2014 ITALIAN REINING HORSE ASSOCIATION DERBY COVERAGE

Husband/Wife Team Win IRHA/NRHA Derby Titles! Bernard and Ann Fonck Split Open Level 4 Championship

The $109,163-added Italian Reining Horse Association/National Reining Horse Association Derby, held May 13-17, drew a large crowd, and the caliber of horses and riders showcased the sport of reining at its best. It was held during the Salone del Cavallo in Reggio Emilia. The event attracted close to 60,000 visitors, over 1,200 horses, 1,300 riders, and 160 vendors.

It was extra-special for the winners of the $43,968-added Level 4 Open – the husband/wife team of Bernard Fonck and Ann Poels Fonck each posted a 228.

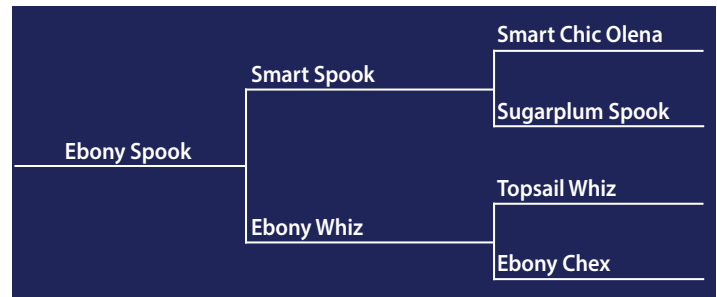

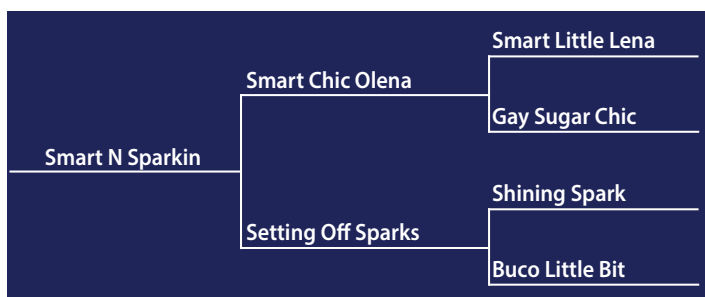

Bernard, an NRHA Million Dollar Rider, competed second-to-last on Smart N Sparkin, owned by 7 Heaven Reining Horses. Bernard burst into the pen to perform pattern nine;

it was an explosive run from the first maneuver to the last.

And while his score of 228 took the lead, Bernard knew that the next entry was a contender: Ann is a past NRHA Open World Champion!

Ann competed with a smile on her face, knowing that at least one of the Foncks would be the Derby Champion. Still, she held nothing back, and piloted Rosanne Sternberg's talented mare, Ebony Spook (Smart Spook x Ebony Whiz), to a 228. The Foncks elected to be co-champions instead of adding the extra pressure of a run-off to their horses.

“Ebony Spook was just great and I am thrilled,” said

Ann about the mare, who boasts close to $48,000 in NRHA earnings. “Being co-champions here with my husband is all about pure love!”

Bernard was equally thrilled, and gave credit to the athletic ability of his 6-year-old stallion, Smart N Sparkin. “My horse was phenomenal tonight and I cannot thank his owners enough for their continuous trust and support,” he said.

Claiming first place honors in the $18,549-added Open Level 3 division with a 220 were Pietro Artinghelli and Impresa Agricola Cuoghi's Puregold Master. Bred by Roberto Cuoghi, the flashy stallion is by past NRHA Derby Open Champion, Master Snapper, and out of Tivios Little Dun It. “I am thrilled with this title and now my wife, Kelly (Zweifel), after the birth of our second son two months ago, Luca, cannot wait to show this horse herself!” said Pietro. “The best thing about this win is that once again we made it to the winners circle with a horse born and bred by Cuoghi.”

In the $5,496-added Open Level 2 division, young Giovanni ‘Dido’ Masi de Vargas, riding Smart Whiz Delmaso (Easy Otie Whiz x Playin Dress Up) for owner Stefano Scardina, scored a 219.5.

That was enough to not only win the Level 2 title, but also to claim reserve honors in the Level 3.

Winning the $2,061-added Open Level 1 Championship was French rider Ann Sophie Guerriero aboard Chicken Sandwich (Ricochet Rooster x Ms Sandich Whiz) owned by Eric Defouilhoux.

Giacomo Ronchi & San July Jo Magnetic Win IRHA/NRHA Derby Non Pro (4) Championship

A large class of 42 Non Pro competitors battled for titles in the IRHA/NRHA Non Pro Derby. Claiming the $21,984-added Non Pro Level 4 Championship was Italian Giacomo Ronchi and San July Jo Magnetic, a 5-year-old mare by Chic Magnetic out of Broc Olena Jo. Championships aren’t a new phenomenon for the duo – they won all four levels at the 2012 IRHA/NRHA Non Pro Futurity.

During the Non Pro Derby Finals, the pair marked a 222.5 to take the title. “My mare was great for me today, even though I believe she felt the pressure of the show,” noted Giacomo, who started and trained the mare himself. “She’s a wonderful athlete, and I dedicate this victory to my father who raises dogs and has been trying to win the Italian Show Dog Derby.”

Susy Baeck of Belgium took Reserve honors riding her 6-year-old gelding Pop Gun Cash BB (Nu Chex To Cash x Sugar Pop Gun). “This is the first time that my horse has done well for me here in Reggio Emilia. He doesn’t deal well with the confusion of the fair, so I’m very happy. I just wish I had pushed him a bit more,” Susy said of her 217.5 score.

It was 17-year-old Eric Rainieri Volpe of Italy who claimed three Championships – the $10,922-added Non Pro Level 3, the $4,122-added Level 2, and the $2,061-added Level 1. Eric rode Exxcaliber, a 6-year-old stallion by Master Snapper out of Tivios Little Dun It to a 217, which also took third place in the Non Pro Level 4.

"I purchased this horse from his breeder, Roberto Cuoghi, last year and fell in love with him the moment I sat in the saddle," Eric said following the awards ceremony. "I am ecstatic and couldn't be happier with the way things went. I thank my trainer, Alessandro Meconi, for his help and assistance. He's always there for me 24/7!"

Sharing the Co-Reserve Championship in the Level 3 were Pietro Paolo Ambrosini aboard AT Andrewood (Rico-

FEI Champions Crowned in Italy

The IRHA/NRHA Derby also hosted CRI competition before the Derby finals.

The CRI Senior competition saw Gennaro Lendi of Italy win the gold on Piccolo Spanish with a 217.5 for owners Sabatino Quarter Horses. Sliding to the second step of the podium, also from Italy, were Stefano Angelucci and AB Captain Badger, who closed their run with a 216. Third place honors, a point behind, went to Anne Sophie Guerriero of France riding Eric Defouiloux's Chicken Sandwich.

In the CRI* Junior class, Eric Ranieri Volpi rode his Excaliber to a 214.5 and first place honors. "After seeing the FEI European Junior & JR Championships in Manerbio last year, I realized that it would be great to be able represent my country in the championships so, along with my trainer Alessandro Meconi, we decided to give it a try and I am thrilled to have qualified for the Italian Junior Long List!" said an enthused Eric. Tying for second place with scores of 210.5, were Francesco Pedretti riding El Peppy Gold and Linda Rebecca Martinelli with Playgirl On The Rocks at the reins. The six highest scoring horse-rider combinations will be part of the long list for Team Italy, coached by Filippo Masi.

The top six in the CRI* Young Riders competition also qualified for the long list in this category. Riccardo Calascibetta (ITA) riding Genuine Secolo and Davide Chiarello (ITA) aboard Super Okie Diamonds tied to win with a 211.5. Calascibetta started riding with Francesco Martinotti a little over a month ago and gives credit to his trainer for having brought him to this result. Chiarello is also thrilled considering that Simone Guerra, who owns Peppy Secolo, put the stallion back in training a little over a month ago in order to allow Davide to take part in the qualifying CRI.

AQHA HIRES PETE KYLE AS EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF SHOWS AND JUDGES

In May, the American Quarter Horse Association announced that former AQHA Professional Horseman of the Year Pete Kyle will become Executive Director of Shows and Judges.

"With the many outside influences that have affected our growth these past few years, the AQHA Executive Committee and I believe it is necessary to dedicate a person to focus on continuing to assess, develop and implement existing and new programs targeted toward moving shows and judges forward," said AQHA Executive Vice President Don Treadway Jr. "Much of this needed emphasis was identified when we convened a group of members to begin development of a strategic plan for shows in January 2014."

By serving as the point person for the soon-to-be-completed show strategic plan, Kyle will be well positioned to take on the management of shows and the many components involved with their successful implementation.

Kyle, who currently serves as an AQHA judge and an AQHA director-at-large for Texas, brings a lifetime of horse involvement as a trainer, professional and exhibitor. Kyle along with his wife, Tamra, and their children have shown and been a part of the show industry for many years. Most recently, he has specialized in training reining horses and their riders. He has won world championships with six different associations, was a top-10 money-earning rider for the National Reining Horse Association in 2012 and voted by his peers as the AQHA Professional Horseman of the Year in 1997. Kyle has also trained and coached several youth and non-pro riders to world championship titles and major NRHA victories. Currently, he ranks 36th on the all-time leading money-earner list for NRHA.

He received his AQHA judge's card in 1984 and judged the Youth World Show in 1992, 1995 and 2001. He also judged the Zoetis Versatility Ranch Horse World Championships in 2013. Kyle has served on the international, professional horsemen and hall of fame committees and currently serves as the chairman of the judges committee. He was elected as an AQHA director in 1993 and elevated to director-at-large in 2011.

"My personal thanks to Tom Persechino and the competition team for the work they have done these past four years. They have worked tirelessly to design and implement programs, such as leveling, which have started us down the path of appealing to the 21st-century exhibitor," said Treadway. "With Kyle as an addition to the team, we will be staffed to move along even faster."

Kyle will begin his duties as the AQHA Executive Director of Shows and Judges in June.

IT'S A GRIND

A vexing problem for a horse owner can come when the vet hands him a container of medication in tablet form. Most horsemen have attacked a pile of pills with a hammer, only to hit off center and have them leap off the counter, at which point the next few minutes are spent crawling around on the floor to retrieve them.

Here are workable alternatives to the bruised-finger technique of crunching up pills.

Place pills on a piece of wax paper, then cover with another piece of wax paper. Use a rolling pin, or the standby hammer, to grind them into a consistency that will mix with feed.

The handiest kitchen implement for coffee-crazed horse people can also be used as the quickest pill grinder in the business.

Put the pills in the coffee grinder and start the grinding mechanism. Hint: you might have to agitate the grinder while grinding to make sure small pieces of pills all get ground.

The ideal grinding level will depend on your horse's ability to pick out minute pieces of medicine. For dedicated picky eaters, a powder-like consistency is toughest to avoid.

Pour the dose into a re-sealable plastic bag. Seal and label. If necessary; you can make up a whole week's doses at once and have ready to add to each feeding.

NRHA PROFESSIONALS AWARD PROGRAM RECIPIENTS ANNOUNCED

The National Reining Horse Association's Professionals Award Program was established by the NRHA Professionals Committee to recognize outstanding individuals in their profession. To be eligible, each individual had to be a member of the NRHA Professionals Program during the year. NRHA members nominated candidates in all five categories, including information outlining the nominee's character, professionalism and the reasons he or she deserved the award. The committee then reviewed the nominations and selected the award winners.

NRHA Professional Horseman of the Year

Josh Visser (LTE over $177,000) from Whitesboro, Texas, has been an NRHA Professional since 2007 and currently serves on the NRHA Executive Committee

A finalist at multiple NRHA major events, he is also a member of several other NRHA committees. At the 2013 Adequan® North American Affiliate Championships (NAAC), Visser Reining Horses, Josh and his wife Carri, donated bikes to third place in all 15 NAAC classes.

In recent years, Visser has worked with the Oklahoma City National Memorial Foundation benefit held during the NRHA Futurity. Recently he volunteered to assist a reining para-athlete during the 2013 American Quarter Horse Association (AQHA) World Championship Show. In addition, Visser has donated his expertise to countless clinics and other fundraising events to benefit the youth of NRHA and National Reining Horse Youth Association (NRHyA).

NRHA Professional Non Pro Coach of the Year

Mark Rafacz (LTE over $168,000) from Citra, Florida, has been an NRHA Professional since 2004.

A popular coach of many NRHA Champions and Top Ten finishers, Rafacz still finds time to give back to the industry, donating his time to NRHA regional clinics that benefit the NRHyA. He and his wife Shannon, also sponsor many shows around the Southeast region.

Known for his passion for the industry as well as his love for coaching others to success, he's a fitting recipient of the Non Pro Coach of the Year title.

NRHA Professional Youth Coach of the Year

Pete Kyle from Whitesboro, Texas, has been an NRHA Professional since 2003. With NRHA Lifetime Earnings of over $550,000, Kyle has served many roles in the reining community. An National Reining Breeders Classic Board Member, he has also been the United States Equestrian Foundation (USEF) Chairman of the Reining Committee, President of USA Reining and he serves on the Sweden-based Federation Equestre Internationale (FEI) reining committee.

Kyle was also the FEI North American Junior and Young Rider Championship Team Coach at the competition in Lexington, Kentucky and has just accepted a position with the American Quarter Horse Association as Executive Director of Shows and Judges .

NRHA Professional Horsewoman of the Year

Carol Metcalf (LTE earnings nearly $200,000), has been an NRHA Professional since 2005. In 2004, Metcalf was the Intermediate and Limited Open Champion at the NRHA Futurity and has won multiple World Championships with various breed associations and equine disciplines. Metcalf, from Pilot Point, Texas, was also chosen as the 1996 AQHA Professional Horsewoman of the Year.

Carol operates Metcalf Quarter Horses with her husband Steve and their son Carter.

NRHA Professional Up-And-Coming Trainer of the Year

An NRHA Professional since 2012, Jimmy Van Der Hoeven from Whitesboro, Texas, came to the U.S. from Holland in 2010 and he has grown into one of NRHA's top professionals.

Riding Black Hails Gold, Van Der Hoeven was the 2013 NRHA Futurity Level 3 Open Champion and finished third in the Level 4 Open. Van Der Hoeven now has Lifetime Earnings over $250,000.

He is willing to donate his time to causes that further the sport of reining and he also regularly returns to Holland to provide free clinics there.

TOPSAIL WHIZ IS NATIONAL REINING HORSE ASSOCIATION'S FIRST-EVER $10 MILLION SIRE

Four and a half years after his death in 2009, Topsail Whiz has become the National Reining Horse Association's (NRHA) first-ever Ten Million Dollar Sire!

Foaled in 1987, Topsail Whiz was by Topsail Cody, (NRHA Million Dollar Sire and Hall of Fame Inductee) and out of Jeanie Whiz Bar (AQHA Superior Reining Horse, by Cee Red) and he became a cornerstone of the reining industry under the management of his owner, Bob Loomis.

Loomis remembered, "He wasn't just any horse; he was a member of the family. There will never be another one like him."

Even years later his earliest memories of the stallion were bright. "I knew he was going to be great after the second time I rode him. I had sold him to some Germans when he was younger, and when I asked them to price him, they did so at five times what they paid me for him. I never hesitated and wired them the money. It was the smartest thing I've ever done."

According to Loomis, he felt that one of the amazing things about Whiz was that he "crossed well on everything. He would breed just about anything and come up with a futurity finalist." Loomis credits Whiz's prepotency to the cross he made between Topsail Cody and Jeanie Whiz Bar. He feels that Topsail Cody contributed his strength, athletic ability, and big stop, while Jeannie Whiz Bar donated her gorgeous looks, low-headedness, and quiet, laid-back temperament to a bloodline that has dominated the reining scene in the last decade. In fact, Loomis, in his own words, "a mare-side fanatic" when it comes to analyzing bloodlines, gives Jeanie Whiz Bar the credit for transforming the Joe Cody line.

"I had to show against her many times," explained the six-time NRHA Futurity champion. "She was ridden by a 15-year-old boy (Tom McBeath), who'd win in the youth classes and then beat the pros in the open. It was a humbling experience. So I eventually bought her for my broodmare band."

Topsail Whiz, who was fittingly inducted into the NRHA Hall of Fame, sired four NRHA Million Dollar Stallions (Conquistador Whiz, West Coast Whiz, Whizard Jac, and Whiz N Tag Chex).
