TETON RIDGE ANNOUNCES ITS FIRST TEAM OF PROFESSIONAL RIDERS

Andrea Fappani, Corey Cushing and Todd Bergen introduced as inaugural members of TEAM TETON RANCH

Teton Ridge, a newly-formed brand created to preserve, promote, and protect America's western way of life announced today that three elite professional riders will be joining TEAM:TR, the equine competition component of the brand.

Together, Andrea Fappani, Corey Cushing and Todd Bergen create a powerful team of best-in-class professional riders spanning the major disciplines of reining and reined cow horse. Teton Ridge is further expanding this team to include the disciplines of cutting, barrel racing and bull riding.

Leading visionary entrepreneur and western enthusiast Thomas Tull formed Teton Ridge to honor western culture, expand interest in performance sports, and celebrate the top-tier athleticism and spirit of the men and women who compete in western riding disciplines every day. Teton Ridge is also breeding elite, equine athletes and provides programs that offer the finest quality horse and TEAM:TR trainer combinations, so the animals can reach their fullest potential.

Each horseman brings a different skill set and personality to TEAM:TR. Collectively that translates to a diverse roster of riders whose values and dedication will not only help elevate all western equine disciplines, but provide them with the type of respect and recognition they deserve.

Andrea Fappani, considered one of reining's all-time greatest athletes, has captured multiple titles and won over $6 million in the saddle. Introduced at an early age to English riding and reining, Fappani has never known life without horses. He moved to the United States from his family's farm in Italy to train with Todd Bergen, become a professional rider, and be the best horseman he could be.

In 2001, after five years of training, Andrea won his first NRHA Futurity at the age of 24.

Fappani is only the second person to become an NRHA Six Million Dollar Rider. Additionally, he is a four-time NRHA Futurity Champion, a four-time NRBC Champion, an NRHA Derby Champion and has captured multiple AQHA World Champion titles.

Fappani's experience, enthusiasm and professionalism make him a crucial asset to TEAM:TR. "I'm committed to excellence with horses and always focused on what's best for each individual. That is what drives me to be the best reining trainer and showman," said Fappani. "To commit to understand the needs of a horse and how that particular horse learns is extremely rewarding. Developing confidence in each horse's athletic abilities and becoming a trusted partner in the show arena and winners circle is our goal."

TEAM:TR is "here to make a difference in western performance sports and bring them to a different level. I think that we're going to see some great changes, both in the sports and to western culture."

Corey Cushing specializes in reined cow horse and reining and is a best-in-class qualifier focused on the longevity of performance horses. Corey became involved in western performance sports at a young age. He honed his horsemanship skills under the eye of the late Noel Skinner and also John Slack directly out of high school.

Cushing had the opportunity to learn from Todd Bergen, who is widely recognized as one of the finest horsemen in the business.

The assistant trainer turned athlete made his professional breakthrough at 19 when he won the NRHA Futurity Intermediate Open Championship. At the time, Cushing had only been reining for one year. Corey's dedication also earned him the title of youngest National Reined Cow Horse Association Million Dollar honoree in 2012, and in 2018, Cory became the third NRCHA Two Million Dollar Rider in history.

Most recently, Cushing captured the 2021 NRCHA Open Derby Champion title, aboard Teton Ridge's stallion, Hesa Dual Bet.

A perfect addition to TEAM:TR, Corey's experience, confidence, poise, and sense of respect have all helped elevate him and his horses to the most elite levels.

“Teton Ridge appreciates us and our horses as athletes, and they truly respect and understand the hard work and long days that go into western life and sports,” said Cushing. “What drew me to join TEAM:TR is the enthusiasm and appreciation that Thomas Tull has, and the multiple disciplines that Teton Ridge is involved in and will be a part of one day.”

Todd Bergen, a familiar name in western sports, is a ten-time NRHA and NRCHA Futurity Champion and Reserve Champion Rider. He is the sixth NRCHA Million Dollar Rider and the first rider to achieve Two Million Dollar status in both the NRCHA and NRHA.

Bergen started competing at the age of 11 and turned professional at 18. Todd was only an assistant when he started winning world championships. His most memorable win was in 1995, at age 25, when he won the NRHA Futurity.

Bergen’s vision of the future of equine events aligns with Teton Ridge’s strategies to grow western sports, noting that “the bigger the events and purses, the more people are going to want to participate and come see equine sports.”

“What Teton Ridge is doing for western culture and the horse industry is something a lot of people have dreamed about for a long time. Teton Ridge is paving the way for people in the future that want to do what we do. What I can bring to the table is experience in the industry. I can help guide Teton Ridge in the right direction.”

TEAM:TR is elevating western sports by assembling a roster of the world’s most elite western riders and broadening audience appeal and participation.

2021 ERCHA/NRCHA BRIDLE SPECTACULAR

On July 8, the beautiful Ludwig Quarter Horses facility opened the doors to the 2021 ERCHA/NRCHA Bridle Spectacular held concurrently with the NRHA Germany Reining Masters.

The ERCHA and NRCHA approved all-ages event is open to all breeds and horses regardless of their show record." Although the rain accompanied us throughout the week, the show went really well," said ERCHA president Markus Schopfer. "We enjoyed organizing this show with the NRHA Germany Reining Masters at Grischa's [Ludwig] facility, and now we have all the credentials to organize this event again next year."

Schopfer and Oh Cay Mc are 2021 ERCHA/NRCHA Open Bridle Spectacular Champions

Capturing the $3,000-added ERCHA/NRCHA Open

Bridle Spectacular Championship with a strong performance worth a 220.5 composite score was Markus Schopfer riding Yvonne Bonda's Oh Cay Mc (Metallic Cat x Oh Cay Meriah).

On the first day, the Italian professional and the well-known stallion led the rein work class with a 72.5 score. The following day, they closed with a 73 score in the herd work and a huge 75 in the fence work.

the fence work, to his skills in the reined work. He's a great-minded stud, with great genetics and a ton of style!"

Samuele Poli Barberis aboard Cats Got Freckles, an AQHA stallion sired by Fourteen Million Dollar Sire WR This Cats Smart out of Playboys Girl and owned by Luca Terzi took the Reserve Championship with a 219 composite score (rein work 71, herd work 74, fence work

"Mario [Oh Cay Mc], as always is a special horse! I can only keep on saying that I really like everything about this horse, from his cow sense to his attitude and consistency in 74). The strong and consistent duo, that we have been so used to seeing winning in the European cowhorse arenas for years now, also topped the Open Herd work with a 74 score.

German Sattler laid down a great performance dominating the ERCHA/NRCHA Limited Open Bridle Spectacular

Patrick Sattler rode his own MissSparklingShowTime to first place of the $500-added ERCHA/NRCHA Limited Open Bridle Spectacular Championship with a 211.5 composite score (rein work 69.5, herd work 70, fence work 72).

With a 209.5 total score (rein work 70.5, herd work 69, fence work 70), German Sattler also took Reserve honors with Sylvia Bate's Justa Shiningsparkle between the reins.

"Both horses are self-bred and born in 2014 and this was their first big show in the bridle. When they were 4, at the AMERICANA Futurity, they both got sick at the show and we had no chance to show them. Last year there weren't any ERCHA/NRCHA shows in Germany, so now the half-sisters took part in their first big show in the bridle. Misssprkling-showtime (Freckles Miss Olena X Sharp Dressed Shiner), winner of the Bridle Spectacular Limited Open, bred and trained by myself as well as the Reserve Champion, Justa Shiningsparkle (Justa Little Slipper X Sharp Dressed Shiner) bred by Sylvia Bate and also trained by me had both performed respectfully for the first time in the three-phase event and in a bridle. We are very happy and thankful for the wonderful results.

"It was a super show at Ludwig Quarter Horses with absolutely perfect ground for all three performances: herd, rein, and cow work. Meeting the ERCHA Cow Horse family again, after 18 months with no big shows held in Germany, was just amazing and we are very happy to have been able to show in Bitz with a couple of horses and also having a successful show."

Gabriele Poli Barberis clinched the $1.000-added ERCHA/NRCHA Non Pro Bridle Spectacular Championship

The young Italian rider and his loyal Highbrow Fletch (Royal Fletch x Lil Sally Cat) not only performed to a 74 to lead the Non Pro Herd Work, but also to win the Championship with a 209.5 composite score (rein work 69.5, herd work 74, fence work 66).

“Highbrow Fletch is one of the stallions of my family’s ranch with whom my dad [professional Samuele Poli Barberis] has won many titles over the years. It was the first time I showed in a bridle and was really happy to have done it with this horse because we've always had a lot of feeling. It was a beautiful week, a location that my family and I like so much; the environment and the atmosphere were splendid and after almost two years of closed-door events it was great to hear the audience so warm and cheering.”

Tying for the Reserve Championship with a 207.5 score was German Marco Breitenbach aboard his own VR Lolita Pep (Star G Grand Peppy x Lolita Jacs) and Swiss Shirley Schalcher riding her own DG Little Rey Merada (Roany Rey x Lenas Smart Merada).

ERCHA/NRCHA Non Pro Limited Bridle Spectacular was all about France

Winning the $200-added ERCHA/NRCHA Non Pro Limited Bridle Spectacular with a 201.5 composite score (rein work 69.5, herd work 64, fence work 68), was French Eric Leseur riding his own Metallic Whiz (Itsgoodtobelucio x Boogie Woogy Whiz). The duo also topped the herd work during the second day of the show.

“First of all, I would like to thank Sylvie and Grischa for taking care of us and giving ERCHA the opportunity of being under the spotlight during such a great show where everything was so well taken care of,” he said. “My horse is an 8-year-old gelding bred by Samisa Ranch and always takes care of me and is so much fun to ride. The reason we achieved this result is that we were really 'together' and did our best to take care of each other. We didn't have a great cow but it was one that was out of our comfort zone and I can't thank my teammate - whom I love to death - enough. He took care of me there and gave me a lot of confidence in the reined work as well because of his high level of training. I would like to conclude by congratulating all the winners and riders: When you show in the cow horse events, everyone is a beginner!”

The Reserve Championship was for Charlene Aubretton, also from France, who rode A Reminic Star (Lenas Starfish x Miss Reminic Chex) for owner CJA Quarter Horses to a 198 composite score: rein work 71 (the highest score in both Non Pro Rein Work and Non Pro Limited classes), herd work 61, fence work 66.

During the event ERCHA/NRCHA Open and Non Pro Hackamore classes were also offered

Winning the $800-added Open Hackamore were Markus Schopfer and HipCat, past ERCHA/NRCHA Open Hackamore Classic Champions. The talented stallion by the legendary Metallic Cat out of Hip Hip Sue Rey) with Schopfer in the saddle performed to a 140.5 (rein work 72.5, fence work 68) to win the class for proud owner Yvonne Bonda.

Second place, with a 138 composite (rein work 69, fence work 69) was for Patrick Sattler riding Johanna & Franz Vorraber's Diamonds Lovely Kiss (Bic Chic Gun x SZ Smodkin Diamond).

Shirley Schalcher won the $200-added Non Pro Hackamore class riding her own SS Smart Cash N Cerry (Big And Sweet BB x Miss Flipstick).

NRCHA SNAFFLE BIT FUTURITY® OPEN FINALIST FIELD EXPANDS IN 2021

The 2021 National Reined Cow Horse Association Snaffle Bit Futurity® will be the largest entry field for the 3-year-old event in recent history, and with those added numbers comes an increase in the cap on the total number of finalists brought back in the Open division.

As of August 1, there are 300 Open entries in the premier 3-year-old event in the Western performance horse industry. In 2019, the field hit a decade-high of 274 entries. The event will be held again in Fort Worth, Texas, October 7 through 23, and will also feature an increase in the number of Finalist horse and rider teams showing under the lights in the Will Rogers Coliseum.

“The Board is in tune with the changes we are experiencing as our events grow, and they feel the way we approach our finals should be responsive to that growth, too,” said Anna Morrison, NRCHA executive director. “When discussing changes to the finalist structure for the 2022 Derbies and Snaffle Bit Futurity®, it became clear that the time to make the change for the Futurity was now.”

The NRCHA Board of Directors voted to increase the finalist cap to 30 in the Open, Intermediate Open and Limited Open divisions at this year’s Snaffle Bit Futurity. There will be a maximum of 30 finalist contestants, plus ties, showing in the Finals, which are scheduled to run October 21-23. All other aspects of the Snaffle Bit Futurity finalist calculation detailed in the NRCHA Rule Book, rule 10.6.4, will remain the same.

“We’re pleased to be able to recognize additional horses in the finals, and even happier to say that despite the change happening so late in the season the Board is able to commit that 26-30th place in the Open Finals will receive a $5,000 payout,” explained Morrison.

Adding horse and rider pairs to the Finals will only increase the thrill of watching the best in the reined cow horse industry compete. The NRCHA membership has increased in 2021, reflecting in increased entries at all premier NRCHA events: 15% at the NRCHA Stallion Stakes and 20% at the DT Horses Western Derby and 33% at the Dom Conicelli Memorial Eastern Derby, presented by MARS Equestrian™.

Tickets for the 2021 event will go on sale in September. Visit www.NRCHA.com to access information.
