TREMBLAY AND VANLANDINGHAM TIE FOR NRBC OPEN CHAMPIONSHIP

Shane & Kalicia Walters, Tinker With Dreams, Dany Tremblay

An intense week of competition at the Great Southwest Equestrian Center in Katy, Texas, culminated Saturday, April 25. That's when the top horses and riders from across the country competed in the Open Finals of the 2021 National Reining Breeders Classic, which kicked off April 18.

Dany Tremblay and Jason Vanlandingham both piloted their horses to scores of 228.5, tying for the win of the Open Level 4. With several more major events in the books for 2021, the two professionals elected to remain co-champions.

Level 4 Open Classic Co-Champion – Dany Tremblay & Tinker With Dreams

As the first horse out in the final set of Saturday night's adrenaline-charged NRBC Open Classic Finals, Tinker With Dreams and Dany Tremblay held the approval of the crowd from start to finish to secure a dream win. The 7-year-old stallion sired by Tinker With Guns and out of This Chic-sundreamin is owned by Shane and Kalicia Walters of Diamond Dub Quarter Horses and was bred by Rhodes

River Ranch.

Tremblay and Tinker With Guns, aka "Cilantro," were awarded $62,500 to add to the stallion's NRHA lifetime earnings coming into the NRBC of $194,000. Tremblay says the elite equine athlete absolutely rose to this prestigious occasion. "The last couple of days we really tuned up and he knew what we were here to do. He went into that pen and it was like he knew exactly what we were doing. He knows the sound of the crowd and he's just a show horse," said Tremblay.

Tremblay, a two-time NRBC Open Level 3 Champion, who has also won a Level 4 Reserve Championship, says it's a great feeling to earn the ultimate crown. "I'm glad that I did it with Shane and Kalicia," he said. "They are great customers. They are awesome."

Kalicia was on hand to express her mutual appreciation. "We are such big fans of Cilantro and Dany and the team together, so we knew this win was coming. We just didn't know when, but I'm so glad it's right now. The crowd was with us, we had our friends, and it was so exciting."

"He loves the crowd," said Tremblay. "It's super fun to show that kind of a horse and I don't think there are many of those types. They are happy to do it and work harder for you."

Beyond high praise for Cilantro, Tremblay said, "Thank you to my team here. Thank you to Shane and Kalicia. They trust us with the horses, and they make it easy and fun."

"Shane and I would like to thank Fred and Dany Tremblay for doing an amazing job," added Kalicia. "Their program and the whole team is amazing. There is so much support; it's the best I've ever seen, and I'm so grateful to be a part of it."

When the announcement of a 228.5 score was made, Tremblay says that he, like Vanlandingham, was comfortable with opting to accept the co-championship rather than running it off in anticipation of more high-stakes runs in the near future.

Level 4 Open Co-Champion – Jason Vanlandingham & A Vintage Smoke

NRHA Triple Crown winner A Vintage Smoke (A Sparkling Vintage x Lady Smoke Peppy x Mr Dual Pep) entered the Finals with the chance at becoming a two-time NRBC Open Classic Champion—and pulled it off. Ridden by NRHA $2 Million Dollar Rider, Jason Vanlandingham, A Vintage Smoke set the pace at draw No. 26 with a masterful 228.5 performance that held through the 34-horse field.

Making a statement with their run-in entrance and endless sliding stop, A Vintage Smoke and Vanlandingham had the audience on the edge of their seats until the end. "Any time I go through the gate on that horse, the crowd is great," said Vanlandingham. "And it was no exception tonight. They were behind us the whole way. When you have a special horse—and I heard them with Dany tonight, too—the crowd can really step up, and I think the horses feed off of that energy. Definitely the great horses, they step their game another level when the crowd is that involved."

A Vintage Smoke is owned by Diane Messmer of Colorado and was bred by Karl and Debbie Hapcic. The six-year-old black stallion added $62,500 tonight to his NRHA lifetime earnings of $393,761 coming into NRBC.

Of how this win compares with he and A Vintage Smoke's first NRBC Level 4 Open title, Vanlandingham says there's a stark contrast. "The first time, he was a four-year-old coming straight off a win at the Futurity and it was the young horse going against the older horses," he said. "Now it's the opposite. He's the older, more mature horse, but now I have to keep everything together."

Vanlandingham takes nothing for granted with respect to the caliber of horsepower underneath him, which in part played into his decision to share the championship with Tremblay rather than to run it off. "He's all heart and guts and I know what I have,” he said. “We’re both planning on showing these horses more this year, so why waste it? They are both champions right now and we will save that run for the next one.”

Vanlandingham summed up the night with gratitude for the horseflesh and the opportunities that he has to make his livelihood as an elite reiner. “Thank the good Lord and Diane,” he said. “We are blessed to do what we do. For me to be able to do it with my family and with my wife by my side, I’m just blessed.”

Level 3 Open Classic Champion – Gunny Mathison & Shes Reddy On Line

Level 3 Open Classic Champions Gunny Mathison and Shes Reddy On Line stepped up in response to the electric atmosphere at the 2021 NRBC Open Classic Finals. Mathison and the 2016 mare, sired by Shine On Line and out of Guns R Reddy, owned and bred by Mary Jansma, were awarded $21,875 and a plethora of first-class awards thanks to their 225 score.

$22,500. “I knew I could, but it feels good to pull it off once in a while,” he said. “The hardest part is staying focused enough just to get it done.”

It’s all the people that helped me get here and the horse, she deserves it, she didn’t quit.”

Level 2 Open Classic Eduardo Salgado & Isnt She Dreamy

Eduardo Salgado and Isnt She Dreamy achieved a score of 219.5 to tie for the Level 2 Limited Open Classic championship. Owned by Renata Lemann, the five-year-old mare is by NRHA $6 Million Sire Magnum Chic Dream and out of Miss Silver Gun.

“I’m very proud of Eduardo and mare,” said Renata Lemann. “The mare has a very strong heart and gives everything. She is very special. I have known Eduardo since I was in Brazil, and I think he has a gift of knowing the horses and knowing which horse will fit the client best, he knows how to take the best from each horse and make it better.”

“The run, I thought it was perfect,” said Salgado. “She is stopping so good. She gave it all to me tonight. I have ridden her for two years. The mare wasn't shown much before this. This is the first show to show hard, and I love her. She was amazing."

Salgado, for whom this was his first major win at NRBC, said, "For me this is the best show in the reining world, the best horses and best trainers."

Salgado began training reiners in Brazil in 1999 before moving to the United States in 2013. He now trains out of Gainesville, Texas, and said he appreciates the support of his clients, Diane Boeckman and Renata Lemann. "I have some good horses for this year. Thank you for everything to my team and my wife, my kids, my customers Renata and Diane."

Level 2 Open Classic – Leo Kellerman & Blazed By Magnum

With a solid 219.5 performance in Saturday's NRBC Open Classic Finals, it was Leo Kellerman and Blazed By Magnum claiming the Level 2 Limited Open win, which paid 6,866.

The NRBC is Kellerman's second show with the 2016 stallion owned by Diane Yoder and bred by Holy Cow Performance Horses, Texas, LLC. After marking a 214.5 in the prelims, Kellerman called harder on the son of NRHA $6 Million Sire Magnum Chic Dream out of Blazed By Commander and Blazed By Magnum answered the call. "We didn't run as fast as in the first go as we did in the second go," Kellerman said. "He was good both times, we just ran a little faster this time."

He's a big stopper and really good minded," Kellerman said.

Kellerman has been a member of the elite Fappani Performance Horses team for the past two-and-a-half years and began showing in 2020. The native of Brazil says he started riding reining horses at the age of 11 and moved to the United States at age 19. "I really love working at Andrea's," he said. "We always have him by our side to teach us and help us through everything. He gives us advice all the time with everything."

Kellerman thanks God first and foremost, as well as his family and the entire team at Fappani Performance Horses in Scottsdale, Arizona. He is particularly thankful to Andrea for mentoring him.

The first-time NRBC Open finalist is enjoying the ride. "I really love it, it's really fun. He's a really special horse.

"I thank Diane Yoder, the owner of the horse. We are really happy to have this horse with us."

Level 1 Classic Open - Lucio Pontes Casalecchi & Ruffed Up Spooks

Capturing the NRBC Level 1 Open Classic win was Lucio Pontes Casalecchi riding Ruffed Up Spooks for owner Ixtul Quarter Horses, LLC. Ruffed Up Spooks and Casalecchi marked a 217.5 to win the division. Ruffed Up Spooks, sired by NRHA $2 Million Sire Spooks Gotta Gun and out of All Ruffed Up, is a 2016 stallion that was bred by Silver Spurs Equine.

Casalecchi and Ruffed Up Spooks also made the Level 2 Finals. "[This is] my second time to show here at the NRBC.," Casalecchi said. "I made the L1 Finals the first time, but this year I made Level 1 and 2."

"I think he gave me everything he had," Casalecchi said of the horse's effort in the Finals. "He stopped really big, and it was all good. Ruffed Up Spooks is a five-year-old now and is a real consistent horse. I love him. I have been riding him for one year."

Casalecchi, who is 24 and hails from Brazil, has ridden reiners since the age of 12. "My uncle is a horse trainer, so I started to ride with him. I came to the United States two years ago where I work for Thiago Boechat [in Purcell, Oklahoma]. I thank my boss, Thiago Boechat, and the owner of the horse, Lorenzo Vargas."

When asked how he felt about competing at NRBC, Casalecchi replied, "It's awesome. I love this place!"

Casalecchi is looking forward to the upcoming NRHA Derby and said he plans to stick the same winning strategy he employed here at NRBC. He qualified two horses to the Open Classic Finals; the other is Xtra Voodoolicious owned by Boechat, which he guided to a top 10 finish in the Level 1.

Development Division – Shawn Flarida and Americas Got Talent Prime Time Open Classic – Shawn Flarida and Shine Colt Shine

Emerging as the winner of the Open Classic Development Division with a 221 to earn $9,606 was NRHA $6 Million Rider Shawn Flarida and Americas Got Talent. Americas Got Talent, by NRHA $12 Million Sire Wimpys Little Step and out of Americasnextgunmodel, is a 2017 stallion owned by Marie H Whitmarsh and bred by Arcese Quarter Horses USA.

Americas Got Talent came to Flarida's program in January. "He has an enormous amount of talent. This is the first time I've ever shown him. He circles amazing. What a fun horse," said Flarida, adding that he looks forward to gaining more show experience with the feely equine athlete. "I pretty much just treated him like a three-old-old that I've never shown before and made sure that he was pretty comfortable."

Flarida kept his winning streak running hot when he topped the Prime Time Open Classic aboard Shine Colt Shine with a 222. The five-year-old stallion is sired by Shine Chic Shine out of Gunners Miss Oak and is owned by Gaynia Revenberg and bred by Amabile & Strusiner. "This is a great horse and I'm just happy to be in this position," Flarida said. "I was second in the reining futurity on him, this has been an awesome horse for me."

Coming back with three Level 4 finalists was right in line with the leading rider's passion for competition. "I love to compete," he said. "This is obviously my life. This is the toughest event there is and it's an honor to get three back."

Shawn Flarida & Shine Colt Shine

Flarida said the huge-stopping colt did not disappoint on Finals' night. "He's a tremendous athlete, obviously his stop is his best deal and he's big and gorgeous. He's out of a Chic mare on the bottom with a Gunner so that just helps him with his maneuvers. He'll go from here to the NRHA Derby."

"There are so many people I need to thank," added Flarida. "All my sponsors. The owner of Americas Got Talent, Marie Whitmarsh, she's been awesome and so supportive. The owners of Shine Colt Shine, Gus and Gaynia Revenberg, have been tremendous supporters for my entire career. My wife, my two sons and daughter; my family is the backbone of my business, and all of my help. It wouldn't be possible without all of them."

After showing JLosa at the Cactus Classic in the Open, Mandy said she gained valuable experience and adjusted a few things accordingly. “I used that run really to learn how to show her,” she said. Her changes paid big dividends by the time they arrived at NRBC.

Unofficially, McCutcheon is nearing NRBC earnings of $700,000. This year marks her eighth NRBC Non Pro Classic championship, but Mandy said it’s especially meaningful considering her daughter Carlee’s success in the Finals. “That part was amazing. That put it right over the top for me,” she said of Carlee earning dual Non Pro Classic championships.

In the time leading up to NRBC there was some horse-swapping amongst the McCutcheon ladies, but the final decisions regarding horse and rider pairings were good ones. “Cade said, ‘Mom, you’ve got to give her Dununzio [Dun With Guns].’ Her big brother was looking out for her,” Mandy said. “She had three horses in the finals today and she showed every single one of them so smart. She showed each horse to its ability and I couldn’t be more proud of her.”

While a little horse trading is customary among the McCutcheons, Mandy said with a smile, “I’m not sharing JLosa. For now, momma’s keeping her. That’s the plan anyway.”

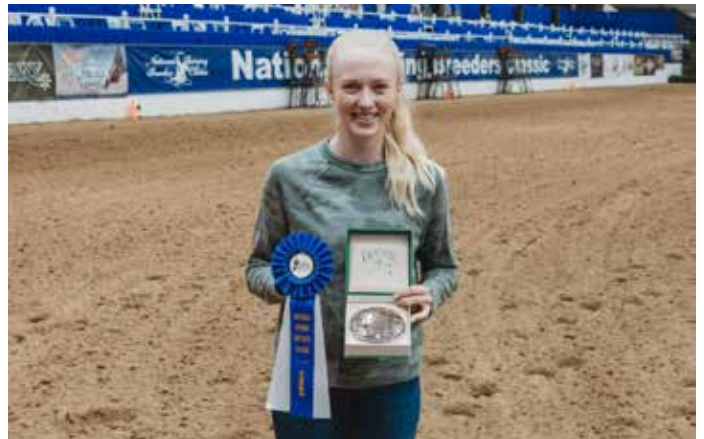

Mandy expressed her gratitude to the team behind her on her journey to the NRBC winner’s circle. “My parents, my husband, Cade, Carlee, the crew at the barn, my crew that stays home and makes it so we can be away showing. They make it possible for us to do what we do.”

NRBC Level 3 & Level 2 Classic Champion – Carlee McCutcheon & Dun With Guns

Keeping the winning trend going strong in her family was Carlee McCutcheon, 15, of Aubrey, Texas, who won the Level 3 and Level 2 Non Pro Classic championships. Carlee rode Dun With Guns to a 218.5 to earn a combined $18,500. By NRHA $4 Million Dollar Sire Gunners Special Nite and out of Belle Star Dunn It, Dun With Guns is owned by Carlee’s parents, Tom and Mandy McCutcheon, and was bred by Turnabout Farm, Inc.

McCutcheon, who has been in Katy, Texas, since January attending the Pin Oak Charity Horse Show with her hunter/jumpers, shifted gears into reining with ease as she prepared in the week leading up to NRBC. “Pin Oak started in January, so I haven’t ridden many reiners since then. I just have to focus as much as I can and switch over,” she said.

Of her performance in the Finals, Carlee said her parents told her to go have fun, and that is exactly what she did. “It was a lot of fun. My horse was with me every step. He’s super smart and honest, and I just trust him.”

Carlee thanked her parents and grandparents, Tim and Colleen McQuay, as well as her brother Cade for all their help and support, along with Sara Willeman of Turnabout Farms for breeding Dun With Guns.

NRBC Level 1 Non Pro Classic Champion – Anna Harris

Sixteen-year-old Anna Layne Harris from Sheridan, Arkansas, made her first NRBC count when she captured the Level 1 Non Pro Classic Championship riding Ready N Willing to a 215.5 in the Finals. The 2015 gelding sired by NRHA $3 Million Sire Walla Walla Whiz and out of Dainty Dunit is owned by Delaina Harris and was bred by Arcese Quarter Horses USA.

“I didn’t know what to think coming in, but I was really excited that everything went smooth. Overall, I was just happy that he performed,” Harris said.

Harris, who rides with Yonathan Baruch, invested a lot of time and miles into preparing for the NRBC. “We drive every weekend to Texas, it’s about four hours [one way] so we drive about eight hours to go ride. We went to Tulsa not long ago and cruised him through and it was really smooth. We watched the videos and saw what we could fix and just went in thinking of how to avoid any mistakes.”

Ready N Willing, aka “Red,” qualified with Baruch to the NRHA Futurity Level 4 Finals before Harris and her family acquired him. “I tried him in December, and we ended up buying him then. He rides a lot like my old horse, so it was very easy to step on him and adjust. He’s very quirky, he likes scratches and anything he can eat.”

Harris said her horse handled the run-in pattern for the NRBC Finals with confidence. “I had run very few run-in patterns, so I was very excited to get to do that. He was really free and his circles were really good. I was nervous about the turns, but he got through it good.”

Harris thanked her parents, Delaina and Shane Harris, the entire crew at Baruch Reining Horses, and “I have to thank God for the talent He has given me.”

NRBC Prime Time Non Pro Classic Champion Shaunda Rai Blinzler & Tagin Stiletto Chics

The Champions of the Prime Time Non Pro was Shaunda Rai Blinzler and Tagin Stiletto Chics with a 219. By NRHA $4 Million Sire Gunners Special Nite and out of the mare Stiletto Tag, Tagin Stiletto Chics was bred by Jennifer Marley.

Blinzler of Scottsdale, Arizona, acquired Tagin Stiletto Chics, aka “Duke,” right before Christmas and has been working to form a partnership that proved to be fruitful at NRBC. “He’s a lot of fun, he’s super honest. I’ve just tried to learn him because I literally haven’t had much time with him. It’s been a crash course in learning,” she laughed.

Of her Finals performance, Blinzler said, “He ran in really good. I’ve been having a little bit of trouble with my spins, but I felt like I got through it good and the rest of the run he was really pure and really honest. There’s just not much more you can ask of them than that.”

Blinzler, a former NRBC Level 4 Non Pro Champion, estimates that she showed at her first NRBC in 2007 but said she hasn’t had a derby horse in several years and is happy to be back with a good one. “It was amazing,” she said. “It feels really good to be back [at NRBC]. It’s fun to be back and to see all of these people again.”

Blinzler thanked her trainer Cade McCutcheon, as well as her husband Ronnie, and the entire McCutcheon team.

Markel Non Pro Commitment Award Presented to Ann Admonius!

Markel Insurance is a longtime sponsor of the NRBC and a staunch supporter of the reining industry. Several years ago, Markel and NRBC created a new award to recognize the Non Pro riders who go above and beyond to give back to the industry.

The Markel Non Pro Commitment Award recipient is always kept secret until it is presented during the Markel Non Pro Draw Party.

On hand to present this year’s award was Frank Costantini, Markel Director of Western Disciplines. Frank was excited to recognize Ann Admonius as this year’s recipient.

Open Classic Challenge - Matthew Palmer & Gunnatrashtheplace

With an adrenaline-charged performance Matthew Palmer, of Elverston, Pennsylvania, guided Gunnatrashtheplace to a 226.5, which earned the Open Classic Challenge championship and $9,374. The 2013 stallion owned by Levine Equine Enterprises, LLC, is sired by NRHA $4 Million Sire Gunnatrashtya and out of the mare All Chic N Shiny.

and a half ago when Palmer moved to Santa Hill Ranch. “I just clicked with him. It’s been incredible,” said Palmer. “We’ve made the NRBC Level 4 Finals, won the Buckeye and then he goes to Scottsdale and keeps on coming and he’s incredible. I think now everybody knows who Gunnatrashtheplace is and it’s pretty cool because that horse deserves it.”

Palmer describes the horse he calls “Beast” as one in a million. “A ride like that where a horse gives you its soul like that... and that crowd, I mean, it was just raucous! There was one point in my circles his ears went straight up. The people were going nuts. It’s a special horse to check in like that to you. He’s one in a million,” said Palmer.

Gunnatrashtheplace is described by Palmer as an extremely laid back individual that knows when it’s appropriate to go into beast-mode, which is exactly what he did Friday night at NRBC. “The moment that you ask him for something he just clicks into another gear,” said Palmer.

Palmer and Gunnatrashtheplace joined forces a year

Plans for the dynamic team of Palmer and Gunnatrashtheplace include preserving the stallion’s energy until the time is right to go gunning for a million. “Hopefully I can knock the door down and get in [The Run For The Million] and then just save him for that,” said Palmer.

Palmer graciously thanked his entire support team. “My family, my wife who is behind me 100 percent, my mom, my father’s upstairs—he’s behind me. Bob and Arlene Santagota, everybody that works for me, and all of my customers. I’m just in a blessed situation. I’m proud to be from the east coast. I’m proud to represent us and I’m blessed to have such an amazing group of people surrounding me.”

Level 4 Non Pro Classic Challenge Champion - Tish Fappani & Spooks N Jewels

Winning the Level 4 Non Pro Classic Challenge championship, as well as co-champion of slate two of the $5,000 Non Pro was Tish Fappani, of Scottsdale, Arizona. Fappani also won the Run For A Million Non Pro qualifier.

“We showed Spooks N Jewels today,” she said. “He was good. He was good in his turns and circles. He is just a special horse. I love him.”

Fappani guided the 2013 stallion to a score of 219.5, earning $6,186 in the Level 4 Non Pro Classic Challenge. The team took home an addition $1,572 in Sunday’s $5,000 Non Pro. Spooks N Jewels is by NRHA $6 Million Dollar Sire Smart Spook and out of Whiz Jewels. He is owned by Tish and her husband Andrea Fappani. Spooks N Jewels came to NRBC with $179,778 in NRHA lifetime earnings to his credit.

“He’s been a cool horse because I showed as a futurity horse and a 4-year-old,” said Fappani. “Luca took over as a 5- and 6-year-old and then I got him back and showed him last year. We just knew we had to bring him here for the Challenge and give it a spin. He’s special.”

She added, “Thank you of course to my boys and Andrea, and to all the guys that work for us, as well as our veterinarians and our farriers. I appreciate all of the people who take care of everything behind the scenes. We are lucky to have a great team behind us.”

Non Pro Classic Challenge Level 3 Co-Champion Bailey Kolsun & Diamond Studded Guns

Capturing the Non Pro Classic Challenge Level 3 Co-Championship was Bailey Kolsun riding Diamond Studded Guns. Kolsun’s score of 219 earned $2,259. By NRHA $4 Million Sire Gunnatrashya and out of Like To Flo, Diamond Studded Gun’s NRHA lifetime earnings exceed $100,000.

Kolsun, of Pilot Point, Texas, has been paired with the 9-year-old reiner for the past six years. “We won the NRBC here when he was a 4-year-old in the Level 2 Non Pro. We won the Challenge here when he was 7, and again last year when he was 8,” she said.

“Awesome” is the adjective Kolsun used to describe her run today. “He’s just so much fun to ride and be around,” she said. “He turned really good, and he has been turning good for me all week. He slowed down huge in the circles and then ran and stopped about as good as you could.”

Kolsun appreciates the NRBC creating lucrative divisions for aged horses. “Showing him now as a mature horse, it’s one of those things like having an old friend,” she said. “He knows me and I know him. I thank the NRBC for adding all this money for the older horses so we have a reason to keep them going.”

Kolsun anticipates attending the NRHA Derby next and thanked her trainer Ruben Vandorp. “I thank him for being with me and this horse and for believing in us. I thank my parents back home in Canada and all my friends and family that are here cheering me on,” she said.

Level 3 Non Pro Classic Challenge Co-Champion & Level 2 Champion Anna Clausen & Smart Tinseltown

Co-Champion of the Level 3 Non Pro Classic Challenge and Champion of the Level 2 Non Pro Classic Challenge was Anna Clausen, of Scottsdale, Arizona, riding Smart Tinseltown to a score of 219. Smart Tinseltown is a 2010 gelding sired by Smart Spook and out of Tinseltown Lil Step that is owned by Clay Clausen and bred by Charles R. Vaughan. Clausen earned a combined $2,806 for her efforts.

“I have been trying to get this horse right, and it finally came together today, so that’s exciting,” Clausen said of her success in the Coliseum Arena on Sunday.

“We went to the Cactus Classic and I had a couple bobbles there when we showed, so we used that to prepare,” she said. “We worked at the ranch to get through our problems.”

Clausen appreciates the guidance of her trainer Patrick Flaherty, who advised her to trust her horse, which paid off. Next up for Clausen and Smart Tinseltown is the NRHA

Derby and then The Run For The Million.

“Thank you to my parents, my entire barn, and Patrick,” she added.

Level 1 Non Pro Classic Challenge Jenny Ricotta & Miss Whizzletown

Champion of the Intermediate Non Pro [2] and Level 1 Non Pro Classic Challenge was Jenny Ricotta riding her 8-year-old mare Miss Whizzletown. Sired by Hollywoodstinseltown and out of Rewind N Whiz, Miss Whizzletown came to NRBC with NRHA career earnings of more than $98,000.

Ricotta, of Scottsdale, Arizona, was proud of her mare's performance. "We bred and raised her," Ricotta said. "My husband Marco [Ricotta] showed her in the Open, and then I started riding her this fall and have been showing her since."

Her plan to ride the mare a bit more aggressively on Sunday worked out well. "She was really good today. I really tried to push her a little more than in the past. She was with me the whole time."

Ricotta is proud to have finished NRBC—and Miss Whizzletown's show career—on a high note. "Our goal at the end of the year last year was to get her over $100,000 in earnings," said Ricotta. "Today pushed her over that, so now she's going to be a broodmare."

Grateful for the support team behind her, Ricotta thanked her husband Marco, as well as her parents who attend the shows to help care for her son. "It's a huge help. Also, thanks to all my friends that were out there cheering," she said.

Prime Time Non Pro Classic Challenge Champion William Rhoads & Mega Maggie Mae

Mega Maggie Mae, by NRHA $6 Million Sire Magnum Chic Dream and out of Cinco De Mega, has NRHA career earnings in excess of $174,000 and was bred by Martin Bonneson. "She has won everything for me," he said. "As a 3-year-old she won three divisions at the NRHA Futurity, as a 4-year-old she won the Level 4 Non Pro Derby. She's still sound and sane and likes her job. She doesn't owe me anything."

The goal with Rhoads' special mare is to continue to keep her sound and happy, which is easily accomplished through daily exercise on all the therapy equipment at his clinic in Whitesboro, Texas.

Scoring a 216.5 to win the Prime Time Non Pro Classic Challenge Championship was William Rhoads riding his 2012 mare Mega Maggie Mae. Rhoads also placed in Levels 4, 3, and 2, as well as in the Non Pro and Intermediate Non Pro.

Of Sunday's run, Rhoads said, "It was a good, solid run and that's all I can ask for. I thank my trainer, Richard Pokluda, who started this mare and gave her to me as a 3-year-old to ride. Then I have a team back at my clinic that takes care of her and does all the hard work. I give a shout-out to them for helping me and keeping her happy."

Youth 14-18 Classic Challenge Raeanna Thayn & Coded N Karma

Cinching Saturday's Youth 14-18, Youth 14-18 Classic/Challenge, Unrestricted Youth and winning the High Point was Raeanna Thayn who rode Coded N Karma to an impressive score of 147. Coded N Karma is a 2011 gelding by Electric Code and out of Whiz N Snap. He is owned by Robert and Robin Thayn. "I've been showing him since he was six and he's 10 this year," said Thayn, of Tioga, Texas. "I just focus on the pattern."

Thayn said she appreciates her solid equine partner, as well as the people behind the scenes who help and support her. "He [Coded N Karma] always stops huge, he's super consistent there," she said, adding that her favorite thing about the gelding is "probably his personality and definitely his consistency in the show pen."

Thayn has shown in the NRBC Derby in the past and she estimates that she's shown in the youth classes for about the past five or six years. "I want to thank my parents, Robert and Robinn, and everyone at JM Reining Horses."

Youth 13 & Under Classic Challenge Becca Schaffhauser & Dun Got My Rest

Tying for the top spot in Saturday's Youth 13 & Under Classic Challenge with a 143 was Becca Schaffhauser and

$25,000 NRHA Open Andrea Fappani & Starjac Vintage

Starjac Vintage and Andrea Fappani struck gold in Friday night's star-studded $25,000 Open with a score of 229.5 that earned $9,033. Starjac Vintage, by NRHA $2 Million Sire A Sparkling Vintage and out of Starjac Miss, is owned by Tim Anderson.

"To be honest, I wasn't really expecting it because it's the first time I've shown him really hard," Fappani said of the run. "He's a horse that I've had in training for about a year

Dun Got My Rest. Dun Got My Rest is a 2008 gelding by NRHA $6 Million Sire Hollywood Dun It and out of Got My Rest. He is owned by Sam Schaffhauser.

The Eads, Tennessee, teen has been showing the horse she calls "Cruise" for the past two years. When asked what she considered the highlight of today's run, Becca said it was her stops. "He's so sweet and he's great to show and ride. [I focus on] riding the same in the show pen as I do in the warmup pen." The duo also earned the class championship in the Youth 13 & Under [2] ancillary class.

Becca appreciates the help she gets from her parents, Sam and Jeanna Schaffhauser, as well as the support of her friends and family.

now, but it took me a long time to get together with him. Tim Anderson sent him to me along with some other horses. The other horses I clicked with right away, but this one is a very sensitive horse, and it just took some time to get together with him. That's why we didn't enter the derby here."

When asked about the qualities that make Starjac Vintage exceptional, Fappani said, "You know, I think I just found his particular strength. You can train and train and train, but until you go show them you don't really know."

Fappani was pleasantly surprised by Starjac Vintage's ability to shine brightest on the big stage like he did Friday night in Coliseum Arena. "He's a full brother to Platinum Vintage and he reminds me a lot of his brother in that he's a show horse. When you ask for it in the show pen he steps up."

After consulting with his owners, Fappani says this year's competition schedule for Starjac Vintage may include major events like the NRHA Derby and Run For The Million, among others.

Fappani was quick to credit his support team for their respective roles in his success. "Of course the owners, Tim Anderson and Kim Niven. They've given me the opportunity to ride a lot of nice horses the last 12 months, and I'm looking forward to going forward with that. Also, the whole Fappani team. I'm the one here doing the interviews but there's a lot of guys behind me—my wife and my kids—there's a lot of people to thank."

Madaline Callaway Wins Yellowstone Rookie Shootout on Codes Whizard Merlin

Five qualifiers to the Yellowstone Paramount Network Rookie Shootout finals battled for bragging rights and a one-of-a-kind award on Friday evening in the Coliseum Arena. Winning the Rookie Shootout was Madaline Callaway, of Loveland, Colorado, and Codes Whizard Merlin, a 2015 gelding by Electric Code out of KR Freckledface Whiz. Callaway—a back-to-back winner of the shootout—won a Yellowstone branded sitting bench sponsored by the Paramount Network and Taylor Sheridan.

Callaway said the win was unexpected. "The Shootout run was super good," she said. "He acted a lot better than I thought he would for sure. I felt great about my stops. He's a huge stopper. I kind of messed up my turnarounds, but he was a really good boy."

Callaway acquired Merlin at the NRHA Futurity and hadn't ridden him much prior to arriving at the NRBC. "I first rode him at the Futurity when I tried him," she said. "I compete on a college equestrian team at Baylor, so I wasn't able to ride him or practice before this [show]. It ended on a good note for sure."

Callaway thanked her parents, as well as trainer Jared Leclair for his advice. "Jared told me to just go in there and ride what I feel," said Callaway.

Intermediate and Limited Open Colin Fitzpatrick & Ruf Up My Jersey

In the Tellepsen Arena, Intermediate and Limited Open riders competed with the team of Colin Fitzpatrick and Ruf Up My Jersey winning both divisions. Sired by Yellow Jersey and out of Dunit A Lil Ruf, Ruf Up My Jersey is owned by Teresa Goforth, of Tioga, Texas. A combined paycheck of $1,341 was awarded thanks to Dunit A Lil Ruf's 144.5.

Originally from Canada, Fitzpatrick lives in Whitesboro, Texas, where he works for Brian Bell at Bell Ranch. "We've got a really good group at Bell Ranch," Fitzpatrick said. "We've got a great group of clients and a good team. Everyone supports each other and we have a lot of fun."

Winning is always fun, and today that certainly proved to be the case for Fitzpatrick, who went into the competition with the goal of making a strong, confidence-building run with Dunit A Lil Ruf. "I showed him here in Katy in order to get some seasoning," Fitzpatrick said. "I had shown him a little bit in Hamilton [Texas] a couple weeks ago and found a few things I needed to work on there. When I got here, I had a plan to get him ready and it all worked out."

Fitzpatrick intends to show Dunit A Lil Ruf more in the future in hopes of adding to the horse's winning resume. "I'm going to show him a few more times here just to get a few more miles put on him, and the end goal will be to get him ready for his owner, Teresa Goforth, to show him," he said.

Reserve champion in the Intermediate Open was Spin N Wimp, ridden by Joshua Crawley for owner Denise Ann Severson-Hobbs, with a 144 worth $801. Spin N Wimp is sired by NRHA $12 Million Dollar Sire Wimpys Lil Step and out of the mare Spinning Beauty.

Reserve in the Limited Open was Alpha Trashyanicki, ridden by Jeronimo Leal Lobo for owner Esteban Posada Olarte to a 143 worth $187. Alpha Trashyanicki is sired by NRHA Four Million Dollar Sire Gunnatlashya and out of Chexanicki.

Rookie Pro - Katie Davis and Chicsdundreamin

Chicsdundreamin and Katie Davis had a dream day in Katy, Texas, where they won the Rookie Pro division with a 141.5 to earn $241. The 2007 gelding by NRHA Six Million Dollar Sire Magnum Chic Dream and out of the mare Goody Goody Gum Drop is owned Nancy Stillwell, of Weatherford, Texas.

Davis, who resides in Weatherford, Texas, where she works for Deary Performance Horses, explained that family ties run deep with the horse she rode to victory today. "Chicsdundreamin belongs to Nancy and Allen Stillwell, who are Casey's in-laws, and they've been very gracious to let me show him," she said.

Davis, who says she had previously shown Chicsdundreamin mainly at smaller, local shows said that her run today was exhilarating. "He was showing like he was a young boy again," Davis said. "He's got a lot of talent; he's got a lot of earnings and it's all to the horse's credit."

In fact, Chicsdundreamin had NRHA lifetime earnings of $153,742 prior to arriving at the NRBC. Davis says she is incredibly grateful for the opportunity to show such a veteran performer.

"I especially thank Casey and Nicole Deary, and of course Nancy and Allen Stillwell, as well as all of my teammates at Deary Performance Horse because we couldn't function as a farm without each and every one of us doing our part."

Reserve in the Rookie Pro was Baileys Not Painted, ridden by Matheus Victor Vieira for owner Kristen Cantacuzene. Baileys Not Painted is by NRHA Four Million Dollar Sire Gunners Special Nite and out of Darlins Not Painted.

Limited Non Pro - Tamara Bush & Little Joe Vintage

It's been five years since Tamara Bush has shown a reining horse. In fact, the last time she competed was at the 2016 NRBC. Unfortunately, an injury caused her to cease competing. "I hurt myself, and right after that NRBC I had a complete neck fusion," Bush explained. "I stopped riding and got scared, but I got my guts back and decided to go for it, and this is our first show. It was a lot of fun. It's awesome to be back at the NRBC. It's the best show."

What a first outing it was! Bush and Little Joe Vintage marked a 72 to win the Limited Non Pro in the Wheless Arena. "It felt really great. I lifted my hand a bit too much but he's such a good, solid horse that he took care of me," Bush said of the gelding, by NRHA Two Million Dollar Sire A Sparkling Vintage out of Snappy N Smart Chic. "I couldn't believe our score. I was just hoping I wouldn't fall off and that I could get my lead changes, so I was 100% surprised."

Bush and Little Joe Vintage will show again Thursday and possibly Sunday. "It all depends how it's going." She added, "I thank my guy Harper Conner and also Lorenzo Concarella who has given me some lessons and helped me get my confidence up."

Tying for second in the Limited Non Pro were Arielle Hacking and Stephanie Stewart, who both marked scores of 71.5.

Hacking rode Alvin McDreamy, by NRHA Six Million Dollar Magnum Chic Dream out of Surely Whiz, while Stewart piloted A West Coast Flash, by West Coast Whiz out of Sheza Flashy Spook.

Prime Time Non Pro
Tamra Kyle & KR Smart Dreamer

With a 72.5, Tamra Kyle and KR Smart Dreamer took the Prime Time Non Pro win in the Wheless Arena. “He was a good boy today. He was really quiet in the center, listened to me, and stayed relaxed,” Kyle said. “We had a couple bobbles in the Classic, and won’t make the finals there, so we thought we would come playing in the other pens.”

Tamra and her husband Pete Kyle bred and raised KR Smart Dreamer, by NRHA Six Million Dollar Sire Magnum Chic Dream out of Smart Shiney Lena. They sold the colt but bought him back as a two-year-old. “He’s just a fun horse to ride. He’s super light, comfortable, always right there for you and he tries really hard,” she said. “We’ve done a lot of things with him like ranch riding, horsemanship, and reining. I enjoy showing him, and he enjoys being shown, so that’s what we will keep doing.”

The Kyles are members of the NRBC Board, and so the return to Katy is extra special. “I think when you’re away from some place for a bit, coming back is even more incredible. The facility has done an amazing job getting the grounds prepped and they continue to make improvements, so it is awesome. It’s such a different environment, and it is great to be back,” she said.

Finishing second in the Prime Time Non Pro with a score of 71.5 was Victoria Lambert on Magnums Chexy Dream. Magnums Chexy Dream is by Magnum Chic Dream out of Big Gold Chex.

Rookie L1 Champion, L2 and Yellowstone Rookie
Shootout Round 1 Co-Champion – Eric Mendrysa &
Scootin Through Town

Wednesday’s Rookie L1 Champion in the Wheless Arena was Eric Mendrysa of Boerne, Texas, riding Scootin Through Town. With a score of 72, Mendrysa also tied for the win in the Rookie L2, the Yellowstone Rookie Shootout Round 1, and the Run For A Million Rookie qualifier.

By NRHA $2 Million Sire Hollywoodtinseltown and out of the mare Scoot Lil Bo, Scootin Through Town and Mendrysa teamed up during the 2020 NRHA Futurity. “This is only our third or fourth show together,” said Mendrysa of the seven-year-old gelding. “We are still a pretty new team, but we are figuring things out.”

Mendrysa, who has shown AQHA all around horses for years, has embraced the new challenge of riding reining horses—particularly here in Katy. “This is my first NRBC, and only my second year showing reining horses,” he said. “My favorite part of this show is getting to watch the open horses here because they have an unreal level of talent and it’s fun to watch. I’m looking forward to watching the finals.”

Despite the fact that the leadup to today’s run was a bit rushed, Mendrysa appreciates the help he receives from his trainer Arnaud Ferrett in expertly preparing him and his horses. “I was early in the draw today and there were some scratches. I didn’t have much time to warmup, but it actually worked in my favor because I didn’t have time to get nervous. It was just get in and go and he [Scootin Through Town] took care of me. It was really fun,” he said.

Rookie L2 and Yellowstone Rookie Shootout Round 1
Co-Champion – Katharine Cappe & Wallas Corona
Sharing the victory in the Rookie L2, Yellowstone Rookie Shootout Round 1 and the Run For A Million Rookie Qualifier was Katharine Cappe and her 2013 gelding Wallas Corona.

Wallas Corona, by NRHA $3 Million Sire Walla Walla Whiz and out of Coronas Major, has been partnered with Cappe for close to a year. “I got him right around the time that NRBC was supposed to happen last year. This is my first NRBC and we are off to a good start,” she said.

Of her run in the Wheless, Cappe says she was proud to have put forth the effort to improve upon a few details. “We showed yesterday, and it went really well, so the plan was to just try to improve on a few things from yesterday. Some days they come out here and you just know it is going to be good. That’s how he felt today. He was phenomenal,” Cappe said.

Cappe, a native of Maui, Hawaii, resides in Charleston, South Carolina, and rides with Dave Moore in Florida. “I’m thankful for the entire crew at Dave Moore Reining—Dave, Nicki, Kim and everyone who rides there. We are a big family and we love to travel and show together. Our next big show will be the North American Reining Stakes in July and then I guess we’re going to Vegas [in August]!”

Prime Time Rookie Champion
Valencia Pitzing & Baileys Sidekick

Topping the Prime Time Rookie was Valencia Pitzing aboard Baileys Sidekick, by NRHA $4 Million Sire Gunners Special Nite and out of A Shining Sidekick.

“Today, my turnarounds stood out to me,” Pitzing said of her 71.5-point run. “Overall the run felt good. He’s just a good horse and a good horse for me as a Rookie.”

Baileys Sidekick and Pitzing celebrated their relatively new partnership with the win. “I’ve only owned him for three months and this is just our third show together. This is my second time showing at the NRBC,” she explained.

Pitzing, who lives in Alabama, plans to finish out her year of Rookie eligibility with Baileys Sidekick and acquire a derby horse to show in the future. She appreciates the support and guidance of her trainer, Ruben Vandorp, of Aubrey, Texas. “He has a lot of patience with me,” she said. “We’re really doing well, and things are coming together with Baileys Sidekick.”

Novice Horse Non Pro Level 3 Co-Champion
Kary Key & Cant Spook Me

Kary Key and her horse Cant Spook Me tied for the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 3 win with a score of 144.

Key enjoys being reunited with Cant Spook Me, a home-raised product of her mother Pat Fletcher’s breeding program. “We bred and raised him, but we actually sold him as a two-year-old and got him back as a seven-year-old. I got to finally start showing him as a seven-and-up, now eight-and-up horse,” she explained.

By NRHA $2 Million Sire Spooks Gotta Gun and out of the mare Te On The Trashy Side, Cant Spook Me impressed Key in the Tellepsen Arena with his solid performance and strong momentum. “I was really happy to be going forward and running through the middle better because he’s always wanting to slow down, he’s never going to run off. We’re working on that and if I can stay out of his way, we usually do OK,” she said.

Enjoying the beautiful weather and laidback atmosphere, Key, of Millsap, Texas, added thanks to her mother for raising such a standout performer, as well as to trainer Jonathan Gauthier.

Novice Horse Non Pro Level 3 Co-Champion
Sarah Armenta & Gun Smoke Dennis

It was the first show of 2021 for Sarah Armenta and Gun Smoke Dennis, but the pair put together a solid run, marking a 144 and tying for the win of the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 3.

Armenta, of Whitesboro, Texas, has been showing Gun Smoke Dennis, by Lil Dry Peppy and out of Gun Smoke Denise, for the past two years. “I first showed him at the Redbud Spectacular in Oklahoma City [Oklahoma], and then I took him to Switzerland for Team USA, and I’ve had him since.”

The college freshman was pleased to lay down a solid performance in her first run back since the NRHA Futurity. “My mom’s been showing him while I’ve been at school, and she has done pretty well. I thought, ‘I have to be better than my mom,’” Armenta joked.

Armenta was particularly proud of the quality of her consistently hard-stopping gelding’s circles during the run, and thanked trainers Casey Hinton and Jimmy van der Hoeven for their assistance. “Recently, with my riding schedule what it is, they’re helping me even more in the mornings when it’s tough for them. And I thank my mom, of course, and Robbie and Julia Berti, who I bought Gun Smoke Dennis from two years ago,” she said.

Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2
Darby Gardner & Chex Golden Tag

Coming out on top of the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 was Houston’s own Darby Gardner and her horse Chex Golden Tag, sired by NRHA $2 Million Sire Whiz N Tag Chex and out of the mare SR Cotton Candy, scoring a 143 to earn $561.

Gardner, who has been teamed with the horse she calls “Corn Pops” since acquiring him in December from the Texas A&M Equestrian Team, said her winning run was validation of her horse’s abilities. “I was surprised and super happy with him and I’m excited to keep moving forward. He was so much more with me today than yesterday; he just felt really good. It was like night and day.”

The recent college graduate thanks her trainer Franky Vazquez for his help and support and looks forward to showing more throughout the week at NRBC in the Limited Non Pro, Non Pro and Novice Horse divisions.

Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1
Molly Morgenstern & Macho In My Dreams
Molly Morgenstern, of Galina, Ohio, and Macho In My Dreams topped the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 with a 142.5 to earn $272.

Sired by NRHA $6 Million Sire Magnum Chic Dream and out of Ritas San Jo, Macho In My Dreams has been Morgenstern’s trusted equine partner for the past three years.

“We had kind of a rocky ride yesterday in the Derby,” she said. “I was pretty disappointed, but my trainer—and his wife, especially—encouraged me to enter today and give it a try again. I’m glad we did! We had a lot of fun showing, it was a fun afternoon.”

When asked if she was done showing for the week, Morgenstern said that determination has yet to be made. “I guess we’ll find out when we get back to the barn and talk about that,” she laughed, adding thanks to the support team behind her. “I’m super grateful for everything that Robin Schoeller has done for me. He has the patience of a saint and he and Laura have just held my hand through big shows and made sure that I was ready and not scared of anything on the other side of the gate.”

Rookie Level 2 (2), Prime Time Rookie (2), Yellowstone Shootout Round 2 & Rookie Level 2 High Point
Molly Cherry & Guaranteed A Magnum

Molly Cherry and Guaranteed A Magnum marked a score of 144.5 to win Thursday’s Rookie Level 2, Prime Time Rookie, Yellowstone Paramount Network Rookie Shootout Round 2, and the Rookie Level 2 High Point. Cherry is from Guthrie, Oklahoma, and made her first trip to NRBC with Guaranteed A Magnum, which was met with great success.

Guaranteed A Magnum, a 2013 gelding by Magnum

With A Dream and out of Guaranteed By Amos, has NRHA lifetime earnings of $303,360 and was a Derby champion for Jimmy van der Hoeven. “He’s had a big Open career and now he’s adapting to me,” Cherry said. “It’s been great.”

Cherry felt that the strongest point of her run today was the precision of Guaranteed A Magnum’s circles. “We’re getting that figured out and gaining more confidence going faster,” she said.

Cherry added thanks for trainer Arnaut Ferret, as well as her friends and supporters. “He’s done amazing getting him adapted to me from that Level 4 type of horse,” she said. “We’ve had a great time and I want to thank him and his girlfriend, Lauren Love. Eric Mendrysa is in the barn and we all have a great time.”

Rookie Level 1 (2) & The Run For A Million Rookie Qualifier (2) – Shelly Woldenberg & All Nite Spook

Winning Thursday’s Rookie Level 1 and the Run For A Million Rookie qualifier with a 143.5 was Shelly Woldenberg, of Miami, Florida, and her 2009 gelding All Nite Spook. Woldenberg has been showing the son of NRHA $6 Million Sire Smart Spook out of Dun It Fri Dee Nite for the past two-and-a-half years.

She says All Nite Spook is a pleasure to show because he always tries and is solid in all his maneuvers. “He always has at least plus-half spins, really nice circles, stops and rollbacks, and he’s always listening to me.”

Woldenberg thanked everyone at Sheridan Oaks Stable for their support and encouragement. “I thank my trainer Nikki Tyndall as well as Dave and Kim Moore,” she said.

The high school sophomore will show again on Friday in the Youth.

Prime Time Rookie High Point
Valencia Pitzing & Baileys Sidekick

Prime Time Rookie High Point champion Valencia Pitzing, of Dothan, Alabama, and her horse Baileys Sidekick performed like veterans at NRBC. Baileys Sidekick, by NRHA $4 Million Sire Gunners Special Nite and out of A Shining Sidekick, made his first trip to the NRBC with Pitzing, who has owned him for just three months.

“We are coming together as a team,” said Pitzing, who has attended NRBC twice. “He’s new and we’re learning together. I bought him from Ann Admonius. He’s takes good care of me as a Rookie level rider.”

Of winning the High Point, Pitzing says she was both surprised and ecstatic. “I wasn’t expecting to win the High Point, it’s awesome. This is a big, prestigious show and I was really surprised to win the High Point award,” she said.

Pitzing added appreciation for the team behind her. “I always thank my trainer, Ruben Vandorp, of Aubrey, Texas,” Pitzing added. “I’ve learned a lot, I’ve been with him now for two years and I’ve really tried to advance from a beginner up the ranks. He always has my horse ready for me.”

Rookie Level 1 High Point
Colt Mitchell & Playgun Chic Olena

The Rookie Level 1 High Point champion was Colt Mitchell riding his sister Molly Mitchell's gelding Playgun Chic Olena.

Playgun Chic Olena, by Smart Chic Olena and out of Mamas Packin, has carried Mitchell to many victories in the young rider's career. The reiner from Missouri estimates that he has shown at NRBC since he was 6 years old. "I'm excited and going to try to come back next year and do even better. We'll see if I can," he said. "My horse is 17 and still gets it done for me, so I love him."

Beyond expressing gratitude for his high-caliber horse, Mitchell appreciates the lengths his family goes to in order to help him achieve his goals. "First of all, I'd like to thank the good Lord above for keeping me safe," Mitchell said. "I'd like to thank my whole family for all the support, and for helping me ride and training for me."

Limited Open [2] & (tie) Limited Open High Point
Nikki Tyndall & Mercedes Shines

Topping the second slate of the Limited Open and tying for the high point buckle was Nikki Tyndall, of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, aboard Mercedes Shines. Sired by NRHA Million Dollar Sire Cromed Out Mercedes and out of Shining Maid, Mercedes Shines is owned by Deborah Ackley. The team posted a score of 70, which earned $280.

The NRBC is Tyndall's first show with Mercedes Shines. "He's been in our barn for a couple years now," she said. "This is my first show with him, but I work with him and his owner a lot. It's super awesome [to win the high point] at a show like this that's so competitive. I would like to thank the owner of the horse, Deborah Ackley. It has been so much fun to ride him here, and I'm just grateful for the opportunity. Also, I thank my boss Dave Moore and Kim Moore, and the whole team at Sheridan Oaks Stable."

(tie) Limited Open High Point
Patti Brownshadel & I See Starzz

Co-champions of the Limited Open High Point, Patti Brownshadel and her 6-year-old stallion I See Starzz overcame what some might consider insurmountable odds to achieve success at the NRBC. I See Starzz got a late start to stardom, but for good reason. "This is his fourth show ever," Brownshadel said. "He broke his shoulder as a 3-year-old and lost a year, but thanks to Dr. McCarroll, who pieced him back together for me, he's whole now."

Brownshadel, of Hempstead, Texas, has a deep appreciation of I See Starzz' bloodline, having ridden his sire Im The Chic Magnet, as well as his grandsire, NRHA $6 Million Sire Magnum Chic Dream. "I've ridden all three of them, so I'm familiar with the way they feel," she said. I See Starzz is out of the mare Starzz In Hollywood.

Brownshadel will show once more here at NRBC in the Novice Horse and plans to enter some smaller derbies before returning for the NRBC [Open Classic] next year. Her gratitude for the opportunity to compete successfully runs deep. "Number one, [I thank] God," she said. "Number two my husband, Elton Brownshadel, who is so incredibly patient and supportive and helpful. He keeps everything going. In these trying times, he's been right there to help me get through everything."

Rookie Professional [2] & High Point
Katie Davis and Chicsdundreamin

Chicsdundreamin and Katie Davis are two for two in Katy, having won both slates of the Rookie Pro division. Davis and Chicsdundreamin marked a 71.5 to top Thursday's class, earn $249, and win the high point buckle. "I'm very thrilled, excited, thankful; it's my first ever belt buckle I will have won, and I'll wear it proudly for quite a while," she said.

The 2007 gelding, by NRHA $6 Million Sire Magnum Chic Dream out of Goody Goody Gum Drop, is owned by Nancy Stillwell, of Weatherford, Texas. Davis, who works for Deary Performance Horses, is grateful to Nancy and Allen Stillwell for the opportunity they've given her to show Chicsdreamin. "I also thank Casey and Nicole Deary, the whole Deary Farm, and our farrier Glen Spalding, who is the primary reason that 'Newt' can have longevity in the show pen. [I thank] our vets and the whole team at Deary Ranch."

The week is not quite over for Chicsdreamin as the next generation at Deary Ranch is gearing up for Friday's event. "Next up he is going to show in the Short Stirrup [class] for Joy Deary," Davis said. "She's very excited and we'll get him ready for that tomorrow morning."

Limited Non Pro Slate 2
Allison Chappell and Trashysara

Trashysara and Allison Chappell, of Collinsville, Texas, took top honors in the second slate of the Limited Non Pro with a score of 144.5.

By NRHA $4 Million Sire Gunnatrashya and out of Sara Goes To Hollywood, Trashysara is a 2014 mare that Chappell and her husband, Alan, recently acquired. "I've actually only had a month on her of riding, and I messed it up in the Derby so I wanted to come redeem myself [today]," she said.

Proud of the run she made today, Chappell said she was pleased with the outcome. "She was really good. I had a messy roll-back, but aside from that she did everything I asked. She's a really good stopper, which is my worst part, so it's nice that she makes up for me a little bit."

Chappell credits Gunny Mathison for his guidance as her trainer, as well as thanking her husband for buying the mare. Chappell and "Sara" will be taking a break from the show pen following the NRHA Derby because she is pregnant.

Limited Non Pro High Point
Tamara Bush and Little Joe Vintage

Although it had been five years since Tamara Bush entered the NRBC, in 2021 she's returned to the show pen in top form. In 2016, the native of Kentucky who now hangs her hat in Hempstead, Texas, sustained an injury which caused her to undergo spinal fusion and a subsequent hiatus from horses.

"This is my first show in five years. In 2016 after this show I had spinal fusion and kind of quit riding, stopped showing, and sold everything except for my hat and my chaps," she said.

About a month and a half ago, Bush decided it was time to gear up for a comeback, and so far she is thoroughly enjoying the ride. "It's been fun! It's surreal," she said. "I never thought in a million years that I'd do this well but it's the horse."

Bush's equine partner is an 11-year-old gelding by NRHA $2 Million Sire A Sparkling Vintage out of Snappy N Smart Chic. "Harper [Connor] raised him and he's just a cool little dude. 'The little engine that could' is what we call him."

Bush will show again on Sunday in the Non Pro Classic/Challenge and thanked Harper Connor and Lorenzo Con-carella.

(tie) Non Pro [1]
Lane Colston & Colonels Special Gun
Sharing top honors in Saturday's Non Pro was Lane

Colston, of Frankfort, Kentucky, aboard Colonels Special Gun, by NRHA $4 Million Sire Gunners Special Nite and out of the mare Miss Cielo.

Colston was pleased with the performance of Colonels Special Gun, aka "Frost," on Saturday in Tellepsen Arena. "I showed him in the go rounds of the Non Pro Classic and I was a 214, which was one point away from making the Level 4 Finals. I made the Level 4 Finals on my other two horses, so I decided to show him again [in the Non Pro today]," Colston explained.

Colston, who rides with Cade McCutcheon, purchased Frost as a three-year-old. "I showed him his three-year-old year and last year," Colston said. "Cade coaches me and since he was getting ready in the Coliseum, Debbie [Brown] came over and watched me warming up. They both helped me a lot and we had a good run today."

(tie) Non Pro [1] – Carlee McCutcheon & The Wizster

Carlee McCutcheon teamed with The Wizster to match Colston's 147 and add another $849 to her lucrative week here at NRBC. The Wizster, sired by NRHA $4 Million Sire Gallo Del Cielo and out of the mare Miss Whizard Jac, is owned by Carlee's parents Tom and Mandy McCutcheon.

Intermediate Non Pro [1]

Kalyn Sanders & Got That Iowa Shine

Topping slate one of the Intermediate Non Pro was Kalyn Sanders, of Aubrey, Texas, and her 2013 gelding Got That Iowa Shine. Sanders scored a 146 to earn $680. Got That Iowa Shine, aka "Dillon," is sired by Smart And Shiney and out of SLJ This Is My Juice.

"I'm going to show him in the Non Pro Challenge tomorrow so today was more or less a warmup to get all my nerves out," Sanders said. "I put a lot of pressure on myself this week for some reason, so I just wanted to go in there and have a confidence-building run on him and if the wheel fell off, try to fix it, but he was really good today."

Sanders thanked her trainer and significant other, Josh Murphy, who trained Dillon. "He's the best horse I've ever had and will probably ever have the privilege to ride," she said. "I'm very grateful for Dillon and of course everyone on our team at JM Reining Horses. Also, my friends Jen and Rachel who came and watched me today."

Prime Time Non Pro [2]

Catherine Crandon & Xtra All Thats Magic

Catherine Crandon, of Newberry, Florida, rode Xtra All Thats Magic to the top of Saturday's Prime Time Non Pro with a 144. Xtra All Thats Magic is a 2016 mare by NRHA Million Dollar Sire Shiners Voodoo Dr and out of All Thats Dun.

"I'm the only person to have ever shown her and we just kind of went in here to have a nice easy ride," Crandon said. "That's exactly what she did today."

Crandon says she hopes to continue gaining positive show pen experience with Xtra All Thats Magic. "She's five, so she's derby eligible. I'd like to just to go and have a really good time showing and gain experience because she's a nice, nice mare. I think I'm going to keep this one for quite a while," she said.

Crandon thanked Dr. David Renard, and while they are looking forward to returning home to Florida, Crandon says NRBC had been thoroughly enjoyable. "It's a great show, we've had a great time."

High Point & Novice Horse Open L3 [1]

(tie) Novice Horse Open L3 [2]

Jordan Larson & Hold My Ground

In Saturday's Novice Horse Open L3, Jordan Larson of Ione, California, duplicated his winning effort from Friday by hitting paydirt again with Hold My Ground. Sired by NRHA $3 Million Sire Pale Face Dunit out of Maggie Jac Whiz, Hold My Ground scored a 72.5 today, tying for the win of the class and clinching the high point buckle. Larson won a combined $1,454.

Hold My Ground was owned until recently by Tzika Knaani, but just changed hands. "He was actually just sold to a new owner, Bill Megdal from Georgia. I bought him as a 3-year-old from Craig Schmersal for Tzvika Knaani from Israel, and we just sold him to Bill. He's been a good horse for us," Larson said.

Of the 5-year-old stallion's performances here at NRBC, Larson said he was pleased. "He was solid [today]. I didn't ask him for a ton," he said. I showed him a little harder yesterday. He was real consistent. Yesterday he ran and stopped really good, turned good and circled good. He's just really sweet and honest. He does whatever I ask him to do. He's going to be good for Bill I hope."

Larson is thankful for his customers as well as his help here at NRBC. "[I want to thank] Fernando that works for me, it's just him and I with nine horses. Of course, I thank my customers and the new owner of this horse, Bill. He's been awesome."

(tie) Novice Horse Open L3 [2], Novice Horse Open L1 [2] & High Point Novice Horse Open L1 & L2
Peter DeFreitas & DP Docs Misstrash

Peter DeFreitas, Whitesboro, Texas, rode DP Docs Misstrash, aka "Missy," to a 72.5 to split the Novice Horse Open L3 win on Saturday. DP Docs Misstrash is by Shinin Joe and out of Natrasha. The mare is owned by Dorminy Plantation, Fitzgerald, Georgia.

"I've had her since she was a 2-year-old," DeFreitas said. "She's always been pretty consistent, she's a very nice little mare. I really enjoy riding and showing her."

DeFreitas was pleased with Missy's performance in the Novice Horse Open. "I was really happy with her. She turned very well, circled nice and stopped good. [She was] just pretty good all the way across the board. I'd especially like to thank Missy's owner, Katarina Dorminy and Dorminy Plantation, for letting me show this mare and keep campaigning her," he said. "Hopefully the rest of this year we'll be able to show her consistently. I thank my wife and everyone who's behind me, they've all been a big part of mine and Missy's success, as well as my horse shoer Glen Spradling."

(tie) Novice Horse Open L3 [2]

Catherine Johnson & Docs Shining Crome

Catherine Johnson turned a catch riding aboard Docs Shining Crome into a winning run with a 72.5 score. Sired by NRHA $3 Million Sire Custom Crome and out of Shining Pearl, Docs Shining Crome is owned by Michael Marks.

Johnson, of Pilot Point, Texas, was excited for the chance to show "Corbin." "At the beginning of the show, they asked me if I wanted to show him, and so I think I've ridden him five times," she explained.

Johnson shared that she reminded herself to breath before she entered the pen, and to let Docs Shining Crome do his job. The 2011 palomino gelding executed each maneuver with ease. As for if she will show him again, Johnson said, "I sure hope so, he's pretty fun."

Johnson extended appreciation to, "Texas Horse Power Ranch and the Marks family, Nathan and Jean Piper, everybody back at the barn and Liz Rammersdorfer."

Novice Horse Open L2 [2]
Dany Tremblay & Detective McClane

Winning Saturday's Novice Horse Open L2 was Dany Tremblay, a native of Canada now residing in Overbrook, Oklahoma, who rode Detective McClane. The 2017 stallion sired by SG Frozen Enterprize and out of the mare Starbucks Deja Vu is owned by Triple U Quarter Horses, LLC, and marked a 73 to earn $748.

Tremblay said Detective McClane was an Open finalist last year at the NRHA Futurity. “We’re getting ready for the [NRHA] Derby about a month and a half from now, that’s kind of why I showed him here. I actually schooled him all week and then showed him today to see what I’ve got before the Derby. He was pretty good, and we ended up winning the class,” Tremblay said.

Tremblay thanked his entire support team. “Obviously NRBC is a long week,” he said. “We’ve got one in the [Level 4 Open] Finals tonight so it’s going to be super fun. I’d like to thank the owner of Detective McClane, Shari Taggart. She’s a great supporter. The Triple U Ranch, they are great, great people so it’s fun to work with them.”

On Sunday, McCutcheon capped her week off by earning the $5,000 Non Pro High Point and $5,000 Non Pro (2) Co-Championship with The Wizster, an 11-year-old gelding with NRHA lifetime earnings in excess of $200,000. McCutcheon’s score of 219.5 earned $1,572.

The Whizter, sired by NRHA $4 Million Sire Gallo Del Cielo and out of the mare Miss Whizard Jac, is owned by Turnabout Farm, Inc. “He was good,” she said. “He was super honest and ready to go horse show. I have been showing him since the NRBC in Tulsa last year.”

McCutcheon has some specific goals for the upcoming year with The Wizster. “Hopefully, I’ll get to show him in the Non Pro at The Run For A Million. I just want to smooth things out,” she said. “I thank my parents, as well as Debbie Brown, my grandparents Tim and Colleen McQuay, my brother Cade, and Sarah Willeman of Turnabout Farm, Inc.”

Because she was showing at the Pin Oak Charity Horse Show prior to NRBC, Carlee has been at the Great Southeast Equestrian Center for the past month. “I’m ready to go home for sure,” she added.

Green Reiner Level 1 & 2 [1] Angie Pennington & Kentucky Crome

In her second trip to the NRBC, Angie Pennington, of Rose Hill, Kansas, rode her 2014 mare Kentucky Crome to first in both the Green Reiner Level 1 and Level 2. Kentucky Crome is sired by NRHA $3 Million Sire Custom Crome and out of Chics Red Un.

Pennington was pleased with Kentucky Crome’s performance and thankful to the team of trainers who assist her. “Jared Leclair warmed her up [for me],” said Pennington. “Christy Jardetzky also showed her in the Rookie Pro a couple of times this week. They’ve been working on getting her show ready and getting me show ready. It’s paying off.”

Pennington appreciates her husband, Scott, who supports her efforts at honing her showmanship skills. “I’m coming from Kansas to Gainesville [Texas] now every weekend. It’s four and a half hours one way, but it’s worth it.”

$5,000 Non Pro [2] Co-Champion & Non Pro High Point Carlee McCutcheon & The Wizster

The 2021 NRBC has been a show to remember for Carlee McCutcheon, who, on Friday evening won the Level 3 and Level 2 Non Pro Classic Championships, as well as finishing eighth in the Level 4. “This is my favorite NRBC so far,” she said. “I definitely didn’t think it was going to go this well.”

Open (2) Champion - Shane Brown & Xtra Chex Step

Shane Brown had a simple plan for his last run at the NRBC on Xtra Chex Step, by Wimpys Little Step out of RM Chexicallie Rose. “I just wanted him to be good and finish on a good note. It has been a long week and we were both a little tired,” he shared. “We walked in there and I let him do his job, and tried to stay out of his way.”

that I get.”

The resulting score, a 147, was enough to finish first in the second slate of the Open. “He’s a really good turner. I shut him off a bit early, so that was on me, but he was good in the rest of it. The best thing I did today was just telling myself to stay out of his way,” Brown said with a laugh.

The Colorado trainer thanked Xtra Chex Step’s owner Susan Harding. “She showed him here in the Non Pro Classic stuff and let me show him in the Open. Susan has been with me as a client for 22 years. She has been great and very supportive. Of course I thank my family at home who are taking care of things there, and my help here,” he said. “I also thank Ari Mischo. She’s one of my youth clients, so she can’t train on the horses for me, but she helped get them saddled and ready and has been excellent.”

Open High Point

Colin Fitzpatrick & Ruf Up My Jersey

Leaving NBRC as the Open High Point Champion was Colin Fitzpatrick riding Ruf Up My Jersey, owned by Teresa Goforth, of Tioga, Texas. Sired by Yellow Jersey and out of Dunit A Lil Ruf, Ruf Up My Jersey is a 2014 gelding.

“We came here just to gain some seasoning on him,” said Fitzpatrick. “He’s an older gelding that hasn’t been shown a whole lot, and we’re just trying to get him ready for his owner. I feel like we got everything we needed to get accomplished done here. He stayed really consistent all week and he was just a lot of fun to get ready.”

Fitzpatrick describes Ruf Up My Jersey as, “A monster stopper. He’s just a little green in there still, but I think once he gets all the way there, he’s going to be great.”

Originally from Canada, Fitzpatrick lives in Gainesville, Texas, where he works for Brian Bell at Bell Ranch. “I thank his owner for letting me show him, and my wife for always being supportive,” said Fitzpatrick. “Also, I thank the entire Bell crew. We had a really good horse show.”

Intermediate Open [2]

Jonathan Gauthier & Dreamintinseltown

Earning the Intermediate Open [2] title was Jonathan Gauthier, Pilot Point, Texas, riding Sue Henson’s Dreamintinseltown to a 146.

Dreamintinseltown, sired by Hollywoodstinseltown and out of This Chicstundreamin, is a 2014 gelding bred by Rhoades River Ranch.

“This is a horse that I was reserve champion with in the Level 2 and Level 3 of the NRHA Open Futurity in 2017,” said Gauthier, who said he is happy to have the horse back in his barn. “He just came back. This is his last derby year so I’m getting him ready for the NRHA Derby, and this is a good start.”

Of his run today, Gauthier said it was better than he could have hoped for. “He was really, really good. It looks like all I need to do is a little bit of schooling before the Derby, and I think I’ve got him where I want him.

“I definitely thank his owner for considering me to ride him for his last derby year because we have always had something special, this horse and I,” added Gauthier. “I’m very grateful. I’m thankful for my wife for all of the help

Yellowstone Paramount Network Rookie Shootout Consolation

Eric Mendrysa & Scootin Through Town

Earning Sunday’s Yellowstone Paramount Network

Rookie Shootout Consolation win in Tellepsen Arena was Eric Mendrysa, of Boerne, Texas, riding Scootin Through Town to a 71.5.

By Hollywoodstinseltown and out of the mare Scoot Lil Bo, Scootin Through Town and Mendrysa teamed up when Mendrysa acquired the 2014 gelding at the 2020 NRHA Futurity. He was pleased to close out a successful week at NRBC with a winning run. “It was really good,” he said. “I made a rookie mistake on Saturday, so I just wanted to come back in and redeem myself, and I think I did.”

Of what stood out about today’s run, Mendrysa said it was the stops. “The horse is such a cool stopper; he makes it so easy. I just really wanted to make sure I ran long and ran past my markers and I did. Every time he goes in there, he shows. If there’s ever a mistake it’s mine.”

Having enjoyed his first NRBC experience in just his second year of showing reining horses, Mendrysa is appreciative of the support team behind him. “My trainer Arnaud Ferrett and his girlfriend Lauren Love—she’s a big instrument in making sure everything runs smoothly,” said Mendrysa.

Novice Horse Non Pro Level 3 & High Point
Sarah Armenta & Gun Smoke Dennis

Winning Sunday’s Novice Horse Non Pro Level 3 and High Point was Sarah Armenta riding Gun Smoke Dennis with her score of 144. Armenta, of Whitesboro, Texas, has been showing Gun Smoke Dennis, by Lil Dry Peppy and out of Gun Smoke Denise, for the past two years.

Armenta was happy that the 16-year-old reiner, owned by Armenta Quarter Horses, performed solidly all week. She attributes part of her success with “Dennis” to not over-schooling, letting him enjoy trail rides and and keeping “food in front of him at all times, that’s kind of a big issue,” she noted.

Armenta thanked trainers Casey Hinton and Jimmy van der Hoeven for their assistance as well as her parents, Kathleen and Lorenzo Armenta, and Robbie and Julia Berti, who she bought Gun Smoke Dennis from two years ago.

High Point Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2
Darby Gardner & Chex Golden Tag

Emerging as the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 High Point winner was Houston’s own Darby Gardner and her horse Chex Golden Tag, sired by Whiz N Tag Chex and out of the mare SR Cotton Candy.

Gardner acquired her horse in December from the Texas A&M Equestrian Team and has been pleased with his performance at NRBC. “I was surprised and super happy with him and I’m excited to keep moving forward.” The recent college graduate thanks her trainer Franky Vazquez for his help and support.

(tie) Novice Horse Non Pro L2
Anne Peters & Guns R Spooky

Sharing top honors in Sunday’s Novice Horse Non Pro L1 was Anne Peters, Fort Myers, Florida, riding Guns R Spooky, a 2010 gelding sired by NRHA $6 Million Sire Smart Spook and out of Berry Yer Guns. Peters was pleased with her score of 144, which yielded $572. “I’ve been showing him since January,” said Peters. “I lease him from Madison Gustin. My run was fantastic. I never felt so good in the saddle.”

Peters attributes her success to the combination of efforts put forth by herself and trainer Casey Deary and his team. “I had so much support, and yesterday’s run was just as good. I’ve had a blast. I thank my family, I have a lot of support in Fort Myers. Also the Dearys. I thank the Lord. I’m glad I’m safe today and here to enjoy it.”

(tie) Novice Horse Non Pro L2
Kyla Thurlow & Kachina Olena Tag

Kyla Thurlow rode Kachina Olena Tag to a score of 144, which tied for first in the Novice Horse Non Pro L2 to earn $572. Kachina Olena Tag is by Whiz N Tag Chex and out of Kachina Oak Olena, and has been partnered with Thurlow for the past four years. Originally from Scarborough, Maine, Thurlow trains with Mark and Shannon Rafacz in Florida, which is where her horses reside. Thurlow commutes to Florida to ride from her current home in Massachusetts. “They take care of him while I’m far, far away and I never have to worry about him.”

Thurlow said her run in Sunday’s class was solid. “He was very good. He’s actually had about four weeks off, so he was a little out of shape, but he seemed like he wanted to play ball. He’s the epitome of a show horse, he goes in and does his job. He makes up for my shortcomings,” Thurlow said graciously.

In addition to her trainers Mark and Shannon Rafacz, Thurlow thanks those behind the scenes who support her, including, “My parents, who let me live out this dream and the whole barn from Florida that’s cheering and who knows that they’re here with us too.”

High Point Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1
Molly Morgenstern & Macho In My Dreams

Molly Morgenstern, of Galina, Ohio, and Macho In My Dreams were High Point Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 champions here at NRBC. By NRHA $6 Million Sire Magnum Chic Dream and out of Ritas San Jo, Macho In My Dreams has been Morgenstern’s trusted equine partner for the past three years.

Earlier in the week Morgenstern expressed her thanks to the support team behind her. “I’m super grateful for everything that Robin Schoeller has done for me. He has the patience of a saint, and he and Laura have just held my hand through big shows and made sure that I was ready and not scared of anything on the other side of the gate.”

Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1
Jessica Keller & Smoking Ice

Winning Sunday’s Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 was Jessica Keller riding Smoking Ice, owned and bred by Hilldale Farm, with a score of 143.5. Keller, of Sumner, Texas, says she has been showing the 2015 stallion Smoking Ice, by Gunner On Ice and out of Rondas Tio since he was a 4-year-old.

“He turned better than he did the other day,” she said.

“He turned well, stopped not quite as good as he can, but he’s green. He hasn’t been shown a whole lot. He was good pretty much good all over today. I’d like to go show him more.

“I thank my mom [Tammye] for standing behind us and raising such nice horses,” said Keller. “I’d like to thank Will Sherwood for helping me here with him and Finn [Sherwood] for helping me warm him up today, he showed him in the Lead Line.”

Green Reiner Level 2 High Point Champion
Anne Kayl & Chic Magnito

The Wheless Arena has been good to Anne Kayl. In 2020, she won the Green Reiner high point buckle for both levels. Now eligible only for Level 2, she competed in both slates, finishing second on Sunday to claim the high point buckle yet again. “This was a great way to finish out the week,” she said. “My run today went a little better, and I still have some things to work on, but it was a nice, good run to end on.”

Kayl’s equine partner is Chic Magnito, a 10-year-old by Magnum Chic Dream. “He’s the most patient soul for me, and he is the best horse I could ask for as a starter reiner,” she said. “He is very patient, honest, and he is teaching me a lot. I hope we can keep going for a couple years.”

Kayl rides with Steve Archer. “I have known the Archers for about 20 years or so. I thank Steve and Andrea for all their help. Steve was the one who found this horse for me, so all the thanks go to him and everyone at Team Archer. We have a great group of people we show with,” she said. “I also thank my family for being patient and supporting me, the one horse person in the family.”

Green Reiner Level 2 (2)

Stormi Carpenter & Hollywood Nites

With a score of 71, Stormi Carpenter won the second slate of the Green Reiner Level 2. Her partner for the event was Hollywood Nites, by Gunners Special Nite out of Dun It For Chex. “I bought him at the Quarter Horse World, so it’s only been a few months. This is our second show,” Carpenter shared.

The 8-year-old gelding has lifetime earnings nearing $93,000. “He’s just really good at taking care of me. Today’s run went really well. All week long I was having some consistency problems trying to step up, and then I realized I needed to relax and just do what we could,” she said. “Today we had a nice, smooth, and easy run.”

Carpenter rides with Lorenzo Concarella of Alvin, Texas. “I thank Lorenzo for his help, as well as my mom. If she wasn’t here to watch my two children it would be impossible,” she explained.

Green Reiner Level 1 High Point and Level 1 (2) Co-Champion – Angie Pennington & Kentucky Crome

After winning both levels of the Green Reiner on Saturday, Angie Pennington and Kentucky Crome returned to the Wheless on Sunday to tie for the win of the Level 1, cinching the Level 1 high point buckle. The pair also tied for third in the Level 2.”

“I went in there today, and I could tell she was really tired. So I just went at a relaxed pace so I wouldn’t run out of horse,” Pennington said of the mare. “I thank my trainer Jared Leclair. This is our second show together with Jared, and I have won a buckle at both shows, so I am excited about what is to come.”

Green Reiner Level 1 (2) Co-Champion
Katlin Lucas & Thetroublewithginger

After a less-than-stellar performance in the first slate of the Green Reiner, Katlin Lucas and Thetroublewithginger returned to the Wheless looking for redemption. The duo got it, tying for the win of the Green Reiner Level 1. “Yesterday was kind of a disaster, so it felt really good to come back today and do better,” Lucas shared.

Lucas’s horse, Thetroublewithginger, is a 12-year-old by Allmytroublesareover out of Lenas Ginger. “He looks like a macaroni, so that’s his name. I’ve had him for a long time, but this is our first show in four years,” she said. “He was amazing. He did the best he’s ever done for me. He was a good boy and we figured it out.”

Lucas rides with Shevin Haverty. “She’s the best. She’s my best friend and has really helped me. I also thank my boyfriend David and my family, Mary and Ashley. Without them I couldn’t do this,” she said.

“Crushing the Fees”

With the Short Stirrup and Youth divisions kicking off today in Wheelless Arena, it's only fitting to recognize PS Mega Shine Chic, affectionately known as "Crush," and owners Brad and Amanda Kelly at Adh Mor Ranch for instituting a program to benefit the next generation of reiners by "Crushing the Fees." No entry fees are charge to any of our NRBC youth riders because Adh Mor Ranch and Crush pay them all!

Crush, a 6-year-old stallion by Shine Chic Shine and out of Megs Sugar Baby, was the 2017 and 2019 NRBC Level 3 Open Champion and 2017 Level 4 Open Co-Reserve Champion.

said. "I love his stops. I love his blue eyes too."

Gonzales is 13 years old and enrolled in homeschool, which allows for more time to enjoy her favorite activity, which she says is riding. Gonzales thanked her parents and trainers for their guidance and support. "I want to thank my parents, Tracey and Steven, and my trainers, Thiago Sobral, and Emily.

14 & Under - Lisa Pirtle & Neon Pepto Sign

Riding her 8-year-old mare Neon Pepto Sign, 17-year-old homeschool student Lisa Pirtle claimed the win in Friday's Youth 14 & Under and Unrestricted Youth with a score of 72.5.

Pirtle has traveled from her home in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, for the past several years to compete at the NRBC. Neon Pepto Sign, sired by Peptoleap and out of Neon Cola Sign, has been teamed with Pirtle for the past three years as well. Pirtle said their run today was smooth and solid, as is characteristic of her mare. "It was really good, she did everything perfect for me, her rundowns and her circles. She slowed down really nice for me.

"I thank my trainers, Dave [Moore] and Nikki [Tyndall], and my family for supporting me and also the team members at Dave Moore Barn."

13 & Under - Juliana Gonzales & SS Frankie Blue Eyes

Juliana Gonzales and her 8-year-old gelding SS Frankie Blue Eyes, aka "Frankie," scored the Youth 13&Under win today with a 71.5. SS Frankie Blue Eyes is by NRHA $2 Million Sire Spooks Gotta Gun and out of the mare Tuck-achic.

"I'm from Houston, Texas, and I've been showing my horse Frankie for about the past two months," Gonzales

10 & Under Short Stirrup Joy Deary & Chicsdundreamin

Winning Friday's popular 10 & Under Short Stirrup class was Joy Deary, age 9, of Weatherford, Texas, riding Chicsdundreamin. Joy said her favorite part of her crowd-pleasing, class-winning 74-point performance was "The stops. He's very sweet and he does really big stops," she said.

Chicsdundreamin is a horse that is beloved by the entire Deary family and everyone at Casey and Nicole Deary's ranch. The 2007 golden palomino belongs to Nancy Stillwell, who is Nicole's mother. "I thank my grandma for letting me show him," Joy said.

The future clearly looks bright for the next generation of reiners coming out of Deary Ranch. "She's very driven to do well and excited for the opportunity to get to show," echoed Nancy. "She loves to prepare; she studies the patterns and she's so excited to get to do this. This is going to be a fun journey."

Chicsdundreamin is by NRHA $6 Million Sire Magnum Chic Dream and out of the mare Goody Goody Gum Drop.

Youth 13 & Under [2] & High Point

Juliana Gonzales & SS Frankie Blue Eyes

Juliana Gonzales and her 8-year-old gelding SS Frankie Blue Eyes, aka “Frankie,” scored the Youth 13 & Under win Saturday with a 143. SS Frankie Blue Eyes is by NRHA $2 Million Sire Spooks Gotta Gun and out of the mare Tuck-ahic.

“I am so excited, and I can’t believe this is real,” said the 13-year-old equestrian from Houston, Texas, when asked how it felt to win multiple titles at NRBC. “We practiced a lot to get ready and tried to stay calm. Before I show I think about some of the maneuvers in my pattern that I might be struggling with and how I’ll fix that for the run.”

Gonzales thanks her parents, Tracey and Steven, and her trainers, Emily and Thiago.

10 & Under Short Stirrup [2] & High Point

Joy Deary & Chicsdundreamin

Sweeping both slates of the 10 & Under Short Stirrup class was Joy Deary, age 9, of Weatherford, Texas, who rode Chicsdundreamin to a 72.5. On Saturday, Joy said her favorite part of the run was the spins. “Those were fun,” she said, adding that when she got back to the stalls with Chicsdundreamin she would “probably give him a bunch of treats.” And for good reason, because Chicsdundreamin helped Joy win the first trophy buckle of her fledgling career by winning the NRBC Short Stirrup High Point.

Chicsdundreamin is part of the Deary family. The 2007 gelding that now belongs to Nancy Stillwell, who is Nicole Deary’s mother and Joy’s grandmother, was formerly owned by Betty Schroeder. After Schroeder lost her battle with cancer several years ago, Chicsdundreamin ended up right where she wanted him to be, with the Deary’s. Chicsdundreamin is by NRHA $6 Million Sire Magnum Chic Dream and out of the mare Goody Goody Gum Drop.

“I thank Katie Davis for helping me ride him,” said Joy. “Also, my grandparents and my mom and dad.”

Joy wasted no time in donning her new buckle.

RFD-TV SHOW HORSE OF THE WEST KICKS OFF “SHORT STIRRUP SERIES” AT THE 2021 NRBC

The NRBC has long enjoyed the coverage provided by Horse of The West (formerly NRHA Inside Reining), and the 2021 event will again be featured on the popular RFD-TV program.

In 2021 Sandbur Productions, creator of Horse of the West, is celebrating 20 years of reining coverage with the “Short Stirrup Series”. At each of the five reining events the show is covering this year, Horse of the West will offer a special sponsorship to the 10 and under class and feature the top two finishers in the TV show.

Jenifer Reynolds of Sandbur Productions says, “We want to showcase our youngest riders and encourage their involvement with horses. In a world of parents worried their kids are spending too much time on their phones and computers, we hope the Short Stirrup Series will encourage families to get their kids out of the house and onto the back of a horse.”

“Our youngest riders are critical to the future and so darn cute, we know they will make us all proud in the TV show,” says Cheryl Cody. “We’re grateful to Sandbur Productions and Horse of the West for their support.”

TSC/EKIJOINT GOLD/MULTI RADIANCE LASERS JOIN NRBC SPONSOR FAMILY FOR 2021

“We love horses, and we love helping them feel their best,” said Casey Sorita. Sorita is an owner and representative for Therapy Corner Store, EKI Joint Gold, and Multi Radiance Lasers, the three entities that have combined to become one of the newest Gold Plus sponsors of the National Reining Breeders Classic.

Sorita was first introduced to reining by NRBC Board Member Colleen McQuay. “I met Colleen a few years ago on the hunter/jumper circuit, and was brought in to work on their reiners. I fell in love with the atmosphere, the people, and the horses, and committed to myself that one day I would be involved with reining on a bigger scale,” she shared.

Therapy Corner Store, known as TCS to most in the industry, has a diverse tool chest of treatments. “We incorporate a lot of different modalities into our body work, and lasers are one of them. That is where Multi Radiance Lasers come into our sponsorship. They are the official laser of the World Equestrian Games and the Olympics,” Sorita explained. “It is the safest yet strongest cold laser on the market with 39 peer reviewed published studies to do date. It can allow trainers and grooms to easily treat swelling, inflammation, and relieve pain on the spot. In addition, there is a unique blue light mode that can heal fungal, bacterial, dermatitis issues, and more. That could be scratches, proud flesh, and even MRSA.”

The third facet of the sponsorship is EKIJoint Gold.

“EKIJoint Gold is designed to protect and repair joint cartilage, which is the very base of joint health. Not only will it protect it, but it will lay down new faux cartilage to restore the integrity of the joint. We know there is plenty of wear and tear to soft tissue structures with the intense maneuvers of reining athletes,” explained Jamie Collin, owner for the U.S. side of EKIJoint Gold and the main representative for Multi-Radiance Lasers. “This product keeps the inflammatory markers down from the inside out, and assists with increased absorption of all nutrients. In addition, it has been proven to reduce bone spurs, heal OCDs, improve bone density, manage ring bone, increase synovial fluid, and more.”

As equine performance bodyworks specialists, The TSC/EKIJoint Gold/Multi Radiance team is staying busy during NRBC, treating horses, dogs, and people to keep everyone in top shape. The booth is located next to the coffee shop. “Ross Alexander and I are here and can take appointments at the show all week. We are out in the barns a lot, but our contact information is on the sign at the booth, and people can call or text us. There are so many things we can help with, and we would love to meet everyone,” Sorita explained.

For more information about any of the products, find Therapy Corner Store on Facebook, SoundnessSolutions.com, and check out the “Real Results” page at EKIJointUSA.com to see before and after radiographs and ultrasounds for yourself.

NRHA HALL OF FAME NOMINATION DEADLINE IS JUNE 1

The National Reining Horse Association’s Hall of Fame is a collection of exceptional individuals, both human and equine. These industry pillars have contributed to the reining industry through immeasurable avenues. In the NRHA

Hall of Fame, their accomplishments and extraordinary contributions of time, expertise, financial support, and commitment live on as their legacies.

The 2021 Hall of Fame inductees will be formally recognized during Sliders' Night Out presented by Toyon Ranch. This very special event will be held December 1 during the NRHA Futurity and Adequan® North American Affiliate Championships.

NRHA Hall of Fame Committee Chairman Mike Hancock takes his position very seriously. "When I look back at all the previous Hall of Fame members, I am proud to say I knew most of them and saw most of the horses show," he said. "They defined our industry, and it is important to remember them."

The honor bestowed on these individuals by inclusion in the Hall of Fame is as immense. Inducted into the NRHA Hall of Fame in 2017, Rosanne Sternberg remembers the emotional moment well. She said, "Being recognized by induction into the NRHA Hall of Fame is such a massive and cherished honor for a member. The association has been a wonderful organization to be part of. Meeting, learning from and working with many talented and dedicated people, who are fellow enthusiasts of the sport, give a lifetime of invaluable memories which accepting this honor commemorates."

The deadline to nominate an individual or horse is June 1. Reining Horse Foundation Executive Director Leslie Baker explains the selection process. "From the applications, the committee determined the nominees and then the NRHA Board and Hall of Fame members select people and horses worthy of reining's highest honor. It is then the privilege of the Reining Horse Foundation to celebrate these individuals at our annual gala event. It is a wonderful collaboration."

The path to nomination is rigorous in order to uphold the integrity of the Hall of Fame and the honor of the title. Hancock commented, "The criteria allow significant people and horses to be recognized for their contributions in and out of the arena. Coaches, breeders, outstanding sires or dams, owners or major influencers in the industry are all considered in the selection process. However, it is important that all are measured by the criteria that was established by the NRHA Board of Directors."

Individuals are nominated by NRHA members, and the Hall of Fame Committee screens the nominees. Qualifying nominations are then brought before the NRHA Board of Directors and previous Hall of Fame inductees. Their attributes will be weighed against those of other nominees and a two-thirds majority vote must be achieved. The Nomination Criteria and Hall of Fame Nomination Forms can be found at nrha.com/forms.

2021 AUSTRIAN REINING FUTURITY CELEBRATES ITS 15TH ANNIVERSARY

What a year for an anniversary: the Austrian Reining Futurity will take place for the 15th time this year!

In a time of pandemic-related imponderables, this event, which has been one of the top 25 reining shows in the world for years, is once again expected to be a top-class show with the best conditions for horse and rider. The feasibility of this event, even in these times, has already been proven last year by host and show manager Helmut Schulz. Riders and owners are looking forward to the 15th Austrian Reining Futurity taking place in Wiener Neustadt August 17 - 21. Meanwhile the judges are decided: Maik Bartmann (GER), Simon Friedle (AUT), Adam Heaton (GBR), Sylvia Katschker (AUT) and Enrico Righetti (ITA). More details will follow.

The Reining Futurity ancillary classes will start on August 17. From August 18 on, the Futurity classes for 3- and 4-year-old horses are scheduled. The Austrian Futurity is open to all horses and will feature four levels each in Open and Non Pro. In the Futurity classes, both 3- and 4-year-old horses can be shown either two-handed in a snaffle bit or hackamore or one-handed in a bit. For the benefit of the Austrian Reining Futurity, there will again be a stallion service auction featuring top-class stallions. All classes are NRHA approved.

Austrian Futurity Horses do not have to be paid in anywhere

When the first Austrian Reining Futurity & NRHA Show was held in 2007, hardly anyone would have dared to hope that it would become such a success. Today, this event has become a permanent fixture in international reining sport, attracting the best riders from all over Europe to Wiener Neustadt every year. Trade media from all over Europe as well as the American Reiner Magazine report about the Austrian Reining Futurity. Almost every European nation has been present among the participants except for Portugal, Spain and Norway. The show is not only known for attractive prize money and excellent conditions but is also unique in that the Futurity horses do not have to be paid in any program.

Copied, but never Equaled:

THE SCORE - the Austrian Futurity Magazine

The daily show magazine THE SCORE has been accompanying the AustrianRHA Futurity since 2010. The coveted newspaper in German and English is available every show day and can also be found online on the websites of various trade media.

Austrian Reining Maturity adds to program

In 2019, Helmut Schulz supplemented his program with the Austrian Reining Maturity, which will be held this year September 23 - 26, 2021. The show for 5- to 15-year-old reining horses was received with enthusiasm right away. The Austrian Reining Maturity & NRHA Show is open to all horses. The Open and Non Pro Maturity are advertised in four levels each. All classes are NRHA approved.

CREATIVITY COMES TO LIFE IN NRHYA ART & PHOTO CONTEST SPONSORED BY THE NATIONAL COWBOY & WESTERN HERITAGE MUSEUM

The National Reining Horse Youth Association boasts a skilled group of members. Not only do these youth compete in the show pen, many have other talents. Thanks to a partnership with the National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum, some of the more creative members can compete for major recognition.

“We are thrilled that the NRHyA has once again partnered with the National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum for the 2021 Art & Photo Contest. Last year this partnership not only created prize incentives for the winners but also allowed young artists to get exposure in a public setting,” explained Sara Honegger, NRHA Manager of Youth & Professional Programs. “Last year 17 NRHyA members participated with more than 30 entries. We hope to have even more of our members enter the contest this year.”

NRHyA President Olivia Klug entered the contest, finishing first in the Mixed Medium division for the 14-18 age group. “I chose to participate in the art contest last year because I thought it was a good opportunity to show something I am passionate about. I have always loved art, but have never had the chance to display my work. The NRHyA Art & Photo contest was the perfect way for me to share that part of me,” Klug said.

As in 2020, first place in each age group of each category will be displayed June 17–27 at the National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum for visitors to see during the 2021 NRHA Derby presented by Markel Insurance.

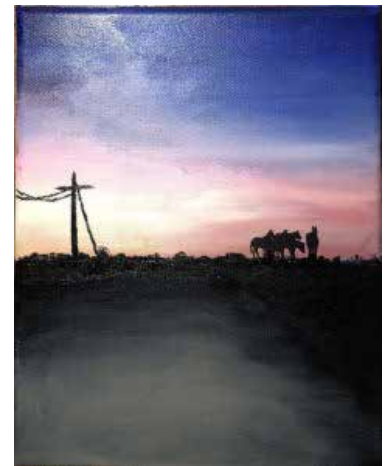

“Having my work displayed at the National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum was a surreal feeling. The museum is one of my favorite places to visit in Oklahoma. I felt extremely fortunate to have my work there along with that of many other talented artists. I cannot describe how grateful I am to the National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum for providing the NRHyA this opportunity,” Klug noted.

Judges for this year's contest include NRHA Commissioner Gary Carpenter, Michael R. Grauer, McCasland Chair of Cowboy Culture/Curator of Cowboy Collections and Western Art at the National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum; and Steve Miller, vice president, event marketing at NRHA Corporate Partner Montana Silversmiths.

Entry forms for the 2021 NRHyA Art & Photo Contest can be found at bit.ly/2021NRHyAArtPhoto. Entries will be accepted until May 14.

Klug added, “I would tell anyone considering entering the Art & Photo contest to do it! For a while I was nervous about entering my work, but I am so thankful I did. I enjoyed being able to see everyone's entries, and I would love to see yours too! Each piece entered has a special story behind it, and NRHyA would love to be able to help display it.”

TAMARACK RANCH OPEN STAKES DEBUTS AT NRHA DERBY PRESENTED BY MARKEL

Thanks to National Reining Horse Association Corporate Partner Tamarack Ranch, 4-year-old reining horses will have the chance at even more money at the 2021 NRHA Derby presented by Markel. That's because the Oregon-based ranch is the sponsor of the new $40,000-added Open Stakes!

The Tamarack Ranch Open Stakes is open to 4-year-old horses. The Stakes will run concurrently with the NRHA Derby go-rounds, and while cross-entry into the NRHA Derby is allowed, it is not mandatory.

“Suzy Simar and Tamarack Ranch have supported NRHA for several years through corporate partnership and before that, event sponsorship. This year, 4-year-old horses have the opportunity to compete for big money,” noted Sammi Miller, NRHA Senior Director of Corporate Relations and Communications. “Thank you to Gabe Hutchins of Tamarack Ranch for sponsoring the new division. Tamarack Ranch is forward-thinking and committed to raising the bar at events. When they saw a need in our industry, they worked to find a solution. As with so many of our corporate partners, that kind of initiative and dedication has helped NRHA thrive over the years.”

Hutchins, head trainer for Tamarack Ranch, shared the thought behind the Stakes. “We just saw a big need for more promotion of our 4-year-olds, especially since the derbies have been changed to include 7-year-olds. That’s a big change in horsepower over that age range,” he shared. “We thought we could give 4-year-old horses the opportunity to show one more year for good money while not having to compete against the older, more finished horses.”

Hutchins and Simar spent time discussing the idea with other owners and trainers before presenting it to NRHA. “We believe in the welfare and longevity of the horse and giving those 4-year-old horses another year to finish and get ready will help them in the long run,” he said.

He added that the feedback from fellow trainers has been overwhelmingly positive. “I have spoken with a few just in the last week who told me they hadn’t planned to bring a 4-year-old to the Derby but would now.” He added, “We are committed to sponsoring the Open Stakes for the next three years, and hope it takes off and is accepted like we feel it will be.”

Tamarack Ranch, located in Joseph, Oregon, focuses on raising, selling, and showing elite reining horses. “We are just now coming into year five, and it takes a while to get into full swing. Now our breeding program is going, and we have quality horses, from yearlings to show horses, to sell and we have a good show string, too,” Hutchins shared. “It feels phenomenal to start seeing horses we have raised go compete and do well.”

For questions or to schedule a visit, please e-mail tamarackranchreiners@gmail.com, or call (260) 249-0158 or (260) 416-1377. Be sure to visit the website at www.tamarackranchreiner.com.

BOB'S CUSTOM SADDLES EXPANDS NRHA SPONSORSHIP WITH SHOWDOWNS

Exhibitors competing in select divisions at the 2021 National Reining Horse Association Adequan® North American Affiliate Championships can earn the opportunity to perform center stage in the Jim Norick Coliseum. That is because longtime NRHA Corporate Partner Bob's Custom Saddles has expanded its sponsorship to include a bonus round for three classes.

Those classes – Intermediate Non Pro, Intermediate Open, and Rookie Level 2 – will be held in the Adequan® Arena, with entries competing for 2021 Adequan® NAAC titles. The top 10 for each class (plus ties) will earn a spot in one of the Bob's Custom Saddles Showdowns.

A staggering $10,000 will be awarded during the Showdowns for each class. That means that, for no additional entry fee, the Bob's Custom Saddles Showdown Champion will win $5,000, the reserve champion will take home $2,500, third will receive $1,500, and fourth will earn $1,000. Money won in the Showdown will be considered Category 7 affiliate earnings.

“There are so many exciting aspects to this new sponsorship, and we are thrilled for our NAAC competitors to have this opportunity. Someone could win both an NAAC Championship and a Bob's Custom Saddle Showdown title, but it also gives someone who might not have shown their best in the Adequan® Arena a redemption round,” noted NRHA President, Rick Clark. “We appreciate Chris Weaver of Bob's Custom Saddles for always stepping up when there is an opportunity to grow our sport and support our riders.”

Chris Weaver, Vice President of Bob's Custom Saddles, noted, “We are focusing on growth for the reining industry and for ways to attract new people and increase the longevity of the sport. This sponsorship is based on not only expanding the overall Futurity but also strengthening the reining industry.”

The Bob's Custom Saddles Intermediate Non Pro and Intermediate Open Showdown will be held Friday, Dec. 3, and the Bob's Custom Saddles Rookie 2 Showdown will be held on Saturday, Dec. 4.

The new Showdown format will also apply to the Toyon Ranch Rookie of the Year. Rookie Level 1 riders will compete for Toyon Ranch Rookie of the Year honors in the Adequan® Arena, and then the top 10 in that class will also advance to the Toyon Ranch Showdown, which will run concurrently with the Bob's Custom Saddles Rookie Level 2 Showdown on Saturday, Dec. 4.

“The reining industry as a whole is blessed with many generous sponsors, and Bob's Custom Saddles and Toyon Ranch are two of the best. Their vision is to grow this sport beginning with specific NAAC division while benefiting the industry as a whole,” noted Senior Director of Corporate Relations and Communications, Sammi Miller.
