CASEY DEARY WINS NRBC OPEN CHAMPIONSHIP WITH AMERICASNEXTTOPGUN

Casey Deary's career sky-rocketed when he won the National Reining Horse Association Futurity on Americasnextgunmodel. Deary and the incredible mare accumulated nearly $300,000 in earnings, so it was a poignant moment for the Weatherford, Texas, trainer when he rode one of her colts, Americasnexttopgun, owned by Jody Puno of Puno Performance Horses, to win the National Reining Breeders Classic Open Championship on Saturday evening.

The crowd was with Deary and Americasnexttopgun, by Walla Walla Whiz, from the first flawlessly executed stop. When the score was announced - a 226.5 - the crowd erupted. "I knew I had enough horse to win it, so I showed him for what I knew he could do and made sure to not overdo it," Deary shared. "I loved his mother. She's the one who changed my career. This horse is amazing and is maybe the most athletic thing I have ever ridden. There is not a weak spot on him, so I'm grateful to finally put it all together."

While elated about the win, and accompanying check of $75,000, Deary admitted he was exhausted as well. Understandable, of course, because he was riding three horses in the finals, and his friend Jordan Larson had catch rode another of his horses. With Americasnexttopgun's full sibling, Americas Supermodel, Deary tied for the Reserve Championship. His third entry, Gunna-beabrightstar, finished twelfth, while Larson and Lonely At The Top tied for eighth.

"It was a very busy evening," Deary said. "I have an exceptional group of people I work with, from my vets and my farrier. My wife is incredibly supportive. My owners are amazing. I thank Jordan for riding my other horse. I don't think there is anyone better in the business than him to step on one and immediately figure out how to ride it."

Deary added that the Ford Arena and the entire Tulsa facility is a great place to show a horse. "I love that pen. I love to have a horse that can really run, and I like the opportunity to show it off. Tulsa is amazing, the ground is great. The guys who take care of the ground take such good care of us," he said. "I also can't say enough good things about Cheryl Cody and her team. To even dream of putting on that many big horse shows together would give anyone a headache, and they have far exceeded our expectations."

Deary and Americas Supermodel, owned by Whitmarsh Arcese Partnership, marked a 224.5 to tie for Reserve, worth $41,000. Also tying for reserve were Jason Vanlandingham and A Vintage Smoke, who are former NRBC Champions and coming off of a big win at the NRHA Derby. A Vintage Smoke, by A Sparkling Vintage out of Lady Smoke Peppy, is owned by Diane Mesmer.

Ruben Vandorp Wins NRBC Open Level 3 Championship with Spooks Gotta Crush

Competing as the last rider in a finals as tough as the NRBC Open can be rather nerve-wracking. That's why Ruben Vandorp only watched one other run. "I tried not to follow any of the class. I knew what was winning it, but I didn't know how deep it was. I watched the very first horse go, and that's the only one I watched all night," he shared.

It must have been the right strategy, as Vandorp and his horse Spooks Gotta Crush gave it their all. The result? A score of 224 which secured the Level 3 Championship and tied for fourth in the Level 4. All totaled, the night's earnings came to $46,321. "I was tickled pink with my horse," Vandorp said. "I cannot really believe this just happened. You always hope it does, but a buddy of mine explained it to me once. He said the reason winning is so much fun is because it is so damn hard to do, so when it works it is absolutely amazing."

Vandorp purchased Spooks Gotta Crush, by Spooks Gotta Whiz out of Megs Sugar Baby, from Trey Poole as a two-year-old. "I made the Futurity finals on him and won Tulsa on him. He's just been a blast. Last year I had some health issues and Jason Vanlandingham was kind enough to show him for me and they made the Open Derby finals and were second in the Shootout at the Run for a Million reining," Vandorp said. "He's just been a great horse and is part of the family. We love him."

Inundated with texts of encouragement prior to his run, Vandorp credited his friends. "I can't narrow down my thanks to just a few people. It takes a village with me. I got so many texts from people encouraging me and saying they were praying for me and lifting me up. I had zero worries or reservations when I went into the pen," he said.

Dalton Vanlandingham Wins NRBC Open Levels 1 & 2 on Ruff Little Whiz

Reining fans likely remember watching Not Ruf At All and Jason Vanlandingham compete at the major events, always wearing a signature red shirt and saddle pad. During the first section of the NRBC Open Finals on Saturday, another Vanlandingham entered the pen wearing the same color scheme. Dalton Vanlandingham piloted Ruff Little Whiz, a colt by the memorable stallion and owned by his father, to a score of 220.5 to win the Championship of Levels 1 and 2.

"It's actually the same shirt and pad," the 21-year-old shared.

The ensemble apparently retained some of the good luck, as Dalton and Ruff Little Whiz earned checks totaling $11,402.

"When I ran in there, I could tell he was locked in from the time I ran into the gate. He's a little trickier horse to get locked in, but he definitely showed up for the finals," Vanlandingham shared. "He was super in the preliminary round. I had a little late lead change, and that kept us from making the Level 4 finals, but it is what it is."

Dalton has ridden Ruff Little Whiz off and on since the colt was two years old. "I started him as a two-year-old, and he was a little, tiny thing. We actually nicknamed him 'Little Man.' Ever since the beginning he has been a nice, fun horse to ride. Dad thought he was a superstar going into his three-year-old year, but he got hurt so he sat out from the NRHA Futurity and Derby," Dalton shared. "So this is his first major event."

The two Vanlandinghams work well together. "We have some similarities, but also some differences. I like to go ahead and pitch it to them, and he likes to make sure everything is perfect. When I can get on one after him, though, it's easy to pitch it away and let them do their thing," Dalton said with a smile. "I thank my mom and dad for sure. They have always been right behind me no matter what I did. They have been there every step of the way."

Ann Salmon-Anderman and Ruf Lil Joe Take Open Prime Time Championship

Ann Salmon-Anderman and her homegrown mare Ruf Lil Joe took home the Open Prime Time Championship of this year's NRBC. Anderson and the mare, by Lil Joe Cash out of Dunit A Lil Ruf, marked a 221.5 (includes handicap) in the finals to take the title. They also finished tied for fourth in the Level 2, bringing total earnings for the night to $5,061.

would be fine, and if not, that would be fine, too. Shortly before the Futurity she started coming around, and now she has really matured into such a fun horse," Anderman said.

As for their finals run, Anderman had only one goal. "I wanted to do better than I did in the go rounds, and I wanted to go harder, and she did. I was really happy," she said. I thank my husband Monte and my vet, Dr. John McCarroll. I also have the greatest crew in the world

Anderman's blue hen mare Dunit A Lil Ruf has produced earners of more than $406,000, included such standouts as Patriot and Ruf Lil Magnum. Surprisingly though, almost all of her offspring have been colts, so when Ruf Lil Joe was born, Ann and her husband, Monte, decided to keep her.

to ride with daily, and that is Ruben Vandorp and his crew, and Brian Bell and his crew. We're like a big family. I watch them and strive to be as good as them every day. They are wonderful inspirations to ride with."

"We had seven babies, and this was the only filly. I felt it would be terrible if we ever lost Dunit A Lil Ruf and not had one of her babies to continue the line," she said. "This mare has already had two foals, and I love them."

Looking ahead, it looks like Ruf Lil Joe will get a well-deserved break. "I think we might pull her shoes and let her have the rest of the year off," Anderman said. "Then we will go to the derbies as a seven-year-old. I'd love to get her lifetime earnings up a little more, and it's nice to have one more year to do that."

Anderman shared that Ruf Lil Joe's career got off to a slower start; the filly was a bit immature. "She was really nervous and feely, so we decided if she made the Futurity it

Marie Kleiner and This Gun Works Win NRBC Development Division

The Development Division at the NRBC adds another opportunity to win money for those horses who might not have as much show expensive. With $10,000 in added money, the division pays well, and for no additional entry fee. The Development Division is decided in the preliminary round, and Marie Kleiner and This Gun Works taking first in the division with a 217.5. The win was worth $6,101.

"He is a four-year-old, and this was his first major event," Kleiner said of the colt, by Gunners Tinseltown out of Reminic At Work. "I have been riding him with Craig Schmersal for the last four months. I didn't really know what to expect going in, but he was super hooked and he turned real nice. We did have an underturn the first direction which was totally my fault, but after that he was really nice."

Kleiner noted that she has been pleased with the colt's progress. "We have just been working on making sure the maneuvers are coming along and that everything is coming together. Craig has been watching me constantly and helping and coaching me to where we had him ready for this," she said. "I thank his owner, Jennifer Greenleaf, for letting me ride and show this horse. I also thank Craig and Ginger and the whole team at Schmersal Reining Horses. They have been super supportive. I also thank everyone else that has been helping me and encouraging me and trying to get me ready for this."

INDY ROPER WINS NRBC NON PRO LEVEL 4 CHAMPIONSHIP ON SPOOKS SHOW TIME

Indy Roper is still glowing from her big win just months ago in Oklahoma City when she won the National Reining Horse Association Derby Non Pro Level 4 Championship on her horse Spooks Show Time. The pair are on a role, because on Friday afternoon, they added another line to their resume with the NRBC Non Pro Level 4 title.

For Ricotta, watching Roper show was even more nerve-racking than competing himself. "I get really nervous. My hands start sweating because it's a lot of pressure on me, too," he shared. "I was very proud. Indy is a dream Non Pro rider. She's super talented and has a lot of feel and is very determined when she is going into the show pen."

"I'm over the moon," she said following the awards ceremony.

Roper and Spooks Show Time marked a 221.5 in the finals but had drawn up early and had to wait through many more runs. "I just got out of everyone's way and went back to the trailer and just took a breath. There were so many nice horses in the finals, there was no way to know what could happen," she said.

The score held, and Roper received several great prizes, including a two-horse trailer from Twin Cities South, a saddle from Kyle Tack, and numerous other awards. She also was presented with a check for $30,000.

Roper was quick to give credit to her trainer Marco Ricotta. "I'm so appreciative of him. He worked very, very hard, and had my horse so prepared," she said.

Spooks Show Time is a seven-year-old by Spooks Gotta Whiz out of Dolittle Lena. "This was definitely a bonus year for us," Roper said, referring to the recent rule change that allows seven-year-olds to show in Derby competition. "He had some injuries last year and we gave him the time off he needed. He came back this year with vengeance, so having this year is a blessing."

Ricotta added that Spooks Show Time's demeanor is one of the qualities that makes him a winner. "He is really good-minded, plus he doesn't require a lot of tuning. It's easy for me because he is super talented. We just keep him healthy and happy," he said.

Next up is the Best of the West. "We will give him a little more time off and then show him there," Roper said. "Eventually this horse is going to home to Roper Farms, and there is a whole line of girls ready for him. We're pretty excited to Ricotta added, "It will be a fight. Everyone wants him."

Roper said the win was made even more special because her mother was able to be in Tulsa to watch. "She made the trip here this year. It was special to have her. I thank her and all my family. I also thank Marco and Jenny Ricotta and their whole team," she said.

Addisyn Schmersal Takes NRBC Non Pro Level 4 Reserve Championship on Face The Attitude

When a Schmersal shows Face The Attitude, big things happen. Three years ago, with Craig Schmersal at the reins, the mare won the NRHA Futurity Level 4 Championship.

After a three-year hiatus, the great mare returned to the show pen, this time with Addisyn Schmersal. They may not have been a team long, but they executed an awesome run to mark a 221 and win not only the NRBC Non Pro Level 4 Reserve Championship, but also the Championship of Levels 2 and 3. All totaled, Schmersal won $29,500 in the finals.

"I'm pretty excited. It was my third time showing her. She stayed with me and was really good," Schmersal said. "I felt a lot of pressure because of how much she's won, and it was a little more stressful with her because I haven't ridden her as much. I didn't really know what was going to happen, but she was really good and I'm excited I get to show her."

Face The Attitude, by Pale Face Dunit and out of Miss Lil Addy Tude, returned to the Schmersal's barn following the NRHA Derby. "I had no idea we were bringing her back. She showed up at the Derby. I saw her get out of the trailer and asked what we were doing with her," 14-year-old Schmersal explained. "I showed her in Denver and then we brought her here."

Schmersal and Face The Attitude had a great NRBC from beginning to end, marking a 220 in the preliminary round, pocketing close to $4,000. "I thank my parents for allowing me to show this mare and helping me get to where I am today. I also thank my brothers for supporting me," she said.

Caroline Buchanan Wins Non Pro Level 1 Championship with Smokin Paleface

Caroline Buchanan had never competed at the NRBC prior to this year, but if Friday's Non Pro finals are any indication, she's already a fan. She and her horse Smokin Paleface qualified for the finals of Non Pro Levels 1, 2, and 3, and when the day was done, had finished as the NRBC Non Pro Level 1 Champions. Their score of 214.5 was also good enough to place them in a tie for second in the Level 2, as well as part of a tie for third in the Level 3. All totaled, they won $7,077.

"I'm pretty excited. The run felt really good. He's been working well for me this past month. Today my game plan was just to be clean and try to make the same run I did in the preliminaries, but fix my mistakes," she said, referring to the moment in the preliminary round where her horse fell out of stride. "In the finals we fixed that, but I did have an overspin."

Buchanan and Smokin Paleface, by Pale Face Dunit out of Lost In Tinseltown, are coming off of another big win, having won the Youth World Reining Championship. "When I ran at the Youth World I went in a little slow, so this time I ran in fast and he felt really good," she said. "This horse is really easy, and he takes care of me really well. He is such a sweet horse."

Buchanan, a 16-year-old who is about to begin her junior year of high school, also rides with Craig Schmersal. "It's awesome that Addisyn and I both won today," she said.

David McGee and Knaughtybyknature Win NRBC Non Pro Prime Time

With a score of 215.5, David McGee and Knaughtybyknature won not only the NRBC Non Pro Prime Time title, they also finished reserve in the Level 3, taking home $9,312.

"He ran through the gate really strong. He felt really good and relaxed, and stopped and backed up well. Our first two turns felt like plus halves," McGee recalled of the run. "The best thing he did was he stayed on the circles, and then he just fell in and did that small slow. It's a tricky move, but he did it."

McGee likely knows all there is to know about Knaughtybyknature, by Magnum Chic Dream out of Princess In Diamonds. "We've had him since he was a baby, and he's seven years old now," McGee shared. "I have to give a huge thank you to Andrea Fappani, who helped me with him a couple nights ago. He didn't have to help me, but I asked him if he had a few minutes. He got on my horse, rode him around, and showed me some stuff to do. I can tell you it wouldn't have worked out if he hadn't done that."

Friday's finals was the last hoorah for David McGee and Knaughtybyknature. "This was his last big Derby, and my last ride on him. My wife has been wanting to ride him, so she's going to start showing him in Memphis," McGee shared. "She's very excited."

Congratulations on $2 Million, Lance!

We're sending out an UNOFFICIAL congratulations to Lance Griffin. Prior to the NRBC, he was approximately $4,000 away from becoming an NRHA Two Million Dollar owner.

He won approximately $5,400 tonight in the Non Pro finals, so it looks like he passed that milestone.

While this is unofficial until verified by NRHA, we are sending out an early congratulations to Lance!

FAPPANI AND LENGEL TIE FOR WIN OF HOLLYWOODSTINSELTOWN OPEN FUTURITY AT NRBC

The pinnacle of futurity competition at the National Reining Breeders Classic was held Friday, August 28, with the incredible $61,000 added Hollywoodstinseltown Open Futurity. The 114-entry futurity featured top riders from all over, and when the last horse had left the arena, there was tie for the win. Abby Lengel and Andrea Fappani had both marked a 224. While they could have elected to run-off for the title, they decided to stay co-champions.

Fappani and Lengel weren't the only co-champions crowned, as Arno Honstetter and Kole Price tied for the Open Level 3 win, and Diego Gaona and Julie Roshelli posted identical scores to top the Open Level 1.

Abby Lengel & Thischichasbigdreams Take Hollywoodstinseltown Open Futurity Level 4 Co-Championship

Prior to the NRBC, Thischichasbigdreams was giving Abby Lengel a lot of confidence. The mare's style and feel had her convinced she was special and ready to compete. That feeling started to leave, though, when Lengel arrived in Tulsa. "I felt like she was special early on, and then I got to this horse show and things didn't feel like they do at home," Lengel admitted. "It stressed me out a little bit because she didn't act like herself."

That all changed when the two walked into the Ford Truck Arena. "When she went in there she fired, and she was what I thought she was going to be. She can be a little looky, but she was with me. She really fired turning and was fantastic both ways. We had a small under-turn which was my fault, but everywhere she was with me," Lengel said. "This was the first time to show her and I wasn't sure what to expect, but I couldn't be any happier with how it went."

Lengel and Thischichasbigdreams, by Magnum Chic Dream out of Slide By Shiner, marked a 224 to tie for the Open Level 4 Championship, worth $12,720. Although she had the opportunity to run-off for the win, Lengel noted it wasn't something she would elect to do. "It was her first time being shown and she's just a baby with a long career ahead of her. I'd take second place before I'd do a run-off. She's tired and I wouldn't want to risk giving her a bad experience," she said.

Lengel's customers, Krista and Paul Schulman, bought Thischichasbigdreams from the NRHA Futurity Sale. "I picked her out as a yearling, and my great customers who own the ranch that I train out of, bought her. I've been the only one to ride her at this point," she shared. "I always thought she was special. This was great to win. You can think you have a nice one, but you don't really know until you get out there. I believe this mare's a show horse for sure."

Lengel gave a special thank you to Paul and Krista. "They believe in me. They own the ranch and they trusted me when I said we should buy this mare. Also, thanks to my whole crew. Thanks to Clint Perkins, Sandy Bentien, my help Molly, and everyone who helps me. I couldn't do this without them," she said.

Andrea Fappani Wins Hollywoodstinseltown Open Futurity Level 4 Co-Championship on Thee American Dream

Over the years, Andrea Fappani has developed a distinctive style of riding and showing which has catapulted him to be one of the NRHA's leading riders with more than $5 million in earnings. It was that style that lead NRBC Board Member Pete Kyle to contact him about a yearling colt.

had a small over-turn penalty, but after that he locked in and was solid all the way through," he recounted.

He added, "I didn't go for broke, but I wanted to push him and see what I had and see if it was the same as what I had outside the pen. He was exactly the same horse, and the longer we were in the pen, the more relaxed

"Pete and Tamara Kyle owned the dam. Pete called me and told me they had one that would fit my style. I'm not sure how they knew, but this horse definitely did. Morris Kulmer, my good friend and client, bought him as a late yearling, and he's been in my program ever since. He's been special from the beginning. We knew he was great-minded from the start," Fappani shared.

That colt was Thee American Dream, by Magnum Chic Dream out of Gunner Git Ya Dun. With Fappani at the reins, the colt performed a picturesque pattern, resulting in a score of 224 to tie for the win of the Open Level 4, worth $12,720. "We didn't know how tough he was going to be, but this was his first outing and it turned out pretty special," he said.

Fappani added that Thee American Dream had an almost veteran-like feel in the show pen. "Coming in I felt pretty confident because he felt really solid like an older horse. The only thing he did was I lost his attention just a bit on the first maneuver because he was looking at the judges and we

he got. By the time we were done with the run he was really hooked up and I was really happy with it."

For Fappani, the decision to forego a run-off was an easy one. "We need to remember that these are pre-futurities and they are to get the horses ready for Oklahoma City. I think it would be kind of crazy to do a run-off just trying to win some money and a title. What we're trying to do it build these horses up," he said.

‘Morris, you told me to keep an eye out for the next one, and this will be it.’

Fappani made sure to give a special thanks to Pete and Tamara Kyle, as well as Morris Kulmer. "I thank Morris. He's had a few really nice horses with me. He didn't see this horse before we bought him, but I called him and said,

'Morris, you told me to keep an eye out for the next one, and this will be it.' He trusts me and my program, and that's what makes it all happen," he said.

Arno Honstetter & Gunnabetopdog Take Hollywoodstinseltown Open Futurity Level 3 Co-Championship

Arno Honstetter and Gunnabetopdog were the high money earners of the day, tying for the win of the Hollywoodstinseltown Open Futurity Level 3, winning the Open Level 2, and tying for third in the Open Level 4, bringing the day's earnings to $13,415.

"He was very nice. He looked around when we walked in, so I just stood there until he relaxed. He turned good the first way, and then he settled in. When he loped off, I knew he was with me. He guided for me and I could just let him do his job," Honstetter explained. "He was very nice. He worked better here on this ground. He's a big stopper but our ground is not as easy as this. It allowed him to travel much further in his stop. I still have to work on a few things overall, but I was really happy with him and how he worked here."

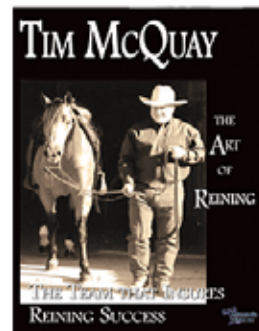

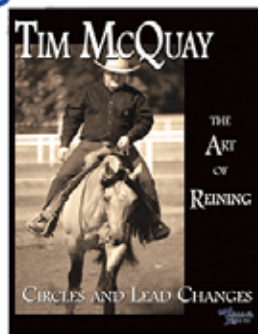

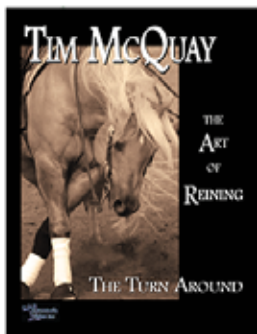

Gunnabetopdog, owned by Frederick Christen, is by Gunnatrasha out of Sparkle On Top, came through the Legacy Sale. "He was with Marco Ricotta when he was working for Storybook Stables, and then he went to Andrea Fappani," Honstetter shared. "When Andrea decided on his futurity horses, this one came back to the farm, so I got to start riding him. This was my first show with him, and he was a lot of fun, so I'm looking forward to the rest of the year with him."

With the great showing in Tulsa, Honstetter is looking forward to showing Gunnabetopdog at the NRHA Futurity. "We have a little more work to do, but I think by the end of the year I'll be able to ask him for everything," he said. "I thank my wife, as well as my boss Brenda Joyce and Rick Christen. They're great and support me in any way they can."

Kole Price Wins Hollywoodsinseltown Open Futurity Level 3 Co-Championship on Gunnastrkeyaout

Kole Price had a great day at the NRBC in the Hollywoodsinseltown Open Futurity. His three entries showed well, with Gunnastrkeyaout tying for the Open Level 3 Championship and finishing tied for third in the Open Level 4 for an $11,170 payday.

Gunnastrkeyaout, nicknamed Yadi after St. Louis Cardinals catcher Yadier Molina, is owned by Todd and Angie Albers. "They're huge Cardinal fans. I'm a Cubs fan, so I've had to adjust to that," Price laughed.

Price started Gunnastrkeyaout, by Gunnatrashya and out of Strike A Star, as a two-year-old. "This was his first time to show. He's a little lazy, so I was able to chase him out there pretty good. He showed exactly how I was hoping and how I had planned he would," Price said.

Price noted that the colt's mind and good looks bode well for his show career. "He's been very easy in general. He's great-minded, and I think he has so much eye appeal out in the show ring. I'm excited about him," he said. "We'll go home and give him a few weeks off before going to Memphis. After that we will just tune him up for the Futurity. I think he can be a contender there even if there is a lot of the year left."

Price's other entries did well, with Four Oh One K, owned by Jesse Asmussen, finishing fifth in the Level 4 and third in the Level 3 to win $8,036. His third entry, Trendsetter, who he owns with Thomas Moffit, marked a respectable 217 as well. "I was very happy with all three of them. They all showed exactly how I was hoping and thinking they would. So far, it's been a very great week for us," he said.

Price added, "I thank Todd and Angie Albers and all my owners. I thank my wife, Kelsey, for all she does so that I don't have to. I thank my groom, my farrier, my vet, my sponsors, and everyone behind the scenes. I'm the one who gets to show in the spotlight, but I think they're the ones who deserve the recognition."

Julia Roshelli Wins Level 1 Open Co-Championship on Cee Mi Diablo

Julia Roshelli's game plan for showing Cee Mi Diablo in the Hollywoodsinseltown Open Futurity was simple; show him smart. The pair competed at the Mid-Atlantic Reining Horse Association Futurity a few weeks ago. While they had done very well, Roshelli knew there were a few things she could have done differently.

In the Ford Truck Arena, Cee Mi Diablo, by Inferno 66 out of Brennas Cee, performed every maneuver asked of him, resulting in a score of 217 which clinched the Open Level 1 Co-Championship and tied for fifth in the Level 2 for a check for $1,549. "When anyone has asked me how he did today, my answer is 'perfect,' because he absolutely was," Roshelli shared. "The Mid-Atlantic was the only other time he's ever shown. He was good there, and continued on with that here."

Cee Mi Diablo, owned by J & B Partnership, was started by Roshelli's boss Brandon Brant as a two-year-old. "We've had him ever since. Brandon put a lot of time on him, and I've been on him most of his three-year-old year. Brandon helps me every day with this horse. He's turning out to be a great horse with a great mind," she said.

Although Roshelli is done showing for the week, she won't be slowing down. "I had another three-year-old I had shown in the Developing Futurity, and then Brandon will show his two derby horses next week in the Classic. We also have a non pro in the Classic, and then a non pro in the ancillary classes," she said. "The list of people I need to thank could go on and on, but of course I thank Brandon and Cathy Brant. They're always so supportive with Brandon helping and teaching me and Cathy is always behind the scenes doing so much for us. I also thank my parents at home, as well as our great group of friends and clients."

About Hollywoodtinseltown and Silva Reining Horses

The popular Hollywoodtinseltown Open Futurity is held yearly at the Tulsa Reining Classic, and has long been sponsored by one of the reining industry's most successful owner

It was only the second time for Custom Made Voodoo to see the show pen, but the colt, by Shiners Voodoo Dr out of Custom Josie, put together a stellar run with Diego Gaona at the reins. The pair scored a 217 to tie for the Open Level 1 and fifth in the Level 2 divisions, collecting $1,549.

"I really just wanted this to be a confidence building run and for us to be penalty free. I put a little pressure on him in some spots to see how he was going to do, and overall, it worked out alright," Gaona said. "I had shown him in Denver, and he was good there. He definitely had gotten a little lost in some spots there, but that's from being green. He stepped up for this show, and I'm happy with him."

Gaona started the colt as a two-year-old. "I kind of know everything about him. He's super mellow, and very consistent every day. He's just one of those horses that you know what to expect when you get out there. He's a lot of fun to ride, and extremely easy to get along with," he said.

Gaona has only been showing reining horses about four years. "I'd ridden some reiners and started a lot of two-year-olds, but I just actively started showing the last four years. I'm trying to get in the show pen more," he shared. "I have a lot of people to thank. I thank my clients who have been tremendous in supporting me and trusting me with teams, Dave and Bonnie Silva. It is named for their late stallion, Hollywoodstinseltown.

Hollywoodstinseltown was sired by NRHA Seven Million Dollar Sire and Hall of Famer Hollywood Dun It and out of Silva's NRBC Open Champion and NRHA Leading Dam Miss Tinseltown. The sparkling golden stallion had it all - incredible looks, phenomenal movement, and a great mind - and those attributes earned huge rewards in the show pen. He was an NRHA Futurity finalist, an NRBC Intermediate Open Champion, NRHA Derby Reserve Champion and member of the 2010 Gold Medal-Winning World Equestrian Games Team with Tim McQuay. His lifetime earnings exceed $185,000.

As his competitive career wound down, it was already evident that Hollywoodstinseltown would leave as dramatic a mark on the breeding world as he had in the arena. His foals showed promise early, catapulting him past the NRHA Million Dollar Sire mark in 2017, then crossed the $2 million milestone in 2019. His offspring currently have earnings over $2.5 million.

RYAN HUMPHREY AND SHOTS R FIRED TAKE SMARTPAK NON PRO FUTURITY LEVEL 4 CHAMPIONSHIP

Longtime NRBC and Tulsa Reining Classic sponsor, SmartPak opted for the sponsorship of the $27,000 added SmartPak Non Pro Futurity in this transition year. It's a perfect fit for SmartPak at a time when the highly popular "Texas Hold-em" night could not be held due to COVID-19 restrictions.

Ryan Humphrey bred, raised, and trained Shots R Fired, and on Saturday afternoon, he showed the colt to his first futurity win. The pair marked a 219 to claim the Level 4 Championship of the SmartPak Non Pro Futurity.

Shots R Fired is by Humphrey's stallion Guns R For Shootin, and the colt's dam, Freckled Whiz, is one of his former show horses. "We did pretty good today. He went in and did everything he was supposed to. I was happy with his circles, turns, and stops. I felt like he was good across the board," Humphrey shared.

It was the second event for Shots R Fired. He finished second at his first show in Virginia. "He's obviously going to go to the Futurity in Oklahoma City, but as for between now and then, we need to make some decisions," Humphrey said. "First and foremost, I have to thank God. I also thank my wife and family, Justin Michels, and everyone else who has helped us with this horse along the way."

Humphrey also has an entry for the NRBC and will show on Tuesday. For him, the delay of the NRBC due to the COVID-19 pandemic worked out well. "We run a breeding farm, and because it wasn't breeding season, I am able to show at NRBC. I probably wouldn't have if it had been in April," he said.

Sheley Brien Wins Big in SmartPak Non Pro Futurity on Dirty Diamonds

Dirty Diamonds marked some big scores in the Ford Truck Arena at the NRBC during the first week of competition. With Daniel Schloemer at the reins, the flashy colt marked a 219 to finish third in the Level 4 and second in the Level 3 of the Tamarack Ranch Developing Horse Futurity.

Just two days later, owner Shelley Brien piloted him to another big score - a 218.5 - and racked up several more titles. They tied for second in the SmartPak Non Pro Futurity Level 4, tied for the win of Levels 3 and 2, and won the Level 1 outright, racking up more than $6,747 in earnings.

"I'm pretty ecstatic. I drew up at draw four; nice and early. I had a goal that I wanted to set the stage and show the judges horse much I wanted it. I wanted to show hard and confident," she said. "I took him to the Denver Summer Slide, and we won the Non Pro Futurity there, too. Then Daniel showed him here and he did well and then we did this today. This horse is just mister consistent."

Dirty Diamonds, by Whizkey N Diamonds, is out of Brien's mare Wimpys Cat Step. "I showed this horse's mom. This is her first foal, and I could not be more thrilled with him. He's been a dream. He just wants to go in and be good and dependable, and that's just what his mom was," she said.

Brien rides with Daniel Schloemer. "Daniel has done a great job with this horse. I thank him and Kari Klingenberg for all their help. They have been amazing. They are care much about us and what we want to accomplish. I've never had so much fun and so much confidence. I couldn't be here without them," she said.

Brien also said her husband Chris deserves special recognition. "I thank him. He supports me in this. He married into the horses and he didn't know what he was getting in to," she said. Chris and Sheley have two children; Jax, 10, and Reese, 8. "Reese is going to start showing this horse's mom. To watch my daughter show her is going to be very special since I'll be on the baby and she'll be on the mom."

George Lawrence Takes Wins in SmartPak Non Pro Futurity on Shes Big Timin

Shes Big Timin caught George Lawrence's eye when the stunning mare was just a two-year-old, but it wasn't only her good looks that got his attention. Her breeding also played a major role. "She's by my stud Wimpys Littlecolonel, so I wanted to help prove the stud," he said of the mare, who's out of Plus Her Big Time. "When Wimpys Littlecolonel was in between trainers we would ride him at home, and he had a nice, free stride and was really good look around or anything; she just did what she was supposed to be in the face. She's that way, too."

Those traits helped Lawrence and the mare mark a 218.5 in the first event. They took Reserve in the SmartPak Non Pro Futurity Level 4, and tied for the win of Levels 3 and 2, earning a check for $6,145. "She was good and very calm. I was a little nervous because it was the first time to show her, but she just packed me around," Lawrence shared. "She didn't to do."

Part of the pair's success could be credited to Lawrence's new good luck charm - his six-month old daughter Evalyn. "This was the first show with our newborn daughter. Chloe said she's the good luck charm, so maybe I'll start doing well if I take her to each show," he said with a laugh. "I thank my wife and my good luck charm. I also thank Josh and Carri Visser. I bought this mare from Josh as a two-year-old, and have been taking some lessons with him, too."

Although George is finished showing for this event, Chloe had two horses entered in the NRBC Non Pro.

Tish Fappani and Joes Genes Claim Co-Reserve Championship in SmartPak Non Pro Futurity

Although Tish Fappani has been to the Expo Square in Tulsa numerous times to watch her husband Andrea show, she herself hadn't shown there. She remedied that on Saturday when she piloted Joes Genes to a score of 218.5 to tie for the Level 4 Co-Reserve Championship of the SmartPak Non Pro Futurity, as well as a tie for the Championship of the Level 3. All totaled, Fappani and Joes Genes won $5,054.

show pen," she said. "I was able to show her one-handed in the bridle and she was right there with me. She's such a good girl."

Tish and Andrea bred, raised and trained the mare. "She's very special. Her dam was one that Andrea showed who is now owned by Tamarack Ranch. We are really excited about this cross between her and Lil Joe Cash," she said.

"The run went really well. It's been a while since I've been in the show pen, and I've never even shown at this facility, so it was all new to me. It was fun to show here," she said.

Fappani added that the mare, by Lil Joe Cash out of Electric Genes, was stellar in the Ford Truck Arena. "She's such a good-minded mare. When I picked up the lope and sent her off, she got a little distracted going past the gate, but then she locked in and did everything I wanted. I probably could have pushed her harder, but it was her first time in the

The Fappani crew brought several horses to Tulsa, and with the futurity section of the event in the rearview mirror, they're turning their attention to the NRBC Classic horses. "I'm showing a Classic horse, too," she said. "I thank my family - Andrea and my boys. I also thank all the people who are part of it. Everyone here and at home is a huge part of it, and I'm thankful for all of them."

Kelle Smith Wins SmartPak Non Pro Futurity Prime Time on Exit 21

If you've watched Kelle Smith over the last several years, you'll have noticed she has only been riding offspring of Spooks Gotta Whiz. "That's the only thing I've had for the last five years or so. I must have something that is easy to train, and they're perfect for me. I love them," she said.

It looks like Smith has another good one, as she took top honors in the Prime Time division and finished in the Top 10 of the Level 4 on another Spooks Gotta Whiz; her horse Exit 21. The pair won more than $1,800 after marking a 217. "I can't say enough about how proud I am of this mare," Smith shared. "I schooled her Wednesday to see if I could show her one-handed, and I really liked how she felt then. Today she was tired, but she obviously did well."

It was the second event for Exit 21, who also competed in Denver. "We cruised through there and made the finals, but I had a major bobble there. She was still good though," Smith said.

Smith purchased Exit 21 from Michelle Kimball in October of 2019. "The thing that makes me most proud of this mare is she never had sliders or any reining training until I got her. It's just a big testimony to her to come her and show so well and be such a good girl," Smith said. "I thank Michelle for selling her to me. She didn't want to let her go, and I want to thank her because she did. I also thank Sam Smith and Fred Thomsson for their help."

Ranch Developing Horse Futurity Open Level 4 Championship, and a check for $5,260, with a score of 220.5. "He turned really, really good. I didn't run him as hard as I could have in the circles, but he stopped great. You can just point him down there, say the word 'whoa,' and he stops. He was really good," Florida said.

PS Whizzen Colonel holds a unique place in Florida's heart. He had ridden the colt's sire, Wimpys Littlecolonel, as well as his dam, PS A Whizzen Chic. PS Whizzen Colonel was bred and raised by Patsy Schultz, one of Florida's longtime customers. "Patsy passed away in February. I had worked for her forever, and it was incredibly sad," Florida shared. "Her horses got sold, and I bought this horse for another client of mine, Joe Bowman, that I've worked for for a long time. He's never won a Futurity before, and he's going to be so excited when I call and tell him. I'm excited for him, too."

Eduardo Salgado Wins Tamarack Ranch Developing Horse Futurity Levels 3 and 2 on Theoneyourelookinfor

Theoneyourelookinfor is extra special to Eduardo Salgado. He rode the mare's sister in Brazil, winning numerous titles. When he moved to the United States, he purchased the mare's dam, Jameen Olena and bred her to Shiners Voodoo Dr. "It's special because I have her sister in Brazil, and she's really similar to her sister. This is my first baby here in the United States," Salgado shared. That cross paid off, as Salgado and Theoneyourelookinfor took the Championship of the Tamarack Ranch Developing Horse Futurity Open Levels 3 and 2 for checks worth $4,790.

Salgado isn't finished showing in Tulsa. He has another horse to show in the Hollywoodsintown Open Futurity on Friday, and two horses to show in the NRBC next week. "I thank my family, my wife, my son, my brother, all my helpers and customers, and everyone who helps me. I thank everyone!" he said.

Taking second in the Level 3 was Daniel Schloemer and Dirty Diamonds with a score of 219. Dirty Diamonds, by Whizkey N Diamonds out of Wimpys Cat Step, is owned by Big Dreams Investments. The pair also placed in the Level 4 to win a total of $4,282.

Finishing Reserve in the Open Level 2 was Stefano Cagnini and PL Trashyasparkler with a score of 218. Owned by Luigi Parise, PL Trashyasparkler also placed in Levels 3 and 4 for total earnings of $3,717. PL Trashyasparkler is by Gunnatrashya out of Custom Sparkler.

"Today's run was really good, and I was really, really happy with her. I pushed her today. She turned really well, and her circles were both plus-halves, I think. She had a little bobble on the last stop, but I think she was so nice," Eduardo said of the 220-point run. "This was the first time to show her, and my plan is to show her in Vegas next and

Raphael Bourdeau and Chics Dig Sparkles Win Tamarack Ranch Developing Horse Futurity Open Level 1

Raphael Bourdeau purchased Chics Dig Sparkles a year ago as a two-year-old. The young mare, by A Sparkling Vintage out of Peppy Chic Finale, impressed him with her physical stops and good mind. Those traits paid off, as the pair earned the Tamarack Ranch Developing Horse Futurity Open Level 1 Championship.

"It was really special to win this. I moved down here from Canada about five years ago and all I wanted to do is train horses, and it feels like it paid off. It feels really good," he shared. Bourdeau and Chics Dig Sparkles also tied for seventh in the Level 2, bringing their total earnings for the day to $1,127.

The duo marked a 216 despite a small bobble. "Our first stop she might have hit the track of another horse because she came out of the stop a little bit, but the other two stops were good. She turned and circled really well, and her lead changes were good. She felt really good everywhere. I can't complain," he said.

Bourdeau works for Dany and Fred Tremblay in Overbrook, Oklahoma. "I'm going to help Dany get his horses ready, and then after that I'm going to go back to the ranch and ride some two-year-olds," he shared. "I thank my parents, Dany, Fred, and everyone who works with me."

Garrett Gentry rode KB Wimpys Gunnrunner, owned by Gary Marsolais, to a score of 215.5 to win the Open Level 1 Reserve title and place in the Top Ten of the Level 2, to win checks totaling more than $853. KB Wimpys Gunnrunner is by Wimpys Little Step and out of Dun Gotta Gunner.

DANIEL SCHLOEMER AND RECODED WIN TOYON RANCH EMERGING HORSE FUTURITY AT NRBC

The 56-entry Toyon Ranch Emerging Horse Futurity featured $4,999 in added money, and Champion Daniel Schloemer rode Recoded to a score of 220 to win $2,040.

Recoded, owned by Chandler Winard, is by Electric Code and out of Chocolate Lady Chic. Schloemer has a connection to the colt that began long before the horse was born. "We call him Oliver. Chandler showed his dam as a youth. I was working for Dan Huss and we had the horse there, and that's why I was kind of familiar with the mom," he explained. "When they asked me if I wanted to ride this colt, I was glad to be involved. I think it helps you as a trainer or a rider in general if you know the mom or dad of the one you're riding."

Schloemer took Recoded to the Rocky Mountain Summer Slide, where they made the Open Level 3 and Level 4 finals, at the end of July. "We took him to Denver before this for a little test run and then decided to bring him here. It all worked out and everyone was happy," he said.

Schloemer is focusing on his futurity horses while in Tulsa for the NRBC, and has two horses for the Tamarack Ranch Developing Horse Futurity on Friday and another for the Hollywoodstinseltown Open Futurity on Saturday.

"I thank my owners and the owner of our place. They're all wonderful. I also thank everyone behind the scenes who makes this possible. It's a team effort," he said.

Finishing second was Pierre-Luc Phaneuf on Mindy Gray's Concealed Guns. Phaneuf and Concealed Guns, by Guns R For Shootin out of Sweet Lena Shine, marked a 217 to win $1,241.

The long-reaching effects of the COVID-19 pandemic forced the postponement of the NRBC, which is annually held at the Great Southwest Equestrian Center in Katy, Texas. The event has become so important to the reining industry that the Global Reining Sports Group graciously allowed the NRBC to use the Built Ford Tough Livestock Complex at Expo Square during the dates of the Tulsa Reining Classic. Recognizing the needs of riders at this time of the year, the NRBC Board elected to hold a slate of futurities to allow riders the opportunity to show their 3-year-olds.

The Toyon Ranch Emerging Horse Futurity debuted at the 2019 Tulsa Reining Classic, and was pioneered by the Global Reining Sports Group. This futurity rounds out a tiered menu of options that allows trainers to choose the right level of competition for their horses, with the Emerging Horse Futurity focused towards 3-year-old reining horses who might not be as far along in their training or show career.

"I think it's awesome. I think we should all be very thankful for sponsors like Toyon Ranch who do so much for the sport. We couldn't do this without the generosity of them and all the sponsors," Schloemer said. "I also think the format of this show is great. We have several futurities to fit whatever horse we bring to the best of its abilities."

MADALINE CALLAWAY WINS PARAMOUNT NETWORK YELLOWSTONE ROOKIE SHOOTOUT FINALS

For the past several years, award-winning television drama Yellowstone has sponsored the Yellowstone Rookie Shootout at the NRBC. The Shootout Finals are held just prior to the Open Classic Finals in the main arena, allowing the rookies the opportunity to show in the big pen.

The Yellowstone Rookie Shootout is also known for the incredible and unique prizes for the Champion, and this year was no different. A life-sized horse, emblazoned with Yellowstone signage, might be one of the largest trophies ever.

"I think it's pretty cool. I'm not sure how I'm going to get it home, but we will figure it out," said Yellowstone Rookie Shootout Champion Madaline Callaway.

Callaway won the Shootout after marking a 214.5 on Electric Coded Trash, an Electric Code gelding out of Got Trashed. Electric Coded Trash is owned by Madeline's mother Nicol Callaway. "This horse has been super good all week. All my runs were pretty consistent, and he just kept getting better every time," she said. "I have to stay calm because he can be a pretty nervous horse. I just figured I'd ride whatever horse he was tonight. He felt good, so I just let him do his thing."

Callaway, a junior studying communications at Baylor

University, rides with Jared Leclair. "He just told me to go in there and keep riding and doing what I did in my past runs," she said. "I have never shown here before, so it was really cool to be in the big pen. I liked it a lot."

Callaway gave a special thank you, noting, "I thank my mom mostly. She has supported me through everything and has helped me with all the horses."

ANDREA FAPPANI SWEEPS OPEN AND OPEN CLASSIC CHALLENGE WITH MODERN GUN AND PLATINUM VINTAGE

Andrea Fappani & Modern Gun

Friday night's Open Classic Challenge and $25k Open featured 17 exemplary horses and riders that had the crowd at the edge of its seat from the beginning. Whoops and hollers emanated from the Ford Truck Arena, with some of the loudest being for Andrea Fappani.

Fappani made the most of it, winning the $25k Open on Modern Gun, and taking second in the Open and winning the Open Classic Challenge with Platinum Vintage.

Modern Gun, a former NRBC Open Champion who had lifetime earnings exceeding $213,000 prior to the event, earned $7,166, while Platinum Vintage, with more than $308,000 in lifetime earnings, took home $15,438.

"I feel great. I can't be asking for much more than what we had tonight. These are two amazing horses," Fappani said.

Platinum Vintage, owned by Silver Spurs Equine, is by A Sparkling Vintage out of Starjac Miss. "Platinum Vintage has been on the top of my list of all-time favorite horses for a long time. Todd Bergen showed him early on, and I've loved this horse since I've had him," Fappani said. "The plan this year was to go for the Run for a Million. We finished third last year and that did not settle very well with me. It was one little rider mistake that cost me, so we were so excited to go back. When that went away, we were disappointed, but we decided to bring him to the Open here at NRBC because it's always one of our favorites."

Platinum Vintage proved he was a crowd favorite, as there were cheers the entire run. "I loved the fact that the crowd supported him so much. We did some amazing circles. They were probably the best circles I've had in a long time," Fappani shared.

The only bobble on the run came during a rollback, which was reviewed. "They thought it might have been a break of gate, but it wasn't. It cost us a little there, but other than that he was amazing," Fappani said. "He will probably be done for the year, but I don't know. I may want to come back one more time. He's pretty cool."

Modern Gun, by Gunners Special Nite out of Taris Modern Design, is owned by MS Stables. For Fappani, the $25k Open was a chance to show for good money one more time. "We had a bobble in the go round, so we missed the finals. We did the same thing at the Derby, so I just wanted to make it up. I know this is not as big as winning the NRBC Classic, but I wanted another run under our belt. He stepped up, even with having a run in the preliminaries yesterday," Fappani shared. "It gave me the answer that I had him ready, it was just that bobble that kept him out."

Fappani noted that he loves to hear the crowd while showing. "It's a lonely place in the arena, and when the crowd is not behind you, it's even more so. When you have the crowd, it pushes you to do more. I love the pressure of that. If you make a mistake, they let you know," he said. "I thank my whole team. I also thank the owners, who are the backbone of our job. Without them, we wouldn't be here. The owners of these two horses have been especially great. They have always trusted me and my program, and that means so much to me."

BAILEY KOLSUN & DIAMOND STUDDED GUNS - NRBC NON PRO LEVELS 3 & 4 CLASSIC CHALLENGE CHAMPIONS

An exciting run-off decided the Non Pro Classic Challenge Championship, and in the end it was Bailey Kolsun and Diamond StudDED Guns who emerged victorious. All totaled, Kolsun and the flashy gelding won $9,237.

"The run-off was fun. It was the last time I was going to show him this year. He's eight and he doesn't owe me anything," Kolsun said.

In their original run, Kolsun and Diamond StudDED Guns marked a 219.5. "The first run I had a blast. He stopped huge in this nice arena. In the run-off I had a little trouble guiding him out of my second lead change, but he ran and stopped better than the first run," she shared.

Kolsun purchased Diamond StudDED Guns, by Gunnatrashya out of Like To Flo, as an unshown three-year-old. "I've been riding with Ruben Vandorp ever since. I've shown this horse and made the finals everywhere, and now I'm having fun with him as an older horse," she said. "I thank my parents and brothers back home in Canada for their unconditional support. I also thank Ruben for all his help and encouragement."

Diamond StudDED Guns will get a well-deserved break. "He'll have a couple months off and then we will bring him back next spring," Kolsun said.

Tristan Bagby & Shina Gun NRBC Non Pro Classic Challenge Levels 1 & 2 Ltd. Non Pro [2]/ARC Ltd. Non Pro Champions

Although Tristan Bagby and Shina Gun didn't win the run-off for the Level 3 and 4 of the Non Pro Classic Challenge, they still won numerous divisions. In addition to the Championship of the Classic Challenge Levels 1 & 2, they also won the second slate of the Limited Non Pro as well as the ARC Limited Non Pro. Because they also placed in the higher levels, they won more than 10 checks totaling $10,150.

Shina Gun is an eight-year-old stallion by Gunner out of Shiner Lite. "He's a stud we raised, so we have had him his whole life. He is so special to us, and has been so good to me this year," Bagby said. "It is my first year to show him, and I am so thankful to be able to ride him."

Bagby and Shina Gun marked a 219.5 in their regular run. "The first run he was really good everywhere, and I was really happy with him. He was kind of tired coming into the run-off, but I couldn't have asked anymore of him," she said. "I thank my parents and my grandparents for letting me show him. I thank Bobby Avila and his whole crew, and my farrier who made a good call on changing his shoes for this arena."

Paul Queen & Outta Dough NRBC Non Pro Classic Challenge Prime Time Champion & Non Pro Prime Time High Point Champion

Outta Dough has been in Paul Queen's life for a long time, but the flashy stallion was actually a secret in the beginning. "My mom kept him a secret from me when she first bought him years ago. I found out about him when I was going through the registration book. She had him in California with Mike Berg and he did a great job with him. I've had some wonderful trainers who have helped me keep him going. Jared Leclair has been awesome lately," Queen shared. "This horse will always be part of the family.

the Non Pro Classic Challenge Prime Time division and also claiming the Prime Time High Point Championship. In Sunday's competition alone, the pair won $4,076.

"Today went really well. He likes a big arena like this, and he just got in there and gave me a wonderful feeling. I'm going to give him some time off after this," Queen said. "I thank my mom, Jared Leclair, Jason, Kristi and Mike Berg - a lot of people."

Raeanna Thayne & Coded N Karma NRBC Youth 14 - 18 Classic Challenge Champions

Raeanna Thayne and Coded N Karma had a busy day, competing in both the Ford and Mustang Arenas. The duo pulled off a win in the Youth 14-18 Classic Challenge. "He was really good. I just took him in and loped around, and he was really good and solid," Thayne shared.

She was using the Youth classes as a warmup for the Non Pro classes. "I just wanted to have a pretty run and see where I was because I was also showing in the non pro right after that," she said.

In addition to showing at reining events, Thayne and Coded N Karma have started a new venture. "I've been showing him in the reined cow horse a little this year. It's fun, and he really likes it. It's something fun for him to do," she said. "I thank my parents and Dell Hendricks and Logan Cotten, as well as everyone else who has helped me this year."

Rita Clausen & Kansas City Whiz NRBC Youth 13 & Under Classic Challenge Champions

With a score of 143, Rita Clausen and Kansas City Whiz took home top honors in the NRBC Youth 13 & Under Classic Challenge. "It was a good run today. He turned really well and circled great. He was right there with me and listening very well," Clausen shared. "He was a bit lazy, but it's the end of the horse show. The run was good."

Clausen has been riding 13-year-old Kansas City Whiz for four years, showing him in youth and green reiner classes. She trains with Patrick Flaherty. "Patrick told me to get him turned good and circle him easy," she said. "I like riding with Patrick because he pushes me to be better. I thank him and my parents."

ARC AND ANCILLARY CHAMPIONS CROWNED AT NRBC

Sarah Locker & Snips Shining Gun ARC Non Pro & Int. Non Pro/Non Pro [2] & Int. Non Pro [2]/Non Pro High Point Champions

When Sarah Locker and Snips Shining Gun didn't make the Non Pro Classic Finals, Locker was looking for redemption. "I had a really pretty 210 in the preliminaries, and we all know that doesn't get you into the finals here," she explained. "This mare is four, and I just started showing her at this show. I needed more time to get with her."

Locker entered the mare in both slates of Non Pro classes. During the classes on Thursday, the pair knocked out an impressive 145. They followed that up with an even better score in Sunday's round - a 221.5! "She was great in the first slate, and then today she came back and fired everywhere, and was with me every step of the way. I couldn't be more them good luck," she said.

She noted that Xtra Voodoo Gun is the kind of horse everyone wants to be around. "He really is just the sweetest horse. Every single day he comes out and I can trust him to do his job. Today he was perfect everywhere, and he really came through. He is always so dependable, and I have loved being able to show him," she said.

Medows rides with Kole Price and shared that the advice he gave her before the run was simply, "Rid him like it's your last time."

A college freshman at TCU, Medows is currently a bio major, and aspires to be a pediatric dentist. "Horses will always be part of my life. It's something our whole family does," she said. "I thank my family, and of course Kole Price and the whole Price Performance Horses crew. I also thank my brother Jack who has done so much helping me prepare this horse and coaching me the whole way."

thrilled with how she did today," Locker shared. Not only did Locker and Snips Shining Gun win the second slate of the Non Pro and Int. Non Pro, they also won the ARC division for those classes as well, earning more than $3,500.

"This is a big, big-strided mare, so I felt confident running her harder in this bigger pen. I'm looking forward to showing her more this year after she gets some rest," she said. "I give a huge thank you to Casey Deary. After he was done taking his awards photos last night, he was ready to coach me, and he stayed today to help me. I thank him and his whole team. I also thank my mom who raised this great mare and has given me the opportunity, and my husband who is here to drive me home after a long two weeks of horse showing. I also thank my sister who has been here all week supporting me."

Payton Neiberger & Xtra Dun Step Rookie Levels 1 & 2 High Point Champion

Georgia Medows & Xtra Voodoo Gun ARC Rookie Levels 1 & 2 Champion

Earlier in the week, Payton Neiberger and Xtra Dun Step won the first slate of Rookie Levels 1 and 2, and topped the first round of the Yellowstone Rookie Shootout. On Friday, they won the second round of the Shootout, and tied for second in Rookie Levels 1 & 2, easily claiming the high point buckles for both levels.

Georgia Medows and Xtra Voodoo Gun put together a solid run to win the ARC and ancillary Rookie Levels 1 and 2, but the win was bittersweet. "We actually just sold him here. The Pritchett family will be showing him now. I wish

"My first run I had a penalty, but my run today was pretty clean. It was really good," she said. "I'll show again tomorrow in the Shootout round. After this I will probably show at the World Show."

Neiberger rides with Casey Deary and Josh Tishman. "I thank my trainers and the whole Deary barn, as well as my parents," she said.

Lisa Neiberger & All About Business
ARC Prime Time Rookie Co-Champion

It was a big day for the Neiberger family. In addition to Payton's high point championship and qualification for the Yellowstone Rookie Shootout, mom Lisa tied for the win of the ARC and ancillary Prime Time Rookie. "It was definitely a good day," Lisa shared.

Lisa rode All About Business, a five-year-old mare by Smart And Shiney out of Anne Get Your Gunner. "I ride with Casey Deary and Josh Tishman, and they told me to be brave today," she said. "I thank Casey and Josh, and for sure my husband who has been such a huge supporter of mine."

Neiberger is looking forward to showing at the AQHA World Show, as well as the NAAC Finals in Oklahoma City.

Karen Lawrence & Steppin Up Haidas
ARC Prime Time Rookie Co-Champion

Karen Lawrence purchased Steppin Up Haidas about 18 months ago, and in that time the two have been forging a new partnership. "Thankfully, Sebastian and Melanie Petroll have been helping us become a team and today is our team high," she said following her co-championship in the ARC and ancillary Prime Time Rookie classes. "I'm extremely excited. Today was a lot of fun."

Steppin Up Haidas is a nine-year-old mare by Wimpys Little Step out of Haidas Cowgirl. "She came from California, and she had some history and I had my own ways and stuff, but now she's a really good one," Lawrence said.

"Today she walked in the pen really good and was nice and quiet. She just showed really easy and was a lot of fun."

Lawrence is looking forward to competing at the SWRHA Futurity in October. "I thank Sebastian and Melanie, and I have an amazing group of friends and family who are very supportive."

Jessicah Keller & Girls Lovin Time
Nov. Horse Non Pro Levels 1 & 2 [2] Co-Champions &
Level 3 Champions

With a score of 145.5., Jessicah Keller and Girls Lovin Time tied for the win of the Nov. Horse Non Pro Levels 1 and 2, and took sole position of first place in the Level 3. It was a big day for Keller and the mare, a six-year-old mare by Shine Big Time out of Girls Love Chex.

"She has been a project, but I absolutely love her. She is the easiest horse to be around, and she is so fun and easy to show. This is the highest she has ever marked, and I'm just tickled to death," Keller shared.

The difference? Just a few tweaks and changes. "We had Dr. Bill work on her because she was just a little uncomfortable. Then, I switched her from split reins to romals because my mom told me to," Keller explained.

Girls Lovin Time was born and raised on Hilldale Farm, so it's no surprise she was welcomed back. "We got her back in around June or July of last year, but we didn't show her until this January," she explained. "My plan is to just keep showing her, although I don't know where. COVID has messed with the schedule."

Keller had several people to thank. "I thank Jim Johnson. He made it possible for us to have this mare back after we raised her. I thank my mom for supporting me and letting me show her. I thank my boyfriend Will for watching my son and helping me get ready today, and my brother for riding this mare last week while she was home and I was here," she said. "It's a team effort."

Kathryn Miller & I Got Your Remedy

Nov. Horse Non Pro Levels 1 & 2 [2] Co-Champions

When Kathryn Miller didn't make the Non Pro Classic Finals on I Got Your Remedy, she decided to enter the Novice Horse Non Pro classes. The decision paid off, as she and her horse marked a 144.5 to tie for the win of the second slate of both Levels 1 & 2.

"We didn't make the finals because of an overspin, and I was pretty upset. I decided to show in this, and he did good today," Miller said.

Miller has owned the seven-year-old gelding, by Very Smart Remedy, since the colt was two. "Brent Wright trained him and showed him in the open and won some money there, and I just started showing him last year," she said.

She gave credit to both Brent and Todd Wright, noting, "Sometimes we can't get with Brent, so we will ride with Todd. They both help me so much."

Next stop will be Topeka, Kansas, next weekend. "It wasn't supposed to work like that, but with all the rescheduling, that's how it happened," she said. "Thank you to Todd and Brent. They have helped me so much. TJ my boyfriend - we ride every night and he helps when we're not at the trainer. There are so many people along the way that I want to thank; I couldn't name them all."

Kristin Avila & KR Ima Chic ARC Nov. Horse Non Pro Level 1 Champions & Level 2 Co-Champions

Kristin Avila & Gunners Specialdream ARC Nov. Horse Non Pro Level 2 Co-Champions

Kristin Avila showed two different horses to top both levels of the ARC Nov. Horse Non Pro, winning the Level 1 and tying for the win of the Level 2 on KR Ima Chic, and tying for the Level 2 with Gunners Specialdream. Both horses have had a busy weekend. Earlier in the day, Kristin's husband Bobby Avila Jr. showed KR Ima Chic in the first section of the Open Finals. Kristin had showed Gunners Specialdream in the NRBC Non Pro Finals for Levels 2-4 on Friday.

"My goal for both horses was just to get a qualified ride for the ARC," Avila said. "I just wanted to bring them back and lope them through the pattern, so I was surprised and happy with the results."

Avila had actually been riding KR Ima Chic exclusively since Bobby had broken his leg last year. "About a month before the NRBC he took her over to show her here," Kristin said. "Gunners Specialdream is one that Bobby was going to show at NRBC when it was originally scheduled, but we did some horse swapping, so both horses are familiar to me."

Avila added, "I thank my husband Bobby Avila Jr, my mom who is watching my son at home, and everyone on our team who makes it possible to have a smooth show."

Pete Kyle Returns to Show Pen to Win Novice Horse

Open Classes on KR Smart Dreamer

It's been six years since Pete Kyle has shown a reiner, but if his run on KR Smart Dreamer is any indication, he hasn't missed a beat. Kyle and the four-year-old colt, by Magnum Chic Dream out of Smart Shiney Lena, marked a 145.5 to win the Novice Horse Open Level 2 and tie for the win of the Level 1.

"This was really fun today. I have enjoyed getting to ride this summer and being able to get back to what I've done all my life. It was great to get in there and be competitive again," he shared. "This is my wife Tamra's horse. She's shown him in some reinings and ranch riding this spring and summer, and has done really well in those. I'm just glad she let me show him today. It's great to be back in the saddle and back in the winner's circle again."

Kyle will also be showing the talented gelding in the Int. Open class on Wednesday, then Tamra will take back the reins. "We have taken our time with this horse and brought him along and he has a good foundation on him. He's stepping up, and I feel he's going to give us some more solid runs," he said.

Pete and Tamra bred and raised the colt. "We've really enjoyed him. Casey Hinton rode him as a three-year-old for us while I was working, and Dan Huss helped Tamra out this spring with him. Those two guys were big in this horse's development," he explained.

Kyle pulls double duty at the NRBC, as both an exhibitor and an NRBC Board member. "The show management here does such a great job, as Board members we don't have to do much except enjoy the show and let things roll along. The staff does a fabulous job and we don't have much we have to do with it," he said.

He voiced his appreciation to the Tulsa Reining Classic owners, noting, "We are extremely fortunate to have been able to have the NRBC here in Tulsa, and the Tulsa Reining Classic enabled us to do that. We offered futurities at the first of the week, and now we are into our normal classes. We really appreciate them letting us do this," he said.

It's been a great week for the Kyle's breeding program already, as another horse they raised, Thee American Dream, tied for the Open Level 4 Championship of the Hollywoodstinseltown Open Futurity. The colt, ridden by Andrea Fappani, is owned by Morris Kulmer.

Mike McEntire Ties for Win of Novice

Horse Open Level 1 on Cosmic Vintage

With a score of 145.5, Mike McEntire and Cosmic Vintage tied for the win of the Novice Horse Open Level 1. The talented stallion is by A Sparkling Vintage out of Starjac Miss, making him a full-sibling to standout stallion Platinum Vintage.

The colt, now five years old, was purchased by Megan Lindberg as a three-year-old. "I trained on him when we were in California his four-year-old year," McEntire recalled. "When we left, he actually got hurt in his stall and slipped a disc in his back, so he had a long time off."

Given time to heal, Cosmic Vintage is once again ready to compete. "He's sound and we're legging him back up. We're trying to get him ready for Megan to show in non pro events," McEntire said. "This is a really nice horse. He's so good minded. He's a really sweet stallion and we're looking forward to the future with him."

McEntire already showed several futurity horses, and will also be showing in the NRBC Open. "I thank Megan. She's a wonderful owner, and I appreciate everything she has done for Natalie and me," McEntire said.

Rodrigo Nieves and One Mr JJ Tie for

Win of Nov. Horse Open Level 3

Rodrigo Nieves has only shown One Mr JJ two times, and both have been at the NRBC. The duo are two for two, as they won the AQHA Jr. Reining earlier in the event, then took the Novice Horse Open Level 3 Co-Championship on Wednesday with a 144.5. Nieves and One Mr JJ also finished in a tie for second in the Level 3, and in a tie for third in the Level 3.

One Mr JJ, by Colonels Shining Gun out of QHR Jamaica Express, is owned by XCS Ranch LLC. "This is a nice stallion. I've ridden him maybe 16 days," he said. "Duane Latimer trained this horse, and Gina Schumacher rode him at the Futurity last year."

It's Nieves first NRBC, but he says he's enjoying the show. His young daughter might be showing in the youth classes on Sunday. "I thank XCS Ranch and Duane Latimer for this opportunity," he said.

Matt Palmer Ties for Win of Nov.

Horse Open Level 3 on Einsteins Lil Prize

Riding Einsteins Lil Prize for Robert Santagata, Matt Palmer marked a 144.5 to tie for the win of the Novice Horse Open Level 3, as well as second in the Level 2. It was only the third time for Einsteins Lil Prize, by Einsteins Revolution out of Smart Little Prize, to be shown.

"I showed him once in Florida and he was good there. Then I showed him once back home and he won that," Palmer recalled. "This is my first Einsteins Revolution to ride, and he's out of one of Bob's really great mares. He's a really sweet horse and has been really good to me."

While Palmer was pleased with the day's run, he admits there were places for improvement. "I cruised him through here. We had a little hiccup on one rollback, but he's a really nice horse and I'm starting to learn him a bit more," he said. "It was great to get him here and have another nice ride on him."

Palmer will be busy the next several days, with three horses to show in the NRBC Open Classic as well as one to show in the Open on Friday evening. "I thank Bob and Arlene Santagata. They have been nothing but amazing to me. I thank all my customers. I'm just fortunate to be the one who gets to ride all these great horses," he said.

Dontmesswhiztexas is owned by Kim Marconi.
Payton Neiberger and Xtra Dun Step Win

Round 1 of Yellowstone Rookie Shootout

Payton Neiberger hadn't planned to enter Xtra Dun Step in the Rookie classes at the NRBC, but after a disappointing showing in the Non Pro Classic preliminaries, an 11th hour decision was made. "I showed yesterday and it didn't go as well as I had hoped, and I wanted another class. I decided this would be a good one because I knew there was a big event on Saturday night," she shared.

That paid off, and she and her six-year-old stallion marked a 142.5 to win Round 1 of the Yellowstone Rookie Shootout, as well as Rookie Levels 1 and 2. "Today was good. My turns, circles, stops and rollbacks were all good. I had a change penalty on my first big change, but other than that I was really happy," she said.

Riders who enter both rounds of the Yellowstone Rookie Shootout are eligible to advance to the Shootout Finals, which will be held just prior to the NRBC Open Level 4 Finals on Saturday night. The riders with the top five composite scores from the two rounds will advance. Neiberger and Xtra Dun Step, by Wimpys Little Step and out of All Thats Dun, are in great position to advance if they decide to enter the second round on Friday.

"Josh Tishman is actually going to show him in the Open Classic on Thursday, so it depends on if they make the finals or not. That would be a lot of runs if we did both," she said. "I thank Josh Tishman and Casey Deary for preparing my horse, and the whole Deary team for being so encouraging. I also thank my parents for getting me here and being so supportive."

Valencia Pitzing Takes Prime Time Rookie Championship on RC Fashion Chic

Valencia Pitzing has only ridden RC Fashion Chic two times since the NRHA Derby in June, but that didn't stop her from laying down a winning run in the Prime Time Rookie class. Her score of 141.5 also tied for second in Rookie Levels 1 and 2 and for second in Round 1 of the Yellowstone Rookie Shootout.

"I'm very excited. It went really well today. He felt good and did his job, and I did mine. Everything came together and it was a really good run," she said.

Pitzing has owned RC Fashion Chic, by RC Fancy Step and out of Shesa Fashion Chic, for a couple years, and gives credit for her success to her trainer. "I thank Ruben Vandorp and his assistant Arno. If it weren't for them, I wouldn't be there. They always have my horse ready. I don't get to ride as often as I need, but the horses are always ready and it's awesome," she said.

The second-place finish in round one of the Yellowstone Rookie Shootout puts Pitzing in a good position, as the top five in the composite from the first two rounds will advance to the Shootout Round on Saturday night. "I'm excited. I'm going to go for it. This run gave me a lot of confidence. I felt really good, and my horse feels ready," she said. "I'm just going to do whatever Ruben tells me between now and then."

Shauna Larcombe Wins Int. Open [1] on Shiners Chic

Shauna Larcombe and Shiners Chic competed as the final entry in the first slate of the Intermediate Open class in the Mustang Arena. That's because she was busy showing an Open Classic entry in the Ford Arena. "I has just finished showing in the Ford and I had to quickly saddle this horse and come over here. It was a bit of a quick turnaround," she said.

It didn't matter, because Larcombe and Shiners Chic, by Smart Chic Olena out of Ebony Shines, put together an impressive run, resulting in a score of 145. It added an additional $1,100 to the veteran gelding's lifetime earnings, which are now less than $1,000 away from $300,000. "He's 15 years old now, and he's probably the coolest horse on the planet," Larcombe said. "This horse is a legend and has been shown by the legends in this business over the years."

Owned by Rosanne Sternberg, Shiners Chic is now typically shown by her daughter Jessica. Unfortunately, the pandemic has changed that. "This is the first time I showed him. Jessica usually does, but she's stuck in Europe because of COVID-19, so I got the chance to ride him," Larcombe said. "He's easy to show. I just have to sit on his back and stay out of his way. I thank Rosanne for the opportunity to show this horse. I also thank Sean Pulley. He made the Non Pro Finals, so it's been great."

Naike Albert & Shesa Tinker Toy Win Ltd. Open [1]
With a score of 143.5, Naike Albert won the first slate of the Limited Open on Shes Tinker Toy. "She was with me the whole time, and a lot of fun to show. I am just very thankful to ride her," Albert said.

Shesa Tinker Toy, owned by Erin Meehan, is a five-year-old mare by Tinker With Guns out of Smartest Sister. "We bought her at the beginning of the year from Ruben Vandorp," she recalled. "I started showing her and we have learned to work with each other and she's doing really good. I placed when I showed her at the Derby, but I had started riding her two weeks before that and I didn't know her that well. Now I feel we are getting along really well."

Albert and her husband Brian Bell have a busy week ahead, with non pros and horses in the NRBC Classic. "I thank my husband, the owner, and the whole team behind Brian Bell Performance Horses," she said.

with Rock On Wimpy

It was only the second time for Wes Wetherell to show his wife Dana's four-year-old reiner Rock On Wimpy, but the duo put together a solid run to tie for the win of the first slate of the Rookie Professional.

"I'm very happy with him. It was fast, but we stayed on pattern, and my wife is happy," Wetherell said with a laugh.

Rock On Wimpy, by Wimpys Little Step out of Spot On Sassy, is doing double-duty for the Wetherell's at this event. "She showed him yesterday, and I'll show him again tomorrow," Wetherell said. "I'm planning to do the same thing we did today."

Sumer Opinker and Lil Joes Hushmoney

Tie for Win of Rookie Pro. [1]

Sumer Opinker just began riding Lil Joes Hushmoney a few days before traveling to Tulsa for the NRBC, but that didn't stop the two from tying for the win of the Rookie Professional class. The pair marked a 141.5. "She was really good everywhere. It was a run-in pattern and she stopped really big for me," Opinker said. "She was with me the whole time, and it was a lot of fun."

Lil Joes Hushmoney, by Lil Joe Cash out of A Silent Affair, is owned by James Bart Hobbs. "This was the first time I showed her. She's a really nice mare," Opinker said. "I'll show her again tomorrow, and I'm just going to stick with what I did today because it worked out pretty well."

I thank my mother who breeds and raises all these horses and gets them trained and allows us to show them. I thank Todd Sommers for helping me, my boyfriend Will for holding down the fort at home, and my sister who is actually running my trade show booth so I can show," Keller said.

During Tuesday's Novice Horse Open classes, Pete and KR Smart Dreamer won Levels 1 and 2. On Wednesday, Tamra competed with the colt in the Novice Horse Non Pro classes, winning Level 1 with a score of 144. "When they open the gate, we're going to show him, so he gets to where he knows his job. He was really fun for me today," Tamra shared. "Pete did good for me. This horse went to the center and was super soft, and it was the best turnaround we've had to date."

KR Smart Dreamer is by Magnum Chic Dream and out of Smart Shiny Lena. "This colt is bred well, and he has a really good bottom side," she said. "We bred and raised him. He's been a really fun horse for us."

It won't be the last time for Tamra to show KR Smart Dreamer at the NRBC. "I will try to do some of the ARC stuff, and maybe qualify for that. I would like to get that done and go to the NRHA Futurity to compete in the NAAC," she said. "Of course, I thank Pete. He's done a great job on this colt. I also thank Casey Hinton who helped me his whole three-year-old year getting me back on a reiner, as well as Dan Huss who helped me out in Arizona."

Kalicia Walters Sweeps First Slate of Green Reiner Classes on Lady Gotta Gun

In Tuesday's Rookie classes, Kalicia Walters and Lady Gotta Gun put together a solid run. That confidence boost was all she needed to prepare for Wednesday's Green Reiner classes. She and her flashy mare executed a seamless run which resulted in a score of 143 to win both levels of the Green Reiner.

"I had a pretty good run yesterday, so I felt good in this pen. We came in and I just knew I wanted to hit my markers and do things precise," she said.

Walters rides with Dany Tremblay, and shared he gave her some solid advice before she went in the pen. "He told me not to be a chicken." She laughed, and added, "He also clucked at me as I rode by, and that put a little fire in me."

Walters has owned Lady Gotta Gun, by Spooks Gotta Gun out of Ms Kiper Nic, for more than a year. "She's five and I got her from Matt Mills. We started green together and worked our way up, and we're finally putting it all together," she said.

Walters and Lady Gotta Gun can't rest on their laurels; they're entering more classes this week. "I'm going to show in the Rookie classes again on Friday and we will see what happens. I'd really like to make the Yellowstone Rookie Shootout," she said. "I have a pretty good fan crew here. My family is all here with me this week, and they help me be positive and keep going."

The Walters family will have a lot to cheer for on Saturday, as one of Kalicia's horses, Tinker With Dreams, marked a 223 in the Open Preliminary round with Tremblay at the reins. "It's so much fun to watch that horse. He is just amazing, and gets better and better the more he shows," she said.

Dan Huss & Smart Voodoo Brother ARC Open and Open [1] Champion

Dan Huss brought Smart Voodoo Brother to the NRBC to gain some experience in the show pen. It looks like the four-year-old stallion, by Shiners Voodoo Dr out of Smart As Sister, is also getting some experience in the winners circle. Huss and Smart Voodoo Brother laid down a smooth run, earning a score of 146 to win both the ARC Open and the ancillary Open.

"We brought him here to get some good show experience, and we were hoping along the way we could win a bit, too, so it was a pretty good day," Huss said. "The first maneuver he spun really well but had a little overspin, but then we stayed out of the penalty box the rest of the way."

Owner Patrizio Fumagalli purchased the colt as a two-year-old. Patrizio showed him in the Non Pro Futurity, but the colt wasn't quite ready. "He wasn't seasoned enough, so I took over, and he's been coming around rather good. He's a really athletic horse. He just is a little busy minded," he said. "Pat is going to start taking over the reins at the Best of the West."

Huss will show Smart Voodoo Brother again in Friday's Novice Horse Open classes. "I thank Pat for allowing me to show this horse. I also thank my wife who is my biggest fan and is the reason I am still competitive," he said.

Fredrik Thomsson & Gunna Cash Out
ARC Int. Open/Int. Open [1] Champion and ARC Ltd.
Open/Ltd. Open [1] Co-Champion

Fredrik Thomsson and Gunna Cash Out took home numerous wins in Thursday's Super Duty Arena classes. Not only did they win the ARC for the Int. Open, as well as the ancillary class, they also tied for the win of the ARC and ancillary Ltd. Open.

"The run today was easy. We had plus maneuvers across the board. She was excellent and super easy to show," Thomsson said of the 144.5 run. "We ended up only warming up a few horses before we went in, but it seemed to be the formula for her."

Gunna Cash Out, a five-year-old mare, is by Gunna-trashya out of Little Bitty Spark. "The owners bought her a while ago with the intent to get her shown and then keep her as a future broodmare. This is actually only her second show," Thomsson shared. "We didn't enter here in the NRBC because she's so green. We won some ARC stuff, so most likely we're going to gear her towards the NAAC at the Futurity."

Thomsson voiced his appreciation for the mare's owner Kathleen Ray. "I thank the owners. I have a great group of owners, and they are very supportive. The owners do everything for us. I also have a great team working for me here and at the ranch that do a great job. It's a team effort and everyone deserves the credit," he said.

Thomsson will be showing several more horses the rest of the week in the Classic finals as well as in the ARC classes. "We love this show and what the organizers have done. This is super nice, and Tulsa is great with all the riding arenas and wonderful facilities," he said.

Sarah Locker & Snips Shining Gun Non Pro [1] Champion

Snips Shining Gun holds a special place in the hearts of everyone at Hilldale Farm. At the 2019 NRHA Futurity, the talented mare, with Jessicah Keller at the reins, won enough money to catapult her dam, Snip O Gun, over the million dollar mark for offspring earnings. That made her only the third mare to reach that milestone.

The mare is now being ridden by Jessicah's sister Sarah Locker, and the two put together a polished run in the Mustang Arena to score a 145 and win the Non Pro [1]. "She is very special to our family not only because we bred and raised her, but because she's the one who put Snip O Gun over one million for Hilldale Farm," Locker explained.

A two-time NRBC Non Pro Champion, Locker entered Snips Shining Gun in the Non Pro Preliminaries. "This is my first real horse show with her. I showed her in the preliminaries and she was great, but I wasn't as great as she was. I wanted to try again in this non pro class. She was great, and I was better today," Locker shared.

Locker rides with Casey Deary, who made sure to share some sound advice. "My biggest challenge in the Classic was I didn't run fast enough in my circles. Casey told me that if he was whistling, I needed to go faster. He whistled a few times, so we went a lot faster," she said. "I was really happy with how she performed today, and happy with myself today."

Locker plans to show Snips Shining Gun in the non pro classes on Sunday. "I want to put together another nice run and keep improving our relationship and getting together so we can show the next several years," she said. "I thank Casey Deary and the whole Deary team. Without them we wouldn't have made it this far. Thank you to my mom who raises so many amazing horses for my sister and I to show. Thank you to my husband who is very encouraging. Finally, thank you to everyone here for putting on an amazing show, and for the Tulsa Reining Classic for allowing the NRBC to be here."

Paul Queen & Outta Dough Int. Non Pro [1] Champion

Outta Dough has been a part of the Queen family for many years, and the 15-year-old stallion has amassed more than $77,000 in lifetime earnings. On Thursday, he added to that total when he marked a 144 with Paul Queen in the non pro classes. They topped the Int. Non Pro, and finished in the top five of the Non Pro.

"He did really well. He's one of those old horses that you have to school a little bit because they start to think for you. He's as true as can be all the time. It's a partnership we have," Queen said.

Queen and Outta Dough, by Gallo Del Cielo out of Dough Olena, will show again Sunday in the Non Pro Classic Challenge. "I thank Jared Leclair. He's made a real impact on me lately, and took me to another level. I also thank my mother who has always been there for me, and of course, I thank this horse," Queen said.

Sarah Armenta & Gun Smoke Dennis
Ltd. Non Pro [1] Co-Champion

Gun Smoke Dennis can lay down some monster stops, so the pattern chosen for the Non Pro classes was made for him. "He really thrives on run-ins since we can hit all four stops," noted Sarah Armenta, who piloted the gelding to a 143 to tie for the win of the Ltd. Non Pro [1].

Armenta rides with Casey Hinton and Jimmy Van der Hoven. "They both told me to kick today. I can't kick to save my life," the 18-year-old said with a laugh.

Gun Smoke Dennis is by Lil Dry Peppy out of Gun Smoke Denise. Armenta noted that the 15-year-old gelding "Loves every type of food under the sun, and is really lazy."

Armenta will be showing again this week. "I'll show again Sunday in the affiliate on him. Also, my mom made the Non Pro Level 4 finals tomorrow night, so I will be cheering for her," she said. "I thank the whole barn for helping me. I thank my parents for taking me to all the shows, and Robbie and Julia who gave me the awesome opportunity to buy this horse."

Kaylene Cunningham & Shiner Joe
Ltd. Non Pro [1] Co-Champion

It was Kaylene Cunningham and Shiner Joe's first big event together, and the two made it count, putting together a nice run that resulted in a 143. That tied them for the win of the Limited Non Pro. "The whole time he was with me. When I felt him under me I thought I could push him a little bit. He stayed with me," Cunningham shared.

Cunningham bought four-year-old Shiner Joe, by Lil Joe Cash out of Shiners Miss Lena, at the 2019 NRHA Futurity. "We've only been to two shows, and this is our third and biggest one," she said.

Cunningham, a high school junior, rides with Franco Bertolani of Cardinal Reining Horses. "I thank Franco for helping me and of course I thank my horse Joe," she said. "We'll show Saturday and Sunday in the youth and the other slate of non pro classes."

Bill Fingland & Xtra Step On That Prime Time Non Pro [1] Champion

Bill Fingland showed Xtra Step On That in the Non Pro Classic preliminary round earlier in the week. Unfortunately, a bobble in the lead changes kept them out of contention. Fingland elected to show the colt in the Prime Time Non Pro [1] in the Mustang Arena, and the pair marked a 145.5 - the highest score of the day.

"I wanted to get the lead change right, and I was pleased we got that. This horse just kept stopping like he always has for me," he said.

Fingland has owned four-year-old Xtra Step On That, by Wimpys Little Step out of All That's Dun, for about a year. "Shawn Florida trained this horse, and he has helped me with him immensely. I thank Shawn and all his crew who have made sure I got what I needed to get," Fingland said. "I also thank my family who has been very supportive of my craziness and the hours I put in here."

Nicole Baradat & Spooked Out Chex Green Reiner Levels 1 & 2 [2] Champion

To say Nicole Baradat is excited is an understatement. On Thursday, she and her horse Spooked Out Chex won both levels of the Green Reiner classes with a 72. "This is a first for me. It's my first win at a horse show. This was my first year officially showing, and this is only my second show," she shared. "Today was fabulous. I have had lots of runs this week, and we've been putting it all together. I had a few unfortunate bobbles the other times I showed, so for it to all come together today is really sweet."

Baradat grew up riding horses in 4H, before transitioning to western pleasure. "I always loved the reiners and had friends who did it. When I grew up and was able to pick what I wanted to do, this was it," she said.

She noted that a lot of her success was because of her great mare, Spooked Out Chex, by Smart Spook out of Nu Tuf Lil Chex. "She's fabulous. She has been there and done that. I was lucky to pick her up last year," Baradat said. "She has taught me everything I know so far."

Baradat and Spooked Out Chex will show again in Friday's Rookie classes. "I thank my trainer Jordan Larson. He has gone above and beyond taking me on this year. I also thank everyone at his ranch. Thank you also to my husband, who is not a horse guy, for coming to all these shows. I have a lot of support," she said.

Kalicia Walters & Lady Gotta Gun Green Reiner Levels 1 & 2 High Point Champion

She may not have had quite the run she wanted in the second slate of Green Reiner classes, but Kalicia Walters still managed to pull off the high point championship on Thursday. "We changed arenas, and that was a big change for me and my horse. We hadn't been in this pen at all, so she was kind of watchy," Walters explained. "We got it done though. I'm very excited to win the high point."

Walters is riding her mare Lady Gotta Gun, by Spooks Gotta Gun out of Ms Kiper Nic. "Tomorrow I will show in the Rookie classes. I'm really hoping my horse Pale Faced Whiz (ridden by Dany Tremblay), makes the Open Finals on Saturday," noted Walters. Her other Open Classic entry, Tinker With Dreams, is also ridden by Dany Tremblay, and the pair are currently sitting third in the Open preliminaries. "I thank the entire Tremblay team. They are all here showing, but they stopped what they were doing to come help me and watch me show. The entire team is awesome."

Tara Podkrajsek & Shake Em Down ARC Nov. Horse Levels 1 & 2 Champion

When Tara Podkrajsek got the opportunity to show Shake Em Down, she took full advantage. She and the mare won the ARC and ancillary sections of the Novice Horse Open for Levels 1 and 2 with an impressive score of 147.

"I walked in and this mare felt like she was with me. She was very honest on the circles, and I knew I could push her. She stayed with me. The turns could have been a little bit better, but she stopped great and everything was super nice. I was so happy with her," she shared.

Podkrajsek typically prepares Shake Em Down, a six-year-old mare by Wimpyneedsacocktail, for owner Addie McNeel. A few bobbles kept McNeel and the mare out of the Non Pro Classic finals, so Podkrajsek got to compete with her. "I thank Addie and her husband Bert for letting me show her," she said. "I actually showed her in Waco before this, and we marked a 70. I felt like I could trust her and push her a little more the next time I showed her."

Podkrajsek is likely done showing Shake Em Down. "I think we're done showing here, and Addie will show her some more and take her home to Utah," she said. "I thank my boss Mathieu Buton for his coaching and guidance. I thank the whole Buton team. They're such great supporters and the best cheerleaders. I also thank all my friends and fellow trainers, as well as my family. I thank my family, and everyone behind the scenes."

TWO TOP NRHA SIRES CROSS MILLION DOLLAR MILESTONES

After a slow start to the 2020 show season, it was unclear if any sires or dams would cross milestones this year. As COVID-19 restrictions were reduced in certain regions of the U.S. earlier this summer, shows resumed and entry numbers skyrocketed. As a result, sires and dams are making moves up the NRHA million-dollar ranks. The National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) is pleased to announce two top NRHA sires have recently crossed major milestones.

Gunner

Commonly known as Gunner by the Western performance horse industry, the influential sire is registered as Colonels Smoking Gun with the American Quarter Horse Association (AQHA) and Colonels Smokinggun with the American Paint Horse Association (APHA). Gunner recently made history when he became only the second NRHA Twelve Million Dollar Sire, just on the heels of Topsail Whiz who reached this accomplishment in 2018.

earned his two-million-dollar title. His offspring have annually earned a million dollars, subsequently moving Gunner to a new milestone each year.

Although Gunner boasts $173,000 in NRHA Lifetime Earnings (LTE) of his own, he's also the sire of more than 1,500 reiners. Many of Gunner's offspring join him in the NRHA Hall of Fame and in the ranks as million-dollar sires themselves.

This legendary sire is by Colonel four-freckle and out of Katie Gun. Before becoming a top sire for Tioga, Texas, owners Tim and Colleen McQuay of McQuay Stables Inc., Gunner saw his name in lights in the show pen. He was the 1996 NRHA Open Futurity Reserve Champion, the 1998 NRBC Open Reserve Champion, and the 2001 United States Equestrian Team (USET) Festival of Champions National Reining Champion.

First becoming an NRHA Million Dollar Sire in 2007, the snowball effect took over for Gunner in 2010 when he

Gunner's top-earning offspring are:

- No Smoking Required (out of Icing Required): $490,714 NRHA LTE
- Custom Made Gun (out of Custom Made Dunit): $419,984 NRHA LTE
- Tinker With Guns (out of Tinker Nic): $344,117 NRHA LTE
- Gunners Tinseltown (out of Miss Tinseltown): $305,307 NRHA LTE
- Americasnextgunmodel (out of Cee Dun It Do It): $289,486 NRHA LTE

Walla Walla Whiz

Walla Walla Whiz's reputation precedes him in the simple fact that he's by NRHA Twelve Million Dollar Sire Topsail Whiz and out of Shiny Walla Wanda. Walla Walla Whiz is building his own legacy as he recently became an NRHA Three Million Dollar Sire. He crossed his first million-dollar milestone in 2015.

Shawn Florida, Walla Walla Whiz raked in several top-notch finishes in a short amount of time. His show career started when he was 3 years old and wrapped by 2008.

Some of the most noteworthy placings Walla Walla Whiz earned include being crowned the 2007 NRHA Level (L)4 Open Derby Champion, the 2006 Tulsa Reining Classic L4 Open Futurity Champion, and taking third place in the 2007 National Reining Breeders Classic (NRBC) L4 Open Derby.

The 2003 stallion boasts an impressive show record that puts his NRHA LTE just over $187,000. Ridden by NRHA Six Million Dollar Rider

Smoke and Ashes Don't Deter Reiners

WEST COAST REINING HORSE ASSOCIATION YEAR END SHOW

A blood orange sun and smoky, ash flurries from nearby wildfires welcomed exhibitors driving in to the Murieta Equestrian Center show grounds in Rancho Murieta, California, on August 20. Little did they know that such would be the norm for all the days of the West Coast Reining Horse Association Year End show, held August 20-23. NRHA Show Representative Kain Emmons stated, as he pulled up his face mask, "We don't know if people are wearing masks due to COVID-19 restrictions or because of the smoky air!" Either way, exhibitors, trainers, and other folk adhered to current California state restrictions by wearing masks, social distancing, and having their temperatures taken daily at the entrance gate.

A full slate of ancillary classes as well as Futurity and Derby classes, judged by Nick Baar and Reid Fady, gave everyone ample opportunities to show off their talented horses. Gorgeous, Vaquero buckles were presented to class Champions, and beautiful, silver pocketknives were given to the Reserve Champion class winners. However, there were also a few special awards given at this show.

The NRHA Rookie Professional class was recently re-named the NRHA Becky Hanson Rookie Professional class in honor of Becky Hanson, a beloved member of WCRHA and NRHA. Becky was the winner of the NAAC Rookie Professional class at the NRHA Futurity in 2006. Over the years, she coached and trained many reining competitors from the Rookies on up through the Non Pros, but she truly had a heart for the Rookie riders. The class was won by Dave Bunfill, from Plymouth, showing his own Custom Whizett. "Biscuit," as she is affectionately called, is a five-year old mare sired by Conquistador Whiz and out of Custom Crome mare. Dave and his wife just started showing reining about a year ago. He specifically entered this class because of Becky Hanson. Although he never actually met Becky, he knows a lot about her story. He says, "It meant a lot to me to win this class. It is a real honor!" Dave received the Championship class buckle as well as a specially designed Becky Hanson buckle. Jan Humphrey showed her Tivitos Top Starlet to the Reserve Championship with a score of 68.5.

In addition, in remembrance of Becky, the winner of the Prime Time Rookie class was presented with a beautiful, hand tooled Becky Hanson memorial leather photo album made and sponsored by the Ricotti Saddle Company of nearby Clements. Jennifer Fisher riding Midnight Whizkey Run was the happy recipient. Becky was well known for her beautiful photography, and many WCRHA members have more than one of Becky's gorgeous metal prints adorning their homes.

Another special award was the Gary Van Hoosen Perpetual Memorial Green Reiner trophy presented to Cindy

Cindy Laver & Revolutionic

Laver, winner of the WCRHA Green class. Cindy rode Revolutionic to the win. Revolutionic is one of those reining “war horses” that has carried his various riders to many wins over the years. Gary Van Hoosen was a long-time member, trainer and competitor at WCRHA shows. He was a strong supporter of the emerging reiner, and could always be counted on for an encouraging word and smile.

David Hanson & Smart Little Dunit

Mike Boyle & Chics Dream

In the Intermediate Open and Limited Open classes, Gabe Davide showed Mister Smartypants to the Championships of both classes with a 72 score. “Smarty” is owned by Gordon and Eileen Maxinoski. Liz Rammerstorfer was close behind Gabe in both classes with a 71.5, riding Like Madd, owned by Kelly Staley.

Cassandra Kindle & Ill Be Smokinum

Cassandra Kindle was thrilled to receive The Topsail Cody Memorial Perpetual Trophy. This large trophy is presented each year to the champion of the Limited Non Pro class. Cassandra’s name plaque will be added to all the other winners since 2002. Cassandra’s ride for this class was Ill Be Smokinum.

The two NRHA Green Reiner classes followed the Open slate. The Level 1 class champion, with a score of 70.5, was Jodie Brixey showing Shez My Whiskey Girl. Reserve Champion was Tiffany Buschhueter on her Dressed Wright,

As usual, the Open slate of classes started off the show on Thursday. Over five hours of open competition began at seven in the morning. With scores of 73.5, David Hanson and Mike Boyle laid down what were to be the highest scores of the show. They each shared Championship honors in the Open Maturity and the Open class. David rode Lisa Dentoni’s Smart Little Dunit, and Mike showed Betty McHugh’s pretty palomino, Chics Dream. Mike Boyle was also the Champion in the Prime Time Open class on Chics Dream as well as the Reserve Champion on Pale Of Gold, owned by Laetitia Loubser, scoring a 70.

Natalie Cook & Xtra Allthats Voodoo

earning a 69.5 for her efforts.

In the Level 2 class, Natalie Cook rode for a 70 score which was good enough to earn the Championship over 14 other entries. She was riding Xtra Allthats Voodoo, a new horse for her. Two riders and three horses were close behind Natalie with scores of 69.5. Tiffany Buschhueter with Dressed Wright was Co-Reserve Champion with Taylor Banks, who showed two of her mother's horses, Spooky Whiz and Rickybacinhollywood.

Gabe Davide & Mister Smartypants

Bright and early at 7 a.m. on Friday, cool, morning temperatures welcomed over 50 exhibitors in the Open slate of the three levels of Novice Horse classes. For the second show in a row, Gabe Davide and his ride, Mister Smartypants, claimed the Championship buckles and trophies of all three levels! They laid down a score of 73 early in the draw, which proved difficult to top. Ollie Galligan was Reserve Champion in Level 1 on Shine Sugar Shine with a 71.5. This horse belongs to Elizabeth Atkins. With a score of 72.5, Martin Padilla won the Reserve honors in Levels 2 and 3. He rode Jennifer Fisher's Midnite Whiskey Run.

Cam Essick & Loveya

Championing six of the Non Pro classes was Cam Essick and her (as Cam says) "plain, bay" gelding Loveya. Leaving their mark in the arena with a 73, Cam emerged victorious in the Non Pro Level 4 and Prime Time Maturity as well as the Non Pro and the Prime Time Non Pro classes. The duo also went on to win the Non Pro and the Prime Time Non Pro Derbies! Loveya is a proven reiner with LTE earnings of over $130,000. Two reiners shared the Reserve Championship honors in the Level 4 Maturity. Cassandra Kindle showed her Ill Be Smokinum and Betty McHugh showed her Chics Dream to scores of 72. Betty also was Reserve Champion in the Prime Time Maturity. In the Non Pro as well as the Prime Time Non Pro class, Betty shared the Reserve accolades with Cady Shaw who showed Xtra Playful Step. Both ladies were also Co-Champions in the Masters class.

Betty McHugh & Chics Dream

Cady Shaw & Xtra Playful Step

Emerging on top of a class of 20 entries in the Intermediate Non Pro class were four riders with their scores of 72s. Cady and Betty tied with Stacy Hamilton showing Whizzen The Dream and with Ruben Cuevas on his Adinn Lil Spook.

Later in the afternoon, four able youth reiners each entered the arena to show the judges their best rides in the Youth Maturity. With a score of 138, Taylor Banks took the Championship with her mother's horse AR Oakies Last Stand. Julia Fry, showing her dad's Iz A Whiz, came in to Debi's great mare, Jacs Red Pine, both out of Shes Flamin Hot.

Stacy Hamilton & Whizzen The Dream

Bill Coburn & My Skill Your Luck

Ruben Cuevas & Admin Lil Spook

Jenevieve Welker & Spokebility

The Rookies stole the arena scene early Saturday morning. More than forty rookie hopefuls rode most of the morning trying to impress the judge. Champion and Reserve Champion of Levels 1 and 2 went to Jenevieve Welker on her Spokebility with a score of 70.5 and Mackenzie McDowell on her Rio Killer Gun with a score of 70, respectively.

Taylor Banks & AR Oakies Last Stand

Reserve with a 135.

Concluding the second day of showing, the Non Pro Futurity allowed six riders to show off their three year olds. Bill Coburn reined his My Skill Your Luck to a score of 137.5 to take away the awards and monies given to the Champion of the Level 4.

Caitie Moulding was Champion of the Level 1 Futurity riding her PS Ice Queen. She scored a 138. With a score of 134.5, Debi Murnan was Reserve Champion in both levels with her gelding, Mobsters Tommy Gun. He is a half sibling

Parker Temkin & Whizzen R Cash Away

Jennifer Fisher won the Prime Time Rookie on her Midnite Whiskey Run with a score of 68.5. David Oncale was Reserve with 68 on his Walla Great Pine.

Taking their turns in the pen, were ten youth riders in the WCRHA Youth 18 & Under class. With a 70 score, Parker Temkin came away with the top prize on his Whizzen R Cash Away. Reserve went to Jenevieve Welker on Rios Iron Man, earning a 69.5 from the judge.

Shelly Young & Chica Dream

In their first and second year of showing reiners, seventeen exhibitors competed for top awards in their WCRHA Green As Grass class. Shelly Young laid down an impressive run, producing a score of 71, which was good enough to win the class. She showed her Chica Dream to the Championship. Reserve awards went to Shining Boon Chick and Ashley Palmer with a 69.5.

Nineteen Non Pros were eager to show their reining horses of ages seven and under in the Non Pro Derby. Cam Essick and her Loveya gathered their fifth and sixth Championship buckles of the show by earning a score of 144 in the Level 4 and Prime Time. Ruben Cuevas and Adinn Lil Spook were given a 143 to take away the Reserve in Level 4.

Jason Richards & PS Ice Queen

Level 1 was won with a score of 142.5 by Stacy Hamilton and her Whizzen The Dream. Kelly Staley and Like Madd were Reserve Champions in both the Level 1 and Prime Time classes with a 141.

Five entries in the Open Futurity closed out the third day. PS Ice Queen won her second Futurity championship of the show, first with Non Pro Caitie Moulding on Friday, and secondly, with trainer Jason Richards on Saturday. Jason and the talented three-year old scored a 142.5 to win the Level 4 Futurity.

Christian Rammerstorfer & Mad Dog Maddox

Christian Rammerstorfer showed an offspring of his stallion Maddox to the Reserve championship in Level 4 as well as winning the Level 1. The score was a 140 for Mad Dog Maddox.

Eric Leporte & Sugar Baby

The last day of the show dawned early again but still a bit smoky and ashy. That didn't deter the Open Derby riders though as they were eager and ready to hit the show pen with their trusty steeds. Running first in the draw was Eric Laporte on Michell Kimball's Sugar Baby. Eric showcased his talent by earning a score of 143.5 which proved too tough to beat by the rest of the field. They took home the Championship of both Level 4 and Level 1. Sugar Baby is by Spooks Gotta Whiz and out of Smart Sugar Rose. Eric says of the four-year old gelding, "He is so laid back and such a dream to show and get ready." Sugar Baby now has a new owner. His new owner, Megan Meyerdick, looks forward to showing him the Green Reiner classes.

There was a three-way tie for the Reserve Championship in Level 4, all with scores of 142. Dave Bunfill showed his own Gunnatrashya Dream to tie with two of Mike Boyle's entries, Foolin Whiz Guns owned by Kellie Meier and Rio Killer Gun owned by Mackenzie McDowell. Dave Bunfill also tied with Maya Stessin for the Reserve Championship in Level 1. Maya showed Smokin Starbuck to the 142 score for owner Kelly Corbett.

Steven Allen, Jr. & Crome Topsail

Twenty-five younger equestrians had waited anxiously to get their horses in the pen and were excited to show the judge what they were capable of. Fourth in the draw of the 13 & Under was Steven Allen, Jr., who rode his dad's horse, Crome Topsail, to a score of 68 to win the Championship buckle. Gianna Nelson and Montana Berlin were close behind with their scores of 67 to share the Reserve Championship. Gianna showed Wimpys Lil Commander and Montana rode West Coast Hick.

Logan Lindberg & Custom Banjo

Logan Lindberg and Lauren Hanson were Champion and Reserve Champion respectively in the Youth 14-18 and Unrestricted Youth classes. Logan guided his mom's horse, Custom Banjo, to the score of 71.5 for his wins, and Lauren showed her dad's horse, Xtra Dream Step, to her wins with a 71.

Reed Hurley & Red Knight Boonlight

With a score of 69.5, Reed Hurley emerged the Champion of the Youth Rookie class on his Red Knight Boonlight. Jenevieve Welker took the Reserve on her Spokebility with 69.

Isabella Hall & Revolutionic

Five riders of the youngest set entered the Short Stirrup class. Revolutionic, owned by Cindy Laver, took his young rider, Isabella Hall, to a whopping score of 72.5 to win the Championship awards! The Reserve went to Kaydee Brixey on Tangy Chex with another impressive score of 71.5.

Three little Lead Liners next entered the ring. Tony Omlan rode Out Back Ebony, Will Brixley was on Tangy Chex, and Zoey Poulter showed Gunning For a Shiner, all to healthy scores of 75 from the judge! What a great group of aspiring little equestrians and their handlers!

Noon-time found the Novice Horse Non Pro riders ready

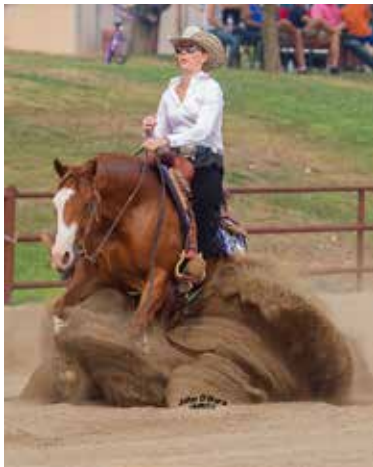

Kelly Staley & Like Madd

Chuy Chavez & Whizpur My Name

to take the stage. Claiming the buckle in the Level 1 class was Kelly Staley on her gelding Like Madd with a score of 70.5. Reserve went to Marni Lopez on Rowdywhizrowdydoes with 69.5.

Last, but certainly not least, were nineteen entries braving the warm temperatures of the final afternoon in the Snaffle Bit/Hackamore 5 & Under class. With a 71.5, Chuy Chavez took home the buckle for Jennifer Lemere as he showed her Whizpur My Name. Martin Padilla tied with himself for the Reserve Championship on Sophia Fisher's Dunit In My Jersey and Tobyann Faingold's Nickis Special Nite with scores of 71.

Tiffany Bauer & The Poker Face

A large turnout with full classes indicated that Northern California and Nevada reiners were looking forward to getting their horses in the show pen, no matter what the weather conditions. Many thanks go to the WCRHA Board of Directors, show staff, and sponsors as well as the Murietta Equestrian Center for going forward with this last show of the season. You are all appreciated! Here's looking forward to an even better show year in 2021!

Kathleen Cook & Chics Double Magnum

Level 2 honors were shared between Tiffany Bauer on her sorrel gelding The Poker Face and Kathleen Cook on her bay Chics Double Magnum, with their scores of 71.5. Congratulations, Ladies!
