The Best of the West Reining & Southwest Affiliate Regional Championships, held October 5-10, 2021 in Scottsdale, Ariz. provides reiners from across the world a friendly affordable place to show. With derbies, futurities, two full slates of ancillary classes, and innovative new classes and awards like the Long Stirrup classes and Never Won A Buckle awards, there truly is something for everyone. The beautiful venue, surrounded by mountains and cacti, in the pleasant fall weather of the desert, has cuisines for all tastes nearby. With impressive payouts on top of all of that, the Best of the West is not a show to miss.

While Andrea Fappani has long been a fixture on the leaderboards, Ruben Vandorp has been coming in hot. The two NRHA Professionals ran head-to-head in the Best of the West Futurity on two great 3-year-olds.

Ruben Vandorp on Mr Fahrenheit

The scores were big at the Best of the West Open Futurity, but Ruben Vandorp scored a huge 224 ½ to claim a Level 4 Open Futurity Co-Championship.

“I was a little bit nervous because I knew I had a good horse,” said Vandorp. “It’s a lot harder to show one that can actually do it, and I thought ‘this could actually happen.’”

That horse was Mr Fahrenheit, owned by Morin and Vandorp, out of NRHA 4 Million Dollar Sire Magnum Chic Dream and out of Wimpy Little Girl. “He felt really good, turned good, circled real easy, and ran and drug his butt. I was very happy with him! He’s awesome,” Vandorp continued.

He thanked his whole team: Max and Alexis Morin, his wife, farrier, and vets. “It takes a lot of people to make me look good,” He chuckled.

Andrea Fappani on No Photos

The trip from Mexico proved advantageous for a 2-year-old colt known as No Photos. He went into training with Andrea Fappani who rode him to a 224 ½ at the Best of the West winning a Level 4 Open Futurity Co Championship.

No Photos, by NRHA Million Dollar Sire Shine Chic Shine and out of Stop Like A Dream, is owned by Teton Ridge Ranch.

“My wife and I fell in love with him right away,” said Fappani. “He really fit me from the start.”

After showing in Tulsa, the Fappani knew what they needed to work on, and it paid off.

Fappani plans to ease No Photos through a pattern on Sunday to give him a good experience in the arena. After the Best of the West, he plans to go to some schooling shows to get ready for the NRHA Futurity in Oklahoma City.

Fappani thanked his crew at Fappani Performance Horses, the breeder, Gilberto Leal, and Teton Ridge Ranch.

Miss Modern Vintage carries Marco Ricotta to the Open Futurity Level 3 Championship

On his own, home-raised filly, Marco Ricotta scored a 223½ to win the Level 3 Open Futurity at the Best of the West.

Miss Modern Vintage is by Platinum Vintage and out of Miss Whizzletown. “We are really proud of her,” Ricotta said. “She was really good here at the Best of the West. She is really solid and strong.”

The team plans to continue to prepare the mare for the NRHA Futurity in Oklahoma City at home.

Ricotta thanked his crew, his customers, and his wife, Jenny.

NVR Lil Ruf Tinker & Cody Stark Claim Level 1 Open Futurity Win

Cody Stark teamed up with NVR Lil Ruf Tinker to win the Level 1 Open Futurity with a score of 219. The sorrel mare, owned by Sandy and Gary Vickery, is by NRHA 4 Million Dollar Sire Tinker With Guns and out of Ruf Dixie Chic.

Stark knew going in that if he made it thru his turn-arounds and circles, she would take it from there. "When I got through that, I put my hand down and ran and stopped her. She did what she always does: stopped big and rolled back really good," said Stark. "All the credit goes to her."

The Vickerys and Stark look forward to a small futurity near Stark's home in Hodgekiss, Colo. to complete the filly's year and have high hopes for her in the 4-year-old derbies next year.

"I would like to thank my wife, Kelsey, and the mare's owners, Gary and Sandy Vickery," Stark said.

Lucca Fappani and Talladega Ice claimed the win in the Level 4 Non Pro Futurity at the Best of the West with a score of 219½.

LUCCA FAPPANI RIDES TALLADEGA ICE TO THE NON PRO FUTURITY LEVEL 4 CHAMPIONSHIP

"He's a big stopper, he tries hard every time, when you go in you don't have to stress about it, you know he is going to stop," said Fappani. "He turned good both ways just like outside. He was with me the whole time. It was really clean, and we had some good speed, and I was happy because he didn't get excited at all. He stayed right with me then he ran down, and stopped big three times, I was really happy."

Fappani plans to school a little more in preparation for the NRHA Futurity in Oklahoma City.

Non Pro Futurity Level 3 won by Kylie Warn and Gunna Make Mischief

Gunna Make Mischief is by NRHA Million Dollar Sire Gunnatrashya and out of Mischievous Step. Warn bought Mischievous Step with Gunna Make Mischief on her side and says that the broodmare is a joy to have around for her son to ride.

“She is not a huge turner, but she got turned okay,” Warn said of Gunna Make Mischief. “She circled really good and stayed with me everywhere. She is a huge stopper so she got down the pen really well and got stopped. Now, I know I can go a lot faster on her.”

Warn plans to continue working and preparing for the NRHA Futurity in Oklahoma City and gives thanks to her husband, her trainer, Arno Honstetter, and his whole team at Story Book Stables.

Watching a foal grow up is rewarding but going on to win on the foal that you raised is icing on the cake. Kylie Warn and Gunna Make Mischief took top honors winning the Level 3 Non Pro Futurity at the Best of the West with a score of 214.

Robert Peterson claims Non Pro Futurity Levels 2 and 1 Co-Championships

With a 211½, Robert Peterson and Gotta Silver Gun tied for the win in both Levels 2 and 1 of the Non Pro Futurity at the Best of the West.

Gotta Silver Gun is by NRHA Triple Crown Winner Spooks Gotta Whiz and out of Miss Taris Rey. “He is really easy, good-minded, and makes it fun,” Peterson said. “He really shocked me. He made it fun to the left. The right he wasn’t with me as much, but he did his job. His stops were easy for him. He is a big stopper.”

Tiffany Bauer ties for the win in the Non Pro Futurity Levels 2 and 1

With a score of 211 1/2, Tiffany Bauer earned co-championships in both Levels 1 and 2 of the Non Pro Futurity riding Lida Spook (Gunners Tinseltown x Spook A Lida), owned by her mother, Brenda Andrews. The pair have only been together since August.

Lida Spook is Bauer’s first Futurity horse, and it has been a change. When asked the difference between her Derby horses and Futurity horse, she said, “[Futurity horses] are just so pure. They are waiting for you to tell them what to

ANDREA FAPPANI RULES THE BEST OF THE WEST OPEN DERBY TYING HIMSELF ON CEE MR STOP AND TRASH TALKIN SPOOK

Winning the Best of the West Open Level 4 Derby is a feat in itself and tying yourself is incredible; however, that is exactly what Andrea Fappani did.

Cee Mr Stop (Hollywoodstinseltown x Cee Miss Hollywood) owned by Kelly Moran and Trash Talkin Spook (Gunnatrashya x I Spook) owned by Marilyn Overgaard both scored big to take home the win.

Fappani says these horses are a prime example of how great the judging system is. He said, “They are both very different types of horses, but it shows how you can do the pattern completely differently and come up with the same score at the end.” Fappani scored 224s on both horses.

Fappani thanked the owners, Kelly Moran and Marilyn Overgaard along with the whole Fappani crew.

Open Derby Level 3 Championship goes to Ronni Rey Gun ridden by Marie Kleiner

A last-minute decision can be risky, but it paid off for Marie Kleiner and Ronni Rey Gun when they scored a 221 to win the Open Derby Level 3.

Ronni Rey Gun, by NRHA Million Dollar Sire Gunnatrashya and out of Miss Taris Rey, is owned and shown by Mark Blake of Blake Performance Horses, LLC.

Kleiner said, “He didn't warm up quite as good as I wanted him to, but he went in there and was with me the whole time. I could push him in his circles, and he ran and stopped really good. I was very happy with him.”

She added that she is thankful for Craig, Mark, and the whole team at Schmersal Reining Horses.

Dallas Wedel guides Xtra Herecomesthesun to the Open Derby Levels 2 & 1 Championships

Dallas Wedel piloted Xtra Herecomesthesun, owned by Catherine Jooyan, to score a 217½, not only to win the Open Derby Level 2 but the Level 1 as well.

Wedel said that “Zia” was a challenge in the beginning, but he has learned a lot. “She thinks a lot - she wants to be ahead of me - so I’ve really had to think about how to get her to listen and not get ahead of me all the time and stay out of trouble,” he said.

The challenge proved to be worth it. “When they stop like she does, it doesn’t matter. She could be dumb, she could be really smart, like she is; You’re going to love her because she stops huge.”

Wedel thanked Zia's former owner Richard Martinelli for trusting him to find the mare, his wife and crew taking care of things at home, his friend, Garret Thurner, his mentor, Cyndi Harris, and the horse's owner Catherine Jooyan.

KRISTI WIGGINS ON RCS RAMIRO SWEEPS THE NON PRO DERBY AT BEST OF THE WEST

Kristi Wiggins and RSC Ramiro (Gunner x Shesa Wimp Lilqueen), owned by Everett Wiggins, swept the leaderboard in the Best of the West Non Pro Derby scoring a 219 to win Levels 4 – 1.

Wiggins has only owned RSC Ramiro for one year; the 2020 Best of the West was their first show together. “This year has been a whirlwind. We are finally getting each other figured out,” said Wiggins. “I am excited for what the future holds, and I hope we can keep going up from here, or at least stay consistent.”

Wiggins had one more class that week. She planned to show a different mare in the Novice Horse, and RSC Ramiro was to be shown by Marie Kleiner in the Open Derby.

Lauren Booth rides Trashin Your Dreams to the top of the Prime Time Non Pro Derby

With a score of 217½, Lauren Booth and Trashin Your Dreams (Gunnatrashya x Brennas Dream) tied for the win in the Prime Time Non Pro Derby.

The gelding is owned and raised by Booth and was named after Booth's late friend and horsemanship legend, Benny Guitron. "We showed his mom and raised him ourselves, it's been fun," Booth said. "Tracer Gilson was a Futurity finalist on him and won quite a bit on him, so he decided to let me start showing him. I showed him at Woodside, and we did really well there; this was my second time showing him. He was just solid in everything I asked of him. He's a fun one."

Future plans for the team are to compete in the Non Pro ancillary classes at the Best of the West and at the Cactus Reining Classic.

Addisyn Schmersal rides Face The Attitude to Youth 14-18 Derby Title

It was Addison Schmersal and Face The Attitude's (Pale Face Dunit x Miss Lil Addy Tude), final Derby together, and they sure didn't disappoint. The duo scored a 217 to win the Youth 14-18 Derby.

The team came together for a remarkable run. "She stopped really good, and circled good as well," Schmersal said. "She spun great, but the pattern was very long."

Schmersal will also be showing the mare in the Pro Amateur Stakes but is unsure of their plans for the next time they will show together.

Youth 13 & Under Derby Championship goes to McKenna Bein and Dee Jersey Boy

Being born during the Scottsdale Arabian Reining Show must have been good luck for McKenna Bein. She and Dee Jersey Boy (Yellow Jersey x Dual Dee Bay), owned by McKenna, herself, secured the win in the Youth 13 & Under Derby with a 204.

Bein has owned the 6-year-old gelding for two years. They have been working hard to get to this point where they can score big. Bein said, "I could have been a little better mentally, but he was good and picked up the slack.”

The team was only entered into the Derby, so it was their one and only chance at this show. “He has a lot of talent. He’s a one-of-a-kind horse and gives me his all,” Bein gushed.

The duo completed their time at the Best of the West with this win, but Bein’s next stop is Tulsa, Okla. for an Arabian show, where she will compete in the Arabian Horsemanship, Showmanship, Ranch Riding and Trail.

SOUTHWEST AFFILIATE REGIONAL CHAMPIONS CROWNED

ARC Open Co-Champion

Co-Champions Fred Bosscha & Ashley Wilson-Hammer

When NRHA announced the new Showdown format for the North American Affiliate Championships, Ashley Wilson-Hammer jumped at the chance to run for the extra payouts. Entering her usual derby horse, The Star Jersey (Yellow Jersey x Nicastar Lite), for owner, Patrick J Baxter, she did more than qualify. The dynamic duo also won an ARC Open Co-Championship when they scored a 72.

Despite not being able to prepare the horse as much as Hammer had planned, their run went smooth. “I haven’t shown him much outside, but he was great,” Hammer said. “He didn’t even know we were showing. It was super low stress for him.”

The team's next stop is the NRHA Futurity in Oklahoma City, where they look forward to the Affiliate Championships.

Bosscha and ARC Wimpysgottagun scored a 72 to win the ARC Limited Open Championship and ARC Open Co-Championship.

Bosscha and ARC Wimpysgottagun's owner, Barbara Townsend, challenged one another to qualify for the NRHA Affiliate Finals at the NRHA Futurity in Oklahoma City: him in the Intermediate and Limited and her in the Rookie.

"Today went really well. We only had a slight bobble that we will work on at home," said Bosscha. "I just love that horse. He is so easy and flashy."

Bosscha has big hopes for ARC Wimpysgottagun and his owner, Barbara Townsend, on Sunday to qualify for the NAAC in the Rookie. Then they are off to the North American Affiliate Championships.

ARC Rookie Professional Co-Champion

With a 69½, Bridgette LeeAnne Neese and Gunnaoutshinya (Gunnatrashya x Out Shinin Wimpy) a.k.a. "JD" owned by Seven Sisters Trust, scored a spot in the three-way tie in the ARC Rookie Professional.

JD was the very first horse Neese rode when she moved to Scottsdale, Ariz., to work for Marco Ricotta. Although he was a challenge to ride at first, Neese is proud of how far they've come.

"Who would have known that a year and a half later he would be in my string, and I would be showing him," said Neese.

Neese says he has been a lot of fun to show. "I am bummed it is his last derby year, but I look forward to showing in the Open next year."

Their run was a little rocky as JD was unsure of the cameraman's intentions, but the pair came together as a team to score big. "He was very good in the circles, slowed down nice, and turned good. He beat me to the first stop a little bit, but our next two stops were really good. He was really there for me," Neese shared.

The team will show Sunday in the Open slate before they begin preparing for the North American Affiliate Championships hosted by the NRHA Futurity in Oklahoma City.

ARC Rookie Professional Co-Champion

Rebecca Woodward makes the long trip to Scottsdale, Ariz., from Gordonville, Texas each year for the Best of the West. This year, she will return with at least an ARC co-championship in the Rookie Professional after she rode Riding Cromed Out Gunner to a 69½. The 9-year-old gelding, owned by Seven Sister's Trust, is by Cromed Out Mercedes out of Smoking Gypsy Rose.

Even though things didn't quite go as planned, the Gordonville, Texas resident and her mount made up for it in other parts of the pattern. "He came in there, and he came to show," said Woodward.

She has been riding Cromed Out Gunner for about two years and knows him well. She said with a chuckle, "He is an honest boy, and he's a little lazy."

After the Best of the West show, Cromed Out Gunner will resume his role as his owner's mount at the Select World before she and Woodward decide whether or not to also show him at the Paint World. Woodward looked forward to showing in the Pro Amateur class on Sunday for the first time to "have a little fun" with it.

She thanked all of her clients for trusting her with their horses, her husband for his support and for helping her make the, sometimes, long hauls across the country. She also said, "I always thank God for all the beautiful horses I get to ride."

ARC Novice Horse Open Level 2 Co-Champion

Linde Von Koeding and Shining On Spook (Smart Spook X Shining High Roller) shared the win in the ARC Novice Horse Open Level 2 with a score of 72 to bring home a check of $150.

Linde has had Shining On Spook for about a year and has been showing him a short 6 months. "He is very honest and very fun to show," Linde said. "We went to the center, and he did good. He fired in both turns really nice, and circled great. I was really happy. He was right there with me the whole time. He ran in and stopped really nicely along with the rollback. Overall, just a very clean run and performance."

The team plans to show again at the Best of the West in the ARC Open before deciding to attend the NRHA Futurity in Oklahoma City.

ARC Novice Horse Open Level 1/Level 2 Co-Champion

With a score of 72, Marco Ricotta and 4-year-old Mr Electric Spook (Mr Electric Spark x Whizin Off Spooks) won the ARC Novice Horse Open Level 1, and an ARC Novice Horse Open Level 2 Co-Championship. Mr Electric spook is owned by Buckshot Farms.

"He's coming along pretty good. I got him late this year," Ricotta said. "Compared to where we were in Vegas, he turned around pretty good. The shutoff happened a little too quick, and he sat back a little too much in the first right turn. The left turn was good - he shut off quick, so no penalty. In the left circle, he did good and came back a little too hard, but no penalties. The three stops and the left circle were the ones that got plus points.”

With The Best of the West being held so close to home, Ricotta is having a busy week. “Everyone wants to show here. It’s close and affordable,” he said. Ricotta also has several Derby and Futurity horses entered.

ARC Non Pro & ARC Prime Time Non Pro Champion

Morris Kulmer and his long-time partner, NVR What A Lucky Joe, a.k.a “Joe”, won the ARC Non Pro, Non Pro, Prime Time Non Pro, Masters Non Pro and the ARC Prime Time Non Pro with a score of 72½. Earlier in the week, they were co-champions in the Prime Time Non Pro Derby with a score of 217½.

This may have been the team’s final Derby, but Morris said Joe is one horse that will be with them forever and may even become a ranch horse for his wife. He said, “I got him as a 3-year-old. He just got a little better every year.”

The team looks forward to competing in the NAAC at the NRHA Futurity in Oklahoma City. “I think it’s a great opportunity. All of the new classes are great for getting more people interested,” he commented. “The sponsors are great, and I think it will only get better.”

Morris thanked the staff at the Best of the West, including Kathy Gould and her crew, Virtual Horse Help, Dan Huss and his crew for helping keep his horse going, God for letting him be on this earth this long, and his wife and family for their support.

ARC Intermediate Non Pro Champion

A 15-hour trip with a toddler, two 100-pound dogs, a husband, and a new horse can be intimidating, but it paid off big for Veronica Williams and Humble And Kind, a.k.a. “Rosie”, as they scored a 71 to secure the win in the ARC Intermediate Non Pro at the Best of the West.

Rosie is by NRHA Million Dollar Sire Gunnatrashya and out of Bejewled. Williams bought Rosie in July, so this was their first show together. “It was pattern 12 so it was a run-in and everything went well. She was with me everywhere.

We had some lead change issues, but other than that, she was really good,” said Williams. “We needed a confidence-building run, and she gave that to me.”

Williams gives thanks to her husband, Billy, their customers, clients, and friends. “It takes a village to show a horse,” she said with a smile.

ARC Limited Non Pro Co-Champion

With a score of 69 ½, Kalena Reynolds and Magnatize, affectionately known as “Thomas”, came together as a team to win a co-championship in the ARC Limited Non Pro. Thomas is by NRHA $4 Million Sire Magnum Chic Dream and out of Dunit N Continental.

While Reynolds admits that there is always something to improve, she is very proud of what they have accomplished thus far. “I have really been working on clicking with him in the stops, and making sure we get our rundowns good,” Reynolds said. “We did that, so I was very happy.”

The duo's next stop is the NRHA Futurity for the North American Affiliate Championships. “I think the new format is so cool, it gives so much opportunity for everyone who isn’t showing in the Futurities or the Derbies. It is going to grow our industry so much,” she said.

ARC Novice Horse Non Pro Levels 2 & 1 Champion

The objective for Mary Riley Cachat and her horse Spooks Show Biz (Spooks Gotta Whiz x Dolittle Lena) was to get a score so they could qualify for the North American Affiliate Championships. They did more than that when they scored a 70 and secured a co-championship in the ARC Novice Horse Non Pro Levels 1 and 2.

Riley is grateful for her mother, who has been a really big help and a great "show mom", and also her trainers, Mike and Kristi Berg.

ARC Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 Champion

Gayle Samuelson and her horse, Mob Money, scored a 70 to claim co-championships in the ARC Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 and the NRHA Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1. Mob Money is by HF Mobster and out of Whizin Off Spooks.

Samuelson said, “Pattern 3 gave us a lot of time to relax and get around the pen. He was relaxed and happy. It was really good.”

Under the help of her new trainer, Gabriel Borges, Samuelson has learned a lot and it shows. She commented, "Gabriel helps me tremendously. I learn so much every day.”

Samuelson is excited to be qualified for the North American Affiliate Championships at the NRHA Futurity in Oklahoma City.

ANCILLARY CIRCUIT CHAMPIONS AWARDED AT THE BEST OF THE WEST

Green Reiner Levels 2 & 1 Circuit Champion

Anyone who has won a buckle remembers their first one, and that will no doubt be the case for Robin Filbry after her successful weekend at the Best of the West. Filbry not only won her first buckle, but she will be going home with three, after scoring a 70½ on Red Hot Whiskey, securing the win in both levels of the Green Reiner ancillary class, both circuit buckles, and the new Never Won A Buckle award.

Red Hot Whiskey is by NRHA Million Dollar Sire Whizkey N Diamonds and out of Roosters Redhot.

Confidence was key to the team's success today. "This horse is super talented," Filbry said. "I just went in there today and said, 'we're doing this.' He also showed his heart off. We did it."

Filbry thanked Brent Naylor for getting them ready and believing in them.

ARC Youth 14-18 Champion

Kaylene Cunningham and her partner, KB Bucks N Guns a.k.a "Marcello", made top marks at their first show together scoring a 73 to win the ARC Youth 14-18 and tie for the High Point Championship. KB Bucks N Guns is sired by Gunner and out of Smart Whizzin Jenny.

"I just kinda waited for him to get under me, pushed him a little bit, then he was there," said Cunningham. "I didn't lose any control, and just let him do his job."

The team looks forward to attending the NRHA Futurity and the North American Affiliate Championships.

Cunningham thanked her Mom, her trainer, Shane Brown, and Marcello.

ARC 13 & Under Champion

The ARC 13 and Under Champion was Logan Flaherty riding Cashing Black Chex (Big Chex To Cash x Blazing In Black) to a score of 71.

This was the horse and rider team's first year showing together, and it has proven to be a favorable match. The team had a goal to qualify for the North American Affiliate Championships at the NRHA Futurity, and they did just that. "He was really, really good," Flaherty said. "Even though he was a little bit tired from showing last night in the Pro-Am, he did great."

The geldings' favorite reward is to have his gums rubbed after showing. "If you touch his lip, he will raise his lip for you to rub his gums and his teeth. He likes it."

Flaherty is thankful to Kim Nevin and Tim Anderson for allowing him to show Cashing Black Chex this year, and his dad, Patrick, for helping him, and his mom, Janelle, for always getting him ready.

ARC Short Stirrup Co-Champion

Layla Flaherty shared top honors in the ARC Short Stirrup class when she scored a 68½ to tie for the win. Flaherty rode SS Spyderman who is by NRHA 12 Million Dollar Sire

Topsail Whiz out of Chics Velvet Lady.

"He picked up the wrong lead to the right, but we are working on that. Overall, he was a really good boy," Flaherty said.

Flaherty's future goals with SS Spyderman include winning a Green Reiner class. She thanked her dad, Patrick, and SS Spyderman's owner, Jenny Ricotta.

ARC Short Stirrup Co-Champion

It was a successful show for Victoria McClure and her gelding, This Guns For You a.k.a 'Flash'. The 17-year-old campaigner is by Lil Gun out of Suzie San Badger. The team scored a 68½ to earn an ARC Short Stirrup Co-Championship at the Best of the West.

Although the partnership is new, it was evident that the horse and rider shared a connection and worked as a team. McClure shared, “I think I should have studied the pattern two minutes more, but the rest went really well. He’s a good boy.”

McClure thanked her trainer, Marie Kleiner, and as well as her parents.

ARC Prime Time Rookie Champion/ Prime Time Rookie Never Won A Buckle Winner

As the sun went down in Scottsdale and on an exciting week of showing at the Best of the West, there was still one team of champions waiting to be crowned. KC Belcher and the horse she leases from Kathryn Gabriel, Spookin in the Dark (Smart Spook x This Chex On Top), a.k.a. “Ace”, scored a 71 ½ to take home the title of ARC Prime Time Rookie Champions. Because she had never won a buckle before, Belcher was also the JW Performance Horses Prime Time Never Won A Buckle winner.

In the short year that Belcher has been leasing Ace, they have been quite the team. “He’s a cool horse. He steps up and does what you ask,” said Belcher. “He’s always there for me.”

After performing double duty for both Belcher and Gabriel this week, Ace still excelled to bring home the wins.

When asked who Belcher thanked, she was quick to give credit to her trainer, Ashley Kelkenberg, saying, “She is the best trainer that I could ask for. She is always there for us. Her advice and guidance have been the game-changer for me and Ace.” She also expressed gratitude to her daughter Samantha, her parents, and Gabriel.

Non Pro Circuit Championships Clean Sweep

The Non Pro ancillary circuit championships were cleanly swept away in Scottsdale, Ariz., at the Best of the West. Jan Peterson and Sunglasses At Nite kept their scores consistently high enough in the Non Pro, Intermediate Non Pro, Limited Non Pro, Prime Time Non Pro, and Masters Non Pro at claim High Point Buckles in each of those classes.

Sunglasses At Nite is sired by the All-Time Leading Siring son of Gunner, Gunners Special Nite, and out of Chexy Dun It.

Even after changing from split reins to romels, Sunglasses At Nite came to win. “It felt like a really good run, and I didn’t care about the score. We just wanted to get our lead changes on time, run long - all of the things that we have been trying to improve on.” said Peterson. “It’s nice hearing the score, but it’s more about having a really nice run on a horse we’ve been working really hard with. That was phenomenal!”

Peterson thanked her husband, her trainer, Andrea Fap-pani, his wife, Tish, Fappani's assistant, Erik Caddeo, who helps her most, and the entire Fappani crew. She said, "They have been phenomenal to ride with. It's been a really long year but a good one."

Short Stirrup Circuit Champion

William Solentor had a successful weekend at the Best of the West. After two consistent runs, he will return home with the Short Stirrup Circuit Championship.

Solentor was aboard Big League Yankee who is by NRHA Million Dollar Sire out of Cody Cee Cutter and owned by Ryan Mills. "He has been all over the world," Solentor said. "I am very lucky to have him."

The team plans to work on speeding up their spins while preparing for the next show, but before that, Solentor will give Big League Yankee his favorite treat: carrots.

"I would like to thank my grandma, my trainer, and my horse," Solentor said.

Long Stirrup 19 & Up Champion

Danielle Stutz and her horse, Colonel Hesa (Hesa Zee x Sheza Colonel Judy) a.k.a Colonel, switched things up from Ranch Riding to enter the new Long Stirrup 19 & Up class at the Best of the West.

The Long Stirrup classes are open to anyone who isn't entered into any other classes at the show. It allows people to have never shown a reiner before, such as parents, grooms, siblings, etc., to experience it. NRHA membership, ownership, and licensing are not required. Participants only need to be AZRHA members.

"It was really exciting to be in a brand-new class," said Stutz.

The team won the Long Stirrup with a score of 68½. They have been together for a year and a half, and "Colonel" is Stutz's first horse making this win extra special.

The Long Stirrup classes, which include a Youth 18 & Under and Adult 19 & Over, worked pattern B. "It's a little bit of a weird pattern, so it messed with my head a little bit," she explained. "He takes really good care of me, so I think our run went really well. I am pretty proud of myself, and I am super proud of him."

Stultz is thankful for her trainer, Jessica Bein, everyone at the barn, her husband, her kids, and her parents.

NRHA CEASES NEGOTIATIONS WITH FEI

The National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) and the Fédération Equestre Internationale (FEI) collaborated for more than 20 years to showcase and expand the sport of reining worldwide while creating historic memories valued by many.

Unfortunately, countless impediments throughout the relationship – legal, cultural, structural, and financial in nature – presented numerous hurdles over that time, and include recent FEI actions. Therefore, the NRHA leadership made the decision not to move forward with a new FEI agreement.

Although it was announced that FEI had terminated the original agreement in 2020, a new Memorandum of Understanding between the two organizations was approved by the FEI Board of Directors in June 2021. The NRHA Board of Directors, Executive Committee, and Task Force members were comfortable with that agreement, which would have created a framework for a limited group of international championships.

Then, an entirely different agreement was drafted and submitted to NRHA on September 15, 2021. “We are unsure of what led up to this development, and why NRHA was not consulted,” noted NRHA President Rick Clark. “At this time, the Executive Committee, with the support of the NRHA Board of Directors, has made the decision to not move forward with a new agreement with FEI.”

NRHA Commissioner Gary Carpenter expanded on Clark’s statement. “NRHA has worked diligently over the past two years to collaboratively negotiate a new agreement and made it a top priority for the association. Through our Executive Committee, Board, FEI Task Force, and staff, we remained fully committed to working closely with the FEI, and were excited for what the future held,” he said. “Unfortunately, a lack of direct and clear communication from FEI has been one of the biggest hurdles. We have constantly seen the goal post move further out of reach, to the point where a relationship is no longer feasible or beneficial to our members.”

Both Clark and Carpenter noted there is no ill will towards the FEI, its leadership, staff, and members. “We are thankful for everything the FEI has done for reining and the reining horse over the years, and proud that reining was able to contribute excitement in the form of an alternative discipline in the FEI World Equestrian Games™. We hope that in the future we may be able to work together in some capacity,” Clark shared.

ANDRE DE BELLEFEUILLE REACHES MILLION DOLLAR OWNER MILESTONE

One million. It’s a number that triggers a pause and invokes a moment of reflection regardless of the subject. For reining enthusiasts, one million is especially significant. A million dollars in earnings solidifies a place in National Reining Horse Association history books. Recently Andre De Bellefeuille and his businesses, Equine Plus and Ferme Equestre Excalibur, of Canada, became the association’s newest Million Dollar Owner.

“This (becoming an NRHA Million Dollar Owner) is quite an honor. I am only the second Canadian to reach this achievement. The beauty of this is that at least 50 percent of the earnings were achieved from horses from our breeding program,” De Bellefeuille shared. “We are very proud of that.”

It was just a couple of years ago that De Bellefeuille became a Million Dollar Breeder, with the cornerstone of his program being the incredible mare Snow Gun. Snow Gun, by NRHA $12 Million Sire Gunner, earned more than $120,000 in the show pen. She is the dam of De Bellefeuille’s stallion Electric Snow (by NRHA $3 Million Sire Jacs Electric Spark), who won more than $110,000. She also produced Yankee Gun (LTE $156,967), Gunstep ($58,456), Wimpys Snow Step (LTE $45,225), and Wimpys Snow Gun (LTE $31,013).

“Like I mentioned, a good chunk of our earnings as owners came from our breeding program, and the future growth as an owner and breeder will most likely come from the breeding of our stallion Electric Snow,” De Bellefeuille said. “We own many nice prospects and see a bright future for him as a sire. Many top breeders have seen the same thing we do and bred some of their good mares to him. As owners, we are fortunate to own nice horses such as Electric Snow, Snow Gun, and well as Its All About Smart and Whizicle.”

De Bellefeuille emphasizes his program’s focus on healthy and happy horses. “We are first and foremost horsemen, and the health of our horses is our first priority, and I am proud we have reached this point with sound and healthy horses,” he said. “To get to where we are, we had the help of many people and some fantastic riders. They are definitely part of our success and I thanked them for that.”

De Bellefeuille is more than just an owner. He himself has won more than $400,000 in competition. “We still ride two to three horses every day and compete, although unfortunately not much in the last year due to the limited number of shows and restrictions on travel,” he explained. Recently with one of his homebred horses Its All Gun (Its All About Smart x Snow Gun) he was Reserve Champion in Level 2, 3, and 4 and the Prime Time winner in the Non Pro Futurity at the All American Quarter Horse Congress.

While reining is still a developing sport in Quebec, its popularity is quickly growing thanks in part to the foresight of enthusiasts like De Bellefeuille. De Bellefeuille served as President and vice-president of the Association Québécoise de Reining (AQR) for more than a decade. In 2011 André was inducted to the AQR Hall of Fame. On a national level, André has fulfilled several positions; active on several NRHA committees, vice-president of Reining Canada, and also involved with the Cheval Quebec (Quebec Horse Federation) regarding their breeding programs. Many awards such as breeder of the year in Canada (the only person ever winning in a Western discipline) and several times winner in Quebec.

De Bellefeuille thanks his family, especially his wife Danielle, for their support, understanding, and for letting him live this crazy passion.

EVENT SPONSOR MENTAL ATHLETICS OFFERS FALL WORKSHOPS TO NRHYA MEMBERS

After the success of the summer workshops, NRHA Professional Gil Friedman of Mental Athletics is looking forward to the three additional sessions this fall that are aligned to be great preparation for the NRHA Futurity and Adequan® North American Affiliate Championships.

The workshops will be free of charge to all NRHyA members thanks to the event sponsorship provided by Mental Athletics, aimed to benefit the youth of the association. The sessions will provide knowledge, techniques and training tools for the personal development of every competitive rider.

“The journey starts now and it is a journey of learning,” said Friedman. “This is an opportunity to explore ourselves and open new doors that can empower us as competitors, youth and future leaders. Teamwork isn’t just between us and our friends, but us and our horses. This workshop will build upon the idea that you need to be the leader of that team as well.

“I truly believe that the youth of the NRHA are the future of our industry and will frame the competitive culture for years to come,” Friedman shared. “This group of young and passionate riders will one day be the leaders of our sport. Mental toughness is widely considered a foundation for the development of successful athletes and leaders in the world of competitive sports. The reining industry deserves those kinds of NRHA Manager of Youth, Professional and Affiliate Programs Sara Honegger says she is excited for the second series. “I believe all of the members who joined in the first sessions found so much benefit in and out of the show pen,” she said. “Gil has a great way of connecting with the youth and simplifying mental toughness to where it seems very attainable to everyone. Leading into the NRHA Futurity and Adequan® North American Affiliate Championships is a perfect time to sharpen that skill set.”

The scheduled dates for the first Mental Athletics Online Workshop are:

athletes and leaders.”

This will be the second three-part virtual workshop provided by Mental Athletics this year. The mindset coaching program practiced around the globe was thoroughly enjoyed by NRHyA members in June as a precursor to the NRHA Derby presented by Markel.

- Sunday, October 31 at 12:00 pm CT
- Sunday, November 7 at 12:00 pm CT
- Sunday, November 14 at 12:00 pm CT

METALLIC CAT TOPS ALL-TIME LEADING NRCHA SIRE LIST

In a dizzying ascent to the top of the National Reined Cow Horse Association's sire earnings list, Metallic Cat now sits at Number One. The red roan stallion's offspring has cut, reined and gone down the fence to the tune of more than $4,250,000*.

Owned by Bobby Patton's Rocking P Ranch, based in Patton's hometown of Weatherford, Texas, the 2005 stallion by High Brow Cat and out of Chers Shadow (by Pepto-boonsmal) supported reined cow horse before becoming the presenting sponsor of the NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity® in 2019, the year he also was named the NRCHA Sire of the Year. With this newest accolade, Metallic Cat continues to add to a résumé that began when the stallion was showing in the dirt at the Will Rogers Coliseum earning multiple National Cutting Horse Association titles.

Bred by the Roan Rangers and shown by Beau Galyean for then-owners Alvin and Becky Fults' Fults Ranch, the stallion never lost a cow in the cutting pen and amassed more than $637,000 in lifetime earnings.

"We are just thrilled he reached this milestone in such a short time," said Alvin Fults. "That was always a goal of ours when we started breeding with Metallic Cat to the cow horse industry breeders. The sky is the limit where he goes; there are lots of offspring showing and will be for many more years. Congratulations to Bobby Patton for all he's done to keep promoting Metallic Cat."

Patton acquired the stallion in 2015 a year after he had purchased Spots Hot, a cutting horse stallion that he said showed him what the breeding business was like.

"I could see an immediate return on investment in the breeding year following buying 'Spot.' That gave me a taste of stallion ownership and an understanding of the business," said Patton. "When I got Metallic Cat, I wanted to do something different to market him. I have to give Debbie [Roberts] credit because she thought it would be a good idea to branch Metallic Cat out to reined cow horses and that led to our involvement in the NRCHA. It made sense to me. At that time, I didn't have an appreciation of [cow horse] but I got educated and gained perspective on the industry."

In 2018, Metallic Cat became an NRCHA Million Dollar Sire and less than a year later surpassed the Two Million Dollar Sire mark. Metallic Cat passed the Three Million Dollar Sire mark in August 2020, and again took less than a year to pass his next major sire milestone. Now, a sire of NRCHA earners of more than Four Million Dollars, he joins only Shining Spark (Genuine Doc x Diamonds Sparkle x Mr Diamond Dude), bred and owned by Carol Rose, with that honor.

For 17 years, Shining Spark reigned as the king of cow horse sires. He reached all-time leading sire status first in 2003, and remained at the top until September of this year. He was the first sire to reach Three Million Dollar Sire status in the NRCHA and is the Number One Maternal Grand sire of Cow Horse Money Earners, according to Equi-Stat records. His highest money-earning offspring in the NRCHA is Smart Shinetta (out of Smart Hickory by Docs Hickory), a 2002 mare with $128,169.92 in the books.

“I want to tip my hat to Carol Rose and Shining Spark,” Patton said. “We may be the new leader in lifetime earnings, but that horse has had nearly 20 years atop the industry. There are a lot of Metallic Cat and Shining Spark crosses out there and that benefits our entire industry.”

California reined cow horse trainer and NRCHA Million Dollar Rider Clayton Edsall credits Metallic Cat’s ability to sire a trainable horse with the success offspring have had in the multi-discipline reined cow horse arena. Edsall trains and shows the top-earning offspring, Metallic Train (out of Sparking Train by Shining Spark). “Coco” and Edsall have laid claim to $172,250.02* in earnings, and most recently placed third in the Run For A Million Invitational Fence Work Challenge presented by Teton Ridge.

“Metallic Cat’s have so much stop and desire to work a cow. That is why time and again, we suggest that owners look at purchasing Metallic Cat offspring and also having customers breed their mares to him,” Edsall said. “They’re attractive but the biggest thing is that you have a trainable mind. One of the reasons you see so many Metallic Cats in the show pen, the winner’s circle and the sale is that they have the ability to be trained and be successful. I’ve found that even if one doesn’t make a cutting horse, it makes a cow horse or a rope horse. He checks a lot of boxes as a breeder—color, size and bone, athleticism and mind.”

With the multi-dimensional reined cow horse competition, and the steer stopping component of the World’s Greatest Horseman event, trainability comes into play just as much as athleticism. Metallic Cat’s top two NRCHA stallion offspring are both horses that have competed in all aspects of reined cow horse events. Call Me Mitch, a 2011 stallion out of Miss Hickory Hill (by Docs Hickory) and owned by the late Estelle Roitblat, has $171,376.71 in earnings and Cats Picasso, a 2012 stallion out of Playboys Vixen (by Hickoryote) and owned by Coast Performance Horses, has $159,096.60.

Though the older horses rise to the top of the 437-horse list of Metallic Cat’s offspring in the NRCHA database, the young performers are just as competitive. In April, 2016 stallion Hazardouz Material, out of Scooters Daisy Dukes, earned the NRCHA Stallion Stakes Open Championship for owner Linda Mars, and lifetime earnings to $104,517.62. In July, 2017 stallion Ricato Suave, out of Hip Hip Sue Rey and owned by Shaleah Hester and Madeline Fountain, took the Dom Conicelli Memorial Eastern Derby Open Derby Champion title to push that horse’s earnings to $104,601.49.

“This is a monumental moment for our industry, one in which we simultaneously honor the ongoing influence of the incomparable Shining Spark and celebrate the meteoric rise of Metallic Cat,” said Anna Morrison, NRCHA executive director. “Metallic Cat’s mark on reined cow horse is evident as you watch the athleticism and talent of his offspring in our arenas. We are grateful to Bobby Patton and Rocking P Ranch for their ongoing support of NRCHA, and are proud to celebrate this remarkable accomplishment with them.”

With all that he’s given to the equine industry as a $42 million dollar sire in cutting, reining and reined cow horse, Metallic Cat’s connections, led by long-time manager Roberts, continue to heavily support the NRCHA both in and out of the arena.

“A lot of people think of me as ‘an NCHA guy,’ but I want to emphasize how important NRCHA is to me,” said Patton. “It means a lot to me to support the NRCHA and continue our sponsorship, especially through the flagship event, which will be long-term. With the benefit of hindsight, Debbie had a lot of foresight looking at the NRCHA and wanting Metallic Cat and me to be involved.”

At this year’s NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity, presented by Metallic Cat, Rocking P Ranch is also supporting the event’s draw party and After Party.

The Snaffle Bit Futurity, presented by Metallic Cat, runs October 7 through 23 in Fort Worth, Texas. The Metallic Cat Snaffle Bit Futurity Draw Party is on October 20, and the Metallic Cat After Party allows the excitement of the Open Finals to spill outside into the Coliseum parking lot for food truck fun, live music and dancing, for the kind of celebration fitting for the Snaffle Bit Futurity. It will be a party fitting for the new NRCHA All-Time Leading Sire!

TETON RIDGE PARTNERS WITH NRCHA AS TITLE SPONSOR OF STALLION STAKES

The National Reined Cow Horse Association is excited to announce new corporate sponsor Teton Ridge. As part of their sponsorship, the second premier event of the 2022 show season is now the Teton Ridge Stallion Stakes. An event for 4- and 5-year-old reined cow horses annually held in Las Vegas, Nevada, the Stallion Stakes Derby is an event where eligibility to enter is restricted to offspring of stallions enrolled in the NRCHA's Subscribed Stallion Program. As the owner of NRCHA Breeder Sponsor stallion Smooth Talkin Style (sired by Smooth As A Cat), Teton Ridge is positioned to support this ever-growing event that shines a light on the reined cow horse breeding industry.

"Teton Ridge has made a significant impact on the equine industry in a short time," said Anna Morrison, NRCHA executive director. "This partnership with NRCHA links the momentum behind Teton Ridge with one of the fastest growing, most adrenaline-filled horse sports today."

Teton Ridge, owned by visionary entrepreneur Thomas Tull, has made its presence felt in the Western equine world of late as the multi-platform brand has stepped into the rodeo and performance horse arenas. The brand's focus on classic Western sports could not have found a better home than with NRCHA. With the title sponsorship of the NRCHA's Stallion Stakes, Teton Ridge invests in the most traditional of all Western performance events, as reined cow horse traces its roots to Vaquero horsemen who originally settled the West.

The Teton Ridge Stallion Stakes will be held at the South Point Hotel & Casino's Equestrian Center March 25 through April 2, 2022. In addition to supporting the Open Derby event, Teton Ridge's title sponsorship helps showcase all ages and levels of the NRCHA membership competing in horse show classes. Additionally, 2022 will be the first year that the NRCHA Hall of Fame Banquet will be held during the Stallion Stakes.

"A high energy brand that is focused on highlighting the way of life our members honor and live daily is a natural fit for our association," Morrison said. "Shared values make for a powerful partnership, and we're grateful to Thomas Tull and Teton Ridge for putting their support behind NRCHA and the Stallion Stakes."

With the Teton Ridge title sponsorship of the Stallion Stakes, the NRCHA has a full slate of premier events supported by outstanding brands and companies invested in the growth and sustainability of the NRCHA. Entries at all premier events in 2021 were between 15 and 30 percent higher than previous years, proving that reined cow horse is drawing members interested in having fun horseback while competing in events that require horse and rider to bring plenty of skill, courage, and grit.

About Teton Ridge

Teton Ridge is a multi-platform brand devoted to the iconic American Western way of life and western equine sports. Teton Ridge was created with the singular focus of elevating Classic Western Sports and America's Western Culture on the world stage, while broadening audiences around the globe as well as at home. Additionally, Teton Ridge operates a philanthropic foundation which provides invaluable funding for land stewardship; fosters community by preserving the cultural heritage of America's western culture; and ensures the future of ranching and riding sports.
