2020 COLONELS SHINING GUN NRHA EUROPEAN DERBY OPEN FINALS: SICURO AND COLONELS DANCING GUN DO IT AGAIN!

Wiener Neustadt, July 3—The $112,700-added Colonels Shining Gun NRHA European Open Derby finals closed the 2020 edition of the European event.

Draw #4 in the second section, Nico Sicuro and Quarter Dream's Colonels Dancing Gun set the bar by scoring a 221.5. Twenty horses later, their score held, securing the $45,000-added Level (L)4 European Derby Open Championship as well as the $24,300 paycheck for first place.

The talented 7-year-old stallion sired by NRHA Twelve Million Dollar Sire Gunner out of Dance Little Spook, owned and nominated by Quarter Dream SRL, was in the breeding shed at Frozen Partners in Germany and then made his way to Puglia, Italy, where Sicuro is head trainer for Quarter Dream. As the Italian professional had mentioned following his top score in the qualifier, the Euro Derby was the first 'real' show together. "I am thrilled and won't hide the fact that waiting for 20 horses to go after me was not easy," said a smiling Sicuro. "There were quite a few strong horses and riders after us and there were a couple of maneuvers today that weren't perfect, and our score wasn't that high. He's a great horse and was great today, I guess I didn't communicate too well with him and once again he proved how special he is!"

Taking reserve honors a half a point behind were 2019 NRHA European Derby L4 Open Champions NRHA Million Dollar Rider Ann Fonck and Diego Dalla Gassa's Gunners Specialolena (NRHA Four Million Dollar Sire Gunners

Sebastiano Valtorta & Four Season Whiz

The $33,800-added L3 and $22,533-added L2 Open Derby Championships were all about Italian Sebastiano Valtorta riding Four Season Whiz (NRHA Twelve Million Dollar Sire Topsail Whiz x Dun It Preciously), a 2013 AQHA gelding bred and nominated by Luga Quarter Horses and owned by Luca Mauri. “Everything went according to plans even though I didn’t trust him enough in the stops and I should have!” said Valtorta. “This is truly a once-in-a-lifetime horse. He’s eight years old now, I’ve had him for the past four years and every time I’ve shown him, we placed. He’s made the difference in my career and I can’t thank him and his owner enough for all that they’ve given me.”

The L3 and L2 Reserve Championship was for Dutch Petra Van Ede riding Cee U In Tinseltown (NRHA Three Million Dollar Sire Hollywoodstinseltown x Miss Wimpy Hollywood), a 2014 American Quarter Horse mare bred and owned by Gisela Haas and nominated by Paulus Beurskens.

Lars Suechting & JF What A Ruf Juice

Suechting riding JF What A Ruf Juice (Ruf Dun It x What A Juicy Chic), a 9-year-old stallion owned by Markus Suechting, bred and nominated by Frank Huchzermeier. “I would describe my ride as being very solid, not over paced and my horse gave me exactly what was needed for this show,” said the German professional. “I started him as a 2-year-old, have had him in training ever since, and he’s been good-minded and honest all the way. Every single year I earned a title with him.”

Suechting shared that a fundamental part of his and his brother’s [Markus] training program is that they try to keep their horses as fresh-minded and as well trained as they can so as to get solid scores.

Tying for the L1 Reserve Championship with a 210.5 score was Swiss Philipp Kueng riding Shine On Pretty Whiz (NRHA Three Million Dollar Sire Spooks Gotta Whiz x Shine A Belle), a 2015 gelding owned by Romina Kueng, bred by Carluccio Orsi, and nominated by Greenway Stables, and Italian Alessandro Roasio riding NRHA/Markel Sale Grad Il Be Automatic (NRHA Seven Million Dollar Sire Magnum Chic Dream x Hickadora). The 2015 AQHA gelding was bred by David Pratt, nominated by Quarter Dream SRL, and is owned by Norbert Juhász.

Once the curtain fell on the 2020 NRHA Euro Derby, organizer Otto Ziefreund was pleased with the outcome. "The 2020 event was supposed to be held in the renowned fairgrounds in Wels, Austria. Due to the pandemic, the show was postponed to 2021 and at the very last minute was canceled," he said. "We were very fortunate to have Helmut and Dennis Schulz offer their facility as host, and I would personally like to thank them. I never lost faith in the fact that this event could successfully be held this year; the numbers and the support of all our sponsors speak for themselves and a big thank you goes to all. I truly hope that our bid to host the 2022 NRHA European Futurity in Wels will be accepted."

FERRAROL AND WIMPY MARGARITA ARE 2020 SMART SPOOK NRHA EUROPEAN DERBY NON PRO CHAMPIONS

The 2020 National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) $48,000-added* Smart Spook European Non Pro Derby held at Western Training Center H&D Schulz in Wiener Neustadt, Austria, provided thrills and excitement.

Until Francesca Ferrarol and her Wimpy Margarita, owned and nominated by her father Maurizio Ferrarol, rode in the pen with one horse left to go in the Finals, two riders had posted a 214.5 for the lead: Gina Schumacher with Little Joe Rush and Wolfgang Hammer aboard Call Me Lil Josie.

The 18-year-old Italian rider and her stallion by NRHA Twelve Million Dollar Sire Wimpys Little Step out of Custom Margarita (by Custom Crome) had won both the $19,200- added* Level (L)4 and $14,400-added* L3 qualifier. Determined to take the title, the duo came back strong, riding to the Championship and to the $12,150 guaranteed paycheck. "All I can say is 'thank you Wimpys Margarita,'" said an emotional Ferrarol about her NRHA/Markel Sales Graduate. "I couldn't be more blessed and, as I said after the go round, he was the coolest horse at our place, and I never thought I would ever be able to show him.

Francesca Ferrarol & Wimpy Margarita

Thanks to my dad, who believed in us, we managed to win the L3, 2, and 1 Non Pro divisions at the 2019 edition of the NRHA European Derby. We would have won the level 4 division had we entered and now, his performance today made up for that." Once again Ferrarol thanked her trainer past NRHA Intermediate Open World Champion Guglielmo Fontana who, in turn, had three words to say: "They deserve it!"

Markus Spreitzhofer & Cant Hide A Gun

Tying for the L3 Non Pro Reserve Championship with a 214 score was Enrico Sciulli of Italy riding his own SH Spooksgottabadger (Que Peseta x Shot Gun Shea), a 2015 American Quarter Horse stallion, nominated by Staffoli Horses SNC, and Dutch Suzanne Scharroo riding her own Shortyslittlestep BB (NRHA Twelve Million Dollar Sire Wimpys Little Step x Short Rooster), a 2014 American Quarter Horse gelding bred and nominated by Eifel Gold Ranch Baeck.

Three riders decided to run off for the $9,600-added* L2 after posting a 213.5: Nikolai Stiller riding his own Hollywood Gunrunner (NRHA Twelve Million Dollar Sire Gunner x Dun It For Missy), a 2012 double-registered AQHA and APHA mare bred by James Frahm, nominated by Rudi Kronsteiner; Markus Spreitzhofer riding his own Cant Hide A Gun (The Big Gun x Cattrena), a 2013 APHA gelding bred by Robert Windisch and nominated by Spreitzhofer; and Jürgen Pritz riding his own Rose of Mercedes (NRHA Million Dollar Sire Cromed Out Mercedes x Smooth Star Freckles), a 2013 AQHA mare nominated by Pritz.

Following the runoff, the latter took the win with a run paid back by the judges with a 215.5. "This is simply amazing. Winning this title is unbelievable," said Pritz, who has had his mare since she was a yearling.

"She's 8-year-old now and has always been great to show. The best thing about her is that she is always calm and always perfect!"

Spreitzhofer and Stiller settled for the Reserve Championship after scoring a 213 and 212 respectively and also agreed to tie for the $4,800-added* L1. "We decided to tie for the level 1 and run for the level 2 because it was fair on the horses to do so," said Stiller who also tied to win the

Nikolai Stiller & Hollywood Gunrunner

L1 and 2 qualifier with his mount. "This mare who I've had since she was a yearling has been so good in the past two years and I am thrilled with these results tonight."

Spreithofer was also happy with his rides and the Championships. "He's an 8-year-old gelding who I paid in last year and he was so good," he said. "He did well in the go round and tonight. He's so easy to ride and has a huge heart."

NRHA $112,000-added* Colonels Shining Gun European Derby Open finals will conclude the tenth edition of the Euro Derby on Saturday, July 3. The riders will be vying

AMERICANA 2021:

Rush for visitor tickets - huge demand among participants

Since the official announcement of the fair's re-start in Bavaria on September 1, things have been heating up for AMERICANA. The announcement and entry forms for Europe's No. 1 western riding event have only been online for seven days, but already the show team has its hands full processing the numerous entries. Especially for the cattle classes, there is a huge demand. "As it stands now, we will have nine cattle herds for the riders on Tuesday," the show management says. "That hasn't happened at any AMERICANA before!"

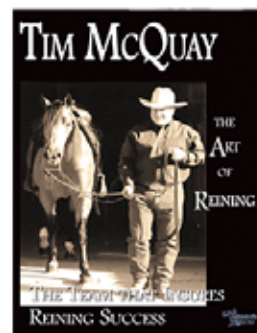

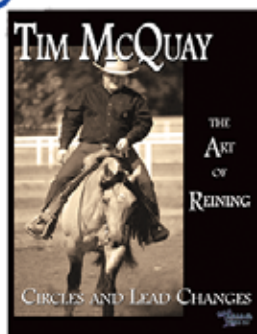

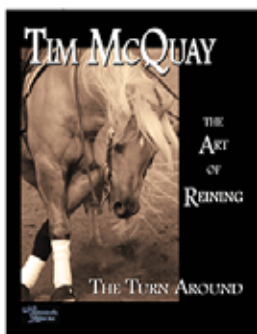

Also, from the side of ticket sales for visitors, demand is shooting up more and more. Meanwhile, the record set at AMERICANA 2017 has already been reached at this time.

The anticipation of Western fans for this very special event knows no bounds: AMERICANA 2021 will be the first major horse fair since the COVID-19 pandemic began.

JULY 12 IS ENTRY DEADLINE FOR THE EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIP OF QUARTER HORSES

The 31st FEQHA European Championship of Quarter Horses is scheduled for August 8th - 15th, 2021. The current COVID incidence of 0.0 in the district of Amberg-Weizach gives hope for a relaxed event on the facility in Kreuth with few official restrictions.

Besides the European Championship titles in the Halter and Performance classes, European Championship titles in the Longe Line and Trail in Hand classes will be awarded this year. Since these classes are no official AQHA classes yet this year, the title will be calculated from the judges' results and there will be no final. Eligible to compete are 2- and 3-year-old horses that will not be shown under saddle. If there are enough entries, the classes will be divided into 2- and 3-year-old classes. In addition to Longe Line and Trail in Hand, the young horses can also be presented in Halter and Showmanship classes.

Another novelty this year will be the Ranch Trail Open and Amateur.

In addition to the EC classes, the NSBA Germany Futurity, which is held in conjunction with the European Championship, will offer additional possibilities in Pleasure Open, Pleasure Non Pro, Hunter Under Saddle Open, and Hunter Under Saddle Non Pro.

Competitors may arrive as early as 8 a.m. on Friday, August 6, so that horses and riders who have traveled farther can have plenty of time to recover before the show. On Saturday, a variety of Paid Warm Ups will be offered, which can be registered for on-site. On the following days, the Level 1 Show offers the opportunity to prepare in the show arena for the 4-AQHA shows, where the finalists in the performance classes will be determined Monday through Thursday. The finals will take place from Friday to Sunday.

All entry documents can be found at www.ecqh.eu. A detailed hygienic concept and further show information will be published on the homepage about two weeks before the show.

2021 AUSTRIAN REINING FUTURITY & NRHA SHOW: NEXT ENTRY DEADLINE: JULY 26

Preparations for the 2021 Austrian Reining Futurity 2021 are in full swing. The $83,000-added show invites top riders from all over Europe to Helmut Schulz's facility in Wiener Neustadt from August 18-21, 2021. So far, around 200 entries have already been received. The next deadline for entries is July 26. All the relevant documents can be found at www.showmanager.info, where entries can also be made online.

Of the total $83,000-added prize money, $71,000 will go to the Futurity classes. In addition, eleven Lawson Trophies, three Morrison Trophies, fourteen Silversmith Champion Buckles, fourteen Reserve Champion Buckles and various prizes will be awarded. In the NRHA approved show, eight trophies and two plaques will be awarded. The 2021 Austrian Reining Futurity will be judged by Maik Bartmann (GER), Enrico Righetti (ITA), Adam Heaton (GBR), Simon Friedle (AUT), Sylvia Katschker (AUT) and bit judge Laura E. Faris (USA). Final entry deadline is August 17.

The show starts on August 18 with some NRHA classes as well as the go-rounds of the 3-year-old Futurity Open and Non Pro. Go rounds for the 4-year-old Futurity horses will follow on Thursday. The finals of the 3- and 4-year-olds in Level 1 and 2 are scheduled for Friday, in Level 3 and 4 for Saturday. In preparation, Helmut Schulz will offer Paid Warm ups to the participants on August 16 and 17.

After the excellent outcome with the new video wall last year, it will be available again this year for futurity sponsors and partners to present themselves during drags. The video wall can also be seen internationally online thanks to the free livestream. Among other things, interested parties can advertise here perfectly with video clips. Please contact Gerda Langer about these and further advertising possibilities.

Considering the present COVID 19 conditions, nothing should stand in the way of a successful Futurity. Last year Helmut Schulz and his team carried out an outstanding event with 297 entries despite of the strict conditions at that time.
