare was bred by Cinder Lakes Ranch. Fourth through 10th place in the Limited Open Futurity received a Gist Silversmith's custom buckle, product from Platinum Performance, and a monogrammed CINCH jacket.

Level 1 Limited Open Snaffle Bit Futurity Champion

Taking the championship of the Level 1 Limited Open Futurity was Sixteen Carat Cat (Metallic Cat x All That N Cat x Highbrow Cat), ridden by Spud Sheehan for owner and breeder Beechfork Ranch. Their total after three rounds of 649.5 (220.5 herd/ 206.5 rein/ 225.5 cow) was worth $12,426. With stellar performances in the herd and fence work preliminary rounds, Sheehan added $9,750 for a total of $22,176 (unofficially).

Sheehan and Sixteen Carat Cat advance in the second position to the Limited Open Finals. The Level 1 Limited

Open Futurity Champion was awarded a Bob's Custom Saddle courtesy of Bell Performance Horses, a CR Morrison bronze finished trophy, Gist Silversmith's custom buckle, a browband headstall with rawhide accents and silver buckles from Dennis Moreland Tack, a Classic Equine monogrammed polar fleece cooler, product from Platinum Performance, a monogrammed jacket by CINCH JEANS and UltraCruz EQ Foaming Shampoo and Foaming Tool.

Tying for second and third in the final Level 1 Limited Open Futurity was Alexandra Ciavardelli riding her own horse, Suns Out Guns Out (Chics Playgun x Clark Jones Lass x Clark Jones) to a 646 (208 herd/ 220.5 rein/ 217.5 cow) to earn $8,339. Suns Out Guns Out was bred by Kevin Bennett. One Time Up North (One Time Pepto x Our Special Kitten x High Brow Cat), ridden by Chet Martin for owner Up North Quarter Horses, split second and third with an identical 646 (208 herd/ 220.5 rein/ 217.5 cow). One

Time Up North and Martin were awarded $8,339. One Time Up North was bred by Lone Oak Performance Horses. The reserve championship came with a Gist Silversmiths custom buckle, $300 Farnam gift certificate, product from Platinum Performance, a monogrammed jacket by CINCH JEANS, and UltraCruz Detangler Spray.

DEBBIE CRAFTON AND DUALIN ALITTLE TIME ARE CHAMPIONS OF THE NRCHA NON PRO FUTURITY®, PRESENTED BY DISCOUNT TIRE

The hopes and dreams of 19 finalists in the NRCHA Non Pro Futurity®, presented by Discount Tire, hinged upon one final fence run—as is customary in reined cow horse competition. Finalists in the Non Pro Futurity opened the day with their rein work in Will Rogers Coliseum here in Fort Worth, Texas, as excitement intensified to see the championship race unfold. The Non Pro rein work was followed by Intermediate Open and Limited Open rein work before action wrapped up with the Non Pro Futurity Finals cow work and the crowning of another champion the $1.2 million dollar National Reined Cow Horse Association Snaffle Bit Futurity®, presented by Metallic Cat.

After scoring a winning 219.5 in the rein work finals to combine with her high score of 221.5 out of the herd, it was Abbie Phillips and CR Tuff Guns N Roses (Woody B Tuff x Gypsy Rose Rey x Dual Rey) in the driver's seat with a 441 prior to the cow work. Debbie Crafton, of Ordway, Colorado, entered the third and final leg tied with herself for second and third in the composite with a 432 on each of her finals qualifying mounts—Dualin ALittle Time (One Time Pepto x ARC Little Dualena x Dual Pep) and Stylish Spender (Im Countin Checks x Sly Angel x That Sly Cat).

When Crafton mastered a challenging cow aboard Dualin

ALittle Time to the tune of 223 points, she had set the bar high at a 655 (215 herd/ 217 rein) composite. Immediately following Crafton, who was third out in the working order, Phillips and CR Tuff Guns N Roses took their turn, posting a 213.5 for a 654.5 that would come up a mere half point shy of first place in the ultra-competitive Non Pro division. The Scottsdale, Arizona, horsewoman and her exceptional equine partner did, however, dominate the Intermediate Non Pro and Novice Non Pro standings, as they have since the outset of the event.

Crafton enjoyed a lucrative trip to Fort Worth with her 2016 mare Dualin ALittle Time, having already banked the first-place $14,592 paycheck in the NRCHA Western Bloodstock Sale Incentive Non Pro composite. The Non Pro championship paid $25,058, plus $3,000 in preliminary go round money. The 2016 gelding was bred by Arcese Quarter Horses. Crafton's second horse Stylish Reys tied for 10th and 11th overall with Julia Winders and Chics Smart Elan for additional earnings of $3,337.

In an emotional post-win interview, Crafton described her mood as “ecstatic”—through her tears. Of the winning mount she purchased as a yearling through the Western Bloodstock Snaffle Bit Futurity Sale, Crafton says, “He’s always been special, since day one, he’s always been a team

Even though your supplement has the recommended daily amount of magnesium your horse still may not be getting enough.

ELECTRIFYING WIN FOR BET HE SPARKS AND CLAYTON EDSALL AT THE NRCHA HACKAMORE CLASSIC

The National Reined Cow Horse Hackamore Classic, held in conjunction with the NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity®, presented by Metallic Cat, showcases reined cow horses age 5 and under shown in the traditional headgear used by early day Vaqueros. Hackamore Classic entries show in each of the three phases of cow horse competition—the herd, rein and fence work. The NRCHA Hackamore Classic, coupled with the full slate of NRCHA horse show classes, boasts $95,800 in added prize money across all divisions to horses over the age of 4.

The winning Open Hackamore Classic team of Clayton Edsall, of Oakdale, California, and Bet He Sparks (Bet Hesa Cat x Sparking Train x Shining Spark), owned by K&L Phillips, were richly rewarded today—to the tune of $15,173 in earnings—after their dominating performance. When the royally bred 2014 red roan stallion set the Open Hackamore Classic pace with a winning herd work score of 222 worth $843 on Saturday, October 6 in Will Rogers Coliseum, he established a lead that wouldn't be relinquished. Working second to last out in the eighth and final set today, Edsall rode Bet He Sparks to achieve a 668 composite (222 herd/ 222.5 rein/ 223.5 cow). Their rein work score topped the round for another $843 and their cow work score was good for the second place paycheck of $703. As if things couldn't get any sweeter, the win also came on Edsall's birthday.

Edsall's prize package as the Open Hackamore Classic Champion consisted of a Jeff Smith Custom Saddle, Gist Buckle, Kangaroo Bosal, Platinum Performance, Classic Equine Monogrammed Nylon Custom Sheet, and UltraCruz EQ Advanced Gastric Support.

With their 222.5 rein work and 223.5 on the cow, Bet He Sparks and Edsall also lead Open Hackamore horse show class preliminaries with a 446. The Open Hackamore Finals will take place on Wednesday, October 16 in the Justin Arena.

WHISPER BIT

It DOES look different - and it WORKS!
You'd be surprised at the people who have a whisper bit in their tack room or trailer. People like
TIM McQUAY * BOYD RICE * CHARMAYNE JAMES

Don't let the name fool you - this bit speaks volumes - and horses just keep winning in the Whisper Bit! Elite riders know that the Whisper Bit communicates clearly to the horse and allows guidance and correction without intimidation. It's forgiving of a rider's mistakes - even when nerves and adrenalin can make hands move a little too fast.

Open Hackamore Champion

Following the Non Pro Futurity cow work prelims, the Open Hackamore and Open Bridle Finals got underway before an enthusiastic crowd in Justin Arena. As voice of the NRCHA, Darren Moore, opened the event he explained that the evolution of the Snaffle Bit Futurity Open Hackamore class as we know it today began in 1972 when entries were open to the previous year's top 10 futurity horses. Some of the best 4- and 5-year-old horses in the business did indeed thrill the crowd today.

Kristen York & ShezacrackinNSparkin

Kristen York rode her 2014 mare ShezaCrackinNSparkin (Nabisco Roan x Sheza Shinette x Shining Spark) to a 645 (211.5 herd/ 216 rein/ 217.5 cow) to earn the Intermediate Hackamore Classic reserve championship and $1,677. In the process, York won first in two additional divisions within the Non Pro Hackamore Classic competition. In the Intermediate, she was awarded a $300 Farnam gift certificate, $250 gift certificate for CR Ranchwear, Platinum Performance and Classic Equine Pro Reiner Skid Boots. She also won the Novice Non Pro Hackamore composite for an additional $939 plus a Gist Buckle, $250 gift certificate for CR Ranchwear, Platinum Performance, and a Classic Equine monogrammed nylon custom sheet. Finally, she topped the Amateur Hackamore Classic for $2,052, a Gist Buckle, a $250 gift certificate for CR Ranchwear, Platinum Performance, and a Classic Equine monogrammed nylon custom sheet.

Reserve champion of the Novice Non Pro and Amateur Hackamore Classic divisions was Maddie Fantaskey riding her 2014 red roan gelding CR Tiny Tuff (Woody Be Tuff x

Nick Dowers, Dyer, Nevada, earned the second Snaffle Bit Futurity Open Hackamore title of his career with a brilliant 221 rein work and massive 227 on the cow for a total on two of 448. The win added $10,980 to Santiago Time's lifetime earnings prior to Fort Worth of $27,297. The 2014 stallion by One Time Pepto is out of the Dual Rey daughter Reymanising and is owned by Clinton Marshall. Championship awards included a Don Rich Custom Saddle courtesy of Brazos Valley Equine Hospital, a Gist Silversmith's custom buckle from Center Ranch and Finis Welch, product from Platinum Performance, and a monogrammed jacket by CINCH JEANS.

Non Pro Limited

Julie Gibbons and her long-time equine partner Cat Can Dew (WR This Cats Smart x Dew It Flo x Mr Peponita Flo) topped the highly-competitive Non Pro Limited horse show class at the 2019 NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity, presented by Metallic Cat. The Missouri-based non pro piloted her 2008 gelding to 146.5 in the rein work and 144 in the cow work for a 290.5 composite. The pair earned $2,500 for the win and a plethora of prizes, including a CR Morrison bronze finished trophy, Gist Silversmiths custom buckle and pocket knife, pair of Lucchese boots, clippers by Wahl Professional USA, Classic Equine Zone Pad, product from Platinum Performance and Back on Track USA, Western hat carrying case and a monogrammed jacket by CINCH JEANS.

Finishing second in the 38-entry Non Pro Limited field was Barbara Cox riding Shiners Darby (Shining Spark x Tari Darlin x Taris Catalyst) to a 290 (144.5 rein/ 145.5 cow). The 2008 model is owned by Barbara's husband Chris Cox. Cox banked $2,000 for her efforts.

Non Pro Two Rein

In NRCHA horse show action, topping a tough field of Non Pro Two Rein teams in Will Rogers Coliseum, it was Clark Weaver riding Lillys Vaquero (Cat T Masterson x RS Lilly Starlight x Grays Starlight) to a 289 composite thanks to a 142.5 score in the reined work and 146.5 on the cow.

Weaver was awarded $2,300 and a host of first-class awards that included a CR Morrison bronze finished trophy, Gist Silversmiths custom buckle and pocket knife, a pair of Lucchese Boots, clippers by Wahl Professional USA, a Classic Equine Zone Pad, product from Platinum Performance, a Back on Track USA therapeutic mesh horse blanket, Western hat carrying case and a monogrammed jacket by CINCH JEANS. Lillys Vaquero had NRCHA lifetime earnings of $28,966 prior to Fort Worth. Weaver recently guided the 2013 model to the Non Pro Two Rein Spectacular crown at the NRCHA Stallion Stakes in Las Vegas, Nevada, this past April.

Reserve honors in the Two Rein class went to Sareece Brown riding her 2013 mare Wright On Hickory (Hes Wright On x Hickorys Miracle x Docs Hickory), owned by her family's Yellow Creek Ranch. Brown's outstanding rein work score of 146 combined with a 141 on the cow for a cumulative score of 287 worth $1,725. Brown was awarded a monogrammed jacket by CINCH JEANS. Wright On Hickory had NRCHA lifetime earnings of $62,120 prior to the NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity horse show.

SMARTLY STARSTRUCK AND TODD BERGEN DOMINATE NRCHA OPEN BRIDLE FINALS AT THE SNAFFLE BIT FUTURITY®

Action only intensified as Open Bridle finalists took their turns. Thanks to Holy Cow Performance Horses adding $25,000 to the Open Bridle Finals in honor of their late, great stallion CD Survivor, the winners were well rewarded for their efforts. Since 1974 the Snaffle

Bit Futurity Open Bridle class has been a place for the highly respected finished bridle horse to shine. This year's Open Bridle Finals featured a star-studded cast of elite horse and rider pairings. The Snaffle Bit Futurity Open Bridle Champion was the 2012 stallion Smartly Starstruck (Very Smart Remedy x Katie Starlight x Grays Starlight), ridden by NRCHA $2 Million Dollar Rider Todd Bergen of Eagle Point, Oregon, for McSpyder Ranch. The team dominated, with Bergen guiding Smartly Starstruck to a 222 in the rein work and taming a hard-charging cow to score a 224 down the fence. Their total of 446.5 was worth $10,460 to add to the stallion's lifetime earnings prior to Fort Worth of

Reserve honors in the hotly contested Open Bridle went to Hez The Kats Meow (Bet Hesa Cat x Miss Lucky Starlight x Grays Starlight), ridden by Ashley Deacon for owner Dustin Deckard to a 444 (221.5 rein/ 222.5 cow). Deacon teamed with the 2012 gelding to earn $8,368 plus a monogrammed jacket by CINCH JEANS. Third belonged to Short N Catt (Sophisticated Catt x Shortys Sugar Sue x Shorty Lena), a 2011 stallion ridden by Phillip Ralls for owner Sarah Davis. Scoring a 442 (218.5 rein/ 223.5 cow), the team earned $7,322.

Intermediate Open Bridle

The Intermediate Open Bridle horse show class crowned its champion today with Senor Shiny Cat (WR This Cats play riding the stalwart 2005 gelding CD Dee Vee Dee (CD Lights x Shiners Missy Jay x Shining Spark), owned by his parents Jay and Wendy McLaughlin.

Intermediate Non Pro Bridle Champion

Champion of the Intermediate Non Pro Bridle division was Addison Fjelstad. A gutsy performance from Fjelstad aboard the 2012 mare Suens Little Cat (Boon Too Suen x Cant Track This Cat x High Brow Cat), owned by Laney Fjelstad, earned her $2,450. Scoring a 139.5 in the rein

Smart x Shiney Seniorita x Shining Spark), ridden by Mark Sigler for the Dominic L. Conicelli Estate, taking the win. Sigler scored a 292 with a 142.5 in the rein work and thrilling 149.5 on the cow to earn $1,800 plus a one-ear headstall with rawhide accents and silver buckles from Dennis Moreland Tack and $150 in Farnam products.

Limited Open Bridle

The Limited Open Bridle champion with a 288 (145.5 rein/ 142.5 cow) was the 2012 mare Scootin Jule Lee (Scootin Boon x Angelina Jule Lee x Soula Jule Star), owned and ridden by Kaleigh King. King was awarded $1,650, a CR Morrison bronze finished trophy, Gist Silversmiths custom buckle and pocket knife, a pair of Lucchese Boots, clippers by Wahl Professional USA, a Classic Equine Zone Pad, product from Platinum Performance, a Back on Track USA therapeutic mesh horse blanket, Western hat carrying case and a monogrammed jacket by CINCH JEANS.

Non Pro Bridle Champion

Four sets of Non Pro, Intermediate Non Pro, Novice Non Pro and Select Non Pro Bridle got underway Tuesday morning in the Will Rogers Coliseum. Accomplished National Reined Cow Horse Youth Association competitor Cutter McLaughlin, Clarendon, Texas, put on a spectacular dis-work, Fjelstad mastered a tough cow to the tune of 147.5 for a 286.5 composite. Fjelstad earned an additional $1,236 and a monogrammed jacket by CINCH JEANS for reserve in the Novice Non Pro Bridle.

With an identical cumulative score of 286.5 (414 rein/ 145.5 cow), Judy Fortenberry and her 2009 palomino gelding Cold Hard Smart Cash (Big Chex To Cash x Smartin Up x Smart Little Lena) ended up reserve champions in the Intermediate Non Pro Bridle according to the tie-breaker going in favor of the high marked cow work. Fortenberry earned $1,925 and a monogrammed jacket by CINCH JEANS.

Novice Non Pro Bridle Champion

Paris Starn rode her 2010 bay gelding Given Ya Goosebumps (Starlight Captain x Missy Dual Master x Dual Peppy) to the championship of the Novice Non Pro Bridle and $1,574. Starn marked a 143 in the rein work and a 144.5 on the cow for a 287.5 to edge reserve champion Addison Fjelstad and Suens Little Cat. Starn was awarded a CR Morrison bronze finished trophy, Gist Silversmiths custom buckle and pocket knife, a pair of Lucchese Boots, clippers by Wahl Professional USA, a Classic Equine Zone Pad, product from Platinum Performance, a Back on Track USA therapeutic mesh horse blanket, Western hat carrying case and a monogrammed jacket by CINCH JEANS.

Select Non Pro Bridle

Betty Lou Valdez rode the 2010 gelding A Shooting

Spark (Cinnabars Lil Lena x Gees A Shining Star x Shining Spark), owned by he and her husband Robert Valdez, to top honors in the Select Bridle. Valdez marked a 281.5 (142 rein/ 139.5 cow) to earn $750, a single ear headstall with rawhide accents and silver buckles from Dennis Moreland Tack, and $150 in Farnam products.

Reserve in the Select Non Pro Bridle was Jecca Ostrander riding the 2012 buckskin mare BoxO Valentines Cat (Palo Duro Cat x Tracis Blue Roan x Roan Ambrose), owned by BoxO Quarter Horses, to a 280 (138.5 rein/ 141.5 cow). Ostrander earned $450, a Western hat carrying case and $100 KO Trading Company gift certificate.

Youth Bridle

Youth Bridle contestants took their turn in the famed Will Rogers Coliseum. 2019 NRCHA World's Greatest Youth Horseman finalist and 2018 National High School Rodeo Association Reined Cow Horse Champion Josh Briggs rode his 2006 gelding SV Whiskey Whiz (Paddys Irish Whiskey x Sure Enough Whiz x Topsail Whiz) to the first with an exceptional score of 290 (143 rein/ 147 cow). The win paid $1,425, plus a host of awards including a CR Morrison bronze finished trophy, Gist Silversmiths custom buckle and pocket knife, a pair of Horsepower Cowboy Boots, clippers by Wahl Professional USA, a Classic Equine Zone Pad, product from Platinum Performance, a Back on Track USA therapeutic mesh horse blanket and hat carrying case.

Taking home reserve Youth Bridle honors was Catelyn Walker riding Playin Motown (Mr Playinstylish x Mo Flo x Mr Peponita Flo) to a 289.5 (141 rein/ 148.5 cow) worth $1,140. Walker was awarded a monogrammed jacket by CINCH JEANS, $100 KO Trading Company gift certificate, and a set of aluminum stirrups.

Breanne Faris topped the Youth Limited class on Wranglers Last Attak

Wrapping up the day was Youth Limited action in the Will Rogers Coliseum. Colorado cowgirl Breanne Faris topped the class riding Wranglers Last Attak (Starlights Wrangler x Smart Attack x Smart Little Lena), owned by her mother Jody Faris, to a 288 (145.5 rein/ 142.5 cow) worth $990.

Holli (Blue Savannah Holli x Taffeta Ruffles x Smart Mate). Satriana scored a 281 (140 rein/ 141 cow) for $595.

Faris was awarded a CR Morrison bronze finished trophy, Gist Silversmiths custom buckle and pocket knife, a pair of Horsepower Cowboy Boots, clippers by Wahl Professional USA, a Classic Equine Zone Pad, product from Platinum Performance, a Back on Track USA therapeutic horse blanket, Western hat carrying cases and a monogrammed jacket by CINCH JEANS.

Cow Horse for Cutters

The Invitational Cow Horse for Cutters Class saw a field of 21 National Cutting Horse Association non professional riders try their hand at NRCHA Limited (box only) competition on Tuesday evening in Will Rogers Coliseum. Prior to showing, a “Coffee and Questions” session was offered at 10 a.m. in the John Justin Sale Arena for contestants wishing to clarify the finer points of reined cow horse with NRCHA professional and judge Russell Dilday.

In the true spirit of cow horse camaraderie, riders were cheered on by an enthusiastic audience and several even tested their cows down the fence and circling up, experiencing a thrill like only riding a reined cow horse can deliver. Even Taylor Sheridan of Yellowstone fame joined in the friendly competition! The top ten Cow Horse For Cutters were presented with an NRCHA vest and cap.

With a 294 (146 rein/ 148 cow) it was Jeremy Barwick of Western Bloodstock who reined and boxed his way to victory riding the 2014 stallion Shining CD Light (CD Lights x Jennys Spark x Shining Spark). Barwick was awarded a Jeff Smith Custom Saddle, CR Morrison bronze finished trophy and 20X Hat from Shorty’s Caboy Hattery. Reserve champion Blakely Colgrove rode the 2009 stallion Get It Master (Smart Little Pepinic x Get A Master x Master Remedy) to a 291.5 (149.5 rein/ 142 fence). Colgrove was awarded a Gist Silversmith’s trophy buckle.

Beginning Fence Work

In the Justin Arena, NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity horse show classes got underway with the $1,000-added Beginning Fence Work. Twelve entries tested their ability to move from Limited, or box only, competition to NRCHA’s signature event—the fence work—in a box-drive-box-drive step up class. The 2010 stallion Mister OMG (One Time Pepto x Sallie B Badge x Playboys Badge), owned and ridden by Lauren Boychuk, took top honors and a check for $714 with their score of 286 (139.5 rein/ 146.5 cow). Cally Rae Satriana finished second with her horse Smart Savannah

Cowboy Class

In the $2,000-added invitational NRCHA Cowboy Class it was an accomplished cowgirl by the name of Kelsey Love Thomas who took the title. The invitational event featured 18 working ranch cowboys and cowgirls competing in rein work, fence work and roping (a combination of steer stopping and limited cow work, aka boxing). The champion was awarded an NRCHA show legal bridle with Preston Williams hardware featured on the headstall, plus a set of romal reins.

Thomas rode Kit Kat Jerrie, owned by her husband Buddy Thomas, to a 72.5 in the rein, 70.5 on the cow and impressive 73 in the roping to top the field with a total of 216 worth $1,410.

Reserve in the Cowboy Class Invitational was Tell Good riding his 2011 mare ND Stylish Lil Pep (Circle Bar Mr Pepto x Circle Bar Stylish x Playin Stylish). Good received an NRCHA legal show bit, set of romal reins and $1,128.

AQHA Ranching Heritage Challenge

The $15,000-added AQHA Ranching Heritage Challenge wrapped up in the Coliseum. Earning $1,625 and the 4-year-old Working Ranch Horse title thanks to their score of 143 was the 2015 mare Smart Ladies Sparkle (WR This Cats Smart x Shiners Diamond Lady x Shining Spark) owned by Myra Koch and ridden by Matt Koch. Koch was awarded a Classic Equine monogrammed nylon custom sheet. Matt Koch also topped the 5&6-year-old Working Ranch Horse class for $2,800 riding Open Hackamore reserve champion Opus Cat Olena for BoxO Quarter Horses to a 145. The win came with a Classic Equine monogrammed nylon custom sheet.

In the AQHA Ranching Heritage Limited 4-year-old Working Cow Horse it was Spoonfuls Snap Shot ridden by Shawn Holden for M-Heart Corp. to a 142 worth $1,100. Holden was awarded a Classic Equine monogrammed nylon custom sheet.

Cowboy Working Ranch Horse composite winner with a 135 was Wrushing Downtown (Gold Wrush x Downtown Freck x Bobs Freckle) ridden by Colby Hunt for owner Pete Bonds. The win was worth $2,125 and a Classic Equine monogrammed nylon custom sheet.

Winning the Amateur 4&Up Ranch Horse and $1,375 with a 146 was Amy Bailey and Electra Tuff (Woody Be Tuff x Electras Boots x Doc O Boots) owned by Paul and Amy Bailey. Bailey received a Classic Equine monogrammed nylon custom sheet.

Abrian J. Harris won the Novice Amateur Working Ranch Horse and $650, plus a Classic Equine monogrammed nylon custom sheet, riding Dual Holly Doc (Francis Dual x Lena J Letters x Capitol Letters) to a 127.50.

Gage Gardiner was the Youth Working Ranch Horse winner with a 143 riding Mr Stylish Cat (Mr Playinstylish x Lil Sally Cat x High Brow Cat), owned by Garth and Amanda Gardiner. Gardiner won $260 and a Classic Equine monogrammed nylon custom sheet.

Spur Leathers won the Novice Youth Working Ranch Horse, $90 and a Classic Equine monogrammed nylon custom sheet riding Rockin To Play to a 135. Rockin To Play (Rockin W x Your Turn To Play x Playin Stylish) is a 2014 gelding owned by Burnett Ranches, LLC.

Winning the Amateur Limited 4&Up Ranch Horse Boxing and $725 was Calley Rae Satriana riding her 2013 mare Smart Savannah Holli (Blue Savannah Holli x Taffeta Ruffles x Smart Mate) to a 146.50. Satriana was awarded a Classic Equine monogrammed nylon custom sheet.

Topping the Novice Amateur Working Ranch Horse Boxing for $375 and a Classic Equine monogrammed nylon custom sheet was Melania Middleton riding Twenty Will Do to a 147.

In the 3&Up Ranch Riding it was Hondo Playinstylish ridden by Jimmy Lee Vick to a score of 73 worth $780 and a Classic Equine monogrammed nylon custom sheet for owner Prairie Point Ranch.

In Amateur Ranch Riding Darleen Wood earned $330 and a Classic Equine monogrammed nylon custom sheet aboard Cat Walks Into A Bar. Wood scored a 75.50.

Rounding out AQHA Heritage events for the day was Benjamin Self riding Smart Kwackin Boon, owned by Birgit Self, to a score of 73 worth $80 and a Classic Equine monogrammed nylon custom sheet.

American Rope Horse Futurity

Non professional ropers took the spotlight today in the Justin Arena for day No. 3 of the $100,000-added DT Horses and American Rope Horse Futurity Association World Championship Rope Horse Futurity. The event, held October 14-16, has paid out $400,000 across all divisions.

Winning the Non Pro Heading was Rob Foster riding his 2011 stallion Bad As Blaze by Blazing Hot. Bred by Robbie Schroeder, Bad As Blaze scored 689.25, which was worth $4,950. The champion of the Non Pro Heeling was Seth Jordan riding DMAC Indian Nation by Hickorys Indian Pep and out of the mare DMAC Kats Meow. The 2012 gelding scored a 692.92 worth $3,780.

Special Awards

NRCHA Executive Director Jay Winborn presented special awards to the Open Futurity preliminary round high scores. Winning the High Herd Work Award was RPL Boon (Boon Too Suen x RPL Ich This x Cat Ichi), owned and ridden by Jordan Williams, scoring a 222.5. The Gist buckle and NCHA trophy were sponsored by Dont Stopp Believin and Phil and Mary Ann Rapp.

Nineteen Ten (Hickory Holly Time x Lil Miss Shiney Chex x Shining Spark) and Flint McCullough (Smart Boons x Smart Dueling Chic x Smart Chic Olena), two horses ridden by Kelby Phillips for DT Horses, tied for the High Rein Score with identical scores of 223. The win was accompanied by a Gist buckle and NRHA trophy sponsored by Dry Creek Ranch and Jahn and Gregg LaFitte.

The High Fence Score Award was presented to Hesa Dual Bet (Bet Hesa Cat x RJJ Miss Viagra Pep x Dual Pep), ridden by Matt Koch for owner Kent Blough, scoring a 227. The winning team was awarded a CR Morrison trophy and Gist Silversmith's buckle sponsored by Confidence EQ and Clark Weaver.

The High Scoring Gelding Award went to CR Dees Be Tuff (Woody Be Tuff x CR Dees Boon Meow x Peptoboonsmal), ridden by Kelby Phillips for DT Horses. The winning team was awarded a Gist Silversmith's trophy buckle and Don Rich Saddle sponsored by Texas Landmark Realtors.

The High Scoring Horse Owner and Rider Awards were custom stirrups from Daryl Davis, which were presented to Robert Smith III and his wife Becky on behalf of their horse Dualicious (Dual Spark x Unos Charm x Smart Little Uno) with a 663.5.

The 2019 Ladies Champion was Sarah Dawson riding RYourChecksSmokin (Dual R Smokin x Checkers Live Oak x Im Countin Checks). Dawson was awarded a Bob's Custom Saddle, CR Morrison Trophy, Classic Equine monogrammed cooler, Gist buckle, Platinum Performance, $250 certificate for CR RanchWear and monogrammed CINCH jacket.

The Open AQHA Ranching Heritage Bred award, an AQHA trophy, was presented by AQHA President Dr. Jim Heird to the Center Ranch bred mare Woodya (Woody Be Tuff x CR Dees Boon Meow x Peptoboonsmal), ridden by Justin Wright for Eric Freitas. The AQHA Ranching Heritage Non Pro Limited Award went to Jasper Patrick and DMR Natural Who (Whodini x Natural Budha x Natural Enterprise). The High Scoring AQHA Ranching Heritage Bred Non Pro award was presented to Abbie Phillips and CR Tuff Guns N Roses bred by Center Ranch, the top scoring Non Pro entry of the preliminaries. The Ranching Heritage Breeder Award went to Diamond M Ranch and Cattle Company.

Judges for the 2019 Snaffle Bit Futurity were Lyn Anderson, Chris Benedict, Al Dunning, Bozo Rogers, and Ken Wold.

THE ERCHA/NRCHA AUTUMN SHOW IS A SUCCESS!

“With twice as many entries compared to last year, the 2019 edition of the ERCHA/NRCHA Autumn Show is already a success!” said Otto De Fazio, vice president of the European Reined Cow Horse Association (ERCHA). Held at the Palacità Travagliato Cavalli arena, the event open to 4- and 5-year-old horses shown two-handed in a snaffle bit or hackamore, offered three days of intense competition. The highlight was, of course, the Autumn Show along with the ancillary NRCHA approved classes, ERCHA and Regional classes and the determination of who would bring home the ERCHA year-end titles.

Markus Schöpfer & Oh Cay MC Strike Again!

Opening the Autumn Show on Friday, October 25, was the rein work for the five divisions: $2,500-added Open, $500-added Non Pro, $200-added Limited Open, $100-added Intermediate Non Pro and Novice Amateur. In the Open division, it was all about Markus Schöpfer and Silverstone Ranch's Oh Cay MC, a 4-year-old stallion by Metallic Cat out of Oh Cay Meriah, who posted the highest score: a 73.5. Alessandro Coppari, riding Me To The Light, a 2015 mare sired by Me To The Bar out of Lynx Star Light, owned by Andrea Ambrogiani, scored a 71.5 to top the Limited Open division.

The herd work filled Saturday and once again, Schöpfer and Oh Cay MC left their mark posting a 73 score which put them on top of the Open standings with a 146.5 composite. Christophe Seiler and his flashy 5-year-old palomino stallion Chics Smart Colonel (Mr Colonel Smart x Chics Olena Baby) equaled Schöpfer's 73 score which brought the duo to lead the Limited Open with a 144.5 composite and take second place in the Open. The cow work on the last day of competition determined who would take home the Open Championship and, with a fierce run down the fence, Italy's Schöpfer and the talented stallion did not disappoint and once they left the arena, another 73 score appeared on the board bringing their composite to a 219.5 and the title. “What more can I say about this incredible little horse,” said Schöpfer. “He's never let me down. He's ridden me to so many titles this year, including the Futurity at Americana, and is simply amazing.” Schöpfer took over the reins from Todd Crawford this year after purchasing the horse from him last year at the NRCHA Futurity. “His bloodlines don’t lie, and neither does he in the show pen,” he added with a smile.

With a 68 score down the fence, Seiler settled for third place in the Open division and reserve honors in the Limited Open behind Andrea Santini and Meradas Dual Cat (Hy-drive Cat x Blue Boons Lil Sue). With the 4-year-old mare owned by Soc. Agr. Le Fattorie di Matilde, Santini lay down an impressive cow work paid back with a 73 which brought his composite to a 213 (herd work, 72; rein work, 68; fence work, 73) and the Limited Open Championship as well as Open Reserve honors. “The last time we showed was at the Futurity and things didn’t go quite as planned,” said Santini. “Since then she’s matured a lot, she did really well on the cows and she is becoming more and more solid. I’m very happy with the way she performed and I must give credit to the great ground and the super organization.”

Taking the rein work lead in the Non Pro and Intermediate Non Pro divisions with a 72 score on the first day of competition were Marco Piersanti and his Bar Baby Stylish, a 4-year-old mare by More Than Stylish out of Resketta. The two went on to post a 69.5 in the herd work and closed their performance with a 70.5 in the cow work. Their 212 composite was enough to take home both the Non Pro and Intermediate Non Pro Championships! “My trainer, Alessandro Coppari, showed her at the Americana in Augsburg, Germany, and after that, we decided that I would show her here,” said Piersanti. “She showed great in the reining: in the herd work she was there with me and I had fun and in the fence work I put my heart into it and she put...two hearts! I had a whole load of fun. Now she will take a well-deserved rest and then we’ll make the show season plans. In the meantime I would like to thank ERCHA for the great work and organization!”

When Eliane Gfeller rode her 6-year-old stallion Chics Smart Lover (Smart Chic Olena x Ellevi Love Jac) to a 70.5 to take the lead in the Novice Amateur rein work, little did she know that at the end of the show the Championship would be theirs with a 209 composite after performing to a 66 in the herd work and a 72.5 in the cow work. If that wasn’t enough, the young Swiss rider also rode CR Rosie The Riveter (Woody Be Tuff x Gypsy Rose Rey), a 4-year-old mare owned by her mother Kaethi Gfeller, to the Non Pro and Intermediate Non Pro Reserve Championships.

ERCHA/NRCHA Ancillary Action

- Winning the $300-added ERCHA/NRCHA Open Hackamore was the team made up of Markus Schopfer and the rising star Oh Cay MC. “This was supposed to be more of a schooling class but since he was doing so well, I just let him do his [great] thing!” said Schopfer. Once again, the duo rode to the top of the standings with a 145.5 composite score (71.5 Rein Work, 74 Fence Work).

- Taking the $250-added ERCHA/NRCHA Non Pro Bridle win was 14-year-old Leni Bartmann of Germany riding her own Smart Little Theo, an 11-year-old Paint Horse gelding sired by Smart Flying Colors out of Honey Be Smart. The duo closed with a 141 composite score (rein work 69; fence work 72). “I’ve had ‘Theo’ since 2014 and this is our second year going down the fence. He’s absolutely the best!” she said. “I really did not expect to win this class and I am thrilled; everything went as planned. When you go down the fence you never know the outcome since there are so many variables but he was really good, especially on the cows. He is very experienced! ERCHA is like a family for me, all the people are so good and it’s always fun. I cannot wait to show Theo again next year.”

- It was all about France in the $300-added ERCHA/NRCHA Open Two Rein where Marine Richard rode her own GS Top On Whizard, a 6-year-old gelding by Sail On Top Whizard out of Miss Tari Jez, to the highest step of the podium after closing with a 146 composite score (rein work 72.5; fence work 73.5). “This horse is amazing,” said Richard. “I got him in his 3-year-old year and he was a reining horse at the time. I started working him with Markus and we realized that he was good on the cows, so we turned him into a cow horse! Today he was just great; in the rein work his spins were amazing and in the fence work he was incredible...the first fence was really good, never felt him like that, he was with me all the way. I love showing at the ERCHA shows: the organization is great, the ground was special and the cows were perfect!” The pair also took home the ERCHA Open Two Rein Regional Final title.

- Italian Davide Maria Becchio and Master N Smoke, a 2014 gelding sired by Master Kaweah out of Rum N Smoke he owns, won the $100-added ERCHA/NRCHA Non Pro Two Rein with a 121.5 composite score (rein work 60, fence work 61.5). “We didn’t post a very high score but considering this is our first show together, I am very happy,” said Becchio about his horse trained by Schopfer. “I’ve been riding him since May, but the feeling between us is good. Outside the arena everything is easy, but once we show, emotion and variables come into play and I have to learn to handle these. I truly look forward to the 2020 season, and hope to be able to show outside Italy too.”

- The $600-added ERCHA/NRCHA Open Bridle winners were once again the ‘dream team’ made up of Markus Schopfer and his 17-year-old stallion Peptos Lil Bingo (Peptoboonsmal x Conchita Gay Bingo). The duo won with a 142.5 composite score (rein work, 71.5; fence work, 71). “There isn’t much left to say about this great horse,” said Markus. “He just proves himself over and over again!

- Tomas Barta and Sugars Smartest Lena (Honky Tonk Player x Sugars Doc Tari) took top honors in the $100-added ERCHA/NRCHA Limited Open Bridle with a 140.5 composite score (rein work, 69.5; fence work, 71).
