2020 ITALIAN REINING HORSE ASSOCIATION FUTURITY

May 15-22, 2021

The 36th edition of the Italian Reining Horse Association (IRHA) 3-year-old Futurity will remain in the history books due to complications caused not only by the pandemic but also by the unfortunate EHV-1 outbreak.

IRHA, IRHBA, NRHA, Team For You,

Italy's NF (FISE), and CremonaFiere joined forces to make the 2020 edition happen in conjunction with the 2020 NRHA European Futurity and 2020 Elementa Italian Reining Championship Finals. Over 600 horses made their way to take part in the event which debuted on Saturday, May 15.

IT'S DREAM OF A LIFETIME AND A LIFETIME OF DREAMS FOR QUARTER DREAM AS NICO SICURO AND DANCE WIMPY SPOOK CAPTURE THE IRHA OPEN FUTURITY CHAMPIONSHIP

The 2020 Arcese / MS Diamonds TX €204,000,00-added IRHA/IRHBA/NRHA Open Futurity Finals closed the first major event held in Europe this year. Held in conjunction with the 2020 NRHA European Futurity and the ELEMEN-

TA Italian Reining Championship Finals in Cremona, Italy, over 600 horses made their way to the city of violins vying for the prestigious titles.

Nico Sicuro

An Open Final full of emotion, first of all because of the long pause away from the show arena due to the pandemic, closed with 24-year-old Nico Sicuro claiming his first Futurity title: The €138.750- added Level (L) 4 Open Championship. Sicuro and Dance Wimpy Spook, a mare by NRHA Twelve Million Dollar Sire Wimpys Little Step out of Dance Little Spook (by NRHA Six couldn't give any more than she did. What makes this win even more special is that I started working for Quarter Dream in 2019, and this mare comes from the first string of horses that I trained from the start. I could not have done this without Pietro Marseglia and the team behind me, and of course my family."

Million Dollar Sire Smart Spook), owned and bred by Pietro Marseglia's Quarter Dream, scored a 223 for the win which also earned Quarter Dream the International Reining Horse Breeder Association (IRHBA) 2020 Breeders Award. "This is incredible, it's every professional's dream, and it certainly has always been mine," said Sicuro. "I am very happy and still can't believe this happened. My mare was great and

Francesco Barbagli

On home turf, Barbagli laid down a great performance tonight that also earned him and the flashy palomino blue-eyed mare the €37.500- added L3 as well as the €18.750- added L2 Open Championships. "This has been a dream that I've had ever since I was a kid," he said. "There are no words to describe how amazing this mare is. She has never said no: She's always tried to do everything to the best of her ability putting her whole heart into what she's doing. I've had her for a while now and she loves reining—I simply had to ride her. I didn't train her...I found myself in her path, and I didn't have to do anything other than respect

Stefano Angelucci and Capitain Sparked (Frozen Sailor x Sparked In the Shade), a mare owned by Giulia Rossi and bred by Tiziana Rancitelli, closed with the Reserve Championship in the L3 Open with a score of 218. Pierluigi Chioldo & RTR Whizard Of Oak (My Showbiz Whiz x Hickory Penny Oak) bred and owned by Massimiliano Rossi scored 217 for their L2 Reserve Champion finish.

Fabio Russo

The €9.000-added L1 Open Futurity Championships were determined after the conclusion of the first section of the Open Finals. Draw #13, Fabio Russo and Valerie Zozin’s Great Gunna Whiz, a gelding by NRHA Four Million Dollar Sire Gunnatrashya out of Great Dudes Whiz, posted a 215.5 which held and was enough to capture the L1

Open Futurity Championship. “The horse was really great today,” said Russo, Italian professional Pierluigi Chioldo’s assistant trainer. “He has been with us for almost a year and here his performance improved consistently from the first qualifying go round up to the finals. He is always willing to work at home and only needs to be ridden 15 minutes a day. He is a really special horse and I would like to thank the owners and Pierluigi [Chioldo] who has always been close to me helping me throughout this amazing journey.”

The titles and the reserve spots in the top three levels all went to Italian professionals. In the L1, Czech Jonáš Bujnoch rode Lucky Valley Ranch’s PL Not Trashy, a mare by NRHA Four Million Dollar Sire Gunnatrashya out of Nu Chex Donna, to a 214.5 and Reserve honors. “I really like this mare and I’m happy with our run today. We plan to show her at other futurities in Europe this season, such as the Austrian Futurity, and then come back to Cremona for the European Futurity in the fall.” The long haul was well worth it!

2020 Quarter Dream IRHA/IRHBA/NRHA 3-year-old Non Pro Futurity Finals

FABIO DE IULIO CLINCHES THE LEVEL 4 AND VALENTINA MONTI SWEEPS THE LEVELS 3, 2, 1

The 2020 Quarter Dream €96.000,00-added IRHA/IRHBA/NRHA Non Pro Futurity provided tons of excitement on Friday night in Cremona, Italy. Second to last to go, Fabio De Iulio and his own Gunnaroostyah (NRHA Four Million Sire Gunnatrashya x Del Cielo Shining), bred by Carlo Orsi, scored a 214.5 to take the €51.000,00-added Level 4 Non Pro Championship.

Fabio De Iulio

“I purchased this horse from Rabboni Quarter Horses, who had purchased him in the U.S., after looking at quite a few prospects with [Italian professionals] Pierluigi Chioldo and Mirko Piazzi,” said a smiling De Iulio fresh off his win. “He was a little green but, thanks to his talent and big heart, he was quick to grow and learn. Tonight, I didn’t show him well at all, but this is truly the cherry on the cake: After 20 years of competing, I finally managed to win this title we all crave. In the first go, I rode him better, and aside from a stop, the rest went well and we made it to the Finals. Tonight, considering the scores before me, I tried to focus on his strong maneuvers—stops and spins— and to stay out of the penalty box. I have to thank my trainer Pierluigi Chioldo for the work done with him and for the help here during this Futurity.”

The L4 Reserve Championship, a point behind the winners, went to Gina Schumacher and Bubbles On Ice (SG Frozen Enterprise x Shining Bubbles), a gelding owned by CS Ranch Management SA, bred by Toyon Ranch LLC.

Valentina Monti

Sweeping the €26.250,00-added L3, €11.250,00-added L2, and the €7.500,00-added L2 was Valentina Monti with her Valentina Baby Pale (NRHA Two Million Dollar Sire Pale Face Dunit x OT Luky Highway Baby) between the reins. It was truly an emotional night for Monti who bred, raised, and trained her mare AKA “Peppina” and qualified her for all four levels. “It’s a dream come true after a life of sacrifice,” said Monti, a biologist. “She gave me all the energy she had; pattern 12 is a tough and long one. She was born at Roberto Cuoghi’s facility and is out of a mare I own and am actually showing here at the Italian Championship Finals. I raised Peppina and trained her until the three-month lockdown when, thankfully, [Italian professional] Pierluigi Chioldo had her in training and managed to keep her happy and fit. When things opened up she came back home and I continued the training with the Futurity being our goal. This result is a dream come true and I feel truly blessed.”

fier, scored a 211.5 in the Finals settling for the L1 Reserve Championship.

Competition will start at 9 a.m. on Saturday, May 22, with the Matteo Bonzano FISE Non Pro Italian Championship Final, the NRHA Non Pro, and the 2020 Elementa FISE Italian Championship Finals.

Following strict COVID-19 and EHV-1 protocols, the first major show of the season was held behind closed doors. It could not have been done without the joint effort of IRHA, NRHA, CremonaFiere, the local authorities, the staff, and Giancarlo Doardo’s organizing committee, Tfy.

A special thank you to Andrea Bonaga, the man behind Bonaga Communication. It is thanks to Bonaga and his team that reining fans worldwide could be part of the event thanks to the great images and videography!

Important Title Sponsorship Raises Payouts in All Divisions!

6666 RANCH BECOMES NAMING SPONSOR OF NRHA DERBY PRESENTED BY MARKEL

Open L1 Champion	$4,263	$10,000
Open Prime Time Champion	$2,205	$5,000
Non Pro L4 Champion	$18,800	$30,000
Non Pro L3 Champion	$14,351	$20,000
Non Pro L2 Champion	$8,690	$15,000
Non Pro L1 Champion	$3,220	$5,000
Non Pro Prime Time Champion	$2,602	$5,000
Youth Champion	$1,318	$2,000
Non Pro Masters Champion	$1,122	$2,000

The 2021 NRHA Derby welcomes a naming sponsor in 2021 as it becomes the 6666 Derby presented by Markel. The sponsorship brings an incredible new payout framework for both the Open and Non Pro Derby, thanks to 6666 Ranch and Taylor Sheridan.

Sheridan explained, “The 6666 Ranch and Bosque Ranch have joined Paramount TV’s Yellowstone to support the NRHA Derby.” Created to reward NRHA Derby Champions of every level – from Open to Non Pro – this sponsorship helps create excitement and rewards reiners of all levels.

It raises the Open L4 Futurity championship from paying $60,000 to paying $75,000 – while in many levels the money awarded to the champion more than doubles! These substantial increases extend to all the Non Pro divisions, including a guaranteed $30,000 to the L4 Champion.

A quick look at these new benchmarks compared to 2020’s payments:

Division	2020 Derby Champion Earnings	6666 Derby Champions Guaranteed Payment
Open L4 Champion	$60,000	$75,000
Open L3 Champion	$23,477	$35,000
Open L2 Champion	$9,596	$20,000

Sammi Miller, NRHA Sr. Director of Corporate Relations & Communications, noted, “We are thrilled to welcome Four Sixes Ranch as the naming sponsor of the NRHA Derby. This iconic ranch is a treasured part of our western heritage and we are honored to be associated with it, as well as with Bosque Ranch and Paramount TV’s Yellowstone, thanks to Taylor.”

Sheridan summarized, “Expanding both awareness and participation in equine events such as the NRHA Derby is vital not only to the sport of reining but all equine sports, just as it is vital to the preservation of the quarter horse and paint horse. The horse is a cowboy’s most precious tool and closest friend, and the cowboy is an irreplaceable gear in the engine of American agriculture. Events such as the NRHA Derby not only preserve the rich heritage of the horse, they preserve the heritage of the rider as well.”

Clearly, Sheridan is committed to the success of the 6666 NRHA Derby and his commitment to give back mirrors the dedication shown by long-time NRHA sponsor Markel Insurance. Miller added, "We thank Markel Insurance, which remains the presenting sponsor of the NRHA Derby. It is because of Frank Costantini and Markel Insurance's commitment to the reining industry, and this event in particular, that the Derby has grown so much."

Along with its rich history from its beginning in 1870, legendary American quarter horses and superior Angus cattle are hallmarks of the Four Sixes Ranch. The ranch not only offers state-of-the-art reproductive services and a full range of equine veterinary services but stands to the public some of the most well-respected AQHA stallions in the industry. Its exceptional broodmare band produces elite race, ranch, and performance horses.

Bosque Ranch, owned by Sheridan, is the premier live-stock provider in the film and television industry, providing horses for the cast of 'Yellowstone' as well as films such as 'Hell or High Water', 'Wind River', and Warner Brother's 'Those Who Wish Me Dead', along with the upcoming 'Twelve Mighty Orphans'. It has also produced performance horses such as Walla Walla Starbuck: 2019 AQHA Senior Reining Reserve Champion, 2021 Run for a Million Non Pro qualifier; Setting Off To Town: 2020 NRHA L4 Open Futurity finalist, 2021 NRBC L4 Open finalist, 2021 Run for a Million Open Finalist; and Kreyzy Horse, a six-year-old stallion with $97,000 in earnings.

Yellowstone is the highest-rated cable drama since its premiere in 2018. It returns to Paramount Network for its fourth season in 2021 as the chronicle of the Dutton Ranch continues.

Europe's Number 1 western riding event two years ago. However, this event has never before been so longed for as now, when countless shows had to be cancelled due to the pandemic. With restrictions slowly easing and the Bavarian State Government having named September 1 as the latest date for the official fair re-start in Bavaria, western fans and participants are eagerly awaiting the event.

The 2021 AMERICANA will take place from September 8-12, at the Augsburg Exhibition Grounds, offering a unique mix of top-level sport, trade show and entertainment related to western and leisure riding.

The power of western riding

For 35 years now, AMERICANA has been setting new accents again and again. For many years, the NRHA World Open Champion was decided here, and also this year, the AMERICANA Bronze Trophy will be an important step on the route to the 2021 NRHA World Championship.

For the cattle classes, it is impossible to imagine the show calendar without AMERICANA. No other show in Europe offers such a platform for cutting and cowhorse. The European Open Cutting Championship offers a purse of €12,000-added, and the Non Pro offers €6,000-added. The Open Final as well as the Reining Bronze Trophy and the ERCHA Cow Horse Futurity Final and the Derby will take place in the big arena in front of 4,500 spectators. Whether pandemic conditions in 2021 will allow that many spectators in the arena remains to be seen, but even with potential spacing rules in place, the Finals should have more spectators than at any other show in Europe.

As far as the Reined Cow Horse is concerned, it is inseparable from AMERICANA. The European Reined Cow Horse Association (ERCHA) chose Augsburg to celebrate all its premieres - and then stuck with this location, and not without reason. The first ERCHA Reined Cow Horse Futurity was held here - as was the ERCHA Nations Team Cup. This year, another premiere will be added: the ERCHA Derby.

Another focus of the AMERICANA is the disciplines Trail and Ranch Riding. The European Championship Trail will once again offer €5,000-added prize money. The European Championship Ranch Riding Open is just as highly endowed. In the Ranch Riding there will also be a Non Pro this year with an endowment of €3,000-added.

Entry forms for all these classes will be available online on www.americana.de beginning July 2021.

Once more, four evening events

Kenzie Dysli Presentation on Wednesday night

This year there will again be four evening events at AMERICANA. The first, "Stunts & Stars", is already slated for Wednesday. It introduces the fascinating world of training horses for big appearances in movies, TV and shows. There, a professional stunt team will demonstrate their skills together with Kenzie Dysli. Spectators will also have the opportunity to ask questions during this hour.

In addition, Bridleless Cutting will be demonstrated in this evening event. On Thursday, as always, the ERCHA Nations Team Cup will take place. The coveted AMERICANA evening shows are traditionally reserved for Friday and Saturday.

The final of the Bronze Trophy Reining Open, with prize money of €40,000-added, will be held during the Friday evening show, as well as the European Championship Ranch Riding Open final, while the Saturday evening show is all about the cattle classes. Here, among other things, the decisions of the European Open Cutting Championship as well as the ERCHA Cow Horse Futurity Open class Champion with the Cow Horse Derby will be made. In addition, as always, there will be a number of great performances.

Book your tickets for the evening events online

Tickets for the evening shows and for the daytime visit are available at www.americana.de. Orders can also be placed by telephone at 01806 - 999 0000. Especially for the evening shows, early booking is recommended as these sold out in 2019. The tickets for the Friday and Saturday evening shows already include the day ticket. The evening tickets for Wednesday and Thursday are optionally available with or without a day ticket. In addition, there is a season ticket that includes both evening shows as well as the two events on Wednesday and Thursday as well as entry to the fair during all days.

CATCH UP WITH NRHA MARKEL FUTURITY SALE GRADUATE SPOOKS GOTTA SPARK

Spooks Gotta Spark

(Spooks Gotta Whiz x Dolittle Lena)

Sale: 2015 Futurity Prospect

Consigner: Garth W. Brown, Gainesville,
Texas

Purchaser: Gus and Gaynia Revenberg,
Oldcastle, Ontario

Even the most magical place on earth couldn't keep Gaynia Revenberg away from the 2015 NRHA Markel Futurity sales—especially with a prospect like Spooks Gotta Spark available. In previous years, Revenberg spent hours scanning the list of consigned horses, watching preview videos, and discussing prospects. But in 2015, all she wanted was to enjoy a vacation at Disney World with her husband, Gus.

“I was sitting on the balcony at Disney when Shawn Flarida called me and said, ‘There’s a horse here you have to buy,’” Revenberg recalled. “My husband said, ‘Book the flight.’ So, we went to the sale, and Shawn was absolutely correct.”

Since then, Spooks Gotta Spark has held a special place in Revenberg's heart. “I decided to bring him home so I could ride him myself,” she shared. “I really like this horse, so I asked [NRHA Professional Loris Epis] here in Ontario to show him.”

But as the inaugural Run for a Million in Las Vegas approached, Revenberg knew she couldn't keep her all-star in Canada much longer. Although she received three inquiries about using her horse in the Million Dollar Invitational, Flarida's lucrative history with the buckskin stallion made the NRHA Six Million Dollar Rider the obvious choice for Revenberg.

“He didn't have much time to get him ready, but he did an amazing job,” she said of Flarida's performance in the Million Dollar Invitational. Spooks Gotta Spark marked a 228, which landed Flarida and the stallion a fourth-place finish and a $65,000 payout.

In February 2020, Bill and Patty Fingland of Rogersville, Mo. purchased the flashy buckskin. With them, he placed in the Top 10 at the 2020 NRHA Open Derby presented by Markel and went on to place 13th in the Level 4 NRBC Open Classic.

It was at the NRBC that Spooks Gotta Spark caught the eye of Kevin Truax and the two bonded instantly. Not long after the team returned from the show, Truax was celebrating the purchase of the most talented reining horse he feels that he has ever owned. “We brought him to our barn the week we bought him. Derek, my daughter, Kiersten, and I each got on him for a bit. He was just so incredible to ride.” Truax said.

As Truax rushed to arrange for Spooks Gotta Spark's quickly approaching debut in the breeding barn, Heitland rode the stallion to a Level 2 AQHA Senior Reining World Reserve Co-Championship, and at the 2020 Adequan® NAACs, the talented reiner earned Heitland the NAAC Limited Open title.

Lorenzo Lotti at Foals R Us, in Whitesboro, Texas, made quick accommodations for Spooks Gotta Spark to stand there, and Cam Essick took care of advertisements.

With Spooks Gotta Spark's future as a sire in the works,

Florida opened up another opportunity for the pair to compete for a million dollars. “Once the next Run For A Million was announced, Shawn worked out a training schedule with Lorenzo. We took Spooks Gotta Spark to Ohio in February and bred with him up there while he was getting in shape.” Truax shared. “In Arizona, we felt good about the qualifier until we found out we were draw number one. I knew it would be tough, so figured we would likely be on the bubble and be nervous all day. After Shawn went, we felt great about qualifying, then realized we may actually win it after abo 70 horses went. To get the high score with all that firepower was unbelievable. Being able to stand in the win picture with all the big names around us was a true dream come true.”

Perhaps Truax’s connection to Spooks Gotta Spark runs even deeper. He said, “My father died last June, so I do feel this has been guided in some way by him. We have been reining for 40 years, but never at this level. We hope to have one more ride in August to really see what he can do. My goal is to have lots of his babies on the ground for others to enjoy.”

THE PLATINUM PERFORMANCE NON PRO DRAW PARTY RETURNS TO THE NRHA DERBY PRESENTED BY MARKEL ON WEDNESDAY, JUNE 23

National Reining Horse Association Corporate Partner Platinum Performance® has supported the reining industry over 20 years. That support continues in 2021, with a much-anticipated, in-person Welcome Party and Non Pro Draw Party to be held during the NRHA Derby Presented by Markel.

The slow return to normalcy has everyone abuzz with excitement and this event is another step in the right direction. Attendees will enjoy a delicious catered meal, drinks, and all of the nail-biting enthusiasm of the Non Pro Finals Draw and after missing a year due to Covid, the popular Reiners Rope dummy roping will be also held. The Party will be held at 5:30 pm on Wednesday, June 23.

“As long-time partners of NRHA, we are excited to sponsor the Platinum Performance® Welcome Party featuring the Non Pro Finals Draw as well as the Platinum Performance® Virtual Open Draw Party at the 2021 NRHA Derby,” said Lauren Thompson, Equine Marketing Manager. “We look forward to maintaining our commitment to provide superior nutrition and unmatched personal service to the valued NRHA membership.”

The support of Platinum Performance® extends well beyond the Party. The company will also provide the exhibitor bags given to every NRHA Derby competitor. In addition, Platinum Performance® will sponsor a Virtual Open Draw Party Friday, June 25 at 10 a.m. The decision was made to keep the Platinum Performance® Open Draw Party virtual so that trainers could be available to their non pro finalists.

The 2021 NRHA Derby presented by Markel takes place at State Fair Park in Oklahoma City June 19-27. For more information about this premier event, visit NRHADerby.com

2021 AUSTRIAN REINING FUTURITY: THE $83,000-ADDED SHOW! First Deadline: July 5, 2021

The countdown is on for the 2021 Austrian Reining Futurity & NRHA Show, held August 18-21 at Helmut Schulz's facility in Wiener Neustadt. Once again, $83,000 in added prize money is at stake, with $71,000-added paid out in the Futurity classes and $12,000-added in the Ancillary Show. Unfortunately, the Unrestricted Youth and Rookie ancillary classes have been cancelled this year. The announcement will be online shortly at www.showmanager.info. Entries can be easily submitted there as well. The first entry deadline is July 5, 2021, and entries can still be made after that date with a late fee.

The Austrian Futurity is open to all horses and will have four levels of Open and Non Pro divisions. In the Futurity classes, both 3- and 4-year-old horses can be shown either two-handed in a snaffle or hackamore or one-handed in bridle. All classes are NRHA approved. For the benefit of the Austrian Reining Futurity there will also be a stallion service auction featuring top-class stallions.

INAUGURAL NRHA OCEANIA REGIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS SET FOR JUNE 2021

It's an exciting time for reining down under. That's because the National Reining Horse Association affiliate organizations that make up the Oceania Region Council have come together to create the inaugural Oceania Regional Championships. The 2021 Championships, slated for June 28 – July 4, will be hosted by the New South Wales Reining Horse Association at its annual State Show at K Ranch in Sydney, Australia.

While the concept of regional organizations hosting major NRHA championships is not new in other parts of the world, it is a first for this region. Rob Lawson, Chairman of the Oceania Council said, "It is an exciting time as it allows us to try new and imaginative ideas to grow our industry through our clubs!"

Lawson, who operates Lawson's Performance Horses in Bungonia, New South Wales continued, "The offers of support from the other clubs have been heartening, with the overwhelming sentiment that it is 'our' Regional Championships. It is these clubs working together that will make this work!"

The clubs involved in the Regional Championships are the NSW RHA, Orana Reining Horse Association, Victoria Reining Horse Association, Goulburn Valley Reining Horse Association, South Australian Reining Horse Association, Collie Western Riding Club, Calliope Sliders Reining Horse Association and Southern Cross Reining Horse Association.

NRHA Commissioner Gary Carpenter said, "Observing the energy and vitality of our reining friends in Australia is incredibly rewarding. We can't fully comprehend the trials they have been through to get to this point. The pandemic, wildfires, and the challenges that change brings – they have overcome them all and are poised to bring a new day to our sport."

K Ranch's owner, Mick Kearney has had a significant impact on the NSW RHA as K Ranch has been its home base for the last 6 years and a close partnership has evolved over that time.

NRHA FUTURITY RIDER DESIGNATION DEADLINE CHANGED TO OCTOBER 1

2021 NRHA Futurity Rider Designations will be due October 1, the same day as the last payment. This was a change made by the NRHA Board of Directors in an effort to streamline the entering process. In the past, the Rider

Designation's due date of November 1 and subsequent policy that undesignated horses were put at the front of the draw at that time often caused a hardship for an owner and rider who might have simply miscommunicated on who was sending in the designation form.

For most people showing in the Non Pro and Open Futurities, there is no question as to who will show a horse so it's one less deadline to keep up with. And NRHA Professionals needing extra time to decide whether they or an assistant trainer will show a particular horse, can simply designate a rider by October 1 and then change as necessary with no penalties until after November 1.

NRHA Show Secretary Kathy Gould explained, "At the NRHA Events Office we always try to catch what might be an entry oversight when we see an undesignated horse, but it has often been impossible to make contact with the owner of every undesignated entry in the short window as the draw deadline approaches. We want to make sure everyone gets the benefit of being included in the futurity draw if that is their intention!"

She continued, "Having the Rider Designations come to us by October 1 will give us time to verify that undesignated horses are not actually intended to go forward and to find any that were undesignated due to some error. The key is to get the designations in by October 1, then there is no charge for any rider changes that are completed before November 1. However, there is a $50 late fee that will apply if a designation is not received by the October 1 deadline."

More information and Rider Designation forms as well as Rider Change forms can be found at NRHAFuturity.com/forms.

TRANSFERS ARE SIMPLE WITH REINERSUITE

The National Reining Horse Association's phenomenally successful ReinerSuite program has changed the lives of reiners, trees, and landfills worldwide by making it easier to do "paperwork" online. Eighty percent of NRHA members are using ReinerSuite to do things like check eligibility, renew memberships, research records, and access member reports.

Angie Honeywell, NRHA Senior Manager of ReinerSuite and the Futurity Sale, wants to urge more members to take full advantage of the easy-to-use software. "Transferring a horse's competition license is a top transaction, and it's the first step to showing your new reining horse. We want more members to know how simple and convenient it is to process a transfer through ReinerSuite," Honeywell shared.

NRHA member Cappy Dryden is delighted with the ease of use. She said, "ReinerSuite has made transferring horses so easy. I wasn't sure how to start it, so I went to their Help section, and it walked me right through the easy process. I simply scanned the signed transfer, attached it, and submitted it. Within an hour I had my new papers!"

As Dryden said, the process is pretty self-explanatory. Users simply click on "Horses" on the sideboard on the left side of the screen, then click on the "Finder" tab, and enter any part or all of the horse's info (depending on how the switch is toggled). When the search results come up at the bottom of the screen, click on either the horse's name or the "Select" button. After the horse's information appears, find "Transfer Competition License" on the bottom left of the screen. Specify the new owner(s) by typing in the name(s), then click "Browse" to upload the proof of purchase. All that's left to do is click submit and pay.

To clarify, Honeywell said, "Ownership can be proven in several different ways: a signed transfer, a bill of sale, a breed association transfer or registration papers with the new owner's name, a cash receipt, or insurance documentation for the horse that lists the owner. This feature is so easy for our members, that I want to encourage more to give it a try."

To register for a ReinerSuite account or access the library of how-to videos, visit <https://nrha.com/reinersuite>. Questions can be submitted via email to memberships@NRHA.com.

THE RUN FOR A MILLION TO HOST RAISE A MILLION AUCTIONS TO BENEFIT REINING HORSE FOUNDATION

The Run For A Million, set for August 18-21, will feature two auctions to benefit the Reining Horse Foundation. The South Point Arena and Equestrian Center in Las Vegas will welcome both a silent auction featuring items for bidding throughout the competition and a live auction that will precede the Gala Select Sale on August 21.

NRHA President and Foundation Board Member Rick Clark reached out to The Run For A Million team leaders Taylor Sheridan and Amanda Brumley about a fundraiser at the event. He said, “We were already set to have our volunteers run an RHF booth at the event to encourage people to be part of the Reiners Club, and I asked what we could do to raise money while we were there. Amanda suggested a silent and live auction and this grew from that. I ran the idea past the RHF Development Committee and Board and got their blessing, then challenged each of them to get donations for the auction.”

Clark continued, “This is a wonderful opportunity for the Foundation and we can’t thank Taylor and Amanda enough. This is really big and really appreciated.”

Brumley agrees that the auctions will be massive – both in content and in result. “When Rick asked me what we could do, I thought this would be a perfect venue and a big moneymaker for the Foundation – considering the huge crowd. The energy of the event will help the items sell.”

With Las Vegas opening completely on June 1, The Run For A Million event is expected to be a sellout, and the response to the auction should result in considerable benefit for the Foundation. She added, “We encourage people to get creative with what they can donate – with items in all price ranges. I urge everyone to take part and help the Reining Horse Foundation so it can help others. We are all paying it forward.”

Reining Horse Foundation Executive Director Leslie

Baker said, “The Run For A Million was developed to celebrate and grow the sport. Now, this new collaboration has resulted in the creation of The Raise A Million Auctions with the sole purpose of giving back to the reining community through NRHA’s charitable, nonprofit organization. This is especially meaningful given that we are celebrating the Reining Horse Foundation’s 20th anniversary throughout 2021. We are grateful that those attending The Run For A Million will have a chance to get to know more about our mission and programs.”

Already, the items donated for the auctions are indicative of the impact of the event and promise to create a fun event that raises money for an important cause.

- 2022 Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo VIP “Night at the Rodeo” donated by BMW Quarter Horses
- 100X Custom J.W. Brooks Hat donated by J.W. Brooks
- Custom Belt made and donated by Eclectic Beadwork
- Headstall donated by Mullinax Custom Leather
- Custom Headstall donated by Bob’s Custom Saddles
- Show Pad by Golden West donated by Nancy Tague
- Show Pad donated by Show Diva
- Show Pad donated by Show Stoppin
- Moody Chic Scrap Sketch Ink/Watercolor by artist Josey Butler, donated by Terri Mainey
- Commissioned Drawing created by and donated by Kaci O’Rourke

A Breeding and Chute Fee for No Smoking Required, the co-champion of The Run For A Million 2019 donated by owners Schmersal/ThorSport Inc.

Other items are being received daily and there is still plenty of time to take part in the auctions! Donations of trips, unique experiences, services, training packages, artwork, jewelry, goods and more are all welcome. Donors should submit by August 1 to Brumley Management Group,

Attn: RHF Auction, 28150 N Alma School Pkwy #103-619, Scottsdale, AZ 85262. For information on the auction or RHF, contact Leslie Baker at lbaker@nrha.com or (405) 946-7400, ext. 106.

The mission of the Reining Horse Foundation is to care for and honor the reining community. Core programs include the Dale Wilkinson Memorial Crisis Fund to benefit reiners enduring hardships such as major illness, accidents and disasters; youth leadership development and scholarships for members of the National Reining Horse Youth Association; and perpetuation of the sport's history through the NRHA Hall of Fame. For information on the RHF auctions, visit reiningfoundation.com/auctions.
