KOLE PRICE TAKES RUN FOR A MILLION CHAMPIONSHIP IN EXCITING RUN-OFF

When it comes to the 2022 The Run For A Million presented by Teton Ridge, the old adage of what happens in Vegas, stays in Vegas. Although fans of the sport who traveled to the gaming mecca were thoroughly entertained by the high-stakes event, the rest of the industry had to wait until the airing of the finale of CMT's "The Last Cowboy" to see the results, preserving the originality of the hit show to viewers.

In an event filled with seasoned competitors – all but four of the 15 had already won more than a million dollars in competition – Kole Price might have been deemed a long shot. He'd won his first check in reining just 12 years prior, and his lifetime earnings, approximately $600,000 at the time of the show, were the lowest of all the qualifiers.

It's a good thing that Price, of Pilot Point, Texas, didn't care about the odds. He and Gunna Stop (Gunnatrashya x Stop Little Sister) ran into the pen, nailing the first stop, then executing a run that electrified the standing-room-only crowd. When the score – a 228.5 – was announced, the crowd erupted.

There was still one more team to go, with an incredibly talented horse and a man who's stymied many championship dreams for fellow competitors. "I don't think you can ever be confident about your position when you have Shawn Florida competing after you," Price admitted.

Florida, an NRHA Six Million Dollar Rider, entered the pen on Spooks Gotta Spark (Spooks Gotta Whiz x Dolittle Lena), piloting the stallion through a precise and thrilling run. When 228.5 was announced as the score, the crowd cheered, then settled down to a roaring whisper as everyone waited to find if the two would remain co-champions, as happened at the inaugural Run For A Million, or if the title and historic check would be decided in a run-off.

It was to be a run-off, but with the welfare of the horses in mind, show officials gave the two teams ample time to cool off and regain their air.

When competition resumed, Price and Gunna Stop went first, marking a 224. Florida and Spooks Gotta Spark made another valiant effort, but their score of 221.5 fell just short. Price and Gunna Stop were awarded a check for $500,000 – the largest single championship check in the western performance industry.

That pushed Price into the league of NRHA Million Dollar Riders, and secured Gunna Stop's place as NRHA's highest-earning horse of all time at $672,762. Price also earned a spot in the 2022 The Run For A Million, and was given a role in the next season of "The Last Cowboy."

Price and Gunna Stop have been a team for three years, and the stallion, owned by Amber Gokey, is special to many. Gokey's sister, Ali, who passed away in 2020, was Gunna Stop's previous owner. Ali always had big plans for the colt, including qualifying for The Run For A Million.

With Price at the reins, Gunna Stop won the 2020 NRHA Derby Level 3 Open Championship for the family, and in 2018 won the NRHA Futurity Open Levels 2 & 1 Championships with trainer Austin Roush.

Price qualified for the Million Dollar Competition aboard Gunna Stop at the Cactus Reining Classic, placing second in the qualifier to the horse and rider they eventually beat in the runoff in Vegas, Spooks Gotta Spark and Shawn Florida.

"It was such an incredible night. Not only was that my first big win, but I got to enjoy it with so many great people," he shared. That number included more than 40 friends from his hometown of Wyanet, Illinois.

Price and Gokey announced that Gunna Stop will be standing to the public in 2022 at Toyon Ranch in Aubrey, Texas.

Impacting the Industry

THE NRHA FUTURITY CHALLENGE AND TAYLOR SHERIDAN

In 2020, some reining stakeholders came together and began a fund-raising movement to make the championship of the NRHA Futurity pay more than any other western performance event. The historic meeting was held at the 2020 NRHA Winter Meeting in Denton, Texas and a passionate presentation by the late Doug Carpenter and former NRHA President Frank Costantini started the ball rolling.

Their concept was to elevate reining to a new level and establish it as the leader in the industry. It was also felt that reining needed to have financial importance commensurate with the unprecedented publicity it was getting through new visibility and exposure from the projects of Taylor Sheridan.

The Futurity Challenge Task Force's vision led the way to the 2020 L4 Open Champion earning $250,000 and the L4 Non Pro Champion $60,000, plus doubled added money in the Adequan® North American Affiliate Championship classes!

Seedstock funding came from NRHA President Rick Clark along with John and Nancy Tague/Toyon Ranch, Tim Anderson and Kim Niven, and Bob and Arlene Santagata, who were joined by Mark and Julie Blake, Craig and Ginger Schmersal, Mike Hancock, Joao Marcos, Rosanne Sternberg/Smart Spook, and Shane Brown/Shane Brown Performance Horses.

Records have been broken and re-broken at the NRHA's top three aged events – the NRHA Futurity, NRHA Derby and the NRBC

Other investors followed, including Michell Ann Kimball/Spooks Gotta Whiz, Frank & Susan Costantini, Doug Carpenter, Shane & Kalicia Walters/Diamond Dub Quarter Horses, Kristine Cantacuzene/Sun Reining, LLC, John &

Sally Amabile/Shine Chic Shine, Katarzyna Roleska/Colonels Shining Gun, Tim & Colleen McQuay/Colonels Smoking Gun, Viola & Jack Scott/Magnum Chic Dream, Beth Himes/Ruoff Dieter Reining Horses, Inc., Gary Carpenter, Cheryl Cody/ Pro Management, Casey & Nicole Deary/Deary Performance Horses, Shawn Florida/Shawn Florida Reiners, Cade McCutcheon/Cade McCutcheon Reining Horses, Jennifer Anderson/Shawnee Horse Sales,

George & Carol Bell/George and Carol Bell Reining Horses, Vaughn Zimmerman, Andrea & Mirjam Stillo, Andrea & Tish Fappani/Fappani Performance Horses.

These commitments led to even more increases for 2021. When Casey Deary piloted Ten Thirty to the Futurity win, it paid an unprecedented $350,000! Andrea Fappani's combined Co-Reserve Championships on Winding Inferno and Mr Fahrenheit earned a cool quarter million.

Besides the Futurity increases, there are a plethora of factors causing reining to grow, but undoubtedly Taylor Sheridan, the patron saint of NRHA support, has forever changed the discipline. By featuring reiners on his highly successful Yellowstone television series, creating The Last Cowboy reality series and The Run For The Million, along with funding sponsorships of major events, he has singlehandedly raised the bar for reining – and reiners – worldwide. The impact of all that exposure has created unprecedented opportunities.

People who have never known what reining was before watching it on television are attending shows – not just at Las Vegas – but across the United States. Thanks to Sheridan, top reiners are enjoying name recognition like never before.

The increased participation, with a variety of new owners, riders and trainers finding themselves attracted to the reining industry – is tangible and the stats bear it out. Records have been broken and re-broken at the NRHA's top three aged events – the NRHA Futurity, NRHA Derby and the NRBC – and just navigating through the crowds at South Point Arena for The Run For The Million was a challenge.

Reining horse prices are at a record high and there is more demand than there are horses at most all levels – from the top aged event horses to the green reiners. There were new buyers at the Markel NRHA Futurity Sales this year and that sale passed previous benchmarks. It's inspiring to see the increase in first-timers competing at major events and riders at all levels can be proud to be part of the reining industry.

NRHA SIRE & DAM AUCTION OPEN FOR BIDDING

Overflowing with benefits for stallion, mare, and offspring owners, the Sire & Dam Program Online Auction is a win-win for all involved. This auction features 70+ of the top stallions in the industry, but the opportunity to purchase a breeding ends on January 10.

Created in 1966, the NRHA Sire & Dam program provides significant benefits to participants while helping support the NRHA. Featuring benefits for both stallion and mare owners, this program is the perfect addition to any breeding program. Mare owners have the opportunity to purchase breedings that they may not otherwise have access to at reduced rates.

The Sire & Dam Auction is a valuable asset for mare owners, who can purchase breedings to an impressive lineup of stallions, often at reduced rates. Resulting offspring from the program have quite a bit of added value before they even hit the ground. Some of those benefits include:

No nomination to the NRHA Futurity and Derby required; resulting foals are automatically eligible.

Reduced entry fees (up to 50%) for the NRHA Futurity and Derby, as well as later entry deadlines.

Sire & Dam offspring eligibility remains with the foal even after it is sold.

“The NRHA Sire & Dam Program is the greatest thing going. It’s cost-effective and benefits everyone involved. From a mare owner’s point of view, the money we save for the resulting foal is worth its weight in gold. It’s the only deal in town,” shared Clint Haverty.

Stallion owners donate a breeding to the Sire & Dam Auction and reap the benefit of enhanced promotion through program advertising. They also become eligible for NRHA Futurity & Derby Sire incentives, including cash awards. There is still time to enroll a stallion in the Sire & Dam Auction, and anyone interested in doing so should contact NRHA Sire & Dam Program Director Haley Carmen at hcarmen@nrha.com.

“We are so excited to be able to offer these incentives to those who purchase a breeding through the Sire & Dam stallion auction,” Carmen said. “The added value and benefits to the resulting foals are unparalleled in the industry.”

To view and bid on participating stallions, visit the Sire & Dam Auction at reiningauction.com. You must be registered to place a bid, and that can easily be completed by clicking the “My Account” link.

There may be additional fees for the mare owner, and mare owners are encouraged to contact the participating stallion owners and agents to ask about such fees prior to purchasing the breeding through the Sire & Dam Auction. Winning bidders will be notified by email after the auction closes on January 10.

To see the stallions still available, go to nrha.com/stallions, and visit the Sire & Dam Auction at reiningauction.com.

For more information on the program, including how to purchase a breeding, visit the Sire & Dam page or contact Haley Carmen at hcarmen@nrha.com.

MULTIPLE MILLION DOLLAR MILESTONES REACHED IN 2021

This past year has been one for the record books with growth in nearly every aspect of the reining industry. New members flooded in to the National Reining Horse Association eager to purchase and or show their first reiners, and many shows boasted historical payouts which helped to garner maximum entries. One testament to the reining industry's growth is the number of NRHA members who have reached new million-dollar milestones.

Ten years ago, in 2011, nine individuals reached or passed million dollar markers. NRHA Professionals Rudi Kronsteiner and Jordan Larson joined the list of Million Dollar riders for the first time. Shawn Florida became NRHA's first Four Million Dollar Rider, and three stallions became Million Dollar Sires: Conquistador Whiz, West Coast Whiz, and Rowdy Yankee. Gunner and Wimpys Little Step joined the elite Three Million Dollar Sires list that year, and Topsail Whiz became the first ever Eight Million Dollar Sire.

A short decade later, that number more than doubled as 23 new milestones were achieved between horses, riders, and owners.

2021 Rider Milestones

Andrea Fappani

NRHA Professional Andrea Fappani made history when he became only the fourth ever NRHA Leading Rider joining legendary horsemen Bill Horn, Tim McQuay, and Shawn Florida. He also became NRHA's first Seven Million Dollar Rider.

Mandy McCutcheon

In 2007, Mandy McCutcheon became the first Non Pro and the first female to win a Million Dollars in rider earnings. Fourteen years later, she escalated to Three Million Dollar Rider status.

Dany Tremblay

Many mounts contributed to NRHA Professional Dany Tremblay's Million Dollar Rider status, but his top earnings include a 2021 NRBC Co-Championship on Tinker With Dreams for $62,500, the 2017 NRBC Reserve Championship on PS Mega Shine Chic for $41,000, and an 8th place finish in the 2015 NRHA Futurity on Spooksgottachicola for $32,110.

Brian Bell

NRHA Professional Brian Bell said that his first Million, reached in 2013, was the hardest, but after many hard lessons were learned, he earned $2 Million Rider status just eight years later.

Gennaro Lendi

Although Italian NRHA Professional Gennaro Lendi wasn't brought up by a family of horseman, he still made horses his life's work. Supported by his parents, Rino and Marianna, Lendi's childhood interests flourished to a successful career and NRHA Million Dollar Rider status in 2021.

Ruben Vandorp

While NRHA Professional Ruben Vandorp's career model has been in starting horses and selling them, there were enough exceptions to carry Vandorp over the Million Dollar Rider mark. Three top earners were: Einsteins Revolution (Einstein x Fly Flashy Jac), Legacy In Lights (Hit The Lights x Doc Berry Miss), and Spooks Gotta Crush (Spooks Gotta Whiz x Megas Sugar Baby).

2021 Owner Milestones

Smart Like Juice, Inc.

Smart Like Juice, Inc. is owned by 2021 NRHA Hall of Fame inductee Jose Vazquez. Its namesake, NRHA Four Million Dollar Sire Smart Like Juice (Smart Little Lena x Jessies Oak) was inducted into the NRHA Hall of Fame in 2017. Logging another entry into the NRHA record books in July 2021, Smart Like Juice, Inc. was pushed passed $2 Million in Owner Earnings.

Corinna Schumacher

Corinna Schumacher, of Givrins, Switzerland, reached $1.2 million in owner earnings through the performances of the exceptional horses housed at her CS Ranches in Switzerland and Texas. She got her start in reining by following her daughter, Gina's, equine interests and rose to Two Million Dollar owner status in 2021.

Robert Santagata

Robert Santagata owns the scenic 150 acres in Campbell Hall, NY that is known as Santa Hill Ranch. The training program is led by 5 Time NRHA World Champion and NRHA Top 20 Professional Matt Palmer and combined with the breeding program based on the outstanding stallion, The Kids Gotta Gun (Spooks Gotta Gun x Melimelo Kid). The breeding, training, and showing of exceptional Santa Hill Ranch horses, has propelled Santagata to Two Million Dollar Owner status.

Vaughn Zimmerman

One of the driving forces behind the creation of the Million Dollar owner award was honored for his horses' earnings reaching over Two Million Dollars. Inducted into the NRHA Hall of Fame in 2017, Vaughan Zimmerman owns the elite stallion and Triple Crown winner, Not Ruf At All, and he provides many top trainers and his grandchildren, Taylor and Jacob, with high-caliber show horses.

Casey Hinton

Through riding his own outstanding horses, mounting talented assistant trainers on them, and with the assistance of his wife Kathy, whom he says is his driving force, NRHA Professional Casey Hinton reached the Million Dollar Owner milestone in April of 2021. As a rider, he is also fast approaching million dollar status.

Andre De Bellefeuille

Only a couple of years after reaching the Million Dollar Breeder Milestone, Andre De Bellefeuille, together with his businesses Equine Plus and Ferme Equestre Excalibur, was honored as a Million Dollar Owner in October of 2021.

WHISPER BIT

It DOES look different - and it WORKS!
You'd be surprised at the people who have a whisper bit in their tack room or trailer. People like
TIM McQUAY * BOYD RICE * CHARMAYNE JAMES

Don't let the name fool you - this bit speaks volumes - and horses just keep winning in the Whisper Bit! Elite riders know that the Whisper Bit communicates clearly to the horse and allows guidance and correction without intimidation. It's forgiving of a rider's mistakes - even when nerves and adrenalin can make hands move a little too fast.

2021 Sire Milestones

Gunner

The legendary sire and show horse, Gunner passed away in 2013, but, perhaps, no sire has ever marked his foals so completely as he, both in outward features and in innate abilities. The Hall of Fame inductee, owned by fellow Hall of Famers Tim and Colleen McQuay, made NRHA history again in 2021 when he became NRHA's first Thirteen Million Dollar Sire and the All Time Leading NRHA Sire.

Wimpys Little Step

Wimpys Little Step joined the ranks as one of only three sires to reach Twelve Million Dollar status to be listed alongside Gunner and Topsail Whiz. The 21-year-old Palomino stallion owned by Silver Spurs Equine is by Three Million Dollar Sire and Hall of Fame inductee Nu Chex To Cash and out of Leolita Step.

Smart Spook

Inducted into the NRHA Hall of Fame in 2015, Smart Spook joined another elite list of legends in 2021 when he became a Seven Million Dollar Sire. The 20-year-old stallion, owned by Rosanne Sternberg, is by NRHA Six Million Dollar Sire and Hall of Fame Inductee Smart Chic Olena and out of Sugarplum Spook.

Magnum Chic Dream

Magnum Chic Dream is a notable figure in the reining industry, and the great success of his foals carried him over the Million Dollar Sire mark in 2010. Owned by Jack and Viola Scott, the 25-year-old stallion, whose show career earnings were $52,000, reached the Seven Million Dollar Sire milestone just seven years later.

Gunnatrashya

Gunnatrashya's meteoric rise to fame continued when the 15-year-old stallion passed two million dollar milestones in 2021, and finished the year as a Six Million Dollar Sire. He already quickly approaching the next rung with $6,788,072 in offspring earnings. By Thirteen Million Dollar Sire Gunner and out of Natrasha, the outstanding stallion is owned by Arcese Quarter Horses, USA.

Gunners Special Nite

Rocketing up the ladder to five million in offspring earnings less than a year after reaching the four million dollar milestone was Gunners Special Nite, by Thirteen Million Dollar Sire Gunner out of Mifs Doll. The exceptional show horse and sire is owned by Turnabout Farm, Inc.

Hollywoodstinseltown

Although Hollywoodstinseltown was laid to rest in 2021, his foals have continued to excel in the show pen, pushing his sire earnings over the Three Million Dollar mark. Sired by Six Million Dollar Sire and Hall of Famer Hollywood Dun It, and out of Hall of Fame mare Miss Tinseltown, the flashy palomino lived his entire life in the care and ownership of Silva Reining Horses.

Spooks Gotta Whiz

Spooks Gotta Whiz excelled in the show pen, amassing over $345,000 in earnings while becoming one of the elite few reining Triple Crown champions. Owned by Michell Anne Kimball, the Three Million Dollar Sire is by Two Million Dollar Sire Spooks Gotta Gun out of Prettywhiz-prettydoes.

Shiners Voodoo Dr

By NRHA Four Million Dollar Sire Shining Spark and out of Voodoo Chic, Shiners Voodoo Dr earned more than $85,900 in NRHA Lifetime Earnings during his show career. The stallion joining the NRHA Two Million Dollar Sire ranks is owned by Silver Spurs Equine.

Not Ruf At All

Not Ruf At All entered the record books as a Triple Crown champion after winning the 2013 NRHA Futurity, the 2014 NRHA Derby, and the 2016 NRBC with Jason Vanlandingham in the saddle. Out of All Ruffed Up and owned by Vaughn Zimmerman, the stand-out sorrel stallion is following in the footsteps of his sire, NRHA Two Million Dollar Sire A Sparkling Vintage, as he joins the list of Million Dollar Sires.

MANDY MCCUTCHEON JOINS ELITE GROUP OF NRHA THREE MILLION DOLLAR RIDERS

With earnings of $23,014 at this year's National Reining Horse Association Futurity, Mandy McCutcheon became only the fifth rider in reining history to earn more than $3 million in the show pen.

McCutcheon, of Aubrey, Texas, joins a very small group of riders, including Seven Million Dollar Rider Andrea Fappani, Six Million Dollar Rider and Hall of Fame inductee Shawn Florida, Four Million Dollar Rider Craig Schmersal, and her father, NRHA Three Million Dollar Rider and Hall of Fame inductee Tim McQuay.

“I didn’t realize there were only four others to win that much. That’s pretty cool,” she said. “It’s so special to be there with my dad. I can say, 100 percent, that’s the most important part to me.”

McCutcheon, also an NRHA Million Dollar Owner, is the glue that holds one of reining’s dynasties together. Her husband, Tom McCutcheon, is an NRHA Million Dollar Rider and Owner. Their children are following in their parents’ well-worn footsteps. Cade McCutcheon is now an NRHA Million Dollar Rider with an NRHA Futurity Championship and a The Run For A Million Co-Championship under his belt. Carlee McCutcheon competes in both English and reining, where, at just 16 years old, she's won more than $125,000.

McCutcheon is quick to thank those who helped her reach this new level. "The list of people to thank is so long. I obviously thank my parents, Tom, and Cade, and all our help. My team is so big and large, and we have great people that work for us. There have been people who have been in and out of our program over the years who are longtime friends and supporters, and they've all had a hand in this," she said.

When asked what, aside from her incredible support staff, has made her career so incredible, McCutcheon recalled something her father once told her. "My dad always says that the good Lord just blessed him with the ability to do this, and I think that there is something to be said for that," she shared.

McCutcheon was born into the quintessential horse show family. Her parents, NRHA Hall of Fame members Tim and Colleen McQuay, both excelled in different arenas. Colleen focused on the hunter/jumper world, while Tim concentrated on reining.

"The best advice I ever received was from my parents, they've always said that the main thing is to just show the horse you have under you. That horse might not have the ability to win it that day, but if you show that horse to the best of its ability, you'll get the best results that day." She added, "You might just get the best ride out of that horse, and sometimes you might even win because you rode the horse the way it needed."

For years, McCutcheon split her time between the two disciplines. In the English arena, she won championships at some of the most elite hunter and jumper shows in that world. She was the reserve junior hunter champion at the Harrisburg National Horse Show, and also won the Winners Stakes there. She won the United States Equestrian Team Youth Talent Derby at Gladstone, New Jersey, and came back a few years later to win the USET Futures Championship there. She also won two AQHA jumping world championships.

Eventually, McCutcheon decided to focus on reining, an event in which she began to compete at just 10 years old. She won her first NRHA Futurity Non Pro Championship in 1993 on Hollywood Striker (Hollywood Dun It x Strike Zone), and to date has won 10 Non Pro Futurity championships.

She's also won the National Reining Breeders Classic Non Pro Championship eight times and has five NRHA Derby titles to her name.

She became the first non pro and first female Million Dollar Rider in 2007 and passed $2 million in 2014.

With more than three decades of reining in the books, McCutcheon added there are a few runs that stand out above the others. "I can't forget when I won the (2012) NRBC on Always Gotyer Guns up. We marked a 231 or something crazy like that. Also, my run on JLos at this year's NRBC stands out, not because it was out of this world, but because that mare tried to be so good for me and it was so much fun," she said. "There are all different runs and horses that are memorable. This year I was riding one of Cade's horses, and he showed so good for me after having a bad day before. It's the little things like that that are special. It's not always about the win – sometimes it’s the small, personal victory that means the most.”

Even with a lifetime of world-class competition under her belt, McCutcheon admits to still feeling the nerves when it’s time to ride into the arena. “Why would I do this if I didn’t get nervous and excited about it?” she asked. “The adrenaline rush and the thrill of it are two of the things that keep me coming back every year.”

What else drives McCutcheon? “It’s the horses. The love of those horses is the main thing, but so are the people. This is what we do. This is our life,” she said.

McCutcheon’s next goal? “I guess four million,” she quipped. “Actually, now the more important and most fun thing to me is to watch my kids be successful. Whatever I can do to help them be successful in either arena – Cade in reining and Carlee in reining and jumping – that’s my priority in life. When Tom and I do well, that’s just icing on the cake,” she said.

NRCHA WELCOMES DUAL SMART REY & WOODY BE TUFF TO THE MILLION DOLLAR SIRE CLUB

When the National Reined Cow Horse Association wrapped the 2021 show year, offspring earnings tallied showed that two stallions achieved the earnings milestone to become NRCHA Million Dollar Sires: Dual Smart Rey and Woody Be Tuff.

The NRCHA Million Dollar Sire accolade has only been earned by 22 sires since the association’s inception in 1949. Owned by Strawn Valley Ranch, of Strawn Valley, Texas, Dual Smart Rey (Dual Rey x The Smart Look x Smart Little Lena), a 2002

Quarter Horse, has NRCHA earners of $1,038,613.54 as of December 1, 2021. The stallion earned more than $330,000 and the NCHA Open Super Stakes Champion title in the arena. When Don Horton dispersed his Quarter Horse program in 2013, he kept Dual Smart Rey, called “Lloyd,” as the stallion was just venturing into the breeding world. At the time, the family was focused on cutting horses, and the sire had offspring earning more than $9 million in the NCHA.

Lloyd garnered attention when NRCHA Million Dollar Rider Kelby Phillips piloted 2013 gelding Duals Lucky Charm (out of TRR Ms Pepcid Olena) to the 2016 NRCHA

Woody Be Tuff

Snaffle Bit Futurity Open Championship. The win drew the eye of reined cow horse breeders, and after also winning the 2020 World’s Greatest Horseman with Phillips, Duals Lucky Charm, owned by JB6 LLC, is Dual Smart Rey’s highest money earning reined cow horse with $273,753.

“We were counting it down! It’s not easy to be a reined cow horse million-dollar stud,” Michelle Horton said. “It’s great he made that milestone. We knew that Lloyd had babies in reined cow horse, but until my daughter, Madeline, started riding cow horses, we weren’t familiar with it. In January 2020, she made her first fence run and has been hooked ever since. Even though Lloyd had been marketed in the cutting horse world by my father-in-law, Don—who firmly believes a good horse will market himself—my husband and I realized the potential for him as a reined cow horse sire and really started a push to market him there.”

In 2021, the Non Pro Snaffle Bit Futurity Champion Abbie Phillips rode was sired by Dual Smart Rey—TRR Dual Smart Olena (out of TRR Ms Pepcid Olena). That win boosted Dual Smart Rey’s offspring earnings by $25,000. The Hortons look forward to watching the next NRCHA earners make their mark in the arena.

Woody Be Tuff (Nitas Wood x Tuffs Junie x Tuff Wood) sired the 2021 NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity Open Champion Zak 34 (a 2018 stallion out of Cat Digs Lucinda), which helped to catapult him over the million-dollar mark to claim $1,176,601.12 in reined cow horse offspring earnings. Owned by the Center Ranch in Centerville, Texas, the 2001 sorrel Quarter Horse stallion stamps many of his offspring with his signature sorrel color with a flaxen mane and hair and, often, white legs or blazed face. When a horse matching that description enters the arena with a “C-Sigma” brand, it is more than likely sired by Woody Be Tuff.

Woody Be Tuff

“He’s a bigger horse and not a typical smaller, cow-bred horse,” said Jay Dickson, Center Ranch manager. “His trainability is his most valuable asset, even the horses we punch cows on the ranch. Everyone wants one not only for the looks but for the demeanor and talent. Woody Be Tuff has earned his place in the industry. He’s an awesome horse, and his legacy will live on for many years.”

Following Center Ranch owner Finis Welch’s death the ranch is being dispersed and Woody Be Tuff will be sold in December 2021. However, Dickson says the stallion and Welch’s sigma sign will forever be linked through the many offspring stamped with both the stallion’s qualities and the ranch’s brand. The stallion sells at the Center Ranch Dispersal at the 2021 Western Bloodstock NCHA Futurity Sale, Thursday, December 9th.

Milestones such as these are due in part to the commitment of the NRCHA Board of Directors and sponsor family that help to continually increase the prize money awarded for the accomplishments of these horses and trainers at premier events. The efforts of dedicated owners and breeders push our industry forward, making horses that compete in the three disciplines of reined cow horses competitive in any industry.

“When a horse begins to reshape a sport by nature of the offspring they send to the pen, they’ve made a lasting impact on the industry,” said Anna Morrison, NRCHA executive director. “That is certainly the case with Dual Smart Rey and Woody Be Tuff, and we congratulate all of the connections of these great stallions.”

NRCHA BOARD OF DIRECTORS MAKES MAJOR INCREASES TO PAYOUTS, FINALS BERTHS IN 2022

Following a highly successful year where membership and participation in reined cow horse increased exponentially, the National Reined Cow Horse Association Board of Directors voted to increase 2022 premier event payouts and offer more finals event berths for competitors.

“The NRCHA Board of Directors continues to be so forward thinking and engaged,” said Anna Morrison, NRCHA executive director. “Their commitment to raising our premier event purses recognizes the dedication of our exhibitors, owners and breeders in their pursuit of success across all of our premier events.”

The 2022 premier event shows start off with the Kalpowar Quarter Horses Celebration of Champions, where the Hashtags’ / Western Bloodstock World’s Greatest Horseman event shines a light on the versatility of NRCHA riders and all-around bridle horses. The champion’s purse doubles to $100,000 in 2022, with the addition of support from Western Bloodstock. On top of this, a more-than matching commitment of an additional $62,000 added from the NRCHA Board of Directors ensures a bigger payout for finalists from reserve on.

Additionally, instead of the Top 10 being brought back for the ticketed World's Greatest Horseman Finals, the Top 15 will ride for the prize. With the added purse, the NRCHA Board commits that those finishing 11th through 15th will earn at least $7,500. On top of this, the Tres Osos Cow Horse Derby will pay $30,000 to the Open champion.

At the Teton Ridge Stallion Stakes, held March 25-April 2 in Las Vegas, Nevada, the Derby event will pay $50,000 to the Open champion in 2022, and the finalists riding for that prize increase from Top 20 to Top 25, plus ties, with places 21-25 earning at least $2,500. Also at the Teton Ridge Stallion Stakes, the Non Pro Derby purse will pay $10,000 to the winner, an increase over the 2021 purse of approximately $8,000, with a $3,000 prize for the Level 1 Non Pro Derby winner (formerly the Amateur division).

When the action begins at the DT Horses Western Derby June 1-12 in Scottsdale, Arizona, competitors in the Open Derby will ride for $50,000, a $10,000 increase over the 2021 purse. Instead of 20 riders, now there will be 25 finalists for that limited age event. Like the Stakes, the finalists placing 21st-25th will earn at least $2,500. The Non Pro Derby purse will pay $10,000 to the winner, with a $3,000 prize for the Level 1 Non Pro Derby winner.

The ever-growing and youngest premier event, the Dom Conicelli Memorial Eastern Derby, presented by MARS Equestrian™, will also see an increase in the limited age event purses that reflects the growth in entries at the show. The Open Derby will now pay $20,000 for the champion and the last four horse and rider teams placing in the Open Derby will earn at least $1,750. The Non Pro Derby will pay $5,000 to the champion, an increase over the 2021 purse, which paid approximately $3,300.

The near-record high entries in the NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity®, presented by Metallic Cat, proved that the reined cow horse industry is still on a positive upward swing. In 2022 the NRCHA Board has committed that the purse for the Open champion will increase from $125,000 to $200,000, with the increase to 30 finalists plus ties implemented at the 2021 event still in place. In 2022, the bottom placing horse and rider Open finalist teams are now guaranteed $10,000 in the limited age event. The Board has also emphasized the importance of NRCHA's Non Pro riders, and in 2022 the Non Pro Futurity champion will earn $40,000 with the bottom placing finalists earning at least $2,000; the Level 1 Non Pro Futurity will pay at least $7,500 and the Non Pro Boxing Futurity (formerly Non Pro Limited) will pay at least $7,500 to the winner.

“In no other Western discipline futurity does a horse have to prepare to compete in three different events. The Board felt the Snaffle Bit Futurity prize should grow to honor the challenge”

“In no other Western discipline futurity does a horse have to prepare to compete in three different events. The Board felt the Snaffle Bit Futurity prize should grow to honor the challenge,” said Corey Cushing, NRCHA president. “But the Futurity is only the start for our horses. Western Bloodstock and Hashtags’ support has grown the World’s Greatest Horseman winner’s purse, and Nancy Crawford and Holy Cow Performance Horses have provided ongoing support for the Bridle Spectaculars. By increasing our commitment to the World’s Greatest Horseman purse the Board wanted to make it clear that NRCHA’s support of the bridle horse is unwavering.”

The NRCHA serves a national and international membership base through five premier events annually as well as sanctioned events produced by NRCHA affiliates around the world. Through strategic alliances with breed and performance associations like the American Paint Horse Association’s Chrome Cash and the concurrent classes offered through the Stock Horse of Texas, the NRCHA is able to provide more opportunity to show cow horses than ever before. The increased association membership and, based on the volume of entries at 2021 premier events, sets up 2022 to be another record-breaking year for NRCHA. Follow the action at nrcha.com.

Looking Ahead in 2022

WORLDWIDE SLIDE WILL BECOME ONLINE MAGAZINE ON JANUARY 15

As the largest-distribution newsletter for the reining horse world, WorldWide Slide has consistently delivered news and information about reining and reiners to a global audience for nearly eight years. The newsletter, owned and produced by Pro Management, Inc. of Byars, Oklahoma, is emailed twice monthly to tens of thousands of readers and has become a staple in the industry.

In recent years, WWS growth has been steady, and in 2021, mailing numbers and reader numbers have expanded right along with the exploding popularity of reining. It has become apparent that it is time to move to the next level.

So, with the January 15, 2022 issue, WorldWide Slide will change from an e-newsletter to an on-line magazine. What this means to readers is more exclusive content, more information and more original material. Our staff is excited to make the change and looks forward to beginning this new format in just two weeks!

This new technology will translate to more convenience for readers. Videos can actually be imbedded in the magazine so readers can watch them right there without having to click to another site. Headlines on the cover and in the Table of Contents will link directly to the articles. Readers will be able to directly share specific articles via links or directly to social media

But the thing we are most looking forward to at Pro Management, Inc. is the enhanced editorial content. There are countless stories in the reining world and we feel privileged to tell them. The incredibly rich history of the discipline, the unmatched personalities, the skill of riders and trainers, the excitement of this record-breaking and historic time and always, always the horses. Our editorial team is excited to share these.

The initial editorial team will consist of Savannah Magoteaux, Stevie White and Stephanie Hightower.

We are introducing a new ground-breaking advertising plan, as well.

And subscriptions are still FREE – to subscribe click HERE or go to WorldWideSlide.com.

We hope you decide to grow with us and enjoy all the fun. I personally ask you to like our WorldWide Slide Facebook page.

Please your friends to subscribe and like us as well.

We also want to hear your opinion about what or who you would like to see articles on. Just email me at cheryl@pro-management-inc.com.

PS – Make it a great year, and remember the sky is the limit on what you might do in 2022.

*“You have brains in your head.
You have feet in your shoes.
You can steer yourself any direction you choose.
You're on your own. And you know what you know.
And YOU are the one who'll decide where to go...”*

A LUCKY TRADITION BLACK-EYED PEAS

On the first day of 2022, what are your goals? What are your dreams? Most people jump into the new year with resolutions such as eating healthier, getting into shape, saving money, or even traveling more. What about tradition? Or better yet, what will you do to increase your chances for prosperity this year?

In the South, a common tradition is to make black-eyed peas on New Year's Day. The peas (actually beans) swell when cooked, so they symbolize prosperity, the greens served with them symbolize money, and the pork represents positive motion because pigs root forward during foraging.

Carrying on the New Years' traditions of those who have come before, in a small way, lets us continue a ritual that binds us to our legacies.

Whether you are continuing an old tradition or starting a new one, try this quick and easy recipe for black-eyed peas, that a panel of tasters declared "is the only way to eat them."

Worldwide Slide Black Eyed Peas

Ingredients

- 1 small Onion, chopped
- 2 Celery Ribs, diced
- 1 Red Bell Pepper
- 2 small Bay Leaves
- 2 sprigs Fresh Thyme, or 1/2 tsp dried
- 2 tsp Smoked Paprika
- 1/2 tsp Black Pepper
- 3/4 tsp table salt
- 4 cloves Garlic, minced
- 1 Jalapeño Pepper, seeded and diced
- 3 1/2 cups Chicken Broth, low sodium
- 2 tsp Balsamic Vinegar
- 4 slices Cooked Bacon, chopped

- 1 small Ham Hock (or meaty ham bone)
- 1 1/4 cups Black-Eyed Peas, dry*
- 2 cups Collard Greens, (optional) chopped in 2" pieces

Instructions

1. Rinse black-eyed peas in a colander, discarding any peas that are discolored or any small pebbles that may be in the dried peas.
2. Pour rinsed black-eyed peas into a large, heavy-bottomed stockpot and soak using one of two soaking methods. Quick Soak: Cover with water, plus about 2 inches. Bring to a boil and boil for 2 minutes. Overnight Soak: Cover with water, plus about 2 inches. Allow to soak in the stockpot, uncovered overnight. Once soaked, pour black-eyed peas through a colander again to remove them from the soaking water.
3. In a large Dutch oven sauté the bacon until crisp, remove from pot and set aside.
4. Add the onion, celery, and bell pepper, and bay leaves. Cook, stirring occasionally until the onion starts to turn translucent.
5. Add the thyme, smoked paprika, pepper, and salt. Stir.
6. Add the garlic and jalapeño. Cook for about 30 seconds, stirring frequently.
7. Add the broth, balsamic vinegar, bacon, and ham hock.
8. Stir in the black-eyed peas, and collard greens, if using.
9. Cook over high heat until it reaches a rolling boil for about 5 minutes.
10. Reduce heat to medium-low and simmer the black-eyed peas for 2 hours, or until beans are softened to your liking.
11. Remove ham hock and bay leaves.
12. Enjoy.
