2ND ANNUAL HERITAGE FUTURITY

Jared Leclair wins Heritage Futurity on Coded N Karma

It all came down to the last drag at the Second Annual Heritage Futurity on Saturday, October 4 at the Great Southwest Equestrian Center. Leading the 64 horse field with scores of 147 were Sam Schaffhauser on Dun Tinkering Around owned by McQuay Stables and Stefano Calcagnini on Shannon Reid's Shinestein.

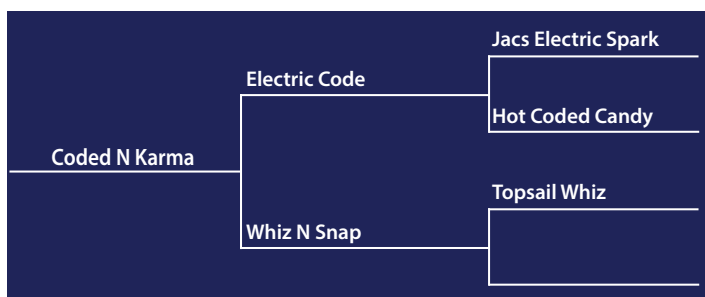

Then Jared Leclair rode in on Coded N Karma, a gelding by Electric Code out of Whiz N Snap. In Jared's words, the gelding was "really quiet and easy to show" and the judges rewarded the run with a score of 148, good for the Open Level 4 Championship.

"It's neat to train and ride one that is by a horse I trained and rode," said Jared, referring to his sire, Electric Code. "Because I knew his dad so well, I knew I could trust him – I just know their personalities and what they're good at and I can enhance all they do."

Coded N Karma is owned by Robert and Robbin Thayn of Oxford, Nebraska. For the win he earned $7,129 and a trophy saddle compliments of Kyle Tack.

The Reserve title in the Level 4 Open ended in a tie between Schaffhauser on Dun Tinkering (Hollywood Dun It X Whiz N Snap) and Calcagnini on Shinestein (Einsteins Revolution X Shiney O Lady). Each horse earned $3797.

Sam Schaffhauser & Dun Tinkering Around Win Intermediate Open

Sam Schaffhauser and Dun Tinkering Around won the Intermediate Open Championship, collecting another $3,374. Sam noted, "Tim (McQuay) raised 'Tinker' and he's a really nice horse – real feely – and he is getting really broke.”

It was the second event for Tinker. Schaffhauser had shown him at the Tulsa Reining Classic but “he slowed down too hard in a transition and the penalties got him.”

At the Heritage Futurity, he was, in Sam’s words, “really good all the way and through all the maneuvers. We’ll have a couple of things to work on but he’s just getting more broke. We’ll show him at the Southwest Futurity and then at Oklahoma City.”

Schaffhauser also noted that he was most appreciative of Tim McQuay for letting him show this caliber of horse.

The Reserve Championship in the Intermediate Open ended in a tie at 146.5 between Luke Gagnon on Styled Up Juice (Smart Like Juice X Shining In Style) owned by Belar Farms and Patti Brownshadel on her Magnetised (Im The Chic Magnet X Gee Golly Whiz). Each earned $1,797 for the tie.

Patti Brownshadel & Magnetised Win Limited Open

It was a good day for Patti Brownshadel and Magnetised (Im The Chic Magnet X Gee Golly Whiz)! Not only did their score of 146.5 win the Heritage Futurity Limited Open Championship and $1,668. Her reserve in the Intermediate and fourth Pl tie in the Open boosted her total earnings to $5,790!

“I just love this horse,” she said shortly after the event when talking about Magnetised or “Player” as she calls him, the first futurity baby by her stallion, Im The Chic Magnet. “He’s got the brains, personality and talent and he looks like a 6-year-old! He’s just never had a bad day – he never says ‘no’ to me!”

Obviously excited about the chestnut stallion, it was easy to forget the difficult week Patti had gone through. She had actually passed out during an early morning schooling ride. A check with her physician found the cause to be an error in the dosage instructions for a medicine. She was assured that she would be back to normal... in a few days. But she was so weak she had doubts and scratched every class until the futurity.

Luckily she had a great support team in an exceptional group of Non Pros and her husband, Elton. “They helped with everything all week,” she noted. She added that friend, Trey Pool, had also encouraged her “from day one!”

The Reserve Championship in the Limited Open went to Abigayle Mixon on Miss Mcdreamy (Magnum Chic Dream X Lipstick Jungle) owned by the Sather Family Partnership of Manson, Washington. Their score of 146 earned $1015.

Mandy McCutcheon Takes Heritage Futurity Non Pro on MJG Colonel Dry

Mandy McCutcheon didn’t let the fact that she’d never ridden MJG Colonel Dry until four days before stop her from riding him to the Heritage Futurity Non Pro Level 4 Championship on October 5! She said, “My schedule this fall, with the World Equestrian Games and everything else has been so busy I haven’t been able to bet to the 3-year-olds.”

Luckily for Mandy, the Great Southwest Equestrian Center is a great venue offering plenty of places to school and the Heritage Futurity schedule provided optimum schooling time. Her parents Tim and Colleen McQuay own the gelding by Gunner and out of MJG Hollywood Dry so McQuay Stables Assistant Trainers Sam Schaffhauser and Lars Mortenson had done the riding on him. “Sam has actually ridden him the most,” she said, then added. “It did take him a day to figure out my short legs versus Sam’s legs.”

With that done, the next task was getting him shown and the NRHA’s only Non Pro $2 Million rider showed why she has garnered such a record! Her efforts resulted in a score of 144, to top the class, earn $3,914 and a saddle sponsored by Kyle Tack. The McQuays purchased the good gelding from John and Mary Wade Gilbert, who raised him. “We wanted him to have a good go today and he did everything right,” said Mandy. “I’m not sure yet whether Cade or I will ride him at the NRHA Futurity, but I know he’ll want him, now!”

The Reserve Championship ended in a two-way tie at 143.5 between Shelby Reine of LaPl, Louisiana on Keepyourgunsloaded and Dr. Jim Morgan of Pilot Point, Texas on Dun Alotta Chics. Each earned $2,270.

The same riders who won the Level 4 Reserve Championship were also entered in the Level 3 so that Intermediate Non Pro event ended with a duet of champions, as well. Each earned an additional $1,713.

Jim Morgan has been a consistent winner in NRHA Non Pro competition for decades and the dollars collected at Katy unofficially pushed him past $800,000 in career earnings! Morgan was showing Dun Alotta Chics (Magnum Chic Dream X A Lotta Dun It) for the very first time at the Heritage Futurity. He had been in Canada this summer judging a show when Ruben Vandorp called him from the Summer Slide. “He said he’d found me a horse,” Jim remembers. “I said, well buy him for me!”

Fast forward a few months and a horse fell on Jim, breaking his shoulder and necessitating surgery that left him with a plate and 6 screws. “The doctor said I couldn’t show until October 2. On October 3, Jim used the Novice Horse class as an opportunity to prepare for the Futurity, showing the palomino gelding one-handed. He tied for the class win, and felt prepared for the Futurity.

“He is a fun horse – easy to ride and easy to show - pretty uncomplicated. I’m living the dream of improving with each ride – both me and him. He’s maturing and did everything a little better today.” Morgan also mentioned that he appreciated the help of a couple trainers who came to him and gave him some tips on riding the Magnum Chic Dreams. “I’ve got great friends that help me like that!”

Jim’s partner in the tie was Shelby Reine of LaPl, Louisiana. She also claimed the Level 2 Championship on Keepyourgunsloaded (Hes A Loaded Gun X Toodie Star), adding another $860 to her earnings at the Heritage Futurity. A Non Pro with Sebastian Petrol, she has had a more than successful career in reining, most recently making the Level 4 Non Pro Finals at the National Reining Breeders Classic and claiming a Top 5 slot at the American Quarter Horse Association World Championship Show.

For the gelding she calls “Load”, stopping is a strength that helped him attain the high score. She got him in April and rode him during the summer but this was his very first show. More than pleased with the result, she shared that the next stop is the Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity and then the NRHA Futurity in Oklahoma City.

 Michael Garnett of Lincoln, Nebraska, rode his wife, Joanne’s horse, Snoop Around (Walla Walla Whiz X Sneaking Out Tonight) to a score of 142.5 to earn the Level 2 Reserve Championship, and a check for $591.

NRHA CLASSES AT THE HERITAGE FUTURITY

Tim McQuay Tops Novice Horse Open on Blo Gun

Action began in the Coliseum arena with the Novice Horse Open and Novice Horse Level 2/ AQHA at the Heritage Futurity Show at the Great Southwest Equestrian Center in Katy, Texas on October 2. Tim McQuay scored 72.5 on his Blo Gun (Colonels Smoking Gun X The Hot Jewel) to top the field and take the title in the Novice Horse Open and Novice Horse Level 2.

Tim has owned the 4-year-old since right after the NRBC this year when he bought him from Fred and Dany Tremblay. He had come within a half point of making the finals there and caught Tim’s eye. In Tim’s words, he is just getting to know the horse. They made the finals at Las Vegas, then showed well at Katy so he’s on track for Tim’s plans of showing him in the derbies in 2015.

The reserve championship in the Novice Horse Level 2 ended in a tie between Mirjam Stillo on White Noise owned by Mirjam and Andrea Stillo and Pierre Luc Paneuf on Twisted Smoking Gun (Colonels Smoking Gun X Justa Little Twisted) owned by John Dergo of Whitesboro, Texas.

Mirjam also picked up the win of the AQHA Reining, as well on White Noise, a son of Gunner out of Royal Chic Soleno.

Green Reiner Levels 1 and 2 Goes to Steven Deskin on Hot Rod Whiz

In the Tellepsen Arena, the day began with the Green Reiner Levels 1 and 2 classes and Steven Deskin of Dallas, Texas, scored 70 to win both levels on Hot Rod Whiz (Whiz N Tag Chex X Smart Anna Olena).

Steven was a western pleasure and all around rider and trainer at one point but about 10 years ago he stopped showing horses... until earlier this year when he decided to buy a reiner. It's a decision he's glad he made.

"This was FUN," he said, and he shared that he plans to keep on with this discipline. He gives credit to his trainer Mirjam Sillo, for finding the horse, making it better, and helping him so much. But here's a twist. When he was riding years ago, he actually worked for Mirjam's parents in Italy. "Now she's helping me," he said.

Reserve honors in both classes went to Betty Schroeder of Gatesville, Texas for a score of 69 on Chicsdndreamin (Magnum Chic Dream X Goody Goody Dun Drop).

Bettie Naquin Tops Non Pro, Intermediate Non Pro, Limited Non Pro on Roobix Cube

In the Non Pro, Intermediate Non Pro, and Limited Non Pro it was a clean sweep. All those top honors went to Bettie Naquin on Roobix Cube.

tie Naquin of DelAllemands, Louisiana, who scored 73 on Roobix Cube (Gallo Del Cielo X Smart Chiclet).

Bettie has owned the now-7-year-old stallion since he was 18 months old when she saw him at the NRHA Futurity Sale. "It was love at first sight," she remembers.

An accountant, Bettie's next goal is the North American Regional Affiliate Championships at Oklahoma City.

Second in the Non Pro divisions went to Madison Steed for a score of 72.50. Although the young Canadian has had much success in the show pen, this was her first time to show Nic Chic Olena (Searchin Nic X Cremes Chic Olena), owned by her sister, Hannah.

"He was really good in his spins and stops and circles," she noted. Hopefully her trips south to compete in reining have acclimated her to Texas, as she's planning to begin college at Southern Methodist University in Dallas in January, where she'll major in Environmental Science with an eye toward vet school.

The Intermediate Non Pro Reserve Championship went to Lisa Klaus of Fulshear, Texas. Lisa scored 71.5 on Gee Golly Whiz (Bueno Chexinic X Ebony Whiz) owned by Lisa Byrne.

Reserve honors in the Limited Non Pro went to Eileen Depew of Lakeway, Texas for a score of 71 on Thats Great Dunit (Dog Patch Bid X Bronzy Dun It VSJ).

Brownshadel & Depew Share Prime Time Non Pro Win

The Prime Time Division ended in a tie between Eileen Depew on Thats Great Dunit and Elton Brownshadel on Jacs Smart N Wimpy. Each scored 71.

Jacs Smart N Wimpy is by new $2 Million Sire Jacs Electric Spark. According to Elton, Ruben Vandorp called because he thought Elton and wife, Patti, would like her.

The mare had a natural stop but, in Elton's words, "just couldn't spin."

The couple liked the mare and bought her - and under Patti's tutelage her spin has emerged.

Elton showed her at Tulsa - not entering anything but the Prime Time where her score of 144 was a pleasant surprise. Now, their sites are set on derby events for next year.

Depew is both an attorney and a realtor and lives near Austin, Texas. Interestingly, the horse she calls "Clyde" was born and raised in Brazil where he had won both the Brazilian Futurity Open and Non Pro Championships. She has had the 6-year-old for the last year and in her words, "been trying to figure him out".

"He's so athletic. I've had to learn to ask for less because he gives me so much."

Karon Murff wins TRHA $1000 Limit Rider

In the TRHA $1000 Limit Rider, the winner was Karon Murff on Smart Merada Rey (Smart Shiner X Meradas Kitty Rey). She scored a 69.5 to take the class and finish just a half point ahead of her husband, James, on Tivios Lil Dun It (Hollywood Dun It X Tivios Little Queen).

James Murff finished in a tie for Reserve with Karla Searle of Pipe Creek, Texas on Cromes Freckle Flynn (Custom Crome X Pinky Flynn).

Karon, who has been showing reiners for about five years, rides with Patti Brownshadel, and credits her trainer with making reining fun, "She's wonderful!"

A Forensic CPA, Karon says reining is her stress relief!

Christine Harbach Rides Wimpys Lil Hollywood to win STRHA $3,000 Limit Rider

Christine Harbach has been riding reiners for about a year, moving to the discipline from her background of riding pleasure horses. "I rode a reiner and it was so much fun I gave up pleasure," she said.

She purchased Wimpys Lil Hollywood (Wimpys Little Step X Miss Hollywood Whiz) last year, but let her trainer, Todd Martin, show him. That proved to be a good decision as Martin finished as the Reserve Open Champion of the North American Affiliate Championship.

Eileen Depew

Elton Brownshadel

Christine began showing “The Wimp” in January and has had a great year. Most recently she won the Reserve Championship in the South Central Regional Affiliate Finals Rookie class - earning a spot in the Rookie Championship at Oklahoma City.

Finishing as the Reserve Champion in the $3,000 Limit Rider was Karon Murff on Smart Merada Rey.

Todd Martin Wins NRHA Open on West Coast Willy

Todd Martin had a big smile on his face at the conclusion of the Open Class, after scoring a smooth 72.5 for the win on West Coast Willy (West Coast Whiz X Miss Susie Vanderhose).

He had plenty of reason to, as “Willy” owned by Christine Harback, is a horse that’s coming into his own! In just the third show of his life, the gorgeous 5-year-old bay was solid as could be and his trainer was well pleased.

Although he’s only had him for three months, it looks like the pairing is a great one. Todd had taken him to two shows before coming to Katy, and each time he has improved. “I’m thankful to Christine for bringing him to me,” he said. “He’s so much fun to show.

Reserve in the Open went to Steve Archer on Dun It Chexinic owned by David Barr of Richmond, Texas. By Bueno Chexinic out of Ds Fancy Footwork, he earned a score of 72.

Steve Archer Rides WR Kentucky Chic & Dun It Chexinic to Tie for Intermediate Open Win

Scoring identical 72 scores on both horses, Steve Archer tied himself for the Championship of the NRHA Intermediate Open class. He rode Dun It Chexinic (Bueno Chexinic X Ds Fancy Footwork) owned by David Barr of Richmond, Texas and WR Kentucky Chic (Smart Chic Olena X Does Merry Lady) owned by Brook Kaiser of Richmond, Texas, to the double win.

Troy Koehl and Josefine Spangfors Share NRHA Limited Open Win

The Limited Open also ended in a tie with Troy Koehl on Chirac Whiz (Topsail Whiz X Tamu Oaks Bay Etta) and

Josefine Spangfors

Troy Koehl

Josefine Spangfors on Shiners Banjo (Banjo Whiz X Shiners Hustler) each scoring 70.5.

Chirac Whiz is owned by Don Byrne of Montgomery, Texas, and he’s been a model of consistency for Troy this year. “He’s the same every time he comes into the arena,” he noted.

Hopefully that trend will continue as they next set their sites on the North American Affiliate Finals – where they are qualified for every open class.

Josefine’s horse, Shiners Banjo is owned by Euro Vets, Inc., and she’s had success on him as well, winning the Rookie Pro and Limited Open at this year’s NRHA Derby, although she modestly says she’s still figuring him out.

“He’s a good boy,” she said, shortly after the class. “He really listens to me!”

Josefine and Shiners Banjo also picked up the Rookie Professional class win today, and she finished as the Reserve Champion as well, aboard Shiny Lil Suzigun (Lil Gun X Ima Shining Sparkle).

Victoria Lambert Wins Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 on Wound Up Wimp

In the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 for horses with career earnings less than $25,000, Victoria Lambert worked a smooth pattern 8 on Wound Up Wimp to top both classes with a score of 72 and her score also garnered the top spot in the AQHA Amateur class.

It was her first time to ride the 5-year-old owned by her husband, Carl, and she had only even ridden her three times before today. According to Vickie, trainer Joe Schmidt has done a great job of both getting the mare ready and for preparing her to ride her. She noted, “He showed her at Las Vegas and was co-Reserve in the Level 2 Derby.”

Although she hasn't been the jockey for the good bay mare before the Heritage Futurity, Victoria has been around her since she was foaled. "She was born on our PI and I'm excited to finally get to show her," she said, then added. "She's super simple to ride – a Non Pro's dream!"

The Reserve title in the Novice Non Pro Level 2 was claimed by Lyndsay Murphy on Santa Got Smart (Smart Shiner X Doc Santa Belle) for her score of 71.

Jim Morgan on Dun Alotta Chics and Andrea Stillo on White Noise Tie for Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1

Dr. Jim Morgan and Andrea Stillo tied for the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 Championship (for horses that have won less than $5,000) with scores of 71.5.

Morgan was riding Dun Alotta Chics (Magnum Chic Dream X A Lotta Dun It) and Stillo was aboard White Noise (Colonels Smoking Gun X Royal Soleno Chic).

Morgan, one of the National Reining Horse's most enduring champions, was riding Dun Alotta Chics for the very first time. He was in Canada this summer judging a show when Ruben Vandorp called him from the Summer Slide. "He said he'd found me a horse," Jim remembers. "I said, well buy him for me!"

Fast forward a few months and Jim took the Novice Horse class as an opportunity to prepare for the Futurity on Saturday, showing the palomino gelding one-handed. "He is a fun horse – easy to ride and easy to show - pretty uncomplicated. All the credit goes to Ruben for picking him out!"

Andrea and his wife, professional trainer Mirjam Stillo, have both ridden White Noise this week at the Heritage Futurity Show. Mirjam won the AQHA Open Reining as well as tying for the Novice Horse Open Level 2 Reserve title on Thursday.

The Stillos plan to continue to ready the 5-year-old gelding for the Non Pro derbies next year and also hope to qualify him in both the Amateur and Open Reining at the AQHA World Championship show.

Michael Bulliard Tops AQHA Amateur Select

Michael Bulliard scored a 70 to win the AQHA Amateur Select class on Colonels Gunsroses (Colonels Lone Gun X Colonels Rare Gem). It was her first time to be shown and Bulliard was plenty happy with flashy bay's performance.

He bought her as a weanling from good friend Chad Dartez. "We've partnered on some horses but this one he bought first, then I bought her."

Bulliard began riding reiners in 1986 with John and Grace Hoyt. With John's aid, he learned to train his own horses although he says, for the last six years Steve Archer has helped him when he gets to the shows. He also credits Colonels Gunsroses' breeder, Linda Trainor of Willis, Texas along with his wife, Trudie, for her part in breaking the mare and getting her started.

The plan is to show "Axel" in the Futurity on Sunday. "I'm looking forward to that. She was clean and solid everywhere – need a little more confidence but that will come."

A Fire and Safety inspector, Bulliard is from St. Martinville, Louisiana.

The Reserve title went to Stacy Neef of Bastrop, Texas on Smokin Rooster (Gallo Del Cielo X Mahoganys Smoke).

Jarvis Anderson Intermediate Horse Open

It wasn't that Jarvis Anderson didn't have good expectations for Velveeta Juice (Smart Like Juice X Velvet Pistol) when he rode into the arena for the Intermediate Horse Open class, it was just that he'd never shown him before.

"For that matter I don't know for sure if he's ever been shown before, at all," he admitted. Owner Maria Pettrak of Sanger, Texas, had called Anderson a couple of months ago and asked if he would get the gelding ready to show. "He didn't have any earnings and we don't know if he's ever made it to the show pen."

But the little horse they call "Smurf" – "He's low to the ground and BLUE!" – had his game on in the Great Southwest Equestrian Center Coliseum, looking talented and turning around really well. "I'm so pleased with him."

And his future is secure. "I'll just continue to show him," said Jarvis. "Probably Maria will show him too."

Casey Deary claimed the Reserve Championship of the Intermediate Horse Open on Michelle Cannon's Von Step At A Time (Wimpys Little Step X Von Freckles).

Teri Free and Got One Night win Rookie Level 1

Teri Free of Magnolia, Texas, rode Got One Night (One Night Roost X Got No Freckles) to the win of the Rookie Level 1 class, scoring a 70. Free purchased the 4-year-old in April and credits her trainer, Patti Brownshadel, with doing a great job!

"Since I've been with Patti I've really started to progress and she has made it so much fun and so enjoyable. I give her all the credit," she said.

Free is a product of AQHA Youth All Around competition, but although she's only ridden reiners for less than three years, she is completely sold on reining, now. "I'm even looking for a reiner for my daughter, Brooke," she said.

Reserve honors went to Tolbert Foster on This Chic N Whiz (Smart Chic Olena X This Chex On Top).

Katy Dun It – Did it in Katy! Shawn Stratman Sweeps Rookie Level 2, Prime Time Rookie and AQHA Novice Amateur Reining

No one had a bigger smile than Shawn Stratman on Friday, when she topped the Rookie Level 2, Prime Time Rookie and AQHA L1 Amateur Reining on Katy Dun It! No one had a bigger crowd of well-wishers than the popular Non Pro, either!

In spite of the smile, it was a bittersweet moment for Shawn. "This is my last time to show her," she said, referring to the fact that Katy Dun It (Dun It Gotta Gun X Dun Kissed Peaches) is over 5 months in foal and ready to start her "maternity leave! Just look at her tummy!"

"She's bred to Gunners Special Nite," said Shawn. She quickly gave credit to her coach, Debbie Arballo, and to the rest of the Tom McCuteon Reining Horses team that she's been with for the past four years. "They take such good care of me!"

It's been a successful summer for Stratman. Prior to making the trip to Katy, she won the Circuit Reserve Prime Time Championship at the High Roller Reining Classic.

Tolbert Foster of Aubrey, Texas, scored 68 to win the Rookie Level 2 Reserve Championship on This Chic N Whiz (Smart Chic Olena X This Chex On Top).

Lee Ann Upton of Waller, Texas rode Peptoboons Chickory (Peptosmart X Missie Lena Hickory) to a score of 67.5 to garner the reserve title in the Prime Time Rookie.

Anke Yapp of Huffman, Texas was the reserve titlist in the Novice Amateur Reining, scoring 68 on Solenas Peppy Chic (Sanitas Peppy Doc X Rains Red Road).

Madison Steed wins Non Pro on Nic Chic Olena

It was second win in as many days for Madison Steed of Cochrane, Alberta. It also made her two for two on riding Nic Chic Olena (Searchin Nic X Cremes Chic Olena) to wins, as it was only the second time she had shown the good sorrel gelding that belongs to her sister, Hannah!

Madison scored an impressive 73 to top the Non Pro. "He stopped great and his circles were really good today," she said after the run.

Megan, 18, still has more classes ahead of her at Katy, as she'll show tomorrow and Sunday in the Youth Classes.

The Reserve Championship went to Carolyn Edson on Vintage Nic Nac, with a score of 72.5.

Carolyn Edson wins NRHA Intermediate and Limited Non Pro

Besides claiming the reserve title in the Non Pro, Carolyn Edson of Whitesboro, Texas, won the Intermediate and Limited Non Pro on her home-grown gelding, Vintage Nic Nac (Nic It In The Bud X Suddenly Shiny).

Although Carolyn has spent more time in the last decade in the reined cow horse and cutting arenas, it's very clear with her 72.5 point run that she's still competitive in the reining! Even so, she's just started working cows on Vintage Nic Nac.

The Intermediate and Limited Reserve Championships went to Paul Queen of Whitesboro, Texas on Dorothy Queen's Outta Dough (Gallo Del Cielo X Dough Olena) for a score of 71.5.

Prime Time Non Pro Jackpot goes to Pamela Mills and Miss West Coast Oak

Pamela Mills, of Fulshear, Texas, topped the pack of Prime Time Non Pro riders. She scored 70 on Miss West Coast Oak (West Coast Whiz X Miss Cuttin Oak) to edge Eileen Depew of Lakeway, Texas on Thats Great Dunit (Dog Patch Bid X Bronzy Dun It VSJ).

Casey Deary tops Men's Jackpot on The Chex Factor

Casey Deary used the Men's Jackpot class as an opportunity to get to know The Chex Factor and scored a 71.5 to win the class in the process. Casey will ride the son of Nu CHex To Cash out of Lockyurgun in the Junior Reining at the AQHA World Show next month. "I'm just figuring him out," Casey said. "He's nice – just wants to get along."

The Chex Factor has already had a more than successful career for Hilldale Farm. With Sarah Locker riding, he earned over $52K at the 2013 NRHA Non Pro Futurity. She, along with Brent Loseke, qualified him for the AQHA World and the next chapter of the talented horse's life will play out there.

The reserve title went to James Murff on Tivios Lil Dun It (Hollywood Dun It X Tivios Little Queen), with a score of 69.

Lady's Jackpot won by Stacy Neef on Smokin Rooster

Stacy Neef of Bastrop, Texas, won the Lady's Warmup Jackpot on Smokin Rooster (Gallo Del Cielo X Mahogany Smoke). Stacy got the 12-year-old gelding in March and in less than half a dozen shows, has really started to get with him, as evidenced by her 70.5 score and win.

Neef, who rides with Ray Conrad, has her eye on the Rookie race for next year, and also, "hopefully" a berth at the AQHA Amateur Select World.

The Reserve title went to Carolina Garcia of Laredo, Texas on WJ Quixote Badger (Doctor Peppys Potion X Miss Gay Bar Quixote).

Youth 13 & Under Title goes to Emmy-Lu Marsh on Who Whiz Who Emmy-Lu Marsh of Tallulah, Louisiana on Who Whiz Who (Who Whiz It X Roosters Roan Chexx) with a score of 70.5. The good gelding is unique with a lot of personality, according to his owner – "He got the horse cookies we just won and was rolling it around on his tongue making faces. He's a clown," said Emmy-Lu.

He's also a big performer in spite of the fact that he just has one eye. Emmy-Lu won the Adequan/USEF Youth 13 & Under Reining National Championship him in July, then won second at the AQHA Youth World.

Emmy-Lu has shown reiners for about four years – but the bulk of her success has come since she purchased Who Whiz Who about a year ago. She rides with Zane and Shevin Haverty and credits them for helping her succeed.

The Reserve Youth 13 & Under Champion was Allison Buffington of Boerne, Texas on Playboys Last Fling (Hit The Lights X Hnagten Freckles) with a score of 69.

Savannah Ostner Earns Youth 14-18 Championship on Mr Crometastic

Top honors in the Youth 14-18 went to Savannah Ostner of Memphis, Tennessee on Mr Crometastic (Mr Boomerjac X Majestic Crome) for their score of 71.5.

She's had the palomino gelding she calls "Nanners" for about a year and a half and they've made a lot of shows together with successful results. They're currently sitting at the top of the NRHA Youth 14-18 Standings and are qualified for the National Affiliate Regional Finals in Oklahoma City.

A sophomore in high school, Savannah rode hunters and jumpers before switching to reiners about 4 years ago. She rides with NRHA Professional Casey Deary .

The Reserve Champion was Darby Gardner of New Braunfels, Texas on Tickle My Whizkers (Remin Whiz X Tivito Norma) for a score of 71.

Carlee McCutcheon Wins Short Stirrup on Get Juiced

Carlee McCutcheon rode Get Juiced (Smart Like Juice X Fancy Fin-nin Solano), owned by Jennifer Anderson, to the win of the Short Stirrup, earning a score of 70 and cheers from a large contingent of relatives and friends.

Although Carlee comes from a family where showing horses is big business, when you ask what she likes about showing, her answer is simple. "I like having fun. This is fun!"

She was excited to receive a plaque and blue ribbon but reflected that she had a long way to go to catch up with the number of plaques earned by her brother, Cade.

The reserve Short Stirrup title went to Brinley Beiker for her score of 69 on Leann Avellino's Bella Dun It (Dun It With A Twist X DA Christabella). Brinley also won third with a 68.5 on Eileen Depew's KC Customchromedout (Custom Crome X Sheza Beauty Too).

Also doing a grand job of showing in the Short Stirrup were Isabelle Hildebrandt on Lemacs Pop A Top and Gracie Ribeiro on Deal Me A Credit Doc.

Interestingly the gelding is out of the same mare as Zins Rowdy Whiz (by Topsail Whiz). Allison Sutton rode to sweep the recent High Roller Reining Classic Levels 4, 3 and 2 Non Pro Futurity.

The Reserve Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 title ended in a tied between Josie Cloverdale of Bryan, Texas on Chics Dig Freckles (Chic Please X Sunnys Lil Freckle) and Lindsey McCutcheon on Mega Starlet (Marthas Mega Jac X This Stars Trouble).

Carolyn Edson Sweeps Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 and Amateur Select Reining on Vintage Nic Nac

Carolyn had a good day on Friday, winning the Intermediate and Limited Non Pro and it was more on the same on Saturday. She piloted her Vintage Nic Nac to a score of 71.5 to top the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 and take the Amateur Select Reining win.

Carolyn raised Vintage Nic Nac by Nic It In The Bud and out of Suddenly Shiney, a mare she used to show.

The reserve title in the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 ended in a tie at 71 points between Lisa Klaus on Gee Golly Whiz (Bueno Chexinic X Ebony Whiz) and Darby Gardner on Tickle My Whiskers (Remin Whiz X Tivito Norma).

The Amateur Select Reserve Championship went to Kathy Loudamy on Ima Conquistador Too (Conquistador Whiz X Miz Brown Velvet).

Lisa Klaus Tops AQHA Amateur Reining on Gee Golly Whiz

The AQHA Amateur Reining blue ribbon went to Lisa Klaus on her 13-year-old gelding, Gee Golly Whiz (Bueno Chexinic X Ebony Whiz). They scored 71 to best the field.

A toddler and a new baby have kept Lisa out of the reining arenas for the past year – this is her third time to show this year – but she says her horse is the perfect partner for her busy lifestyle. "I keep him at home and I'll just get him up and ride him a couple of days, then go show," she said.

Klaus rode English when she was younger but has shown reiners for the past decade. She says Gee Golly Whiz likely has a home forever. She'll likely breed her some more and let her be a short stirrup horse for her kids.

Tamra Kyle Pilots Zins Smart Wrangler to win in Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2

Tamra Kyle, by her own admission, did not have a good go on Zins Smart Wrangler (Starlights Wrangler X Smart Rowdy Lady) earlier in the week, but when she finished her run in Saturday's Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1, she ended up with a score of 72 for the win.

Tamra admitted that the 5-year-old has been a challenge for her to get with but things came together on Saturday. "You have to take what happens and go work on it and that's what we did," she said. With Fred Thomsson's help, she "made some adjustments and the changes paid off!"

The reserve Amateur Reining title went to Ryan Humphrey on Freckled Whiz (Topsail Whiz X Dun Lost My Freckles)

Steve Archer wins NRHA Open & Intermediate Open on WR Kentucky Chic

In the last class of the day in the Tellepsen arena, Steve Archer rode WR Kentucky Chic to the win of the Heritage Futurity's NRHA Open & Intermediate Open.

He had a big smile when asked about the son of Smart Chic Olena out of Docs Merry Lady. "She's owned by one of our youth riders, Brooke Kaiser, he explained. "Brooke rode him and now she's busy with school and her mother, Kelli, is going to ride him. She's entered in the Green Reiner class tomorrow and she wanted me to show him today."

Showing WR Kentucky Chic was no chore for Steve. "He always feels great. I love riding this horse." Steve had owned the horse before selling it to Brooke and had plenty of success on him. Then Brooke had a successful time on him, including finishing as the Reserve Champion at the North American Affiliate Finals Limited Non Pro.

The Reserve Championship in the Open ended in a tie at 72 between Steve on his other horse, David Barr's Dun It Chexinic (Bueno Chexinic X Ds Fancy Footwork) and Josh Visser on Chic Whiza Dream (Magnum Chic Dream X Kalico Whiz) owned by Nichole Ingram of Santo, Texas.

In the Intermediate Open, the Reserve was a tie between those two and Josefine Spangfors on Shiners Banjo (Banjo Whiz X Shiners Hustler). NRHA Limited Open and Rookie Professional

Josefine Spangfors Wins NRHA Limited Open and Rookie Professional

Josefine Spangfors piloted Shiners Banjo (Banjo Whiz X Shiners Hustler) to the win of the NRHA Limited Open and Rookie Professional on Saturday. Any win was good, but this one was very good, according to Josefine.

"It was my first time to score a 72," she said. "That's my highest score, ever! I wasn't expecting this!"

It has been a good week for Spangfors and Shiners Banjo. Earlier in the week, they tied to win the Limited Open for owners Euro Vets, Inc. of Pauls Valley, Oklahoma.

The Reserve Championship in the Limited Open ended in a tied between Rebecca Nesbitt on Tuckers Poco Bella (Teddy Tucker X Benjis Kandi Stripe) and Florent Delesque on KR Tag U R It (Whiz N Tag Chex X Pima Pine Olena), each with a 69 score. Florent also earned the reserve title in the Rookie Professional.

Susan Meyer tops Green Rider Level 1 on Wimpys Little Jay

Susan Meyer, of Cypress, Texas, won the NRHA Green Rider Level 1 on Sunday at the Heritage Futurity. Riding in the Tellepsen Arena, she piloted Wimpys Little Jay (Wimpys Little Step X Doe Rey Rooster) to a solid 70 score.

That was the second-ever 70 point ride for Susan on board the horse she calls "Eddie". She said, "He's a 7-year-old and I've had him a little over a year."

She says she stumbled into reining when she bought a horse from Julie Terry, who rides with Jared Leclair. Susan remembers, "She said I ought to try it and that's how I got started riding with Jared – and riding reiners." Now hooked on the sport, the next item on her agenda is a run at the Rookie title for 2015.

The reserve in Green Rider Level 1 went to Danielle Clark on Tuckers Poco Bella (Teddy Tucker X Benjis Kandi Stripe).

Mindy Gray wins Green Rider Level 2

Mindy Gray of Florence, Texas, won the Green Rider Level 2 on Shesa Princess Chic (Chics Sundance X Shesa Queen O Lena) with a score of 69.5.

Mindy has only been riding reiners for the past few years. She'd ridden horses in high school but it wasn't until she and her husband bought a ranch that the horses came back into play. She said, "My husband bought me a horse and sent it off for reining training and that got me started."

Shesa Princess Chic was bred and raised in Mexico so she calls her "Miss Mexico" and Mindy says that getting with the mare in this first year has been a challenge for her. "I still need to work on my stops.” But the plan is to get those kinks worked out and haul for a Rookie title next year.

The reserve in Green Rider Level 2 ended in a tie between Janis Dickerson of Austin, Texas on Custom Torima (Custom Crome X Torima The Smarty) and Betty Schroeder of Gatesville, Texas on Chicsdundreamin (Magnum Chic Dream X Goody Goody Gum Drop).

Jarvis Anderson Sweeps Novice Horse Open and AQHA Reining on Whiz Stunt Man

Jarvis Anderson made it a clean sweep in the Novice Horse Open Level 1 and 2, as well as the AQHA reining on Whiz Stunt Man (Einsteins Revolution X Hollywood Stunt Girl). He scored 71.5.

He’s had the sorrel stallion owned by Rodney Westrum of Willistin, North Dakota, since he was a 3-year-old and the horse has been a consistent money earner when he has shown him. Today, the plan was to have an opportunity to show him in preparation for next year’s derbies and to start the process of qualifying for the AQHA World Show.

“He stopped really good today and circled pretty. I didn’t go real fast but he was nice,” said Jarvis.

The Reserve Title in the Novice Horse classes was Steve Archer on Chics Silver Gun (Smart Chic Olena X Playing Little Lady) owned by Anne Roy of Friendswood, Texas.

Jarvis was second in the AQHA class on his other mount, Dun Wheel N Dealin (Pretty peppy Chec X PWT I Could Of Dunit) owned by The Other King Ranch of Heyburn, Idaho.

Karla Seale is Rookie Level 1 and 2 Chamipon on Cromes Freckle Flynn

It was a great day on Sunday for Karla Seale of Pipe Creek, Texas. She scored 71.5 on her horse, Cromes Freckle Flynn (Custom Crome X Pinky Flynn) to win both Rookie Level 1 and 2.

It was her first time to win first – and she won two of them! Karla, who rides with Todd Martin, is grateful for the mare that she’s had for the second year, now. She said, “She’s helped me build my confidence and learn to show. I just want to keep improving.”

An analyst for the Department of Defense, Karla will be taking a little time off her job in November, as she is qualified for the North American Affiliate Finals in the Novice.

In the Rookie Level 1, the reserve title went to Erin Rapp of Houston, Texas on Arc Electrical Storm (Jacs Electric Spark X Peppys Little Orphan) for her score of 71. In the Rookie Level 2, there was a three-way tie for Reserve.

Shawn Stratman on Dun It At Starbucks (Smart Starbuck X Dun It For Chex) and Katy Dun It (Dun It Gotta Gun X Dun Kissed Peaches) and Erin Rapp on Arc Electrical Storm all shared that placing.

Shawn Stratman Ties Herself to win Prime Time Rookie Championship

Shawn Stratman rode Dun It At Starbucks (Smart Starbuck X Dun It For Chex) and Katy Dun It (Dun It Gotta Gun X Dun Kissed Peaches) to identical scores of 71 to tie herself for the championship of the Prime Time Rookie.

She was excited about the win, but quick to share the credit. “I thank my husband (Alan); I love him so much!”

Shawn Stratman (right) and her husband Alan

And more, “I also have to thank Debbie Arballo, the queen of teaching someone who’s not easy to teach. And the Tom McCutcheon staff for how hard they work to get me on a horse – and of course Tom and Mandy and Tim and Colleen for their generosity, help and kindness!”

She added, “I also want to thank the Great Southwest Equestrian Center for this event. They make it very special to be here!”

Emmy-Lu Marsh wins NRHA Youth 13 & Under

The Heritage Futurity Show NRHA Youth 13 & Under on Sunday was a repeat from the previous day, with Emmy-Lu Marsh topping the field again on Who Whiz Who (Who Whiz It X Roosters Roan Chexx).

Marsh, of Tallulah, Louisiana, rides with Zane Haverty and she was excited to improve her score by a full point from the day before. “I think his stops were better today. I’m very proud of him!” she said.

The Reserve title went to Allison Buffington on Playboys Last Fling (Hit The Lights X Hangten Freckles).

Savannah Ostner and Mr Crometastic Win NRHA Youth 14-18

Savannah Grace Ostner made it two in a row in the Youth 14-18 on Sunday, October 5., winning both Heritage Futurity slates. "He's always consistent," she said of her horse, Mr Crometastic (Mr Boomerjac X Majestic Crome), shortly after her score of 71 took the title.

Winning has actually been a habit this year for the personable rider and one-eyed horse this year. They were finalists at the AQHA World Show, won the 14-18 High Point at the NRHA Derby, Top Ten in all four divisions of the NRBC Classic Challenge and winners of the high-point trophy at the Clayton Woosley Memorial.

Reserve in the class on Sunday went to Carolina Garcia of Laredo, Texas on WJ Quixote Badger (Doctor Peppys Potion X Miss Gay Bar Quixote).

Allison Buffington Tops AQHA Youth

Allison Buffington of Boerne, Texas, won the AHQA Youth class on Sunday on Playboys Last Fling (Hit The Lights X Hangten Freckles). Twelve-year-old Allison has had the mare since May. She's been riding reiners for the last couple years, after switching from riding Arabian western pleasure horses. "Reining is fun," she said. "And the people are great!"

Carlee McCutcheon wins Short Stirrup on Get Juiced

Carlee McCutcheon made it two for two in the Short Stirrup when she topped the class on Sunday on Get Juiced (Smart Like Juice X Fancy Finnin Solano), owned by Jennifer Anderson.

Although she was excited about getting a second plaque for her 69.5 score, she was most engrossed by getting to select her prize. The Great Southwest Equestrian Center allows each person that places to select an award – and she finally settled on a bucket of treats for her horse.

The reserve Short Stirrup title went to Gracie Ribeiro or Welmar, Texas on Deal Me A Credit Doc (Credit Doc X Hickorys Royal May).

RUDI KRONSTEINER WINS GERMAN BREEDERS FUTURITY

On October 11, several thousand visitors watched an exciting finale of the 2014 NRHA Breeders Futurity Bit Open and Non Pro, and in the end Europe's most successful Reiner did it again! NRHA Million Dollar Rider Rudi Kronsteiner earned his 7th Breeders Futurity Champion title on OT Gonna Walla Walla (Walla Walla Whiz x OT Taris Holly). Kronsteiner scored 220.5 for a smooth run on the stallion who was bred by Appaloosa SRL and is owned by Martina Hromadkova. Rudi already won the Polish Futurity with him.

Kronsteiner, who has won every Futurity in Europe at least once and is a triple NRHA World Champion Open, was very happy after his finals run. "I never thought we could make it – the go rounds did not go well, and we had problems in the stops. So I had my assistant trainer Kim Obenhaus ride the stallion during the week very easily just to keep him relaxed. Today was the first time I rode him again, and everything worked out perfectly. Thank you Kim for your support – and a big thank you to my great team and especially to my wonderful wife.“

The Open Reserve Championship and the Limited Open Championship was claimed by Alex Ripper who rode Hans-Peter Marquardt’s Guntinis Great Chex (The Great Guntini x Chexymatic) to a 220. The mare bred by Greenway Stables had been second after the go rounds. Guntinis Great Chex was trained by her owner until this January when he moved her to Alex’s place. “This mare is a great horse,” said Alex Ripper. “She had a perfect run. All I had wanted was to get another 218.5 like in the second go round, but the finals turned out to be even better!”

There was a tie for second place in the Ltd. Open between Volker Schmitt aboard Spark N Step (Wimpys Little Step x Spark N Pretty, owner Claudia Klucsarits) and Klaus Lechner aboard KH Whiz Master (Topsail Whiz x Jacs Barbara Star, owner Klaus Lechner), who scored a 218 each.

Ewald Rifesser wins Non Pro Futurity Championship on Wimpys Lil Shiner

With a score of 217.5, Ewald Rifesser and the 4-year-old AQHA mare Wimpys Lil Shiner (Wimpys Little Step x Sassys Shine) claimed the Breeders Futurity Non Pro Championship. Wimpys Lil Shiner who was 6th at the NRHA European Futurity and ARTA Maturity Non Pro Champion 2014, had already dominated the second go round on the mare owned by Petra Rifesser-Burger. Earlier in the year Rifesser won the NRHA Breeders Derby Non Pro Championship.

“Kreuth seems to fit me,” said Ewald Rifesser, laughing. “First the Breeders Derby – now the Futurity. It’s fantastic! This mare is such a calm, honest horse. Jonathan Gauthier trained her, and I rode her in Oklahoma for the first time when she was three. We placed 6th at the European Futurity and third at the Austrian RHA Futurity.“

The Reserve Champion Non Pro title and the Ltd. Non Pro Championship went to Kerstin Lill aboard Be Little Gun (Gatling Gun x Peppy B Little Sassy). The stallion bred was by Beate Hassdenteufel and was 2014 Reserve Bronze Trophy Champion Non Pro in Moosl-argue.

Reserve Champion in Ltd. Non Pro and third in Non Pro was Austrian Sandra Friesenbiller aboard her Shine N Whiz (Topsail Whiz x Spark N Pretty). With this stallion whom she bred herself, Sandra Friesenbiller was 2013 Austrian RHA Futurity Champion Non Pro Level 3 and 4 NRHA European Affiliate Champion SBH Non Pro, 2014 ARHA Reserve Futurity Champion and NRHA European Futurity Finalist.

Guy Zemah claims NRHA Germany Breeders Futurity Championship SBH Open and Limited Open

On Friday night, the best 3-year-old horses met again in Kreuth for the NRHA Germany Breeders Futurity final in the SBH Open and Non Pro. The top 15 plus ties had made it to the final, for which at least a 214 had to be earned in the Open. Seldom had there been so many visitors in the huge Ostbayernhalle on a Friday night, and they were rewarded by an exciting Open final which ended with Guy Zemah (ISR) and the Lil Dunit Smart (Lil Peppy Dunit Right x Smart Katy Rio) claiming the NRHA Germany Breeders Futurity Championship SBH Open and Ltd. Open. The gelding who was bred by Christine Bayer and is owned by Gunther Klose, had already had the third highest score of the go round. In the final, he showed a brilliant, wonderfully smooth run with fast turnarounds and great stops. They left the arena with a 223, which was Guy’s first NRHA Germany Breeders Futurity Champion title.

“I am so happy – I’ve been working for this for the last ten years,” said Guy Zemah who bought the gelding as a Non Pro horse for the owner’s daughter and broke and trained him. “This is a great horse, and he has been good all week long. He was ready when we got here, and all I had to do was keep him as fresh as possible. He was fantastic! But I’d like to say thank you as well to my team – you are the best! And thank you to my customers.“

In the Open, NRHA Million Dollar Rider and multiple Breeders Futurity Champion Rudi Kronsteiner (AUT) and Chex Out My Banjo (Banjo Whiz x Mrs Chexinic) owned by Dorothee Hess-Leitmeier became Reserve Champion. The two had scored a 220 with a brilliant ride. The horse was bred by Nedpoint Quarter Horses.

In the Ltd. Open, Dominik Reminder (GER) and Starlight Mercedes (Cromed Out Mercedes x Achy Braky Me) placed second scoring a 218,5. The horse was bred by Bob Loomis and is owned by Luigi Parise.

Bon Tun Runner and Jan Griesen win Breeders Futurity SBH Non Pro

Fifteen horses had made it to the NRHA Breeders Futurity SBH Non Pro finals, and in the end, it was the leader of the go round who also dominated the final. As the last rider, Jan Griesen (Germany) and his Bon Tun Runner (RS Bon Ton Jac x Okies Bright Star) risked everything both on the circles and the run downs earning a 215 after three brilliant stops and claiming the Championship both in Non Pro and Ltd. Non Pro. Two riders tied for Reserve Championship honours: Fabienne Suter (Switzerland) aboard SL Wild Spook (Smart Spook x Wild Sister) and Marina Becker aboard Walla Whiz Crome (Walla Walla Whiz x Custom Rome). Both had earned a 212.5.

Bon Tun Runner was bred by Wilhelm Hoelken. The

3-year-old American Quarter Horse gelding who was trained by Dominik Reminder and then by Lukas Brucek, had become Belgian Futurity Champion Non Pro with his owner only two weeks before Kreuth and placed fourth in the Open with Brucek in the saddle. “That was my greatest success so far,” said Jan. “I got him only four weeks ago. He is such a great horse – very easy to ride and always trying to please you.”

Jan Griesen & Bon Tun Runner

Fabienne Suter and her stallion who was bred by Sandra Linnig-Föhl, were 2014 Austrian RHA Futurity Finalist. The 26-year old is a multiple Swiss Reining Champion and represented her country several times on an international level. Fabienne and Daniel Arnold were the only two Non Pros who had two horses each in the final. Marina Becker had shown Walla Whiz Crome (breeder Michel Rose) at the 2014 NRHA Breeders Derby for the first time winning the NRHA SBH 3-year-old Non Pro.

SOUTHWEST REINING HORSE ASSOCIATION FUTURITY & SHOW STARTS NEXT WEEK!

Red River Equine Vet Services Returns as SWRHA Non Pro Futurity Sponsor

The Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity and Show announced in late August that the Non Pro division of the headline Futurity, for the second consecutive year, is sponsored by Red River Equine Vet Services of Gainesville, Texas.

“We are so glad to have Dr. Khris Crowe and Red River Equine Vet Services return as sponsor of the Non Pro Futurity,” said SWRHA Board of Directors member Kathy McCutcheon. “We truly appreciate her commitment to the Southwest Reining Horse Association and her continued support of all the Texas and Oklahoma reiners!”

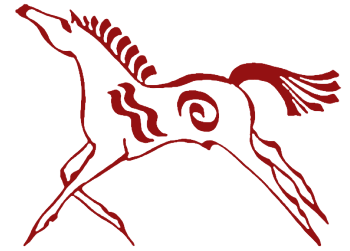

Dr. Crowe feels strongly that it is the responsibility of horse industry professionals to be involved in horse sport competition. “Sponsoring the Non Pro Futurity provides the opportunity for me to pay back to the horse community that supports my practice all year long” she said. “I consider it a privilege to be of assistance to the reining horse community. The Non Pros are now, and always will be, the backbone of the industry and must never be taken for granted.”

Dr. Khris Crowe, DVM MS LLC, offers state of the art on farm veterinary care for western performance horses. Digital radiography, digital ultrasound, Extra corporal shock wave, laser therapy, endoscopy, stem cell, IRAP and PRP regenerative treatment are some of the services that Dr. Crowe can provide stall side in Northern Texas and Southern Oklahoma. Reining horses, reined cow horses and cutting horses make up 85% of Dr. Crowe's practice and she is in high demand for pre-purchase examinations and radiographic interpretation.

An award winning graduate of the University of Missouri College of Veterinary Medicine, Dr. Crowe was head veterinarian and manager at Tom Chauncey Arabians, in Scottsdale, Arizona a World Class ranch that owned over 800 of the worlds most valuable Arabian horses. After nine years in Arizona she completed a surgery residency and obtained a Post-Doctoral Masters Degree at the University of Illinois and was awarded the American College of Veterinary Surgeons National Award for Equine Research. In the mid-nineties Dr. Crowe conducted AQHA-funded research at the Scripps Institute and the University of Georgia. While running her private equine practice in Athens, Dr. Crowe was voted Georgia Equine Veterinarian Of The Year, she was the youngest recipient of this award and the first woman to be honored.

In addition to her busy practice she and her husband, Carlton, own and operate Red River Reproduction Center where they foal, breed and do embryo transfers on the top Reining Horse Industry mares and stallions. For information on Red River Equine Vet Services or Red River Reproduction Center, email to drkhris@hotmail.com or call 940-612-4584.

Kimmel Reining Horses and Silva Reining Horses Present Kids, Pizza and Fun at the Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity

The 30th annual Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity and Show presented by Billingsley Ford will return October 21-26 to the Hardy Murphy Coliseum in Ardmore, Oklahoma. The prestigious event is annually one of the top five futurities of the season for the National Reining Horse Association and participants come from across the nation and abroad.

The competition is intense and exhibitors take advantage of the last chance to tune their reiners before Oklahoma City, but there is still time for some fun!

This year special fun is set for Friday, October 24. Following the awards for the Red River Equine Vet Services Non Pro Futurity, the action will stay in the in-gate area, where everyone is invited to the Jerry Kimmel Reining Horses Exhibitor Pizza Party.

Then the action turns to the Lead-line and Walk-Trot Reining classes for kids, sponsored by Silva Reining. Kids will be wearing their Halloween Costumes in the class, so be prepared for anything from ghosts to princesses!

From there, the evening concludes with the Markel Insurance NRHA Open Class, traditionally one of the most exciting events of the show.

For Jerry Kimmel, the 2014 recipient of the National Reining Horse Association Dale Wilkinson Lifetime Achievement Award, sponsoring the party at a reining is an ideal way to spend time around his friends in an informal atmosphere. He said, "Reining horse people are a great family and we'll have a wonderful time – both enjoying pizza and sharing the fun of watching the future of our industry in the kids' classes."

Dave Silva has been involved in reining for over thirty years as an exhibitor, owner and breeder of world class reining horses, but he and his wife, Bonnie, have stepped into a new role – as grandparents - so the sponsorship of the Walk-Trot and the Leadline classes is a natural one.

Bonnie Silva said, "We enjoy watching these classes, and we are glad to support the future of the reining industry."

SWRHA President Ann Salmon said, "We so appreciate the participation of Jerry Kimmel and of the Silvas. These longtime sponsors are true supporters of the reining industry and of this organization."

For more information on Jerry Kimmel Reining Horses, visit the web site at www.dungottagun.com or call 817.925.0820. For more information on Silva Reining Horses, go to www.silvareining.com.

Markel Insurance Sponsors Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity NRHA Open

Markel Insurance has come on board in 2014 as the naming sponsor of the NRHA Open Class at the Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity Show.

SWRHA President Ann Salmon noted, "There is a rich tradition in the Open class at this event. For thirty years, the Open Class has provided memorable moments and milestones and we are thrilled to welcome Markel Insurance on board with the Markel Insurance NRHA Open and thank Frank Costantini for becoming involved with the event."

Frank Costantini, Markel Director of Western Disciplines, was equally enthusiastic. "Markel is pleased to be able to get on board with the Southwest Reining Horse Association and sponsor the Open Class at this year's event, the 30th anniversary. The Open has been the one class that is there for everyone who carries an NRHA membership card. Traditionally, and especially at this historic event, the best in the business hang it all out!

He continued, "I also have the pleasure of introducing our newest equine specialist, Chloe Lawrence, who will be present to handle any and all insurance needs that might arise. On behalf of the entire Markel Western Team, I would like to congratulate the Southwest Reiners for producing a great event for so many years and I truly believe the best is yet to come!"

Markel Insurance has a long history of supporting the reining industry on a variety of levels both in the United States and internationally. For information on Markel Insurance, visit the web site at www.horseinsurance.com.

Stratmans Sponsors SWRHA Futurity & Show Rookie Prime Time

Shawnie Stratman of Dallas, Texas was so convinced of the need for a Rookie Prime Time class at the Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity Show slated for October 21-26 that she and her husband, Alan, offered to sponsor it themselves.

"I feel strongly that there are a lot of riders of a certain age out there that need a more level playing field to compete in," Shawnie said. "As a person taking up reining later in life, I've found that being able to ride in my own age group gives me an opportunity to truly experience reining at my ability. It's often very discouraging to ride against the strength and life time experience of the younger people.

She continued, "Thirty is young, and forty is still young. Around the age of fifty, often a person starts to feel the experiences of your life settle into their bones! Prime time offers people who are entering our sport as new riders at a later age a real chance at success. It's around this time in life, college tuitions are over, children move out and there is disposable income to bring to reining. I truly thank the SWRHA for offering the Rookie Prime Time at this event. It's important to the financial strength of our program and the future of reining horse sales, trainers customers, tack and other sundries.

SWRHA President Ann Salmon noted, "The Board of Directors of the SWRHA is committed to responding to the membership and we felt if this class was something that our members wanted, we could certainly work with Shawn to make it happen. We added the class and are glad to see the positive response we've had to this."

With the class added for the final day of the show, there will be no late fees and riders can enter up until noon the day before. The winner will receive a buckle and NRHA Plaque.

Southwest Reining Horse Association Introduces Einsteins Revolution Open Mare Bonus

Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity officials announced in early October that Einsteins Revolution has come on board as the 2014 SWRHA Futurity Mare Bonus naming sponsor.

The Einsteins Revolution Mare Bonus enhances the show record of performing mares by awarding $1,000 to the highest advancing or placing mare entered in the Southwest Reining Horse Association John Deere Open Futurity and its namesake is a fitting match for rewarding achievement. Twelve-year-old Einsteins Revolution (Great Resolve X Fly Flashy Jac) has lifetime earnings over $350,000 and was actually the first horse in history to earn over $300,000.

For Einsteins Revolution owners, it was an easy choice to support the Southwest Reining Horse Association, even though the stallion has moved from Texas to Scottsdale, Arizona to stand at Silver Spurs Equine. Ruben Vandorp noted, "We are very excited to sponsor the Southwest Futurity Open Mare Bonus! We love this show and the exposure it brings to our breeding program. Winning the Sire Award last year catapulted "Junior's" offspring earnings, which are nearing the $1,000,000 mark."

SWRHA Board of Directors President Ann Salmon said, "We are very glad to welcome Einsteins Revolution as the naming sponsor of this important incentive. The Vandorps and Miolas are true friends to the reining industry and to the Southwest Reining Horse Association."

The award will be given when the Billingsley Ford Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity and Show returns October 21-26 to the Hardy Murphy Coliseum in Ardmore, Oklahoma. The prestigious event is annually one of the top five futurities of the season for the National Reining Horse Association and participants come from across the nation and abroad.
