VANLANDINGHAM WINS 2014 NRHA DERBY ON NOT RUF AT ALL

The 2014 National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) Derby concluded Saturday night with the $428,000-added open finals at the Oklahoma State Fair Park in Oklahoma City, Okla. The NRHA Derby Show is NRHA's premier event for the world's best 4-, 5- and 6-year-old reining horses. This year's Derby finals were the richest ever, paying out approximately $961,000 to owners and nominators of open and non pro finalists.

During the open go-round, 571 entries competed for a spot in the finals with 75 of the top-scoring horse-and-rider teams invited back to Saturday night's event. Until the very end of the finals, thousands of reining fans, watching in person and online, were treated to exciting leader board changes. Many fans were anxious to see if one of the two past NRHA Futurity Champions (Not Ruf At All and Americasnextgunmodel) would follow-up with another major NRHA event championship. In the end, 2013 NRHA Futurity Champions Not Ruf At All (A Sparkling Vintage x All Ruffed Up, $220,500 NRHA LTE) and NRHA Professional Jason Vanlandingham (Whitesboro, Texas) bested the field by three points for the win with a score of 229.

"He's won quite a bit, so he gives me a lot of confidence when I show him," Vanlandingham said. "He's a really big stopper and we ran through the gate about as fast as you can run one and he stopped huge. Our first turn was ok, and our second was really good. He circled really well both ways and all three of his last stops were pretty huge. He was spot-on and I was tickled to death!"

Vaughn Zimmerman's stallion, nominated by Petra Zeitler Connor, Money60,000 for the L4 open champion-ship ($57,000 to the owner and $3,000 to the nominator). Level 4 open division awards included an NRHA Lawson trophy, a $5,000 gift certificate from Twister Trailer, a saddle from Bob's Custom Saddles, a Montana Silversmiths buckle, a $300 SmartPak gift card, Purina feed, a pair of Rios of Mercedes boots, Platinum Performance CJ, a Classic Equine pad, a pair of Classic Equine skid boots, $300 gift card from Pard's Western Shop, a $100 gift card from Kyle Tack, a pad from Center Back Pads and Vetericyn.

When asked if he felt pressure to win at the Derby after his Futurity victory, Vanlandingham said, "I didn't really feel pressure this time – I felt a lot more during the Futurity. I think that was because people expected to win if he was on. It was more of a relief to win the Futurity. We went to the NRBC and I made a couple mistakes there that cost us. I was disappointed in myself because he was trying to be good and I just got in his way."

Vanlandingham said his main focus at the Derby was to stay out of his horse's way. "I wanted to let him do his thing, and he did. It felt good to come back and win it, although it made me a little more frustrated about my mistakes at the NRBC, because it would have been nice to win all three in a row like that for him," he admitted. "But for a 4-year-old to win the Derby – that doesn't happen all that often. He's a pretty talented horse to play with the older horses like he does, and to win it in the fashion he did was pretty cool."

Vanlandingham began riding Not Ruf At All at the beginning of the colt's 3-year-old year, and while the stallion was obviously talented, it took a little time for him to show his real potential. "You could tell he was nice, but it wasn't until we started doing things harder and faster that he really stepped up. For him, the faster you run, the better he stops. He has gotten more mentally focused the longer I've had him. I knew he was nice, but sure didn't know he was going to be the horse he is," Vanlandingham said. "Vaughn and Justin (Zimmerman) told me they thought he had the ability to be something special if he was trained up right, and they were spot-on!"

Vanlandingham added, "The biggest thing for me is that God has blessed us in ways we can't even imagine. He continues to do that. Whether we win or lose we are thankful He's in our life. If I send out any thanks, it's always to God." Click here to watch the run!

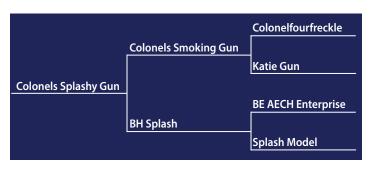

BIT: I ride him in a little short shank medium port – there's not much to it. I like it pretty well. It's what I've used on him all the way through, and it's in my hands 90% of the time when I'm riding. SADDLE: I don't have a specific one that I ride. I have several different ones. About all of my saddles are on a Donn Leson tree. FEED: Martindale 14% dry mix. HAY: Alfalfa. SUPPLEMENTS: I do feed Platinum Performance and Strongid from time-to-time on some horses. It's just on an as-needed basis.

Arno Honstetter and Colonels Splashy Gun win Level 3 Open Championship

Colonels Splashy Gun (Gunner x BH Splash) with NRHA Professional Arno Honstetter (Scottsdale, Ariz.; $386,900 NRHA LTE) held onto the lead they established in the first section. After nearly thirty runs in the L3 open division, they claimed the championship honors and a check for $23,475.

In addition to the sizable check, they also won an NRHA Lawson trophy, a $2,500 gift certificate from Twister Trailer, a saddle from Bob's Custom Saddles, a Montana Silversmiths buckle, a $200 SmartPak gift card, Purina

What A Lucky Hit and Edgmon – Level 1 Open Champions

What A Lucky Hit (Hit The Lights x My Lucky Moonstone) and NRHA Professional Tell Edgmon (Weatherford, Texas; $26,300 NRHA LTE) set the pace for the finals from draw 9 in the first section with a 224.5. Their bid was more than enough to claim the L1 open division championship and $5,370, including the 5% nominator incentive. Gary and Sandy Vickrey own the 2008 mare that was nominated by Adair Reiners LLC. Before tonight's finals, she had earned more than $49,200 in NRHA competition including a fifth place finish at the NRHA Derby with Craig Schmersal.

The L1 open division champion also won an NRHA Lawson trophy, a $2,500 gift certificate from Twister Trailer,

IT'S A TIE – RON THOMPSON & LYNDSEY JORDAN SHARE NRHA DERBY NON PRO TITLE

The 2014 NRHA Derby featured the finals in non pro competition on Friday: the $78,000-added Level 4; $60,000-added Level 3; $32,500-added Level 2; $15,000-added Level 1 and $5,000-added Prime Time divisions. Out of the original 217 horses and 650 entries, the top 56 horse and rider teams qualified to compete in the finals at Oklahoma State Fair Park in Oklahoma City, Okla. This year's Derby finals were the richest ever, paying approximately $322,000 to owners and nominators.

Thompson and Jordan – L4 Non Pro Co-Champions

After tying for sixth place in the non pro first go-round with a 218 on Taris Dreamer, Ron Thompson turned up the heat and reined to a score of 223.5 in the finals. He held the lead until draw 29 when Lyndsey Jordan and her Made By Magnum laid down an identical score. Thompson and Jordan agreed to share the honors and to be NRHA Derby Non Pro Co-Champions. Both of their mounts were sired by Jack & Viola Scott's NRHA Two Million Dollar Sire Magnum Chic Dream.

The level 4 non pro co-champions split the following awards: an NRHA Lawson trophy, a $5,000 gift certificate from Twister Trailer, a saddle from Bob's Custom Saddles, a Montana Silversmiths buckle, a $200 SmartPak gift card, Purina feed, a pair of Rios of Mercedes boots, Platinum Performance CJ, a Classic Equine pad, a pair of Classic Equine skid boots, $300 gift card from Pard's Western Shop, a $100 gift card from Kyle Tack, a pad from Center Back Pads and Vetericyn.

Thompson, of Whitesboro, Texas, owns Taris Dreamer, the 2009 gelding that has earned nearly $140,000 in NRHA competition. Together, they have won an NRHA Futurity Prime Time Non Pro Championship, a National Reining Breeders Classic (NRBC) L4 Non Pro Championship and two NRBC Prime Time Non Pro Championships.

At the Derby, they Money15,343.93 in the L4 Non Pro and $2,660.40 for winning the Prime Time Non Pro division. Werner Hermus nominated Taris Dreamer (Magnum Chic Dream x Taris San Cutter) and earned the $807.58 nominator incentive.

Thompson is quick to admit that horses like Taris Dreamer just don't come around often and he's glad to enjoy the gift of owning such a performer. There's a quiet confidence with this horse and rider combo, and they've been collecting titles like hobbyists collect stamps. So what's been the secret to Ron Thompson and Taris Dreamer's success?

It's a combination of things, according to Ron. "This horse and I fit each other really, really well. I guess the Magnums do fit me. But also, about two and a half years ago I started riding with Matt Armenta and things clicked. He's helped me with so many things – especially on how to separate training from preparing to show.

He continued, "I've learned more about what I need to do to be ready to show, to present this horse to the judges. For years I rode by myself, but no matter what level you are, you need another set of eyes. Don Murphy has helped me tremendously. I've also ridden some with Chris Dawson lately – you can pick up something from everyone!"

And a final reason for the success is that Taris Dreamer has been, in Ron's words, "One hundred percent sound his whole life!"

Taris Dreamer will be a 6-year-old next year – so he has one more year of Derby eligibility. What's on the agenda for him?

Ron laughs, "I'll pet him a lot." Actually, his plans include some of the derbies this fall. "I'll go to Tulsa – that's one of favorite shows of the year – then next year it will be the NRBC and the Derby."

And the one thing you likely don't know about Taris Dreamer – he's qualified for the AQHA World Show in Ranch Pleasure.

Jordan and Made By Magnum – L3 and L2 Champions

In addition to the Level 4 honors, Jordan took home the L3 and L2 non pro division championships. Jordan, of Georgetown, Ky., owns the 2010 stallion by Magnum Chic Dream and out of Ready Make Cowboy. Made By Magnum, also nominated by Jordan, has earned nearly $30,500 in NRHA Lifetime Earnings including a third place in the L2 open division at the 2013 NRHA Futurity with Robin Schoeller. Jordan has Money46,300 in NRHA competition, an Adequan North American Affiliate Championship, a Limited Non Pro World Championship, plus an NRHA Collegiate Reining Championship. Their derby paycheck amounted to $39,415.83, including the 5% nominator incentive.

"Oh my gosh – it was so fun. It's so hard to believe how well it went – it was awesome!" Jordan said. Although she has shown at the Derby several times, even making the Non Pro L4 finals a few years back, it was the first time to leave Oklahoma City with a Championship.

"He's only a 4-year-old and I haven't shown him that much, so we are still trying to figure each other out. We had made the Level 4 finals and I was just happy to be there so I wasn't nervous, and my plan was to just go in there and put my hand down and see how it goes," she said. "I went in there and trusted myself and my horse and it all fell into place. I had a huge grin on my face – I can't remember I had such a good time showing a horse."

Jordan's family bred and raised Made By Magnum. "I used to show his mother, and when we sold her I got an embryo from her. We had seen a lot of Magnum babies and they are so consistent. We always liked Jack and Viola Scott, and Casey and Kathy Hinton are great, so it was easy to make the decision to breed to him," she said. "It makes it even cooler to win on one we've raised. I remember seeing him as a weanling and a yearling and being able to watch him out my back door."

Jordan thanked her parents, Harold and Becky Jordan. "We had talked about selling him, but they gave me the BRIDLE: Really you can ride him in about anything. He's so easy going and easy to ride that it doesn't matter. SADDLE: I have a Broken Horn saddle that I show in, and then a Tim Piland saddle I ride in at home that is like a pair of boots that fits me to a T. SUPPLEMENTS: I keep him on UlcerGard at all the horse shows. As much as we do it's a must as a preventative. WHAT MAKES THIS HORSE UNIQUE: His personality. Ever since he was a baby to now he's been laid-back and he's happy, the minute you get on his back he's ready to go to work. He loves his job.

opportunity to ride him and I can't thank them enough," she said. "I also thank Robin Schoeller, my trainer. He's had this horse from day one. It's amazing to see his progress. To see what Robin has turned him into is a true testament to Robin's ability as a trainer."

Jordan won the following prizes for the L3 and L2 non pro divisions: two NRHA Lawson trophies, a $5,000 gift certificate from Twister Trailer, two saddles from Bob's Custom Saddles, two Montana Silversmiths buckles, a $400 SmartPak gift card, Purina feed, two pairs of Rios of Mercedes boots, Platinum Performance CJ, two Classic Equine pads, two pairs of Classic Equine skid boots, a $600 gift card from Pard's Western Shop, a $200 gift card from Kyle Tack, two pads from Center Back Pads, Vetericyn and a gift certificate from Shorty's Caboy Hattery.

NRHA Sire & Dam Awards

NRHA congratulated Magnum Chic Dream, owned by Viola Scott, for the performance of his offspring, Taris Dreamer and Made By Magnum, in the non pro finals. Magnum Chic Dream earned $2,500 and an NRHA Sire & Dam bronze for their efforts tonight. Gunner was also recognized for Check Out My Guns' finish and was awarded $500 from the NRHA Sire & Dam Program.

NEWS FROM NRHA GERMANY

Grischa Ludwig & Gwhiz Im Smart claim NRHA Breeders Derby Open Championship Ewald Rifeser & Golden Iron Jac Claim Non Pro Championship

The NRHA Breeders Derby Open 2014 ended with an exciting final where the top riders of the go round also dominated the final. In the end it was the best of the go round who also won the final: Grischa Ludwig rode Gwhiz Im Smart for owner Antonina Geisendorf to a score of 223.5 claiming the Open Champion title. NRHA Million Dollar Rider Rudi Kronsteiner and Dr Lee Hook (owner Glis Ranch) took second place honours scoring a 222.5.

"This final was tough work, but I'm so happy," said 2013 Breeders Futurity Champion Open and FEI European Champion (team) Grischa Ludwig. "I had three horses in the final who were all great, so I had to lope for about three hours before this run. When I rode GWhiz down the first rundown I had to take a deep breath and pull myself together for this final effort. This time it was this great horse who helped me to our success – he has got a heart as big as the world."

The 5-year-old AQHA stallion is by Smart Spook out of the famous Whizards Baby Doll. Grischa rode Gwhiz Im Smart to third place at the Breeders Futurity and won the 2014 Masters in Bitz with him. He is simply sensational," Grischa said. But without my great team and my sponsor and friend Lope In we could not have done it." Grischa Ludwig also rode Pistol Silhouette to 3rd place and Dont Spook Around to 5th place.

Limited Open Champion and fourth place in Open was 24-year-old Austrian Valentina Sagmeister aboard SZ Gunners Newcomer (Gunner x Cowboys New Comer, owner Gottfried Kuegerl), who scored a 218. Valentina works at Wiener Neustadt . She got the gelding as a 2-year-old and trained him herself. "He is an incredible horse, and what a success – I still cannot believe it. I'm so happy," she said. Valentina already was Austrian Futurity Reserve Champion, AustrianQHA Futurity Champion and NRHA European Resserve Champion Limited Open.

Rudi Kronsteiner and Dr Lee Hook

Ewald Rifeser and Golden Iron Jac win Non Pro Derby

With a score of 216.5
Ewald Rifeser and his
5-year-old palomino stallion Golden Iron Jac (Jac O Rima x Wranglers Skylark) won the NRHA Breeders
Derby Non Pro. Two riders tied for second place thus becoming Limited Non Pro
Co-Champions as well:
17-year-old Austrian Clemens Hefel aboard Rio Juice
and Katharina King aboard

Ewald Rifeser and Golden Iron Jac

Antarismartin, who scored a 212.5 each.

"I am so happy," Ewald smiled after his ride. "Golden Iron Jac and I are an excellent team. He is such an honest horse." With Golden Iron Jac, Ewald Rifeser was AustrianRHA Futurity Champion (4-year-old) and NRHA/IRHA Maturity Champion Non Pro Level 4 2013. Ewald who is at home in Brixen, Italy, is among Europe's best Non Pros. He is a multiple NRHA Breeders Futurity and IRHA Futurity Finalist Non Pro, Americana Futurity Champion Non Pro, NRHA European Futurity Reserve Champion Level 2 and 1, 2011 IRHA NRHA Futurity Champion Non Pro Level 3 and IRHA NRHA Futurity Res. Champion Non Pro. He also claimed the Non Pro Trophy at the Breeders Derby.

For Clemens Hefel and Rio Juice (Smart Like Juice x Tari What), this show was a new milestone. He is a multiple Year End Champion Rookie / Youth and FEQHA European Reserve Champion Reining Youth and won the NRHA Youth -18 at the Breeders Derby. With Rio Juice, whom he has got for four months now, already won two Bronze Trophies. "I am very happy, although Rio Juice can do a lot more," said Clemens. "He is a great horse, so willing and calm." The young Austrian started his reining career two years ago with Uli Kofler, then bought a horse from Bernard Fonck. Since then he spends some time in summer at Bernard's place but mostly trains his horses himself.

Katharina King and her Antarismartin (by ARC Antares Surprise) were NRHA Breeders Derby Reserve Champions the year before and also IRHA/NRHA Futurity Non Pro Level 2 Champion and Reserve Level 3 and 4. "I'm so happy," she said. "Especially as we had bad luck in the go round and almost missed the final. Antarismartin is such a good horse – very consistent and always with me."

Michelle Maibaum dominates Non Pro Derby Go Round

Both the Non Pro and the Limited Non Pro NRHA Breeders Derby Go round were dominated by 15-year-old Michelle Maibaum and her father's AQHA gelding Chics Lil Revolution (Einsteins Revolution x Dun It By Chic). The two scored a 213 in a field of 42. Michelle is among the best young reiners of Germany. She was 2013 NRHA European Futurity Non Pro Level 3 Third and NRHA Germany Year End Champion Youth -18. Aboard Chics Lil Revolution, she won the Non Pro at the 2014 Bitz Country Spring. The gelding was 2012 NRHA European Futurity finalist with Grischa Ludwig in the saddle, and 2013 NRHA Germany Year End Champion Bronze Trophy with Dominik Reminder.

Nina Zinsli (SUI) aboard Quotacrome and Sarah Ehrenreich aboard One Juicy Dude tied for second place in the Non Pro Go round scoring a 211.5 each.

MISS TINSELTOWN (UNOFFICIALLY) BECOMES NRHA'S LEADING ALL TIME PRODUCING DAM

Dave Silva was sitting in the stands with Tim and Colleen McQuay at the Tradition Futurity in 1997 when Ben Miller, who was an assistant trainer to Larry Rose, rode in on a sorrel mare bred by Charles Vaughn. He remembers, "Colleen watched her go, then said they needed to go check out that horse – find out if she was for sale. They talked to Larry and verified that she was for sale and the deal was done. The McQuays thought she would make a futurity horse for Mandy, but when they got her home and into their program they quickly realized that Miss Tinseltown would be a horse for Tim – an open horse."

Silva continues, "I said I wanted to buy her and have Tim ride her. I just had a feeling. I knew she was talented and knew Tim really liked her and felt she had lots of potential."

Miss Tinseltown certainly had physical ability – in excess. But she wasn't easy to ride. "She would be looking all around and if anyone had tried to change her – to force her to focus and look straight ahead - it wasn't going to work for her. Tim is such a quiet rider and had so much feel plus the confidence that he could keep her quiet in spite of her big motor. He'd let her work and it was so exciting to watch because it always seemed she was right on the edge! You couldn't take your eyes off her!"

Tim McQuay laughed, "You couldn't just cruise through a run on her – you had to keep her busy – but that's when she was great – when the hammer was down!" He added, "She was probably the grittiest mare I've ever ridden. Later she passed that strength and toughness on to her foals."

The Silva and the McQuays had faith in the team and it wasn't long until their confidence was realized. At the Congress Straight Arrow Futurity just a month later, Tim rode her to win the first round and finished in the top ten. At the National Reining Horse Association Futurity, they bested 346 other horses in the first round, then came back to win fourth in the futurity. In her 4-year-old year, she was runner-up at the National Reining Breeders Classic, and made the finals at the NRHA Derby as well.

In 1999, Tim and Miss Tinseltown returned to Guthrie, Oklahoma for the NRBC and held the audience in thrall when they won the event with an amazing score of 233.5! She ended her career with $114,087 in earnings.

The next phase of her life began with the first of her twelve foals. She was bred to Silva's stallion, Footworks Finest, and to Hollywood Dun It in 1999 and her two foals began a winning record that would push her quickly toward the top of the NRHA's Leading Dam list. After that first year, she was bred exclusively to Hollywood Dun It and Gunner.

Two of her sons owned by the Silvas, Hollywoodstinseltown (LTE $185,000+) and Gunners Tinseltown (LTE $265,383.38), are now legends in their own right and stand to the public at McQuay Stables. She also has three foals still unshown.

It was Gunners Tinseltown, ridden by Sam Schaffhauser, that propelled his dam (unofficially) to the NRHA's All Time Leading Dam achievement. At the 2014

NRHA Derby, this duo was Reserve in the Level 3 Open Derby, and tied for fifth in the Level 4 Open Derby. They Money35,741.27, and that increased Miss Tinseltown's foals total earnings to $678,619.12, securing a place in history.

"It's quite an achievement," said Silva. "Of course we hoped she would be a great producer but this is something you can't predict or expect. I'm especially happy that this We've been clients of theirs since 1989, and from day one, their philosophy is that the welfare of the horse comes first and that showing and accomplishments come second. That's very important to me."

NRHA EUROPEAN AFFILIATE CHAMPIONSHIP IS APPROACHING FAST

-By Simone Diale (NRHA of France)

For the very first time, the NRHA European Affiliate Championship (EAC) will be held in France from July 9-13, 2014. Hosting the event will be Le Petit Far West facility, located in Le Pin, close to Paris. The event is already a success with close to 170 riders representing Austria, Belgium, Denmark, France, Germany, Great Britain, Italy, Sweden and the Netherlands getting ready to compete in the championship.

In order to compete, riders had to qualify in their respective countries and once in Le Pin, they will be vying for the European Affiliate Championship Open, Intermediate Open, Intermediate Non Pro, Limited Open, Limited Non Pro, Rookie, Rookie Professional, Youth 13 & Under and Youth 14-18 titles.

A full slate of NRHA ancillary classes will also be offered and include the $10 000 added Open and the $5 000 added Non Pro. Adding more excitement to the show will be the NRHA approved $300 added Snaffle Bit Open and Snaffle Bit Non Pro. In view of the upcoming Alltech World Equestrian Games, the last CRI offered in France will be held.

About the location Le Petit Far West:

Located less than 30 minutes from Paris and 15 minutes from the renowned EuroDisney amusement park, Le Petit Far West is host to many NRHA of France competitions. The facility includes a large covered arena 40×80 m, a covered warm up arena 35×70 m, a warm up arena for the pre-check 20×50 m, a restaurant and a club house.

Kader Ikhlef and his team look forward to welcoming reiners, horses, owners and fans in the great French facility. Get a taste of where you need to be on July 9-13 by visiting Le Petit Far West website.

STUDENT EQUESTRIANS RIDE TO IEA NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

From the Interscholastic Equestrian Association

166 of the nation's leading middle school and high school equestrians competed at the Oklahoma State Fairgrounds in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, June 26-28, 2014. The Interscholastic Equestrian Association (IEA) student-riders competed in the Western discipline during the National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) Derby. The NRHA and the National Reining Horse Youth Association (NRHyA) are alliance partners of the IEA and sponsored the event. The finalists represented 40 teams from seven zones throughout the United States. Individuals and teams participated in multiple competitions during the 2013-2014 regular season shows and zone finals to qualify for the IEA National Finals competition.

Riders competed in reining and horsemanship contests. The IEA format requires that riders compete in unfamiliar tack on unfamiliar mounts; therefore, each rider draws a horse the day of competition and enters the show arena with no opportunity to familiarize themselves with their mount.

In the individual competition Shelby Derr, 18, who rides for the Hancock Horseman team of Findlay, OH, was named the IEA Champion Western Rider by accumulating the highest number of points in the Varsity Open Division.

In the fourth annual High School Reining Championship among the top four youth riders of the IEA and the top four NRHyA riders, the winner was Paisley Roberts of Plain City, Ohio, riding for the NRHyA. Roberts is also a current IEA member. Alex Johnston (IEA) of Brentwood, Tennessee, who rides for the Natchez Bend took second place.

In the IEA upper school team competition, KM Equestrian of Findlay, Ohio, earned the Championship title. Autumn Rose Equestrian Team of Plain City, Ohio, was the reserve champion team. In the middle school competition, Autumn Rose Equestrian Team of Plain City, Ohio, received the championship title. Central Carolina Equestrian Team from Pinnacle, North Carolina, finished as the reserve champion.

The IEA holds the trait of good sportsmanship among riders and coaches to the highest regard. For this reason, two awards are given to recognize rider-members displaying exceptional sportsmanship. In conjunction with the Intercollegiate Horse Show Association (IHSA), Jessica Brobst of the Stonehaven Equestrian Team from Temperance, Michigan, won the IEA National Sportsmanship Award. Micah King of the Autumn Rose Equestrian Team from Plain City, Ohio, was awarded the NRHA Sportsmanship Award for displaying exceptional sportsmanship during the 2014 Western National Finals.

The IEA High Point Crossover Rider Award was given to Grace Cope from the Last Lap Ranch of Maryville, Tennessee-for being the highest ranking individual to qualify for both the individual Western and Hunt Seat National Finals in 2014. The Team Spirit Award was given to the Dare Equestrian Team of Hilliard, Ohio-for their great attitude and participation throughout the Finals event.

Each year the IEA recognizes an exceptional horse that participates in the Finals competition. This year, the 2014 Outstanding Western Horse Award sponsored by NRHA was presented to Pica Peppy Doc donated by Torpey Performance Horses from Princeton, Kentucky.

"Our IEA riders were just spectacular in and out of the show arena during the Finals. Weare so fortunate to have such talented youngsters in our Association. These kids can really ride. The staff of our alliance partner, the NRHA, was terrific as well. Their assistance and facilities provide an environment that is very special to IEA competitors. Our members, parents and coaches are overwhelmingly pleased with the support of the NRHA management and staff. We are especially grateful to the owners/trainers that supplied the high-quality horses," said Roxane Lawrence, IEA cofounder/executive director.

Gary Carpenter, NRHA commissioner, stated, "The IEA riders are an impressive group of young people. It's amazing that these 11-19 year olds are so adept at reining. The NRHA High School Reining Championship featuring the NRHyA top four youth riders versus the IEA top four youth riders is among the highlights of Derby week. It has become an event even our adult members look forward to watching. Certainly, our youth groups compliment each other and we look forward to enhancing our alliance with the IEA."

Founded in 2002, the IEA has more than 10,000 middle and high school student-riders across the United States. The IEA was organized to promote and improve the quality of equestrian competition and instruction available to middle and secondary school students. Its purpose is to set minimum standards for competition, provide information concerning the creation and development of school associated equestrian sport programs, to generally promote the common interests of safe riding instruction and competition and education on matters related to equestrian competition at the middle and secondary school levels. INDUSTRY LEADERS MEET AT AHC CONFERENCE IN WASHINGTON

AHC's 45th Annual Meeting a Success

The 45th annual meeting of the American Horse Council was held in Washington, DC in late June. It drew nearly 200 attendees, including industry leaders from 50 organizations, members of Congress and staff, and federal regulatory agency staff. Photos from the meeting are posted on the AHC's website.

"We had our best attendance in quite a few years," said AHC president Jay Hickey. "We think that is because of the importance of the issues facing all segments of the horse industry before Congress and the federal agencies. We also think the topic of this year's National Issues Forum, 'Where Have All the Horses Gone,' attracted great interest."

The first day of the AHC's annual meeting is an opportunity for all of the AHC's advisory committees to meet face-to-face and discuss federal issues affecting all segments of the horse industry. Those committees include the Animal Welfare Committee, Health and Regulatory Committee, Horse Show Committee, Racing Committee, and Recreation Committee. The AHC's Coalition of State Horse Councils also meets, as does the Unwanted Horse Coalition.

Probably the most-discussed legislation was the Prevent All Soring Tactics Act (PAST Act), which was before the AHC's Animal Welfare Committee and Horse Show Committee, but brought up at several others too. "The AHC, along with all major breed registries and horse show organizations, supports the bill, which now has 296 cosponsors in the House of Representatives and 57 cosponsors in the Senate. That position of support was reaffirmed at the meetings," noted Hickey, "So we will redouble our efforts to get it passed. But even with that number of Congressional cosponsors, we still need more help from the horse community at large to get it over the finish line."

"Taxes are always an important topic," Hickey noted. "and were again at this annual meeting." Several favorable tax provisions applicable to horses and assets used in the horse business expired or dropped in value at the end of 2013. This includes the Section 179 expense deduction, which went from $500,000 to $25,000; bonus depreciation, which went from 50% to zero; the ability to depreciate all race horses over three years, rather than over seven; and the higher limits for contributions of real property for conservation purposes by farmers and ranchers. "Legislation to extend all these provisions is being considered by Congress and the AHC supports such extensions. We are hopeful any extensions will be retroactive to January 1, 2014," said Hickey.

In addition to the reinstatement of three-year-depreciation for all race horses, the AHC Racing Committee also discussed efforts to have the Department of Treasury recharacterize the definition of a wager so that fewer wagers are subject to withholding. Current federal bills to legalize and regulate, or simply prohibit, Internet wagering were reviewed. The AHC was directed to ensure that if any legislation is considered in Congress it protects what the racing industry is now offering under the Interstate Horseracing Act.

In the equine health area, attendees received reports on the Equine Veterinary Mobility Act, which would allow veterinarians to transport medications deemed "controlled substances" to farms, tracks, shows, and events without fear of violating the Controlled Substances Act. "This critical legislation has passed the Senate and should get to the House floor for a vote," said Hickey. "If we can get it to the floor, it should pass and eliminate veterinarians' concerns about the Drug Enforcement Agency finding a violation should vets take medications out of their offices to administer to horses."

In addition, the U.S. Department of Agriculture has proposed several changes to the import-export regulations. The Health and Regulatory Committee was updated by USDA staff on the latest rule change proposal that would eliminate Saudi Arabia from the list of countries with African Horse Sickness and make it easier for horses to be imported from that country. As with any changes to the import rules, the industry wants to facilitate the international movement of horses, "but not at the expense of protecting the U.S. horse population," said Hickey. "This meeting allowed the AHC Health and Regulatory Committee to discuss this proposal and prepare to submit comments to USDA by mid-August on the proposed rule change."

Finally, the AHC's Recreation Committee discussed the recent introduction of the National Forest System Trails Stewardship Act (H.R. 4886), which would direct the Forest Service to address the current trail maintenance backlog that is adversely affecting trail users, including equestrians. "The AHC, along with the Back Country Horsemen of America and the Wilderness Society, was significantly involved in the drafting and introduction of this bill. We are all for it," said Hickey.

The AHC annual meeting also was an opportunity for the AHC's Coalition of State Horse Councils to meet and discuss state issues and activities thoroughly. The AHC's Van Ness Award, presented to an outstanding person associated with state councils, was presented to Paul Briney of Illinois at the luncheon on Tuesday.

The AHC's National Issues Forum was held on the second day of the convention and heard three panels discuss "Where Have All the Horses Gone." Tim Capps, Director, Equine Industry Program, University of Louisville, was the keynote speaker. Attendees heard representatives of racing, showing and other stakeholders explain in detail how the dramatic fall-off in registered horses affected them and what they were doing about it. "Clearly, this is a critical issues for the future of the horse industry," said Hickey. "But just as clearly the leaders of the industry are acutely aware of it and taking steps to reverse it."

One effort is the AHC's "Time To Ride" program and convention attendees heard an update on the "100 Day Horse Challenge" intended to attract 100,000 new people to an equine experience this summer. Various stables, events, and facilities will be competing for $100,000 in cash and other prizes. Patti Colbert of PCE Enterprises gave an update on the Challenge.

Dr. Nat White updated all on the current status of the National Equine Health Plan and the formation of the Equine Disease Communication Center, which will be operational later this year and provide accurate and up-to-date information on disease outbreaks.

The AHC annual meeting was also an opportunity for the Unwanted Horse Coalition, which operates under the AHC, to meet. Members present reaffirmed their commitment to the UHC and its various ongoing educational programs.

The AHC's convention also included the AHC's Congressional Reception, which allowed industry people to visit informally with Members of Congress to renew old friendships, make new ones, and discuss industry concerns.

The annual Congressional Ride-In took place all day Wednesday, June 25. The Ride-In brought horse people to Capitol Hill to meet with their elected representatives to discuss important issues affecting them.

"As always, the AHC's annual meeting brings together the horse industry's leaders, stakeholders, service providers and rank-and-file to discuss common federal issues of importance," said Hickey.
