MS CUSTOM GUN TOPS THE 2020 LEGACY REINING BREEDERS SALE

Saturday September 26th was the 20th Annual Legacy Reining Breeders Sale was held at Cardinal Reining Horses in Aubrey, Texas. It was a successful event with 122 horses consigned, and only three outs and three pass outs the sale grossed $2,224,500 with an average of $19,188! Offering great food, drinks, and some of the best horses in the world, it was not a sale to miss.

With the uncertainty of how the Pandemic would affect the sale, the Legacy Reining Breeders Sale Team worked hard on making bidding as easy as possible worldwide by incorporating CCI Live Online Bidding.

“People love the real-life excitement of being at a sale, but unfortunately that wasn’t possible for a lot of people this year. With travel restrictions we knew phone bidding alone was not enough. So, when Managing Partner Jennifer Anderson said we must have the online bidding, we added it! She used this online bidding system at another very successful sale that she runs, and it was a huge hit!" said Chelsea Schneider, Legacy Reining Breeders Sale Marking Manager. "We want nothing more than to provide the best sale, horses and service for everyone near and far, and we try to build on that each year. Our team members, especially Mandy McCutcheon and Jennifer Anderson, work hard year-round on the sale and it shows in its continued success. Sale graduates have earned over $12 Million Dollars and that will continue to grow with the quality of horses our breeders and consignors bring each year."

The gavel dropped on the Legacy Reining Breeders Sale's top seller at $100,000! Hip #76 was a stunning yearling buckskin filly sired by $12 Million Dollar Sire Colonels Smoking Gun out of Custom Made Dunit. CMJT Partners bought the filly bred and consigned by McQuay Stables. She is full sister to the 2019 the Run For A Million Co-Champion, Custom Made Gun.

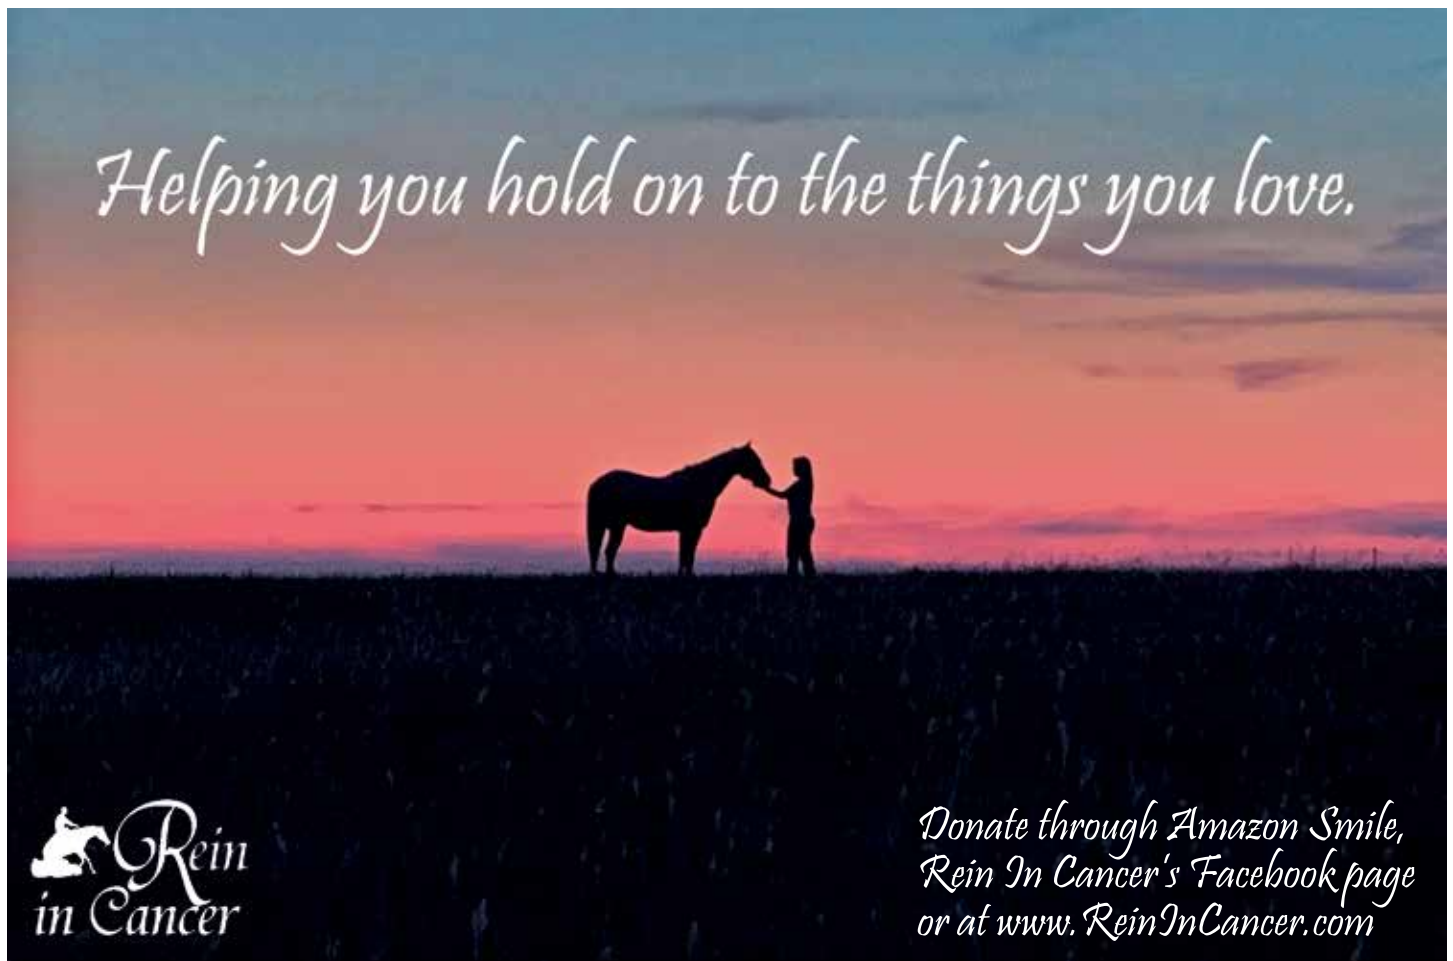

Along with the 20th Annual Legacy Reining Breeders Sale was the Cardinal Reining Horses Reduction Sale offering thirty top-of-the-line horses. With only one pass out and 29 selling they brought in $651,500! Their high seller was Hip #19, a 2021 embryo sired by $12 Million Dollar Sire Colonels Smoking Gun and out of NRHA Million Dollar Dam Dun It For Chex. The foal everyone will be waiting for in 2021 sold to longtime owner and breeder Roxanna Koepsell.

Legacy Reining Breeders Sale Top 5 Sellers:

- Hip #76, $100,000, MS Custom Gun, 2019 Buckskin Mare (Colonels Smoking Gun x Custom Made Dunit) Consigned by McQuay Stables, purchased by CMJT Partners.
- Hip #19, $90,000, 2021 Embryo (Colonels Smoking Gun x Dun It For Chex) Consigned by Cardinal Reining Horses, purchased by Roxanna Koepsell.
- Hip #73, $52,000, Mega Rita Mae, 2019 Sorrel Mare (Magnum Chic Dream x Cincho De Mega) Consigned by Tom and Mandy McCutcheon, purchased by Green Valley Ranch
- Hip #16, $51,000, Outlaw Blondie, 2018 Palomino Mare (Inferno Sixty Six x Dun It For Chex) Consigned by Cardinal Reining Horses, purchased by Rick Christen
- Hip # 23, $51,000, Smoking Angel, 2014 Palomino Mare (Colonels Smoking Gun x Shining Survivor) Consigned by Cardinal Reining Horses, purchased by Bob Santagata

OPINKER AND KELLER WIN DOUBLE TIME AWARDS AT THE NRBC

For the past 18 years, the National Reining Breeders Classic Double Time Awards have been given for participation in the National Reining Horse Association approved classes held during the show.

Both Non Pro and Open Awards are awarded to the high point riders that participate in both slates of NRHA classes held during the Classic. A point system is used to calculate the points, with 10 points for first place, 9 for second, and so on, in each class. The awards are given following the show's conclusion.

The Double Time program was created to recognize the NRHA class participants. "We appreciate the entries and the high level of competition we see in classes from the Green Reiner class to the Open," said NRBC President Tom McCutcheon. "This year the entries passed all the previous records, with a total of 5,036 entries in all the events and classes at the NRBC."

That number, coupled with nearly 1,600 stalls and the 2,638 times a horse walked into one of the four arenas to compete, shattered records across the board and the show paid out over $1.4 million.

Besides the headline aged event winners, the 2020 marathon show created a venue for the Double Time qualifiers to excel more than ever and when the last horse completed his pattern there were two winners, each of whom will earn $1,000.

Sumer Opinker was the Open Double Time winner, and Jessicah Keller topped the Non Pro field.

For Sumer, who works for Stillo Performance Horses, the award was a total surprise, during a show where she was wearing a variety of hats – from assistant trainer to showing horses and even to grooming, where she was a finalist in the Shapley’s Best Groom competition.

She said, "I’m grateful and thrilled for the opportunity and trust that Mirjam Stillo Performance Horses gave me to show three horses in Tulsa: Hermosa Star Dream, White Noise and Lil Joes Hushmoney. I also want to thank the owners of these amazing horses: Gabrielle Channell, Mirjam and Andrea Stillo, and Bart Hobbs. I’m very excited about the future! Thank you to the show management for running this amazing show."

The award came as a huge surprise to Jessicah Keller, as well. Keller had actually received the award years ago shortly after its inception but had forgotten that it was still up for grabs each year at the NRBC.

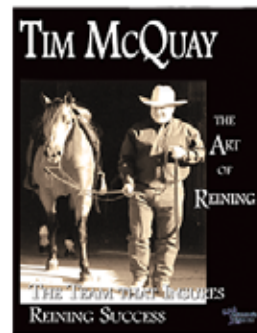

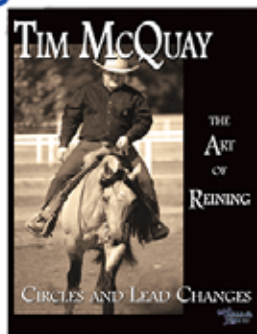

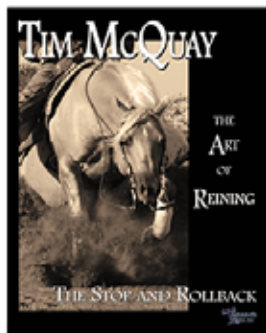

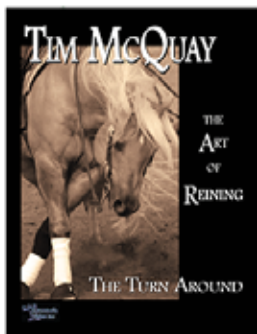

"This year's show was out of this world – overall it was amazing and I appreciate everyone who made this possible!"

"I am so excited," she said when notified of the win. "This year's show was out of this world – overall it was amazing and I appreciate everyone who made this possible!" Sarah rode home-raised Its Snippin Time and Girls Lovin Time on the way to the Double Time awards – earning a bucket of ancillary titles and high points on the way.

Jessicah was quick to compliment the ground in the Super Duty, noting. "That was so much better than in the past. You could make a run that the judges could score."

THE COWGIRL GATHERING SET TO PREMIERE IN THE FORT WORTH STOCKYARDS NOVEMBER 13-15, 2020

The inaugural Cowgirl Gathering, hosted by the American Paint Horse Association, is set to make history in the Fort Worth Stockyards November 13-15, 2020.

This weekend takeover of the historic Fort Worth Stockyards highlights cowgirls' skills in breakaway roping, team roping and barrel racing, while also showcasing exhilarating and engaging female speakers, and much more.

"It's her heart and soul that makes a cowgirl who she is—determined and fierce and ready to take on the world—and we're excited to showcase that spirit in the heart and soul of Cowtown this November," said APHA's Director of Publications Jessica Hein.

The weekend will kick off with a $2,500 added Open all-girl team roping followed by a $7,500 added #9.5 all-girl team roping in the historic Stockyards Coliseum on Friday, November 13. With two divisions offered and $10,000 added cash, there is sure to be a place for all competitors with huge payouts! Following the all-girl team roping, the Coliseum will host its weekly rodeo with $5,000 added.

Moving into Saturday, November 14, an $11,500 added Open breakaway and $10,000 added WCRA Challenger breakaway will be under the bright lights of the Coliseum. This event is one of only a select few events that will be fast track qualifiers to the Women's Rodeo World Championships in 2021, which will payout more than $750,000 to women athletes in 2020. The Cowgirl Gathering Breakaway Roping is poised to be one of the highest paying breakaway ropings in the country. To learn more about the Women's Rodeo World Championship or the Challenger division, please visit www.wcra.com.

Crossing the street into the Cowboy Channel Studio, day one of the Cowgirl Essence Exchange kicks off at 9 a.m. Female speakers and performers from across the Western industry are slated—all bringing their unique cowgirl essence! Lindy Burch, Dena Kirkpatrick, Billie Bray, Adrian Brannan, Jessica Haas, and plenty more will provide a once-in-a-lifetime experience.

Day two of the Cowgirl Essence Exchange fires off at 9 a.m. in the Cowboy Channel Studio. LeAnn Hart jumpstarts the day followed by Tracy Sheffield, Amy C. Witt, Lari Dee Guy, Donene Taylor, and more. Cowgirls from all walks of life bring the heart and soul of what cowgirl means to them.

Also beginning at 9 a.m. on Saturday, the Cowgirl Gath-

BACK IN THE SADDLE AGAIN: AMERICANA 2021 ADVANCE TICKET SALES WILL BEGIN SOON

Europe's premier western event is back at the start providing reiners with a real ray of hope in these uncertain days. Advance ticket sales via Ticketmaster will start as early as November 2020. Both of the evening shows on Friday and Saturday were completely sold out in 2019, and the shows on Wednesday and

Markus Schopfer & Oh Cay MC

Thursday were also very well attended.

Much more than "just" Western riding

For many years, AMERICANA in Augsburg has been setting standards in Western riding - and that is exactly what it will do again September 8 - 12, 2021. A substantial $190,000 in prize money is normally paid out to the participants, making it one of the highest-endowed shows in Europe. However, AMERICANA is much more than just a show. The mega-event is also Europe's leading trade show for western and leisure riding, with between 300 and 350 vendors participating. There is no other place where the fans of western horses and the western way of life can find such a comprehensive range of products and services for horses, riders, and lifestyle. Essentially, AMERICANA is a unique information portal of the scene and THE meeting point for Western fans from all over the world.

Top-class sport not only in Reining, Cutting and Cow Horse

In 2021, Western riding at its finest will again be on the agenda. The Reining Bronze Trophy and the cattle classes especially have brought AMERICANA an international reputation. Again in 2021 a highly endowed Bronze Trophy Open and Non Pro will be held, where top riders from all over the world are expected to perform. Further highlights are the European Championship Cutting, the ERCHA European Reined Cow Horse Futurity and the ERCHA Nations Cup as well as the European Championship Trail and European Championship Ranch Riding.

'Stunts & Stars with Kenzie Dysli ' on Wednesday

In 2021, AMERICANA will again offer four evening events. "Stunts & Stars" - the Wednesday evening event - will introduce the fascinating world of training horses for big appearances in movies, television and shows. If you want to survive in the limelight, you have to be able to rely completely on your horse. Jumping through the fire or lying down on the ground in a foreign arena in front of 5,000 visitors - this is a tremendous achievement for a horse, which requires absolute trust in its trainer and rider. Kenzie Dysli and her team will show on Wednesday night how this can be done and how even the 'normal' rider can benefit from it. Of course, questions from the audience are highly welcome. Another highlight on Wednesday will be the bridleless cutting, which was enthusiastically received by both riders and visitors at the 2019 AMERICANA.

On Thursday night, will be the ERCHA Nations Team Cup with the best Reined Cow Horse teams of Europe.

The famous AMERICANA evening shows will take place as usual on Friday and Saturday. The final of the Open Reining Bronze Trophy is traditionally held during the Friday evening show, as well as the final of the European Open Ranch Riding Class, while the Saturday evening show is dedicated to the cow classes. Here the decisions of the World Cup Cutting Open and the ERCHA Open Cow Horse Futurity will be made. As always, there will be a series of great show interludes.

The information portal (not only) for western riders

This very special mixture of trade show and high-class sport is not only a must see for western riders, but also for leisure riders in general. During the five days during which AMERICANA is open to visitors, expert knowledge is conveyed. Whether there are questions about horse keeping, starting horses or veterinary problems - in the forum, you will find answers. In 2021, in addition to classic riding and equestrian equipment, successful topics such as health, equestrian tourism and Horse & Dog will be expanded upon. New topics such as innovative horse keeping or a children's program will add to the comprehensive range of offers.

Naturally, this event is Number 1 for Western riders, who can get comprehensive information about the individual disciplines as well as Western horse breeds. It is not without reason that the event is considered the ideal platform for the presentation of associations, breeders and trainers. Here horse lovers will find their breed, their discipline and the corresponding contact persons and trainers.

Think about Christmas now!

If you want to be on the safe side with a Christmas present for your loved ones, you've come to the right place: With a ticket for one of the AMERICANA evening shows, you can't go wrong. The advance sale starts at the beginning of November. You will have to hurry because both evening shows on Friday and Saturday sold out last year!

If you want to get in the mood for the number 1 event for all fans of western riding, the homepage www.americana.de offers a whole series of atmospheric video slides of the last show. Watch them and enjoy a taste of the upcoming AMERICANA!

THE SOUTHWEST REINING HORSE ASSOCIATION FUTURITY PROMISES AN OUTSTANDING SHOW

The 2020 Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity and Show will fill the historic Hardy Murphy Coliseum Complex October 20 – 25 as reining once again takes over Ardmore, Oklahoma. For most of its 36 years, the show has taken place in Ardmore and the prestigious event is annually one of the most-watched futurities of the season for the National Reining Horse Association. Participants come from across the nation and abroad for a last chance to tune and evaluate their reiners before the NRHA Futurity in Oklahoma City.

But with $100,000 added to the Billingsley Ford Open and $33,500 to the Custom Made Dunit Non Pro, the one-go Futurities are much more than just get-ready events. Last year's Open Futurity champion Craig Schmursal earned $18,488 for his win on Shining On Ruf (Not Ruf At All X boom Shine Sally) owned by Vaughn Zimmerman.

"We especially thank the owners, trainers, riders and sponsors who have made this show a sell-out in recent years," noted former SWRHA President Kathy McCutcheon, who also spearheads the association's stallion service auction each year. That auction provides much of the added money for the show.

A new headliner in 2019 was the The Outa Dough Masters Non Pro Challenge. Randy Shepherd took top honors in that event aboard Sparkin Affairs. Winning this event for riders age 60 and Over earned Randy a trophy saddle and other special prizes and it is returning for 2020!

Throughout the week, with the headline futurities, along slates of ancillary classes and exciting events like the annual Rein in Cancer Dog Races and the Halloween Costume Lead Line, there is fun and action for everyone.

"With the increase in entries we have seen in other shows this year, we are expecting to have another full event," noted Event Manager Cheryl Cody. "We do have expanded stabling capacity with the stalls in a large tent, but we expect to be at capacity even with those added to the mix. Luckily the Hardy Murphy facility has announced an increase in the number of RV parking spaces available, so that is a plus."

For more information about the Southwest Reining Horse Association or the SWRHA Futurity, call 580-759-2572 or visit www.swrha.com.

NRHA FUTURITY ADMISSION POLICY

The NRHA Futurity will be closed to the General Public in 2020 due to the coronavirus pandemic. While the front doors of the Jim Norick Arena in Oklahoma City will not be open, industry insiders and people involved in the horse world are encouraged to attend and enter through the barn entrances.

through December 3 to enter any arena or event. However, on December 4 and 5, badges for general admission to get into the Jim Norick Arena will be available for purchase in the Horse Show Office. The amount sold will be determined by the maximum capacity allowed in the facility at that time due to Covid-19 constraints.

Admission will not be charged from November 25

PICK UP YOUR NRBC AWARDS AT THE SWRHA FUTURITY

Due to Covid-19 restrictions that reduced the amount of awards given in the arena at the National Reining Breeders Classic, there was a substantial number of people who did not collect their awards after their class.

If you were unable to pick up your awards at the National Reining Breeders Classic Show, you will be able to arrange to have them brought to the SWRHA Futurity.

The NRBC gave awards to 8 places in each ancillary class and futurity division and to all finalists in all divisions in the Classic.

If you would like to have your awards brought to Ardmore, just send an email to info@nrbc.com with a list of your placings in the different classes and divisions. The Pro Management staff will bring them to Ardmore, and you can pick them up there!

Calling all reiners!

THE FARNAM AQHA WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW

Reining at the Farnam AQHA World Championship Show is set for November 6-10. For a chance to watch some of the industry's top reiners vie for AQHA World Championship titles, plan to attend!

The Senior Reining Level 3 Preliminaries and Level 2 Finals kick off at 8 a.m. on Friday, November 6 in the Adequan Arena. Here the Level 2 World Champions will be crowned, and the Level 3 Finalists will be decided. The Level 1 Amateur Reining will follow later in the day in the Jim Norick Arena.

On Saturday, November 7, the Adequan Arena will be host to the Select Reining Prelims followed by the Junior Reining Level 3 Prelims and Level 2 Finals, and then the Amateur Reining Prelims and Level 2 Finals on the next day. The evening performance in the Norick arena on that Sunday, November 8 will be the pinnacle event for 4- and 5-year-old horses with the Junior Reining Level 3 World Championship Finals.

The Select Reining Finals will start the day at 8 a.m. sharp on Monday, November 9 in the Norick Arena, but don't venture far because reining horses six and older at the apex of their careers will battle it out for the Senior Reining Level 3 World Championship title!

The Amateur Reining Level 3 Finals will complete the Farnam AQHA World Show reining on Tuesday, November 10 in the Jim Norick Arena allowing two weeks of rest for reiners before the NRHA Futurity moves into Oklahoma State Fair Park.

The Farnam AQHA World Show is held November 2 – 21, 2020 at State Fair Park in Oklahoma City featuring the top horses worldwide in every AQHA sanctioned discipline. The show brings together exhibitors, owners and breeders of American Quarter Horses from around the world for three weeks of exciting competition, educational opportunities, and a bountiful trade show. THE ROLLBACK

Take a step back in time with THE ROLLBACK! Beginning in 2020, each issue will feature a bit of reining history through articles WorldWide Slide owner Cheryl Magoteaux Cody has written covering the events, the people, the skills and the art of reining. It's a chance to remember when...

This article about the NRHA Derby & Super Stakes Show was printed in a 1996 issue of Performance Horse.

Hands down, Todd Bergen is the most outstanding rider to appear in the reining horse world in recent years. His performance at the Seventeenth Annual National Reining Horse Association Derby added another chapter to his story and helped him slide even further into the NRHA record books!

Todd's partner at the Derby was Jerry Lees Surprise and he rode the flashy bay to a score of 222.5 to ace the clean-slate finals and claim a $20,000 check, as well as a year's use of an Exiss Horse Trailer. Owned by Blue Sky Ranch and Douglas G. Holmes of Salt Lake City, Utah, Jerry Lees Surprise is by Surprise Enterprize and out of Mizzen Topsail.

Jerry Lees Surprise lived up to his name, surprising many spectators who had focused much of their attention and pre-finals speculation on the 1995 NRHA Futurity Champion, Today'smy luckyday (Doc O'Lena x Doc Alice). Owned by Tetsuro Kawashima of Japan, Today'smy luckyday had been Bergen's mount when he won the NRHA Futurity in December.

His move from Bobby Avila's Ranch in Yamhill, Oregon, to the Stone Ranch in Arizona resulted in Bobby riding the stallion at the Derby. Avila rode the stallion to the first round win, but was unable to reclaim the catbird seat in the finals.

For the soft-spoken Bergen, the Derby Championship was just business as usual and he gave most of the credit to his mount. "He's a great minded horse with a lot of ability," he said. "He never argues with you."

Doug Milholland rode Jerry Lees Surprise as a three- and four-year-old and piloted him to a finals slot at the 1994 NRHA Futurity. "Doug did a great job with him," commented Bergen.

For Bergen, 1996 brought considerable change with his acceptance of the Stone Ranch position. "The year has been different because I started riding different horses."

There was certainly no change in his winning ability with the relocation. The buzz around the Oklahoma State Fairgrounds arena on Saturday night reflected his peers' respect for his abilities.

"They're going to rename this coliseum and call it the Todd Bergen arena!" "No. They don't have to name it after him. He owns it already."

"Look, they're going to have to move this reining somewhere else so someone besides Todd can win it!"

Maybe he doesn't own the arena, but he's rewritten history at the venerable coliseum. In the past two years, Todd Bergen has won two AQHA World Championships, two NRHA Derby Open Championships, one NRHA Futurity Championship, as well as both the NRHA Derby and Futurity Limited Open top slots. If any one of these seven titles could launch a career, Todd's career track is on a lunar orbit!

Derby Reserve Championship honors went to Tim McQuay on Footworks Finest (Hollywood Dun It x Great Footwork), owned by David Silva of Tolland, CT. Ironically, this duo drew up in the same position they had at the Futurity finals – first to go. Just as they had at the Futurity, they set a blistering pace, posting a 221.5 score that was good enough to hold off all challengers except Bergen.

The Limited Open Derby title went to Andy Shafer on another Surprise Enterprise son, Cowboy (Surprise Enterprise x Ms Poco Roco Jac) owned by Rex and Helen Hester of Bear Creek, NC. The big-stopping buckskin scored a 218.5 to edge ahead of Limited Open Co-Reserve Champions, Steve Schwartzberger on Kick Dec Bar (Texas Kicker x Lara Dec Bar) and Jeffrey Petska on Carol Rose's Sheza Shiny Mixer (Shining Spark x Miss Donna Secker).

Matt Kimes of Scottsdale, Arizona, captured the Non-Pro Derby Championship on Flash Me A Chick (Smart Chic Olena x Tamu Maggie Gold). Matt posted a score of 218 to win nearly $6,000, as well as a Saddlesmith saddle, R.A. Guthrie Buckle, Darnall Signature Bit, and a year's use of an Exiss Three-Horse Trailer.

Derby Non-Pro Reserve honors went to Richard Berquist of Longmont, Colorado, on Hickory Chic Olena, another Smart Chic Olena out of Sr. Hickory Lynn.

The Limited Non-Pro division of the Derby made its debut and was enthusiastically received with 38 entries eligible. The Intermediate Derby title went to Jeff Fox of Plano, Texas on Mr Roscoe Brown (Hollywood Dun It x Codys Car Balleu).

The Derby and Superstakes show, held June 19-22 in Oklahoma City, combines the NRHA Derby and the NRHA Superstakes, formerly held in St. Paul, Minnesota, and Columbus, Ohio. The combined show has been held in Oklahoma City since 1994.

The Superstakes, a sire incentive program, awards cash prizes to the owners of the get of subscribed stallions as well as the owners of the stallions themselves. The Superstakes is based on the first go-round of the Derby, for horses eligible for the program.

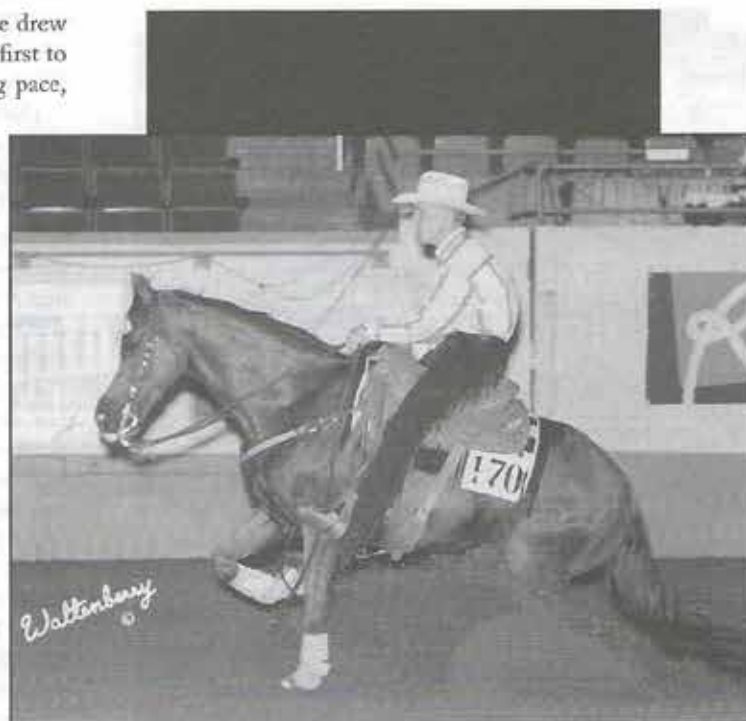

Jackie Krshka rode Dunit Rawhide (Hollywood Dun It x Ima Spanish Skip), to the Superstakes Open Championship. Owned by Express Ranches, the big buckskin stallion was the consensus crowd favorite for the Oklahoma City audience.

Greeted with an unprecedented amount of applause each time they entered the arena, this duo scored a 222.5 to earn the Superstakes Open title and over $8,000.

Sanditch Whiz (Topsail Whiz x Sanditch Dude), ridden by Donnie Bricker for owner Steve Morisse of Astoria, Oregon, was more than capable of earning the score needed to win the Limited Open division of the Superstakes. Their 220 aced the field of entries and they finished two and one-half points ahead of runner-up Todd Arvidson on Jacs Great Spirit (Hollywood Jac 86 x Miz Gold Pine), owned by Bill and Faune Conner, of Fayetteville, Arkansas.

Mandy McQuay and Faithfully Dun (Hollywood Dun It x Miss Okie Too) were the Superstakes Non-Pro Champions with Matt Kimes, Non-Pro Derby Champion, rode Flash Me A Chick to the title.

Jeff Fox, Limited Non-Pro Derby Champion on Mr Roscoe Brown.

Dunnit Rasohide, NRHA Super Stakes Open Champion, ridden brilliantly by Jackie Kryska.

Michael Hancock of Rocky Mount, NC, and Lacy Jay Dun It (Hollywood Dun It x Lacy Jay Dalton) earning the reserve title.

The Superstakes also awards cash prizes to the owners of sires of the winning horses. The clear winner on that front was Hollywood Dun It, owned by Tim McQuay of Tioga, Texas. Hollywood Dun It, a Derby winner himself, was the sire of five of the nine top-three finishers and McQuay collected over $7,200 in sire awards for the distinctive stallion. Hollywood Dun It's earnings at the 1996 Superstakes moved him into third place in the all-time Superstakes sire earnings list behind BH Enterprise and Hollywood Jac 86.

The NRHA's Annual Youth Team Tournament was a headline attraction at the Derby and Superstakes Show, and this year's winning team, The Three Amigos, consisted of Synnove Marlow, Brie Van Rees and Tommy Milnes. Each received a Saddlesmith Trophy Saddle, a $1,000 scholarship and other prizes and awards and, as usual, the Youth Team Tournament Silent Auction was a popular event, raising future scholarship funds for the program.

On Thursday, the Annual National Reining Horse Association World Championship Awards Banquet was held at the National Cowboy Hall of Fame. The 1995 World Champions were crowned and the NRHA Hall of Fame inductions were held. This year's inductees were all equine – Carol Rose's Diamond Sparkle, Bill Horn and Mitch Zuckerman's Trashadealous, and Dick Randall's Topsail Cody.

Along with the Derby and Superstakes, a full double slate of NRHA classes was held, boosting total entries to nearly 600 for the week.

Side Smoke (Docs Sidewinder x Miss Gun Smoke 1), owned by Dave and Ginger Kingston of Phoenix, Arizona, and ridden by Craig Schmersal, won the first NRHA Class of the week – the $1,000 Added Open. But that win would be only the first of Side Smoke's appearances in the limelight during Derby week.

The Friday night $3,000 Added Saddlesmith Open class was a thriller, with Side Smoke and Craig tying for the win with Jody Brainard and Wranglers Dually, owned by Floyd Percival of Guthrie, Oklahoma. After the workoff, the two horses were declared Co-Champions as they tied a second time.

Saturday night, Side Smoke was back with owner Ginger Kingston aboard, and he carried her to the Championship of the $1,000 Added Intermediate Non-Pro class. Ginger also won the 47 entry $200 Added Limited Non-Pro on Friday with Real Bad Deal (Genuine Doc x Diamonds Blonde).

Another big winner for Derby week NRHA classes was multi-World Champion Shannon Raymond on Freckles Top Prize. Raymond, a student at Elon College in North Carolina, won both the Thursday Non-Pro class and the $3,000 Saddlesmith Non-Pro class on Saturday. Like Raymond, Bonnie Hippensteel of Selma, NC, won two first on her good horse, Not Dun Smokin (Hollywood Dun It x Miss Glenda Smoke) – both $1,000 Added Novice Horse Non-Pro classes.

The winner of the $1,000 Limited Open on Wednesday was Josette Conti on Workmans Miss (Workmans Jose x Miss Fisty Jess), owned by Louis Workman of Pilesgrove, NH. Ron Emmons claimed that same title in Friday's Limited Open class on Just Plain Doin It for the Just Plain Partners of Santa Ynez, CA. 🐾
