YELLOWSTONE ROOKIE SHOOTOUT RETURNS TO NRBC IN 2021

Innovation and excitement go hand-in-hand at the National Reining Breeders Classic, and not just in the main event. In 2018, Paramount Network's hit show, Yellowstone, became the sponsor of the Yellowstone Paramount Network Rookie Shootout, and in the ensuing years it has become a favorite of the show.

The Yellowstone Paramount Network Rookie Shootout was created to give Rookie competitors the chance to compete in the big arena during prime time at the NRBC. The Yellowstone Paramount Network Yellowstone Rookie Shootout will return to the NRBC, April 18 – 25, in Katy, Texas, this year.

The top five from both slates of Rookie competition advance to the Shootout round on Friday, April 23, just prior to the Open Classic Challenge. There, the winner of the Shootout will be presented with a custom, one-of-a-kind prize. The first year's prize was a custom mini golf cart, and a custom designed tack trunk was the major prize for 2019.

Then things got big in 2020, with a life-sized fiberglass horse as the trophy. "We wanted to continue to present a big trophy for a big win, and that's what we had in 2020. The horse was a huge hit, with many people stopping for a photo opportunity,"

NRBC Secretary/Treasurer Cheryl Cody shared. She Cody added that details about the Yellowstone Rookie Shootout prize for 2021 will be announced soon.

In addition to the main trophy, all Shootout qualifiers receive custom Yellowstone Paramount Network Rookie Shootout buckles. There is no additional fee for the Yellowstone Paramount Network Rookie Shootout, but exhibitors must be entered in both slates of Rookie classes, as Shootout qualification is based on the composite scores. Non Shootout qualifiers who competed in both slates can enter the Yellowstone Paramount Network Rookie Shootout Consolation round on Sunday afternoon, April 25.

THE RUN FOR A MILLION NON PRO & ROOKIE QUALIFIERS RETURN TO THE NATIONAL REINING BREEDERS CLASSIC

The National Reining Breeders Classic, held April 18-25, 2021 in Katy, Texas, will be hosting Non Pro and Rookie Qualifiers for the richest event in history. The Run For A Million, held at the South Point Arena and Equestrian Center in Las Vegas, Nev., is slated for August 17-21, 2021. In addition to the million dollar competition, there is a $100K Open Shoot Out, a $50K Invitational Freestyle, a $50K Non Pro Championship, as well as a Rookie Championship.

Qualifiers are being offered across the United States and Canada and the NRBC is proud to be one of them. “The Run For A Million is not your average horse show,” said NRBC President Tom McCutcheon. “By televising reining through the Last Cowboy, the sport has reached new accolades in and out of the performance world. The NRBC will support that any day.”

they wish to enter.

The top five placings plus ties in each slate with a paid qualifier fee will be able to compete in Las Vegas at TRFAM. The Qualifier fee was established to ensure those who want to take part in TRFAM Championships have the opportunity without being knocked out of the top five by someone who has no intentions of participating at TRFAM.

The Rookie and Non Pro Qualifiers will run concurrently with the corresponding Ancillary classes. Those wishing to qualify to compete at The Run For A Million must enter the correlative classes, fill out the TRFAM Qualifier form found on the NRBC website, and pay the $200 fee per slate that

NRBC DEVELOPING HORSE DIVISION CHANGES FOR 2021

The National Reining Breeders Classic, held April 18-25, 2021 in Katy, Texas is known for having something for everyone. The NRBC Developing Horse Division was created to give horses that may have had a limited show career the chance to earn money, and in 2021, the earnings cap has been moved from less than $2K by March 31 of the year it will be shown to less than $5K.

NRBC Board Member Dell Hendricks said, “This modification gives horse owners a place to compete for good money with the horses they chose not to show as three-year-olds or those who might have had an injury, or a showing error. We saw a need for the opportunity for these horses to show against other horses in similar situations.”

Held annually during the Open Classic prelims, the $10K added side pot that averages about 35 entries, has no additional entry fee, and pays five places. With modern shows paying out more and more, the NRBC Board of Directors chose to extend eligibility to more horses.

In order to enter, 4-, 5-, 6-, or 7-year-old NRBC enrolled horses must also be entered in the Open Classic. More information about the show and the Development Division entry form can be found at NRBC.com.

TWIN CITIES SOUTH CONTINUES ITS SUPPORT OF THE NATIONAL REINING BREEDERS CLASSIC

The National Reining Breeders Classic's longest-standing sponsor, Twin Cities South renewed its sponsorship for the 24th year since the show began. The company began its tradition of providing a year's use of their trailers for the Open and Non Pro Classic Champions only six years after their company's inception.

The relationship began with a friendship between owner Gary Raak and NRBC Founder and current Board Member Tim McQuay. Tim said, "I've known Gary for at least 50 years. He was in the horse business when I was a kid, and he and my dad were very good friends. Before his business moved to Texas, we were going to Minnesota to buy trailers from him. When I asked him to provide trailers for the first NRBC, he never hesitated and still hasn't."

"Whatever Tim does, is usually a good thing to be involved with." Gary added, "The trailers we offer are pretty deluxe, and they are hauled by the top names in the reining world with our name and lettering on them. Sometimes the winners will go ahead and buy the trailer after a year and sometimes people see the trailers and bring us their business. We support the reining industry, and we hope it will support us, too."

Twin Cities South prides itself on providing the best customer service with knowledgeable sales and support staff and a huge inventory of new and used trailers to choose from. The company has an aggressive trade in policy, easy financing options, and will deliver trailers anywhere in the lower 48. For more information, visit twincitiessouthtrailers.com, or stop by 8448 Hwy 377 in Pilot Point, Texas.

NRHA FUTURITY SUCCESS CATAPULTS LIL JOE CASH TO MILLION DOLLAR SIRE STATUS

In a meteoric rise, Lil Joe Cash became a National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) Million Dollar Sire with only four performing foal crops.

"With all the show cancellations in 2020, it's almost certain that Lil Joe would have become a million dollar sire earlier in the year, and to me that is incredible," noted owner Russell Giles. "Having Lil Joe Cash become a million-dollar sire was never my goal because it has always been to breed the best-minded, athletic horses that people love. I believe we're achieving that."

An incredible show resume with NRHA Six Million Dollar Rider Andrea Fappani has segued into an equally impressive breeding career. Prior to the 2020 NRHA Futurity, Lil Joe Cash was less than $6,000 away from achieving NRHA Million Dollar Sire status, and while he would have achieved that milestone regardless, Tish Fappani's Level (L) 3 Non Pro Futurity Championship and L4 Co-Reserve Championship on Joes Genes (out of Electric Genes) catapulted the stallion's progeny earnings across the million dollar threshold.

Tish Fappani was proud to play a part in Lil Joe Cash's milestone. "Lil Joe Cash has always been a special horse to our family. He had an amazing show career," she said. "It's amazing to be a part of this achievement of his. My mare's mind and her trainability are where I see his influence."

Her husband, Andrea Fappani, added, "Tish's mare has a mind remarkably like her sire [Lil Joe Cash]. You never had to force him to do anything. You just had to show him, and if he understood what you were asking, he would do it for you."

Lil Joe Cash was also well-represented in the Adequan® Arena at the NRHA Futurity. Madison Gustin piloted Win My Cash (out of Win My Shine) to top finishes in the North American Affiliate Championships (NAAC) in the Non Pro and Intermediate Non Pro divisions, winning more than $5,100. Earlier in the year, Gustin and Win My Cash won the L2 and L1 Non Pro Derby Championship to earn more than $12,000 in NRHA Lifetime Earnings (LTE).

Bred by Kurt and Angie Harris, Lil Joe Cash is by NRHA Three Million Dollar Sire Nu Chex To Cash and out of RS Lilly Starlight. Giles purchased the colt at the 2009 Legacy Sale and sent him to Brent Loseke to begin his career. It was Loseke's recommendation to pair Lil Joe Cash with Andrea Fappani. "Brent's honesty and integrity in suggesting I send Lil Joe Cash to Andrea speaks volumes about his character," Giles said. "I believe some trainers would not have been as gracious or truthful about my horse's potential."

With Andrea Fappani in the saddle, Lil Joe Cash quickly made his mark on the reining industry, winning the 2011 NRHA Futurity Open L4 with an incredible 227.5. The pair also won an American Quarter Horse Association (AQHA) Jr. Reining World Championship in 2012, then the NRHA $75,000 Shootout Championship in 2014.

horse, but in our barn, too. He is probably the only horse I have been able to get from a different program later in his 3-year-old year and be very successful. I got him in April from Brent, who has a great program and puts a great foundation on horses but rides differently than I do,” Fappani shared. “Lil Joe Cash really molded to me, and I remember looking at my wife just two weeks after getting him and telling her I had never been on a horse that fit my style so much.”

Andrea Fappani thought so highly of the stallion, that he brought him out of retirement in 2019 to compete in The Run for a Million Shootout, where they finished third with a score of 226.

“I always tell people that if I had to pick a horse in my career that depicts the way I want reining to be done, it would be Lil Joe Cash,” Andrea Fappani said. “To me, he has the style I want. He’s a great mover who’s very collected naturally. I have gone back and watched his videos from when he went through the Legacy Sale, and it was amazing to me that he showed as a 6-year-old the same way he moved as a yearling. Twenty years from now, if someone asks me who my ideal reining horse was, I will always say Lil Joe Cash.”

Giles was quick to credit several people with Lil Joe Cash’s success. “I thank Andrea and Tish, who believed in Joe all the way. I also thank Brent Loseke, who gave Joe a lot of credence with trainers,” she said. “Also, I give a lot of credit to Jo Ellard of EE Ranch. He stood there first, and Jo, Steve and Kim Adams, and Tony Nunez, did a great job with him there.”

As Lil Joe Cash’s progeny began to compete, it became apparent he was a good cross on mares by NRHA Leading Sire Gunner. “Moving him to Tom McCutcheon Reining Horses was inevitable,” Giles shared. “We have only had one breeding season there, but it has been phenomenal. Over the years I have been incredibly fortunate to find great people to help me, and the credit goes to all of them.”

For Giles, the diversity of the riders that found success on Lil Joe Cash is a testament to the stallion. “Joe is always affectionate and wants to know what is going on, and his babies are like that, too. It’s funny because it seems like once someone gets a Joe in the barn, they’ll have 10,” she said. “I think with the propulsion he’s had, people are going to be excited about owning a Joe of their own.”

Lil Joe Cash’s top offspring also includes:

- NVR What A Lucky Joe (out of What A Lucky Hit): $108,182 NRHA LTE
- Lil Patron (out of Miss Rey O Shine): $76,459 NRHA LTE
- Cashing In Diamonds (out of Diamond Steppin Whiz): $57,473 NRHA LTE

Congratulations to Lil Joe Cash on this monumental milestone!

WIMPYS LITTLE CHIC MAKES HER MARK AS NRHA’S NEWEST MILLION DOLLAR DAM

In just four short years, Wimpys Little Chic amassed more than half a million dollars in National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) Lifetime Earnings (LTE). She’s the only horse in history to win the NRHA Futurity, NRHA Derby, and the National Reining Breeders Classic (NRBC) consecutively. Wimpys Little Chic is officially the newest NRHA Million Dollar Dam.

The stunning palomino was bred by Monica Watson of Double Run Farm of Leland, North Carolina. Eleuterio Arcese, of Arcese Quarter Horses USA, purchased the mare in 2007. “In the early spring of that year, we went with our friend Frank Costantini to Shawn Florida’s to see some 3-year-old futurity prospects. Among all the prospects we looked at, when we saw her, we realized she was really special and unique,” Arcese recalled.

The special mare, now 17 years old, is by NRHA Twelve Million Dollar Sire Wimpys Little Step out of Collena Chic Olena. She had magnetism in the show pen, drawing spectators to the rails when it was time for her to compete.

“She had a great brain, and when that mind mixed with the incredible athletic ability she had, greatness happened,” said Florida, an NRHA Professional and NRHA Six Million Dollar Rider. While he’s ridden many incredible horses in his career, Florida believes Wimpys Little Chic towers above the rest. “She’s absolutely the greatest. She’s the one who will change this sport if she hasn’t already.”

Now it’s clear that her foals have that same commanding presence. When NRHA Six Million Dollar Rider Andrea Fappani and Arcese’s All Bettss Are Off, by the newest NRHA Leading Sire Gunner, won the 2020 NRHA Futurity Level (L) 4 Open Championship, Wimpys Little Chic became the fourth, and latest, mare to join the elite club of Million Dollar Dams with only 12 money-earning foals.

“This meant a lot to me because Mr. Arcese asked me at the beginning of the year if I thought I had the quality of horse I needed to win the Futurity,” Fappani shared. “He knew that Wimpys Little Chic was getting close to that big mark, and it would mean a lot to him to win the Futurity and put that mare over one million. Being able to do that for him was a big deal to me.”

In a career that includes many great horses and achievements, this most recent one is special. “It’s great, it’s a dream come true. It means all the effort, the commitment, and the passion dedicated to our program is now repaying us with great satisfaction,” Arcese said. “This is the third Open Futurity won by horses we raised out of Wimpys Little Chic, and they’ve also won at the NRHA Derby and had many reserve championships.”

Wimpys Little Chic’s top earner is ARC Gunnabeabigstar, by NRHA Four Million Dollar Sire Gunnatrashya. With NRHA $2 Million Dollar Rider Jordan Larson at the reins, ARC Gunnabeabigstar, now owned by HDC Quarter Horses, won the 2014 NRHA Futurity L4 Open and finished as the L4 Open Reserve Champion at the 2017 NRHA Derby. All totaled, ARC Gunnabeabigstar accumulated $298,999

in NRHA Lifetime Earnings (LTE).

Wimpys Little Chic’s second highest money earner is All Betts Are Off with $281,311 in NRHA LTE, thanks in part to the record-setting $250,000 Futurity check.

Shesouttaylorleague, by NRHA Three Million Dollar Sire Walla Walla Whiz, rounds out the top three earners with $252,470 in NRHA LTE, including championships at the NRHA Futurity, Derby, and High Roller Reining Classic. Shesouttaylorleague, owned by Curtis Performance Horses LLC, was ridden by NRHA $2 Million Dollar Rider Casey Deary.

“I’ve ridden some of her babies, and she stamps them. She could stop like crazy, and every single one of her foals can stop, too,” Florida said. “She’s already produced three Futurity champions, but the point is, she’s a great horse. You can use a lot of words, but she is the one who just makes you sit there and ask, ‘Wow, how did she do that?’ Now, she’s continuing to produce great horse after great horse.”

With Wimpys Little Chic’s latest success, there is no doubt that Arcese Quarter Horses USA will continue its mission. “Our goal has always been to do better, and always improve the quality of our horses,” Arcese shared.

Wimpys Little Chic’s ten money earning offspring also includes:

- Lonely At The Top (by NRHA Twelve Million Dollar Sire Gunner): $73,151 NRHA LTE
- ARC Trashin Yer Chic (by NRHA Four Million Dollar Sire Gunnatrashya): $67,055 NRHA LTE
- Wimpys Lil Tag (by NRHA Two Million Dollar Sire Whiz N Tag Chex): $58,924 NRHA LTE
- Wallas Chic Diana (by NRHA Three Million Dollar Sire Walla Walla Whiz): $54,602 NRHA LTE
- Trashy Chics Dig Me (by NRHA Four Million Dollar Sire Gunnatrashya): $35,648 NRHA LTE
- ARC Wimpysgottagun (by NRHA Four Million Dollar Sire Gunnatrashya): $25,709 NRHA LTE
