TETON RIDGE NAMED TITLE SPONSOR FOR THE RUN FOR A MILLION

Emerging western heritage brand invests in reining's most prestigious event with the goal of keeping the values and traditions of western horsemanship alive.

The richest event in reining has a new title sponsor, Teton Ridge. The company is determined to not only help grow the sport of reining, but to preserve, protect, and ensure the future of sports born of America's most iconic way of life. Beyond the brand's title sponsorship, Teton Ridge will also sponsor and present the $150,000 Invitational Fence Work Challenge for open bridle horse competitors.

Created by visionary entrepreneur Thomas Tull, Teton Ridge is an authentic western brand with a long-term vision that will focus on everything from performance horse breeding and training, to western apparel and gear, to hosting western experiences and events.

The Teton Ridge sponsorship of The Run For A Million marks the first collaborative effort for Tull and the driving force behind The Run For A Million, Hollywood's western storyteller, Taylor Sheridan.

"Teton Ridge is uniquely positioned to bring awareness and excitement to our sport and the western performance horse world in general," said Sheridan. "Teton Ridge's title sponsorship of The Run For A Million speaks to that commitment, and our joint ventures in the future will continue to spread the excitement TRFAM has started."

"Taylor and I share common vision when it comes to riding disciplines which have grown from the life and culture of the American West," said Tull. "There's an integrity, honesty, and purity to these sports that represent the unique heritage of our nation."

Teton Ridge's sponsorship of TRFAM underscores the brand's mission to preserve the traditions and values of the West, while celebrating the athleticism and spirit of the men and women who compete in western equine sports every day.

The second annual TRFAM, which was postponed in 2020 due to COVID concerns, happens in Las Vegas from August 18th through the 21st, at the famed South Point Arena and Equestrian Center.

About Teton Ridge

Teton Ridge is a multi-platform brand devoted to the iconic American Western way of life and western equine sports. Teton Ridge will create a team of elite equine riders from multiple disciplines, invest in the breeding and training of the most sought-after pedigrees in the quarter horse industry and engage audiences to elevate and expand western equine sports through innovative technology. Additionally, Teton

Ridge operates a philanthropic foundation that provides invaluable funding for land stewardship, fosters community by preserving the American West's cultural heritage, and ensures the future of ranching and riding sports. For more information about Teton Ridge, please visit tetonridge.com

NRHA MARKEL FUTURITY SALE GRADS SHINE IN DERBY COMPETITION

Futurity Sale Graduate Whizin Off With Guns won the Level 2 Co-Championship and Level 1 Championship at the 6666 NRHA Derby presented by Markel

Over the past few weeks, graduates of the National Reining Horse Association Markel Futurity Sales have excelled in the show pen. At the 2021 6666 NRHA Derby presented by Markel and the 2020 NRHA European Derby, these top horses have scored high, won titles, and earned a lot of cash.

In Oklahoma City, there were 12 Open and six Non Pro sale alums qualified for the finals of the 6666 NRHA Derby presented by Markel, and several others who cashed in while competing in the Tamarack Ranch Open Stakes, the Colston Paving Non Pro Stakes, and the GlycoGuard Novice Horse Derbies.

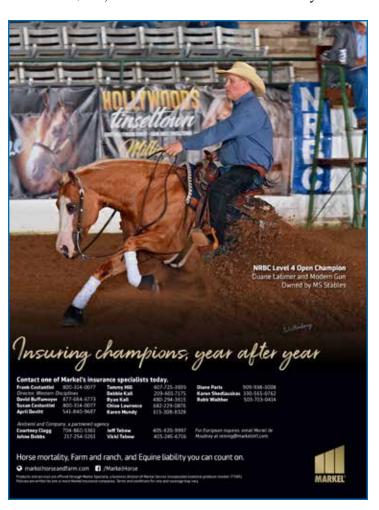

The high-earning Open sale graduate of the Derby was Whizin Off With Guns, ridden by Franky Vazquez, who won more than $30,350 for owner Bethanie Penning. In the preliminary round Whizin Off With Guns, by Tinker With Guns out of Whizin Off Sparks, marked a solid 217 to qualify for the finals of Levels 3, 2, and 1. There, the talented gelding tied for the Championship of Level 2, took sole honors in Level 1, and finished sixth in Level 3.

Whizin Off With Guns walked through the NRHA Markel Futurity Sale ring in the 2017 Select Yearling Sale (now Elite Yearling Sale). Consigned by Sterling Ranch and purchased by Koby Kempel, the colt commanded a price of $30,000.

The Non Pro high money earner was Roseswhiz, who with Raeanna Thayn added $26,342 to her lifetime earnings. The duo qualified for the finals of Levels 4, 3, 2, and Youth, and also won money in the Colston Paving Non Pro Stakes. Roseswhiz, by NRHA Four Million Dollar Sire Spooks Gotta Whiz out of Rose Electric Step, was consigned to the 2018 Marketplace Sale (now Premier Sale) by the Houde & Tremblay Partnership, and purchased by Robbin Thayn.

All totaled, NRHA Markel Futurity Sale graduates won more than $121,000 at the Four Sixes NRHA Derby.

Across the Atlantic Ocean, sale graduates competed in Austria at the 2020 NRHA European Derby, which had been (2016 Marketplace Sale, consigned by Gary Putman). postponed due to the pandemic.

There were several NRHA Markel Futurity Sale Graduates who qualified for the finals – and finished in top spots - of the Colonels Shining Gun Open Derby.

With Alessandro Roasio at the reins, Il Be Automatic – a 2017 Futurity Prospect Sale graduate - tied for reserve honors in the Level 1, and was a Level 2 finalist. The 6-year-old gelding, by NRHA Seven Million Dollar Sire Magnum Chic Dream out of Hickadora, was bred by David Pratt, and then consigned by Bobby Avila, Jr., and purchased by Quarter Dream SRL. He is now owned by Norbert Juhasz.

Tying for third in the Level 3 and winning third in the Level 2 was Hey Joe, ridden by Nimroid Vannietuelt for Steve Vannietuelt and Gine De Pauw. Hey Joe was consigned to the 2014 Select Yearling Sale by Wagman Ranch, Inc, and purchased by 4V Livestock LLC. By NRHA Six Million Dollar Sire Smart Spook out of Best Stop, the 8-year-old stallion now has lifetime earnings exceeding $123,000.

Also qualifying for various levels were Spooks Gotta Deal (2016 Marketplace Sale, consigned by Cinder Lakes Ranch), Walla Whiz Dun It (2016 Marketplace Sale, consigned by Heritage Farms), Wrapped In Tinsel (2016 Select Yearling Sale, consigned by Kyle Ranch), and Bugs At Nite

Wimpy Margarita carried Francesca Ferrarol to the Championships of the Smart Spook Non Pro Level 4 and Level 3, while Lil Jo Rush, ridden by Gina Schumacher, tied for Reserve in the Level 4.

By NRHA 12 Million Dollar Sire Wimpys Little Step and out of Custom Margarita, Wimpy Margarita sold in the 2015 Futurity Prospect Sale. The 8-year-old mare was consigned by Judy Box and purchased by Sergio Elia.

Lil Joe Rush passed through the ring during the 2016 Select Yearling Sale. Consigned by ProFit Equine (Agent), the 6-year-old sold for $24,500 to Jonathan Gauthier. The colt is by NRHA Million Dollar Sire Lil Joe Cash out of Rush N Cat.

The 2021 NRHA Markel Futurity Sales will be held Thursday, December 2, and the consignment deadline is August 31.

THE PREEMINENT SHOWCASE FOR REINING HORSES ADOPTS NEW NAMES

The National Reining Horse Association Markel Futurity Sales represent the elite of the western performance horse industry. Lucrative for consignors and a gold mine of potential for buyers, the event is a must-attend during the NRHA Futurity each year.

The 2021 NRHA Markel Futurity Sales are set for Thursday, December 2. As in the past, the sales will offer an outstanding group of two-year-old reining prospects, yearlings, stallions, broodmares, and show horses from leading breeders, owners, and trainers.

The deadline to consign is August 31, and this year's selection process has been streamlined with the elimination of photography and video requirements for yearlings,* and modified 2-year-old preview opportunities.

All sales are managed by the NRHA staff with support and direction from the NRHA Sales Task Force. Rick Clark, John Tague, Rosanne Sternberg, Frank Costantini, Tim Anderson, Rick Ford and Jake Dahl serve on this task force along with NRHA Senior Manager of ReinerSuite and Futurity Sales Angie Honeywell.

The quality and integrity of the NRHA Markel Futurity Sales is reflected in the records of exemplary graduates of previous sales and those horses have won millions in NRHA earnings since the first 2-year-olds were sold in 1993. To represent the elevated quality of horses sold in each sale, the Sale Task Force has renamed three of the four sales. The Select Yearling Sale will now be the Elite Yearling Sale, the Select Breeders Sale has been renamed the Preferred Breeders Sale, and the Marketplace Sale will now be known as the Premier Sale.

It's more than semantics, as contemporary reining horses and prospects truly represent the culmination of years of development for the breeding industry. "The Sale Task Force felt these names were a better representation of the high-quality horses we have. Sale graduates from each sale have been incredibly successful in the show pen and breeding barn, and they wanted every aspect of the NRHA Markel Futurity Sales to reflect that," noted Honeywell.

To read more about the NRHA Markel Futurity Sales, including more exciting changes for 2021, click here. For consignment information, visit NRHA.com/Sales.

*Video and photograph requirements will not be compulsory as part of the yearling consignment application procedure. Please note that videos, photographs, and radiographs will still be required prior to the NRHA Markel Futurity Sales for marketing materials and to be available for buyers. New guidelines will now govern yearling placement. Foals of dams with $25,000 or more in progeny and/or lifetime earnings will be placed in the Elite Yearling Sale, while those not meeting that threshold will sell in the Premier Sale.

Two-year-old preview opportunities have expanded into two-hour sessions in Arena 6. To provide ample time for consignors to present their horses in a controlled environment, these sessions will be held on November 30 and December 1 at the conclusion of each day's Futurity Semi-Finals.

SMART LIKE JUICE, INC. BECOMES NRHA'S NEWEST TWO MILLION DOLLAR OWNER

Impressive performances at the North American Reining Stakes unofficially catapulted National Reining Horse Association Owner Smart Like Juice Inc. past $2 million in earnings.

Prior to the event, the entity was less than $3,000 away from that milestone. Jose Vazquez, the man behind Smart Like Juice, Inc., piloted Mr Chexy Dream and Vazquez's Smart Like Juice, Inc. was first named as an NRHA member in 2004, and in that time more than 250 horses have been part of the program.

Smart Like Juice, Inc. is named for Vazquez's renowned

Million Dollar Sire Smart Like Juice. An NRHA Hall of Fame inductee, Smart Like Juice (Smart Little Lena x Jessies Oak) was bred by Lindy Burch. The now 25-year-old stallion was purchased by Justin and Vaughn Zimmerman as an early 3-year-old. After watching the horse place seventh in the open finals at the 1997 NRHA Futurity, non pro rider

stallion, NRHA Four

Vazquez (now an NRHA Million Dollar Rider) knew he had found his new horse. Smart Like Juice went on to compete with both Vazquez and NRHA Professional Ed Fear, winning $56,096 before retiring to the breeding shed.

Earning his first Million Dollar Sire title in 2008, Smart Like Juice was inducted into the NRHA Hall of Fame in 2017 for his contributions to the reining industry.

REMEMBERING RENOWNED JOCKEY & NRHA WORLD CHAMPION JOHN ROTZ

John Rotz passed away on July 12, 2021, at the Rotz Farm in Warrensburg, Illinois. A member of the National Museum of Racing Hall of Fame, Rotz lived a storied life. Renowned for his humble demeanor and talent with a horse, Rotz, known by his nickname "Gentleman John," had an extraordinary career as a jockey.

He was also a National Reining Horse Association World Champion.

Rotz was born on December 16, 1934, in Niantic, Illinois. After graduating high school in 1952, he went to work as a groom, hotwalker and exercise rider at Fairmount Park Racetrack in Collinsville, Illinois, before becoming a professional jockey in 1953.

During Rotz's 20-year racing career he won a total of 2,907 races. In 1962 he won the Preakness Stakes on Greek Money and then the Belmont Stakes on High Echelon in 1970. He rode in the Kentucky Derby six times; his best finish was fourth on Native Charger. In both 1969 and 1970 he won more stakes races than any other jockey in American racing.

In 1973, Rotz received the George Woolf Memorial Jockey Award, given to a jockey who demonstrates high standards of personal and professional conduct, on and off the racetrack. He retired from riding that year following surgery for a foot injury but remained active in the industry.

In 1983, he and his wife, Mary, returned to Warrensburg, Illinois, where they purchased a 280-acre farm where Mary rehabilitated wildlife and Rotz began his western performance horse career.

Many people were familiar with Rotz as a superstar in the racing world but for many reiners, he was first and foremost a fellow competitor. It was after former NRHA President Rick Weaver won the NRHA Futurity in 1982 that he met Rotz. Rotz had just purchased Big Red Item and visited Weaver's facility for help. For Weaver, it was instantly clear that Rotz had a great relationship with and a feel for horses. In 1987, Rotz went on to win the NRHA Novice Horse Non Pro World Championship on another horse named Doc Star Time.

There were fewer reining shows back then and typically only two classes to compete in, so Rotz began showing cutting horses. It reduced travel time as there were more cutting shows around Springfield. "I would see John at the state fairs, and I kept a friendship with him. When I first worked with him, some of the only reinings were at the fairs, so we would travel from fair to fair and I got to know him well," Weaver said.

What impressed Weaver the most was the man's humility. "I think the thing that is most important that people know about John was how he conducted himself. For a world class athlete that won the Preakness and the Belmont, I was so struck at how humble he was. It was probably my first glance of what it looked like to be going through your life and living with grace," Weaver shared.

Weaver expanded on that thought, noting that despite all Rotz accomplishments and achievements, many people were unaware of his success unless they had read it somewhere or somebody pointed it out.

"He was such a good horseman, and the relationship he had with a horse was something that clearly served him well at the track," Weaver recalled. "I still remember going to Churchill Downs and going through the museum there and seeing his name and pictures. It is such a loss for us all. He was a great horseman and such a gentleman."

WITH GRATITUDE, THE DOM CONICELLI MEMORIAL EASTERN DERBY THRIVES

The Dom Conicelli Memorial Eastern Derby would like to recognize the foundation laid for this event by the East Coast Reined Cow Horse Classic. While the Eastern Derby is in its second year as a premier NRCHA event, it started as the East Coast Reined Cow Horse Classic, a show that annually brought reined cow horse competitors together on the east coast for 15 years. The event was originally founded Paul Bailey of Sparta, Tennessee; the late Dominic "Dom" Conicelli of Collegeville, Pennsylvania; and Dick Rosell of Rosell Trailer Sales in Lenhartsville, Pennsylvania.

The show's namesake, Dom Conicelli (pictured), was well known for his support of the reined cow horse sport, especially on the East Coast. The owner of Kinda Snaffle Bit I Silly Farms, who died in October 2018, was one of the grow as rein founders of the Atlantic Reined Cow Horse Association. "Dom would be very happy with the growth of the Eastern Derby," said Bailey, current NRCHA vice president. "His ultimate goal was for NRCHA to have a premier event in the Eastern part of the U.S."

Current presenting sponsor MARS EquestrianTM joined as an event supporter in 2019. When the regional show became the fifth NRCHA premier event produced by the association, the East Coast Reined Cow Horse Classic provided financial and logistical support to help make the show a success. In 2021, there was a 33 percent increase in entries for the event that includes two slates of horse show classes, a $50,000-added Open Derby and a Pre-Futurity for 3-year-olds bound for the NRCHA

Snaffle Bit Futurity®, and the event will only continue to grow as reined cow horse continues to spread throughout the country.

Please join us in thanking the East Coast Reined Cow Horse Classic founders for their continued commitment to this event's success!

NRCHA DOM CONICELLI MEMORIAL EASTERN OPEN DERBY CHAMPIONS

Ricato Suave & Clay Volmer Crowned Open Derby Champions

Clay Volmer and 2017 stallion Ricato Suave (Metallic Cat x Hip Hip Sue Rey x Dual Rey) started the Eastern Derby with a bang, locking in the high score of the rein work with a 220.5. The NRCHA professional from Brock, Texas, continued to stay in the top of the Open Derby division go rounds, marking a 219 in the herd work before finishing the event with a 216.5 down the fence. The composite 656 topped the reserve champion by a point-and-a-half, earning the title and owners Shaleah Hester and Madeline Fountain $17,434.44.

Volmer rode the 2020 NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity Reserve Open Champion in a hackamore, and the stallion seemed to relish the freedom to make the fence run his own.

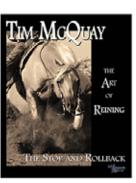

"I actually train a lot of my horses in a noseband I bought years and years ago. He is very comfortable in it and works a little better in that than in a snaffle bit, so he's taken to the hackamore easily," Volmer explained. "He is a little freer in it than in the snaffle to express his individuality. I go along for the ride."

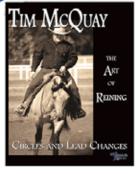

And what a ride it was! While Volmer says that often the 4-year-old year after a successful Futurity season can be tough on a young horse, that is not the case with Ricato Suave, who was bred by Flag Ranch LLC.

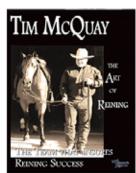

"It usually takes a while for them to settle back in, but he's been great. It can be even more difficult on a stallion if you start breeding, so we all talked and made the decision to hold off breeding him for a year. I think he will go on to have an incredible breeding career because he is the epitome of what a stud should be," Volmer said.

"He has so such presence and eye appeal, and he has never wanted to be any trouble. He is very good to be around and has learned well. He's been shown enough now that he doesn't take much schooling; he is extremely fun to be around."

Married to fellow Open rider Veronica Swales, Volmer said that the couple hauled to the Eastern Derby in order for Swales to take advantage of her last year I the Limited Open division. She didn't top the show but continued to make solid runs on her Derby horses, he said.

"She's had an outstanding year. She's incredible and has helped me so much," Volmer said. "We also brought a couple Non Pros out here and they're having fun. Now, We'll show in the [National Stock Horse Association] Derby in Vegas because I qualified for the Run For The Million and it is right after that, then we will show him at the [NRCHA] Hackamore Classic in Fort Worth."

Open Derby Reserve Champion Sarah Dawson and Smart Chic An Tari (Smart Chic Olena x Shiney Tari x Shining Spark), bred and owned by Aaron Ranch, scored a composite 650.5 (R:220/H:215/C:219.5) to earn $13,075.83.

Bet Shesa Pepto & Lee Deacon top Intermediate Open Derby

Lee Deacon couldn't be happier to top the Intermediate Open Derby aboard 2016 mare Bet Shesa Pepto (Bet Hesa Cat x Lil Miss Pepto x Peptoboonsmal), bred by Garrett Johnson and owned by Cody and Katherine Clements. He only paired up with the red roan shortly before the DT Horses Western Derby in June.

"We purchased this mare off BJ Avila about a month before Scottsdale. BJ did a great job of training her from a 2-year-old," Deacon said. "We've been getting used to each other and while we showed in Scottsdale, there was some stuff I needed to work on at home to get her to fit me. It seemed to all come together and fit at this show."

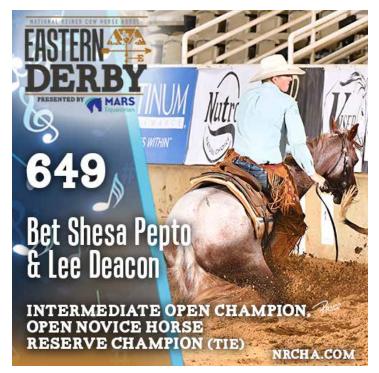

WATCH THE RUN

With a composite 649 (R:214/H:216.5/C:218.5), Deacon is more confident with the mare, though he never doubted she could do the job.

"You can always depend on her to hit her fence turn, she never misses it, and she gets out of the fence turn well and never gets out of position," he said. "She is super sweet and does her job. She is quiet in the pen. She is cowy and never gets ahead of you."

Ultimately, the mare is destined to be a Non Pro horse but is proving to be a competitive Open horse. Deacon says the next stop is the Hackamore Classic before beginning the two-rein transition for next year. "Everyone is excited about her," he said.

The Intermediate Open win earned $5,327.19. The duo also tied for fifth in the Open, adding $5375.62 and tied for reserve in the Open Novice Horse for another $2,138.40.

There was a tie for reserve champion in the Intermediate Open division. Abigayle Mixon and Vintage Ambrosia (One Fine Vintage x Miss Fancy Juice x Smart Like Juice), owned by Kathryn Rippetoe and bred by Mike & Linda Silveira, marked a 647 along with Ron Ralls riding One Time Edition (One Time Pepto x PG Special Edition x Playgun), bred by Flag Ranch LLC and owned by Bell Quarter Horses. Each earned $3,795.62.

Vintage Ambrosia & Abigayle Mixon wins the Limited Open Derby

It's not always easy to add a new event to a trainer's program but reining-focused trainer Abigayle Mixon is earning her stripes moving into the reined cow horse industry. It helps to have unparalleled guidance of NRCHA Hall of Fame member Don Murphy while she makes the transition.

WATCH THE RUN

Aboard Murphy-trained Vintage Ambrosia (One Fine Vintage x Miss Fancy Juice x Smart Like Juice), owned by Kathryn Rippetoe and bred by Mike & Linda Silveira, Mixon is making a splash this year. At the Eastern Derby, presented by MARS EquestrianTM, the pair earned the Limited Open Derby Champion title with a composite 647 (R:212/H:214.5/C:220.5), earning $2,179.31 in addition to the reserve title and earnings in the Intermediate Open.

Mixon and "Amber" make it look easy.

"She is probably the nicest one I've had to show down the fence. She's shown me what it is supposed to feel like and where to be; she's actually pretty easy if I can pilot her. She's taught me a lot of feel," Mixon said. "Don Murphy is the first person I've rode with, and I've rode with him off and on the whole time. In March [2021] they contacted me about riding Vintage Ambrosia."

Though a fresh face in the cow horse pen, Mixon has been interested in the event since she was a young girl.

"Cow horse was something I'd always wanted to do. I saw a video of Todd Crawford showing Tejons Peppy Doc when I was 10 years old and remember thinking I really want to do [cow horse] one day," she recalled. "When I went to work for Winfield Farms, they own Lean With Me and Chex This Out and they had cow horses before, they asked me if I would try it."

Mixon went to the source, learning traditional cow horse methods from Murphy. Murphy, who is based in Marietta, Oklahoma, has been coaching cow horse trainers of all levels for the last eight years.

"When I was a young man training horses, the old-timers didn't help us. Now, we help each other," Murphy said. "I happened to fall into coaching. My life lately has been coaching people. Abby was a reiner and wants to be a cow horse rider, and she's getting on good horses and doing really well. I'm looking for no matter if [someone I coach] wins, loses or draws, I want them to improve."

And that passion trickles into those he coaches, like Mixon who says that Murphy's "attagirl" can top her class placing most shows.

"It's pretty amazing to have his advice," she said. "It can be a lot of information to take in but he has a way of doing it that just allows you to be inspired to do better. Sometimes, it is more important for him to tell me I did a good job than how I actually finish in the class. He's able to pull things out of you that you didn't know you could do."

In the Limited Open, Mixon piloted Eight Karat Diamond (CD Diamond x Whiz Guinevere x Topsail Whiz), owned by Dr. Harry and Patricia Prince and bred by San Juan Ranch, to a composite 643.5 (R:214.5/H:214/C:215) to earn $1,743.44. The 2017 palomino mare also tied for fifth in the Intermediate Open to earn an additional $1,997.70.

With a 650.5, 2017 stallion Tee Boone, bred by Charlotte Farms Inc, and Jay McLaughlin earned $2,980.80 and the Open Novice Horse title for owners JT & Sandra Neal III.

Sarah Murphey piloted 2026 mare HQ Wilma Gotta Kitty to a 641.0 and $2,155.95 for the Level 1 Limited Open title for Breeder/Owner Reid Hockenson.

NRCHA DOM CONICELLI MEMORIAL EASTERN NON PRO DERBY CHAMPIONS

Debbie Crafton Dominates Non Pro Derby aboard Dualin ALittle Time

At the inaugural Dom Conicelli Memorial Eastern Derby in 2020, Debbie Crafton rode away with the Non Pro Derby win, and this year, she defended that title, but rode her "ultimate teammate" to the win. On Dualin ALittle Time (One Time Pepto x ARC Little Dualena x Dual Pep), bred by Arcese Quarter Horses and owned by Crafton), she scored a composite 651.5 (R:219.5 /H:213.5/C:218.5) to earn the win and $3,292.38.

"He is always so true and honest. He always has my back and is my team partner," said Crafton.

Following the DT Horses Western Derby, Crafton gave the 2016 stallion some time off before schooling him at the Douglas, Wyoming, Colorado Reined Cowhorse Association event. Then, she hauled to Tennessee.

WATCH THE RUN

This year, she said that the competition in the Non Pro stepped up from the first year. "We had more competition this year; several Non Pros that were at the Western Derby were here. You felt like you had to come a-calling," she said. "It felt like a premier event this year with tough horses and tough competition."

With more than $52,000 in lifetime earnings, Dualin ALittle Time and Crafton had already had a successful career. She plans to keep him and transition into the two-rein, and eventually the bridle.

"I am sad that he's growing up on me, but I'm really excited to show him next year in the two-rein," she said.

In reserve was 17-year-old Catelyn Walker riding Frat Cat (WR This Cats Smart x TAMU A Dualin Reina x Aggies Twelfth Man), bred by TAMU Department of Animal Science and owned by Catelyn. She earned $2,586.87 for their composite 648.5.

Catelyn Walker rides Frat Cat to the Intermediate & Novice Non Pro Derby Championships

Catelyn Walker was looking for a challenge when she purchased Frat Cat from trainer Ben Baldus and his wife, Cameron, when the 2016 gelding was a 3-year-old. Baldus said the two would be a good fit, and that couldn't be truer.

"I really like him in it! He's been really good," she said.

Trail Townsend & TRR Lucky Playgun Amateur

Trail Townsend decided to compete at the 2021 Dom Conicelli Memorial Eastern Derby, presented by MARS Equestrian, at the last minute. It worked out for the Earth, Texas, youth and the 2016 grey stallion TRR Lucky Brazos (Pepcid x TRR Lucky Playgun x Playgun), bred by Tongue River Ranch and owned by his father, Tripp.

"I jumped in [with the McLaughlins] to see how it went, and it went pretty good," said Trail.

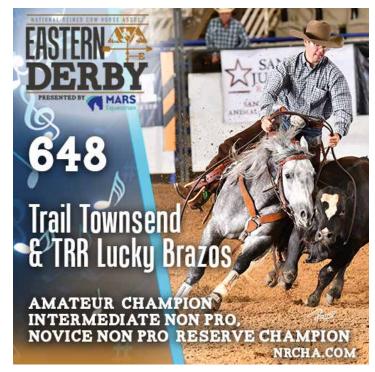

WATCH THE RUN

While Trail trusts the grey completely on a cow, he said that their weakest event is herd work. Once the duo got through that, he enjoyed the ride.

"I really like reining on him, and we could have done a little better, but I was happy with him. Our weakest event is the cutting," he explained. "We are working on it and could have done better, but it gives us something to work on. I couldn't fault him down the fence. He felt really great."

With a 216.5 in the rein work, a 207 out of the herd and a monster 224.5 in the cow work, Trail earned third place in the Non Pro, reserve in the Intermediate Non Pro and Novice Non Pro as well as the top spot in the Amateur. Now, the pair is headed to Lincoln, Nebraska, to compete in the National High School Finals Rodeo in the cow horse.

"I get home tomorrow and leave the next day for Lincoln, Nebraska, for the high school finals," said Trail. "I am taking him as a back-up to my bridle horse [TRR Lucky Playgun]."

Reserve Champion in the Amateur is Addison Fjelstad riding Seven S Red Robin (Blind Sided x Seven S Dixie Chic x CJ Sugar Lena) to a 647 (R:212.5/H:216/C:218.5) to earn owner Kenneth Schueller $1,170.

Cheryl Chown on Xtra Short Trick Named Non Pro Limited Derby Champion

It's been a successful summer for Cheryl Chown. The Gainesville, Texas, self-proclaimed barrel racer earned another reined cow horse title, this time Non Pro Limited Derby Champion at the 2021 Dom Conicelli Memorial Eastern Derby, presented by MARS Equestrian, aboard Xtra Short Trick (Shiners Voodoo Dr x Short And Royal x Short Oak).

This win comes on the heels of Chown's DT Horses Western Derby Non Pro Limited Derby Champion and Non Pro Limited class wins riding this 2016 bay mare. While the mare's talent is undeniable, the horse is ever more precious to Chown because of her mother, Short And Royal.

Short And Royal was the horse that Chown started showing in cow horse after a 20-year hiatus between reined cow horse rides. The mare has NRCHA produce earnings in excess of $137,000.

"My family—Robert, me and my daughter, Riley—our favorite horse is Short And Royal. Robert won the Southwest Futurity on her, was fifth at the Snaffle Bit and went on to win derbies and spectaculars; Riley won two world titles on her, one in AQHA and one NRCHA. Then, we pulled embryos out of her until five years ago we got her ready for this show when it was the East Coast Reined Cow Horse Classie," Chown said.

The mare wasn't carrying a foal that year because she aborted a Shiners Voodoo Dr foal. The Chowns had sold an embryo from Short And Royal and Shiners Voodoo Dr to Xtra Quarter Horses, and when Chown saw the resulting foal, it was fate and she had to have her.

"I saw this mare [Xtra Short Trick] and bought her from an online auction—I'd never bought a horse online!" she said. "So, it says breeder Chown Quarter Horses because of the embryo, owners Robert and Cheryl Chown, but she has an Xtra Quarter Horses brand! No matter what, she is extra special to me because she is out of that mare that did so much for our family, Short And Royal. I cannot tell you how much she has done for our family. We can't thank Short And Royal enough for what she's done for our whole family."

WATCH THE RUN

After a thrilling DT Horses Western Derby, Chown gave the mare some time to simply be a horse before heading to Tennessee. She credits her husband, NRCHA professional Robert Chown, with having her dialed in to show.

"Robert has that mare so trained that we don't drill on her every day," she explained. "I would have liked to have cut a little more [before the show] but we had a lot of rain. I learned a lot about this mare in Arizona as far as how to show and had some pilot errors in Arizona that I wasn't pleased with. I wanted to be better here."

With a 217 in the rein work, a 212 out of the herd and a 216 in the boxing, Chown captured the Non Pro Limited Derby win and earned $2,658,.60 along with awards.

The Reserve Champion in the Non Pro Limited is Lucinda Rose David riding Rubys Repeat (Reys Dual Badger x Ruby Tuesday DNA x Peppy San Badger), bred by Ruby Tuesday Partners and owned by Lucinda, to a 643.5 (R:215.5/H:212/C:216) and $2,088.90.

NRCHA DOM CONICELLI MEMORIAL EASTERN DERBY SPECTACULAR CHAMPIONS

Jerry Smoke with Todd Crawford tops Open Bridle Spectacular

Todd Crawford was draw four in a 16-horse Open Bridle Spectacular cow work field. He ignited the arena with a textbook, and thrilling, fence run, then waited to see if his 146 on the cow would keep him atop the class. When the final whistle blew, Crawford and Jerry Smoke (Dual R Smokin x Kool Arista Cat x Cats Merada), owned and bred by J Five Horse Ranch Management, marked a 435 (R:144/H:145/C:146) to earn the title and $2,940 at the Dom Conicelli Memorial Eastern Derby.

The pair has been a frequent entry in National Reined Cow Horse Association events and have an American Quarter Horse Association Junior Working Cow Horse World Champion title to their credit. But Crawford said "Jerry" has really started to come into his own in the last couple of years.

"He's been consistently good the last two or three years where you can count on him to be there every time [in the show pen]," Crawford said of the 2013 gelding.

WATCH THE RUN

He attributes some of that to roping off the horse. It's both helped the gelding mentally and also allowed Crawford to start preparing him as a possible World's Greatest Horseman 433.5 (R:147/H:139/C:147.5). mount.

"I really think roping on him this past winter has helped him mentally mature," said Crawford. "I couldn't tell you exactly what it did other than settle him a little. He has a lot of feel and is high octane and [roping] helped soften him, relaxing him a tick to where he is rating and thinking a little better. He is an over-achiever and sometimes he tries to overdo it."

This is the second consecutive year Crawford returns to Oklahoma with a premier event title earned in Tennessee. However, he is no stranger to this event, which was originally the East Coast Reined Cow Horse Classic.

"I've been coming to [the East Coast Reined Cow Horse Classic] for 12 or 15 years. This show's growth is what we all hope for being on the NRCHA Board of Directors and trying to broaden the scope of cow horses eastward," said Crawford. "I believe moving the World Show and the [NRCHA Snaffle Bit] Futurity to Fort Worth helped that immensely. Now, these people that live far east, it is more attainable. They have always been competitive, but they didn't have many big events to go to like what we have in the southwest or west. Now, this show is even bigger, and it is a great place to come show, learn and see people you don't get to see often at other events."

Crawford's program had a successful show, with Non Pro Limited rider Monica Duflock capturing the Non Pro Limited Spectacular title, and Crawford riding Bet Lucky 13, owned by Robert and Allyson Light, to the Open Two Rein Spectacular title.

Reserve Champion Sarah Dawson and Travelin Miss Jonez (Travelin Jonez x Playin With Rubies x Lectric Playboy), earned owner/breeder Stephen Roseberry $2,352, a box fan from Hanson Quarter Horses' Wayne and Michelle Hanson and a box fan bag from Classic for their composite 433.5 (R:147/H:139/C:147.5).

In the Intermediate Open Bridle Spectacular, Christian Lybbert rode Metallic Snowflakes (Metallic Cat x Smart-LittleSnowflake x Smart Little Lena), bred by Mary Jansma and owned by Patricia Wilmoth, to a composite 426 (R:140/H:141/C:145) to earn $470. Reserve was Lance Sheffel riding his 2014 stallion Loaded With Light (Hes A Loaded Gun x Janes Starlight x Grays Starlight) to a 420.5 (R:140/H:142/C:138.5) to earn $352.50. Complete class results are online at nrcha.com/scoring/.

Amy Bailey rides Electra Tuff to the Non Pro Bridle Spectacular Championship

"He is the best horse I've ever had, and I have had a lot of great horses. I've won six world championships and the Non Pro Bridle at the Snaffle Bit, all the big things. He has not won anything [big] yet, except the Snaffle Bit Two Rein, and we just keep being the bridesmaids," Bailey said. "But he is the best horse I've ever had, meaning he is the most complete. Reining, herd and fence, he is the easiest for me to maneuver."

That was evident in Bailey's 148 scoring cow work in the class. The gelding stays with trainer Robert Chown, and Bailey works hard to buddy-up to the horse when she sees him.

"[Electra Tuff] is very particular who he associates with. During the show and when I'm at Robert's riding, I'll go in the stall and get him to be my friend. We are getting better," she said. "He's gotten lighter [over the years] and I've gotten more patient with him, because he is a feely horse."

WATCH THE RUN

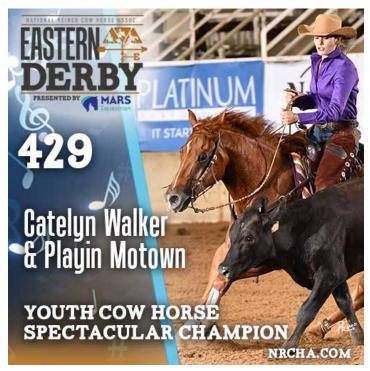

Bailey credits "Woodrow" with giving her a fun and easy fence work. "Honestly, the easiest [run] was the fence run at this show," she said. "Robert worked me on the flag for the fence work prior to the class and he just felt light and good. That was the easiest part of the show, the fence run."

With a composite 437 (R:146/H:143/C:148), Bailey earned $2,758 for the win. She also took home a C.R. Morrison NRCHA Bronze finish trophy, an engraved cup and a Gist buckle courtesy of the NRCHA, and a UltraCruz Prize Pack from Santa Cruz Animal Health.

In reserve was Adeline Gracie Bricker riding her 2015 gelding Dual Looks (Dual Rey x Teninas Smart Look x), bred by Wagonhound Land & Livestock, to a composite 432.5 (R:143.5/H:145.5/C:143.5). She earned $2,167.

Catelyn Walker tops Youth Cow Horse Spectacular on Playin Motown

Catelyn Walker and Playin Motown (Mr Playinstylish x Mo Flo x Mr Peponita Flo) are not strangers in the winner's circle at major events. However, each time she rides the 2013 gelding, she grins ear-to-ear. In Tennessee, at the Dom Conicelli Memorial Eastern Derby, presented by MARS EquestrianTM, the pair took the win in the Youth Cow Horse Spectacular with a composite 429.5 (R:141/H:142/C:146) to earn $520.

"We've been partnering three years now. It feels like longer! He's been a great horse for me and taught me a lot," said the 17-year-old Youth. "We are planning on it [showing longer]."

WATCH THE RUN

Catelyn credits his consistency with building her up as a showman and competitor.

"He is consistent. No matter what, he gives you the same run—sometimes just a little better or a little worse, but you can count on him," she said. "It lets me concentrate on showing."

In February, Catelyn's trainer, Ben Baldus, showed the gelding at the DT Horses/Hashtags World's Greatest Horseman. Not all horses can move between Open and Youth riders.

"He is such a good-minded, laid back horse," Catelyn said. "Ben showed him at the AQHA Versatility World Show and won the Senior [All Around] on him. You can do anything—ride out in the pasture, rope, go on trails, just about anything. His versatility has made him a fun show horse for me."

For the win, Catelyn took home a C.R. Morrison NRCHA bronze finish trophy and engraved cup courtesy of the NRCHA and a UltraCruz Prize Pack from Santa Cruz Animal Health. Reserve Champion Quincee Clark and Vintage San (Ricochet San x Shiney Vintage Chic x Smart Chic Olena), owned by Kristi Clark and bred by Carolyn Edson, scored a 418.5 (R:138/H:140.5/C:140) to earn $390 and a box fan from Hanson Quarter Horses' Wayne and Michelle Hanson and a box fan bag from Classic.

In the Youth Limited, Jubilee Stringfellow rode her 2014 mare Jills Last Bet (Bet Hesa Cat x Shiners Diamond Jill x Shining Spark), bred by Garth and Amanda Gardiner, to the win with a 436 (R:143.H:145/C:148), earning $660 . She takes home a C.R. Morrison NRCHA bronze finish trophy and engraved cup courtesy of the NRCHA and a UltraCruz Prize Pack from Santa Cruz Animal Health. Reserve in the class was Riley Friesen riding Peggy Cummings' Sweethearts Legacy (Cats Moonshine x A Docs Sweetheart x A Docs Special) to a 432.5 (R:146/H:141.5/C:145) to earn $528 and a box fan from Hanson Quarter Horses' Wayne and Michelle Hanson and a box fan bag from Classic.

Non Pro Limited Spectacular Championed by Monica Duflock on Oh Cay Meriah

Non Pro Limited Spectacular Champion Monica Duflock has piloted her 2009 mare for nearly six years. At the 2021 Dom Conicelli Memorial Eastern Derby, presented by MARS Equestrian, the pair earned the win with a 429 (R:138/H:142.5/C:148.5), taking home the $2,460 check on Oh Cay Meriah (Light N Lena x Meradas Oh Cay x Freckles Merada), bred by Billy Martin.

"I bought Oh Cay Meriah from Todd Crawford's program and have been there since," said Duflock. "She is super sweet and lovely to be around. When you pull her out of the stall, she is the same horse every day, never looking for a fight and super willing!"

The pair's cow work score was the class high at 148, and Duflock enjoyed the run.

WATCH THE RUN

"When you're on her back, hands down, the most fun thing is being on a cow, in the herd or boxing," she said. "Last year, I started the [Beginning Fence Work] class and anytime she has a cow in front of her, she is a complete blast!"

Duflock showed at last year's inaugural premier event and enjoys the show's atmosphere. "I showed here last year and I love it! It's a nice show to come to, enjoyable and everybody is so nice to be around! It has really good energy here," she said.

In reserve was Greg Lewis riding Hartwood Farms' 2015 gelding MC Reyn Or Shine (Shiners Nickle x Tootsie Rey x Dual Rey), bred by Michelle Cannon, to a 426 (R:140.5/H:140/C:145.5), earning $1,968 and a box fan from Hanson Quarter Horses' Wayne and Michelle Hanson and a box fan bag from Classic.

Todd Crawford rides Bet Lucky 13 to Open Two Rein Spectacular Win

"It has been a good show!"

That is an understatement for Todd Crawford's 2021 Dom Conicelli Memorial Eastern Derby, presented by MARS EquestrianTM. Crawford marked the highest cow score of the the first turn. I went further down the pen for my second event on his way to a second title, this one in the Open Two Rein Spectacular aboard Bet Lucky 13 (Bet Hesa Cat x Miss circled good. It was a real good run. Those kinds don't hap-Lucky Starlight x Grays Starlight), owned by Robert and Allyson Light and bred by James Eakin.

Crawford has had the 2013 stallion in his program since the horse was a 2-year-old. Now, as an 8-year-old in the two-rein, the roan is finding his stride.

"I showed him at the Snaffle Bit Futurity. After his 5-year-old year I showed him in the World Show in the hackamore and was second on him. Then, he got an infection in his hock, and we almost lost him, actually, so he had a year off," Crawford said. "I started back on him, then CO-VID hit, and they took him home to take another year off."

Despite setbacks, the horse continues to improve and mature as a show horse, Crawford says. With more showing, the horse will soon become Allyson's show horse.

"We are gearing him to become Allyson's next horse and that is the goal. In order to achieve that goal, I have to stay on top of him and prepare him," said Crawford. "He is still a stallion, but he is real laid back. That was probably a detriment as a 3-year-old because he didn't have much motivation. But since he's learned to show and learned the routine, he is plenty of horse but not too much horse."

The 152 cow work was the kind of run that a trainer loves to make in the show pen, Crawford says. "The Open Bridle was great, but I didn't have the kind of fence work that I had in the Two Rein. The fence work is always fun, but when that kind of run happens, it is really fun," explained Crawford.

WATCH THE RUN

"He drew a really good cow that boxed well and had a lot of feel on the ends. In order to win, you gotta go [down the fence] so I didn't box long. I have quite a bit of confidence in him that he can handle a lot of cow. He nailed turn, and it was a little tighter than I wanted, then he ran and pen very often so you're always happy when they do."

In addition to a check for $1,470, Bet Lucky 13 earned takes home a C.R. Morrison NRCHA bronze finish trophy, engraved cup and Gist buckle courtesy of the NRCHA, and a UltraCruz Prize pack from Santa Cruz Animal Health.

Clayton Anderson was Reserve Champion riding Troop Quarter Horses' Rooster Cogboon (Once In a Blu Boon x Roosters Lucy x Gallo Del Cielo), bred by James or Debra Bramblett. The 432 (R:145/H:142.5/C:144.5) earned $1,225 and a box fan from Hanson Quarter Horses' Wayne and Michelle Hanson and a box fan bag from Classic.

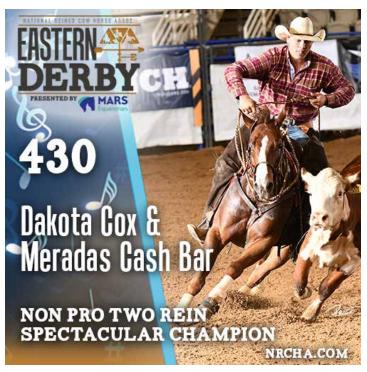

Dakota Cox Tops Non Pro Two Rein Spectacular on Meradas Cash Bar

With a 430.5 (R:140.5/H:146/C:143.5), 17-year-old Dakota Cox and 2015 gelding Meradas Cash Bar (KTZ Rey Of Cash x Meradas Bar Star x Meradas Money Talks), bred by Rodney Wrinkle Cutting Horses, took the top spot in the Non Pro Two Rein Spectacular.

"We've had him since he was a 3-year-old," Dakota said.

"Luke Jones showed him in [the Snaffle Bit] Futurity and we've all shown him through his Derby years."

While the horse and Dakota have learned and grown together, the young man says the most improvement has been in their cutting. The two had the high score of the Non Pro Two Rein herd work with a 146.

"One thing that's improved has been the cutting," he said. "Here his cutting was the highest I've been, and it was fun."

WATCH THE RUN

Along with $880, Dakota takes home a C.R. Morrison NRCHA bronze finish trophy, engraved cup and Gist buckle courtesy of the NRCHA, and a UltraCruz Prize Pack from Santa Cruz Animal Health.

Reserve Champion Ashley Lembke rode 2015 gelding Dually Tunes (Dual Rey x SDP Finely Tuned x Smart Little Lena), co-owned with her husband Tyrel and bred by Beechfork Ranch, to a 420.5 (R:138.5/H:143/C:139) to earn $660, a box fan from Hanson Quarter Horses' Wayne and Michelle Hanson and a box fan bag from Classic.

NRCHA DOM CONICELLI MEMORIAL EASTERN DERBY OPEN PRE-FUTURITY CHAMPIONS

The Royalty Crowned Open Pre-Futurity Champion with Ashley Deacon in the Saddle

Thirty-six Open riders piloted 3-year-olds bound for the National Reined Cow Horse Association Snaffle Bit Futurity® in the Dom Conicelli Memorial Eastern Derby presented by MARS Equestrian Pre-Futurity event. After working through the rein and herd portions, the cow work proved out the top young horse: The Royalty (One Time Royalty x Diamonds With Style x Playin Stylish) ridden by Ashley Deacon for owner Lucinda Rose David.

Deacon was pleased with the 2018 stallion that she calls a "phenomenal horse."

WATCH THE RUN

"The Royalty is a champion, natural born. 'Mick is the most phenomenal horse I've ridden; one of a kind," she said. "We got him from Ty Benson and actually Brent Callahan started him, and as soon as we rode him, we had to have him. He was wild, had so much presence about him, and we knew he was special."

Deacon's husband, fellow NRCHA Open rider Lee Deacon, picked the horse out. Customers Chance and Julie David purchased the horse for their daughter, Lucinda.

"They've been great customers, sticking with us through thick and thin," Deacon said. "We are so happy they own that horse."

Last year the Deacons brought their Futurity horses to this show, despite wondering if it was too early to start showing. However, it helped the horses prep for the October Snaffle Bit Futurity.

"Showing here, I liked how much it grew our horses up," said Deacon. "The Royalty just really enjoyed showing. He was happy through the rein work and we were really happy we came to show."

Along with $2,607.55 in earnings, the event gave an engraved cup from NRCHA and UltraCruz Equine Shampoo from Santa Cruz Animal Health.

Reserve Champion Todd Crawford rode Bryan Hawk's Voodoo It Ruf (Shiners Voodoo Dr x Foxy Lil Catalyst x Lil Ruf Peppy) to a 431 (R:144/H:144/C:143), earning $2,086.04 and a gift certificate for product from Platinum Performance and UltraCruz Equine Shampoo from Santa Cruz Animal Health.
