CASEY DEARY ON AMERICAS SUPERMODEL WINS THE LEVEL 3 JUNIOR REINING AT THE FARNAM AQHA WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW

Little did anyone know that the birth of a spindly-legged sorrel filly bred by Arcese Quarter Horses at Oswood Stallion Station in Weatherford, Texas would set off a chain of events that would rock the quarter horse world.

NRHA Two Million Dollar Rider Casey Deary was with his good friend and associate Rob Curtis when he got the call that his favorite mare Americasnext-gunmodel's first foal was born. Deary hung up the phone and told Curtis what the call was about.

"Let's go look at her, but whatever happens, don't let me buy her," Curtis said.

To which, Deary replied, "We're not going to buy her, I just want to see her."

They saw the filly, and little was said that day; however, the next day, Rob called Casey and asked an odd question, "Did you have any dreams about her?"

Casey simply replied, "Rob, I've only felt that way about one other female in my life, and I married her." The deal was done and Rob purchased Americas Supermodel. The filly grew up at Oswood Stallion Station until she was ready to start training. She progressed well through training, so well that she caught the eyes of Deary's other clients, Lyle and Marie Whitmarsh from Canada. The Whitmarshes bought the filly early in her two-year-old year.

Americas Supermodel won the AQHA Congress Junior reining by a large margin catching the attention of Arcese Quarter Horses, her original breeders and the owners of her dam. The Whitmarsh's were reluctant to sell, but finally agreed to sell half interest in the promising mare, and the Whitmarsh Arcese partnership was formed.

Late that November, the team set off to the NRHA Futurity with high hopes. “She pulled a front shoe in the first go-round and got pretty body sore all over, so I didn’t feel like I had her 100 percent like I wanted her at the reining futurity, and she ended up still getting third, I think,” Casey said, then explained, “She is one of those horses that doesn’t have to be all the way right to be exceptional. I always joke that I need a horse that can mark an 80 for me to go mark a 75 on, and she’s one of those. I mean she’s capable of being a 1.5 stopping and she can be a 1.5 spinning. Probably under a better jockey, she would be well over what she is now. I think she’s close to $200,000. It’s nice to have a horse that has the ability to go be off her game a little bit and still be exceptional.”

The team agreed that it was right by the mare to give her a long break after the futurity, and she was rested most of her 4-year-old year. “She was just getting stronger and healthier and maturing mentally. When we brought her back as a 5-year-old, she felt amazing!” Casey explained.

The dynamic sorrel mare by NRHA Two Million Dollar Sire Walla Walla Whiz finished second at the National Reining Breeders Classic and tied to win the High Roller Reining Classic in Vegas a week later. She got two weeks at home before traveling to Oklahoma City to win both the go-round and the finals in the Level 3 Junior Reining at the AQHA World Championship Show with a 229.

The 2020 Farnam AQHA World Championship Show was one for the record books. With qualification waived due to the pandemic, entries far surpassed previous years. In addition, for the first time, it was joined by four other AQHA shows: The Adequan Select World Championship, the AQHA Ranching Heritage Challenge Finals, the Adequan Level 2 Championship, and the Nutrena Level 1 Championship. As if that wasn’t enough, the 41st Triangle Fall Horse Sale was also added to the agenda. The world’s best quarter horses came from all corners of the world to compete for 99 Farnam AQHA World championships, 44 Adequan® Select World championships, 85 Adequan® Level 2 championships, 22 AQHA Ranching Heritage Challenge Finals championships, and 40 Nutrena Level 1 Championships.

Deary had a long list of people to thank as he said, “It is impossible to name all of them. Obviously, my wife is my biggest cheerleader and supporter. I joke all the time about living in a van down by the river, but that’s probably where I’d be if it wasn’t for her pushing on me. My parents have been amazing support, helping with our kids, which with four of those, that’s a full-time job. This is a family business though. My kids have been here helping set up and working here at the stalls. The team of vets that I work for that

Clemerson Barbalho and Gotta Lady Diamond Crowned Farnam AQHA Level 2 Junior Reining World Champions

Several years ago, in Brazil, Clemerson Barbalho’s father took him to his friend, Evandro Oliveira’s, house as he had on several other occasions; however, this time was different. Oliveira showed them a video of reining legend, Bob Loomis, showing a 3-year-old in the NRHA Futurity. Clemerson knew from that young age that reining was what he wanted to do. He began to try to slide his own riding horses on wet ground and tried to get them to turn like the horse he saw in the video. That inspiration carried him twelve more years until he finally got to ride real reiners.

just as Diano’s husband, Gabriel, began riding her again, COVID-19 rocked the world and with many shows canceled, Fagundes decided to turn her out to pasture and breed her - much to Barbalho’s disappointment.

Early in 2019, Barbalho had left Salgado Reining Horses and started his own business based in Gainesville, Texas at Southern Star Ranch. The first chance he got, he asked his partner, Mark Weisman, to purchase the mare. Weisman purchased the then 5-year-old mare, which had still been green when she was laid off two years prior. Clemerson got right to work trying to catch the mare up and she won the Level 2 Championship and Reserve in the Level 3 at the APHA World Show.

When he was older, his father began taking him to clinics and he landed at a clinic put on by Eduardo Salgado who also lived in Brazil at the time. After a clinic, Salgado called him and offered him a job. He was thrilled to accept and remained with Salgado for the next nine years, even moving to the United States with him when he went.

While working for Eduardo, Clemerson started a 2-year-old filly named Gotta Diamond Lady and instantly fell in love. The bald-faced bay filly was by Spooks Gotta Whiz out of Shiney Diamond Lady and was owned by Brazilian-native Fabiola Fagundes at the time. Barbalho showed her to a reserve championship in the Tulsa Reining Classic Developing Horse Futurity before she suffered an injury at home and was laid off.

Later in the year, her owner decided to send her to Nicki Diano with Therapy4Horses for rehabilitation. However, Clemerson made the call for the good of the horse to only enter her in the Level 2 at the Farnam AQHA World Championship Show.

“It was very difficult to warm her up [at the AQHA World Show] because there were a lot of classes and no actual warm up pen for just the reiners,” Barbalho explained, “It was a very short time that I was able to ride her the night before. I only had one hour and two horses to ride. The next day, I showed my stallion first and didn’t have much time before her so I just trotted her a little bit and checked a couple of things and went in.”

Clemerson and Gotta Diamond Lady marked a 221 winning the Level 2 World Championship.

“It was the first time that I showed the horse that I felt like we were connected. In every place, she was with me,” said Barbalho. “She didn’t make any mistakes; she was ready to do whatever I asked of her. It was very cool, the feeling. When I finished the show, I didn’t know what the score would be, but I felt that it was going to be good because she felt great. I think that was the best run I have had.”

Gotta Diamond Shine will enjoy a well-deserved break after her successful World Show before she begins preparation for the NRBC next year.

Clemerson began by thanking his wife, Leticia, whom he just wed this year. Then he said, “The reason my parents are here is because they came for our wedding. It was a huge blessing to have them here supporting me. They made all the difference when they went to the NRBC with us. They took care of my horses so I could go watch some guys show. It was the first year that I got to enjoy the horse show because I could go watch and make a game plan. It was amazing to have them at all those shows.”

He also thanked his in laws whom he said have been huge supporters of him and were like family even before he started dating Leticia. He thanked his horse’s owner, Mark Weisman, for buying the mare and letting him show her. Also, Mental Coach Gilead Freidman for his successful mindset, and Gabriel and Nicki Diano for rehabilitating the mare and continuing her care during the NRBC and the Paint World.

Barbalho also placed third in Levels 2 and 3 on his stallion Spooks Gotta Outfire for which he said, “I want to thank Andrea and Tish Fappani. Andrea has had him in training since the Futurity and did an amazing job on him.”

Gabriel Diano marked a 221 on Suisse Code and took reserve in the Level 2. Owned by Alpha Quarter Horses, Suisse Code is a 2015 stallion by Electric Code out of Shiney Sushi.

DANY TREMBLAY AND TINKER WITH DREAMS TOP THE LEVEL 3 SENIOR FARNAM AQHA WORLD SHOW REINING

Canadian native Dany Tremblay accepted Tinker With Dreams into his training program in 2019. He showed the chestnut stallion by Tinker With Guns out of This Chicsundreamin just one time that year winning the Open ancillary championship at the Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity in Ardmore, Oklahoma in October.

“I just wanted to know what I had to work on during the winter,” Tremblay explained.

In 2020, the duo was ready to show starting with the Florida Reining

Classic where they placed third. “He was real good there, and then I showed him at all the big events this year. I had a few bobbles here and there, but he was pretty good most of the time. Then, finally, we figured out how to get along together.” The duo went on to finish third after a tie at the High Roller Reining Classic in Vegas.

With those successful shows under his belt, Tremblay knew what he had to do at the Farnam AQHA World Championships. The duo rode in and swept both the prelims and the finals, finishing with an astounding 231 - a full three points more than the reserve champion's score.

"He's a quiet horse. He knows what's good and he wants to please every day. He's got huge maneuvers and he's super easy to train. He is so talented and has a big heart. There's not many horses like him," Dany said of the 6-year-old stallion. He continued, "He can still derby next year, so we are going to the big events again. We haven't really discussed next year's show season yet because now he is starting his breeding season. I don't know where is going to be our first show, but he'll show for sure."

Tremblay went on to thank Tinker With Dreams's owners, Kalicia and Shane Walters, "Those people really trust me, and having the opportunity to ride that great horse - it's an honor for me to ride him. It's really special, and I love him."

Andrea Fappani rode Platinum Vintage to a 228 and the reserve championship for owners Silver Spurs Equine of Scottsdale, Arizona. The 2010 stallion is by A Sparkling Vintage out of Starjac Miss.

Garth Brown Rides Gunners Trashman to the 2020 Level 2 Senior Reining Farnam AQHA World Championship

While Garth Brown has known Gunners Trashman for most of the stallion's six years, the horse hasn't always been in his program. Gunners Trashman by Colonels Smoking Gun out of Fatal Attrashion was purchased from the NRHA Futurity Sale as a yearling and stayed with Brown through his 5-year-old year when he was sold to a client in Monterey, Mexico. Then, in August of 2019, fate brought them back together when Beverly May Robertson purchased the horse and put him back in training with Brown.

"Bev May lives in southern California. She is a retired horse trainer but hasn't trained horses in thirty years. She decided that she was in the kind of place in her life to own a great show horse, and Gunners Trashman was that," Garth explained. "He's super easy; super broke and kind. He's really easy to get ready."

The pair made the finals at the National Reining Breeders Classic and then won the American Paint Horse Association World Show Senior Reining in September making them AQHA World Show ready.

"The preliminary run is a bit tricky, as it is up and down the middle," Garth explained. "We just tried to put a nice run together and make it back to the finals. He showed well.

In the finals, the first maneuver was a run in and stop. He's a really big stopper and he can really back up, like one of the best backing up horses I've ever had. So, I ran him really long and he stopped huge, then backed up amazing!"

Gunners Trashman will stand at Humphrey Quarter Horses in Whitesboro, Texas. "We are excited to be starting his first babies this winter. He has three on the ground, and we will get to start one of them for sure. Then we have two weanlings, coming yearlings, that we are also excited about."

Next year will be Gunners Trashman's last derby year, so Brown plans to show him as much as possible. He said, "I will take him to the Florida Reining Classic in February, then to the NRBC - depending on when it will be held. We'll try to go to the NRHA Derby and so on and so forth. We are just kind of going to play it by ear."

Garth thanked owner Beverly May Robertson, saying, "She is the best client in the world. She is so supportive and we're so happy she owns such a great horse."

Wimpys Smokin Girl placed second with Yonathan Baruch in the saddle. The 2013 mare owned by Marc and Kathy Gordon is by Wimpys Little Step out of Please Dont Spook. They scored a 216.5.

AUDREY JEWELL CONQUERS LEVELS 2 AND 3 AMATEUR AT THE FARNAM AQHA WORLD SHOW ON HOT CHICS LOVE ME

Originally from Conyers, Georgia, Audrey Jewell now lives with her husband, NRHA Professional Francesco Martinotti, in Whitesboro, Texas where she stays busy helping with the business and taking care of their young son, Leo.

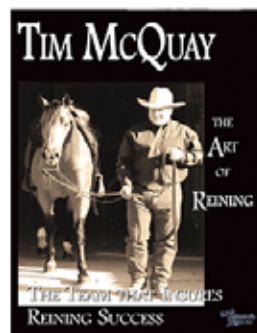

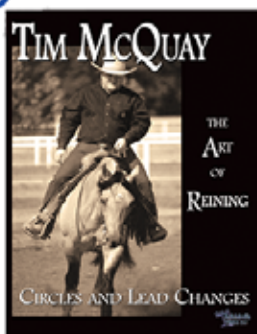

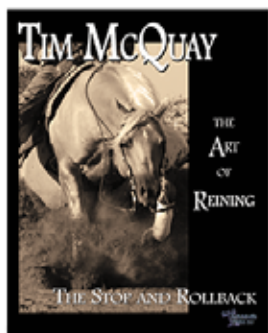

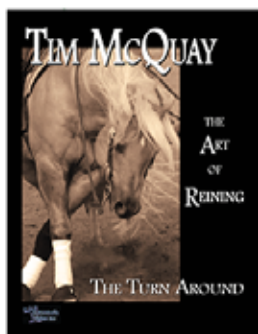

By Yellow Jersey out of Hot Chic With A Gun, Hot Chics Love Me has been with Francesco since the beginning of his yearling year when he was purchased by Enjoy, LLC. The couple has loved the talented horse from the beginning and were thrilled when they were given the opportunity to purchase him. Two weeks after the purchase and two years after the last time she showed, Audrey showed the horse at the Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity and won a co-championship in one slate of the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 and the second slate straight away which also secured the circuit championship. With that level of confidence and waived qualification, Audrey decided to try her luck at the Farnam AQHA World Show.

The road to success at the world show was not a smooth one. The horse and rider team had a bit of trouble in their first rundown in the Level 2 Final and Level 3 Prelims, so Audrey knew that if they made it to the Level 3 finals, they would have a lot of room to improve. Then just before the finals, Audrey's chaps broke, and she had to find some to borrow, making her late to the warmup pen.

"Once I got there, I just really tried to relax because I knew my horses would be fine as long as he felt relaxed," Audrey explained. "I listened to everything my husband said to me and tried to take my time in each maneuver. When I came out of the arena after my go, I didn't care what the score was. I was just so happy with the horse. I ended up in a tie for the lead and we had to run it off."

Audrey and Hot Chics Love Me scored a 218 to win the Level 2 and a 219 to win the Level 3 Amateur Reining World Championships.

"My first world show ever, my first run off ever, it was surreal," Audrey said. "In the runoff, I just did exactly what I did in the first go and it paid off. We had a few bobbles but pulled off the win. Everyone I showed against at this show was so awesome, and they all were fierce competitors. I feel honored to have shown against them and I am so blessed to have made some new friends out of this as well."

Audrey said that her inspiration comes from her family. She said, "My dad, who always made sure that I learned the value of hard work: If I wasn't riding every day after school, I didn't get to go show. From my mom, who is such a successful businesswoman and has taught me that nothing is handed to you so work hard but appreciate what you have and enjoy the ride. However, my biggest inspiration in the last five years really comes from my husband and the passion he has for horses and making himself a better horseman every day. He works so hard for our family and is always trying to strive for excellence in everything he does. He is the one who is constantly pushing me to be better and is really teaching me to be an even better horsewoman."

Hot Chics Love Me will enjoy some much-deserved time off, before beginning to prepare to show at the NRBC.

Audrey finished by saying, "I want to thank all of my friends and family who are always texting, calling and posting, showing me their support. It means so much to me to have a support system like I do. Thank you to my father who is also my farrier. I wouldn't trust anyone else to shoe my horses. Thank you for all that you do for us! I also want to thank my son, Leo, and my husband, Francesco. You two are my world!"

Leslie Roper had to settle for reserve in the Level 3 with her 2013 stallion, Spooks Show Time, by Spooks Gotta Whiz out of Dolittle Lena.

Adam Donahue took reserve in the Level 2 Amateur on Not Ruf when he scored a 217.5. Not Ruf is by Not Ruf At All out of Kays Freckles.

Adam Donahue Pilots Not Ruf Enough to the Adequan AQHA Select World Reining Championship

Adam Donahue, who owns a trucking company in Marshfield, Missouri, was mentored early in life by such greats as Bill Horn and Kenny Eppers. He still rides with Kenny Eppers now 40 years later. He shared, "What those guys taught me back when I was young and to this day, makes me try to be a better horseman every day." With that inspiration in his heart and the knowledge he gained, Donahue trains his own horses, but takes pointers and advice anywhere he can get them.

When Donahue purchased Not Ruf Enough, by Not Ruf At All out of Oaks Little Annie, the then 2-year-old had some problems, most of which they have worked through. "He was an orphan bottle baby. Not great manners on the ground, but once you're on his back, he's great. He tries hard every time, and he's just really come on this year. He's gotten bigger and stronger, as a 3-year-old, he could do a lot, but now he can do a lot more."

Of the show itself, Donahue said, "It was a little different being at the World Show. There wasn't a lot of space to ride so we loped up and down in the grass out between the parking lots. He's one of those horses that it doesn't take a lot to get him ready. When he walks in the pen, he knows it's time to go play and perform, and he does every trip out."

Adam and his mount scored a 215.5 to win the Select World Championship in Oklahoma City making Not Ruf Enough his sire's first World Champion. Adam said, "In the finals, he got stopped in the first stop; he got turned around like he normally does, and then did what he does best which is run the circles. He's really starting to do all three maneuvers well. When he was a baby, he was a much better circler than anything else, and now he can do all three."

Adam only rides offspring of Not Ruf At All, saying, "They've been really good to me. I think I've won probably $80,000 on them between all the ones I've shown. They're a lot like riding the Little Peppys and Doc Olenas. They're very intelligent. You don't teach them anything that you don't want them to remember. That is the hard part with them is if you teach them something one day, it will be there tomorrow, and it will take you a long time to change their mind about 'well, you told me to do it that way.' It keeps you on your toes and makes you think every day you ride them."

Where will the duo show next? They will be in the Non Pro ancillary class at the NRHA Futurity, and then Adam said, "after that, I'm not really sure. We'll just let next year unfold. He may go to Florida. At this point, with the way the world is, I don't know where we'll wind up next."

Donahue thanked his wife, Kenny Eppers, and Bill Horn and "the people that set me on the path to be where I'm at today."

Michael Garnett was close behind with a 215 on Bullets Whizzen By. The 2014 stallion is by Spooks Gotta Whiz out of Docs Lil Bullet.

Kalicia Walters rides Ladys Gotta Gun to the Farnam AQHA Level 1 Amateur Reining World Championship

Kalicia Walters was introduced to reining as a vendor at a futurity several years ago. She loved how finished, polished, and precise the reiners looked compared to the cow horses that she was more familiar with. She was bitten by the bug and slowly began to find her way into the show pen purchasing her first reiner five or six years ago.

While Kalicia's family owns a pipeline inspection company based in Dallas, Texas, she and her husband, Shane, breed, raise, and show reining horses at their Diamond Dub Ranch in Marietta, Oklahoma. Their ranch is only about 10 minutes from Tremblay Reining Horses where Kalicia rides so she gets to practice a lot.

Kalicia bought her 2015 daughter of Spooks Gotta Gun out of Ms Kiper Nic two years ago, but their start was a bit rocky as she said, "She was four and hadn't been shown that much, and I hadn't really shown that much. When we got her, we just spent that whole winter getting her broker and me calmer to put it all together for the year.

"We kind of figured out with her, just I get on early. We lope a lot of circles. We just make sure she stays calm, which makes me stay calm," Kalicia said of her preparation to show. "That's kind of our plan. I just get on, and we just take it slow and easy and hope it all stays together."

Of her run, Kalicia said, "If I can get through my spins and counting to four and getting shut off on time – thanks to Fred [Tremblay] for helping me with that – then I feel like it's pretty smooth sailing. I'm like, okay, I got this, the hard part's over. We got out there and we nailed that, and it was just time to run our fast circles. She always does such a good job of coming back to me on the slow downs. That's probably one of my favorite things about her."

This time out, Kalicia had help counting her spins. She said, "The night before, [the Tremblays and I] went to dinner, and I said to Fred, 'I'm going to count to four – in my head. I'm going to kick. I'm going to do everything, but if you can just give me a little extra 'WHOO!' - a little whistle - that will give me the extra confidence to just be like, 'whoa, this is four; this is it!' Fed has a very important job when I'm showing!"

In addition to Fred Tremblay, Kalicia also thanked her husband, Shane, saying, "He comes to all the shows with us. He's a roper, but he loves the reining. He doesn't show yet, but he's awesome. He comes and cheers on the Open horses, me, and our daughter, Lily. He hangs out on the long weeks of all of us just kind of sitting around waiting to go. So, Shane's a big part of the team. He deserves a lot of the credit."

She also thanked her trainer, Dany Tremblay sharing,

JUDGES FOR EUROPE'S PREMIER WESTERN RIDING EVENT AMERICANA 2021

Coronavirus is still keeping us in its grip, but with the vaccine expected shortly, there is light at the end of the tunnel. However, the situation is not expected to ease before late spring. All the more, Western fans are looking forward to the next AMERICANA, which will take place in Augsburg from September 8 - 12, 2021. Buying or watching training videos online is fine, but nothing beats a real live experience: being able to touch your desired saddle, try it out and then compare it with the different suppliers, or experiencing your favorite trainer live and asking him questions after the demonstration. All this is possible with Europe's Number 1 in Western riding. With far more than 300 exhibitors, AMERICANA is not only the biggest fair for western and leisure riding, but also a unique information portal in this sector with its forum for training and health.

Around €170,000 in Prize Money

AMERICANA is also one of the largest Western shows in Germany with around €170,000 in prize money. It is internationally known for its NRHA Bronze Trophy Reining and the Cutting and Cow Horse competitions. In 2021, there will be a highly endowed Open and Non Pro Bronze Reining Trophy again, which will be especially sought after by those riders who will ride for the World Champion title. In addition, the finals will take place during the Friday evening show, 'Reining Night'. This alone has its own special charm, because where else is there the opportunity to ride in front of thousands of cheering spectators?

The Cutting and Cow Horse final will also be held during an evening show, the Cattle Night on Saturday. The European Championship Cutting and the ERCHA Futurity are among the most important Cutting and Cow Horse competitions in Europe and attract top international horses and riders to Augsburg. In addition to the ERCHA Futurity, an ERCHA Derby will also be held at AMERICANA for the first time this year.

AMERICANA Ranch Trail and Ranch Riding

The roots of western riding have always been at the heart of AMERICANA. That is why Ranch Horse disciplines are also put into perspective in Augsburg. Thus the European Ranch Riding Championship takes place here. In 2021, an AMERICANA Ranch Trail with natural obstacles will be offered. Of course the European Trail Championship will also take place once again.

International Top Judges

AMERICANA 2021 will be judged by Eugenio Latorre (ITA), Maik Bartmann (GER), Filippo Masi (ITA), Manuela

Maiocchi (ITA), Laura Ellen Faris (ITA), Chris Benedict (USA), Sam Rose (USA) and Sandy Jircovsky (USA). "This is a really explosive mixture of some of the best judges there are," says show manager Sandra Quade. "I am very proud that we have managed to get such top-class people for AMERICANA. Eugenio and Filippo are two of the top international judges in the field of reining, and with Sam Rose and Chris Benedict we have two AAAA judges for cutting."

SIX MILLION REASONS TO WATCH ANDREA FAPPANI REIN

The name Fappani is synonymous with the winner's circle and this fall was no different for the Italian-born reiner. The National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) unofficially congratulates NRHA Professional Andrea Fappani for becoming the newest NRHA Six Million Dollar Rider.

Fappani is only the second NRHA Professional in history to reach this monumental milestone. As soon as the 2020 show season resumed, Fappani hit the ground running and he's been on a hot streak ever since.

At the 2020 NRHA Derby presented by Markel, Fappani rode Spooks Gotta Outfire (Spooks Gotta Whiz x Black Custom Chex) for owners Clemerson Gomes Barbalho and Mark Weissman to a 225.5. This was enough to take third place in the Open Level(L) 4 Finals and was the first chunk of change that inched Fappani closer to his six-million-dollar rider status.

Several top tier finishes at the rescheduled 2020 National Reining Breeders Classic (NRBC) sent Fappani home with over $70,000 in his pocket. This trend continued at the High Roller Reining Classic and the Friends of Reining Futurity in Tennessee where Fappani made his $50,000+ payday look easy. Here are some of Fappani's top finishes in 2020:

- NRBC Hollywoodstinseltown Open Futurity L4 – First place: $12,720
- NRBC Open Classic Finals L4 – Fourth place: $25,000
- Friends of Reining Open Futurity Finals L4 – First place: $30,000; third place: $13,306; and fifth place: $9,504

- AzRHA Best of the West Yellowstone Open Futurity L4 – First place: $20,072; and second place: $12,218

Originally from Italy, Fappani trains reining horses in Scottsdale, Arizona, at Rancho Oso Rio, LLC. He became an NRHA member in 1994 and traded in his non pro card to become a professional just three years later. In 2006, Fappani became one of the youngest NRHA Million Dollar Riders in history.

"When I came to the states in 1997, my dream was to win the Futurity," Fappani said. "In 2001 I was lucky enough to do that. I had to ask myself what next because that was my lifetime goal."

The humble showman has never solely focused on chasing his LTE, it's always been about progressing his horsemanship. Fappani is especially proud of the consistency he's displayed in his career year after year.

"I've always been scared of having a great year and following it up with a not so great one," Fappani said. "It's never been about winning, it's always been about consistency in my training program and showing that I can make the same things happen again and again."

Many of Fappani's current clients have stuck with him since the first year he ran his own program. The trust Fappani has built with his clients is on full display each time he performs.

“When you have people behind you that trust you and don’t question the decisions you make as a trainer, it gives you a lot of freedom to treat their horses as your own,” Fappani explained. “Having clients like that behind me as a trainer has been one of my greatest assets in my career so far. And then I have a great team who keep me in a position where I can concentrate on my training and just get better every year.”

In the race to seven million, Fappani isn’t far behind NRHA Six Million Dollar Rider Shawn Florida. Congratulations to Andrea Fappani on this monumental accomplishment! Story provided by NRHA.
