TEAM USA WINS THE GOLD AT WORLD EQUESTRIAN GAMES!

When NRHA's only $2 Million Dollar lady rider, Mandy McCutcheon, rode into the Parc Expo arena on August 26, Team USA was leading the competition rankings after Andrea Fappani had obtained the top score (224) and Jordan Larson the third best (221) in the first day of competition on Monday.

Mandy slid Yellow Jersey, the 10-year-old Quarter Horse stallion by Wimpys Little Step and out of Ms Clara Melody (owned by father Tim McQuay), to a score of 224 and brought the total to a 669. The last rider representing the USA, Shawn Florida, riding Michel Kimball's Spooks Gotta Whiz (Spooks Gotta Gun x Prettywhizprettydoes), was draw 75.

The only NRHA $5 Million Rider performed pattern 6 to perfection and after his performance, a 229.5 appeared on the scoreboard bringing Team USA's total to a 677.5. The United States of America thus conquered its fourth consecutive WEG team Gold medal!

"This is an awesome horse and I've been so fortunate to have been able to ride him for the last three years. I trust him a lot and I know that he is very talented so I was afraid to be the one to make a mistake. The crowd here was wonderful and being able to show in front of such an enthusiastic audience was just great," said Florida. "My teammates couldn't have been any better and I am once again proud to be able to represent my country with such a great group of horsemen."

Team Belgium claims the Silver medal

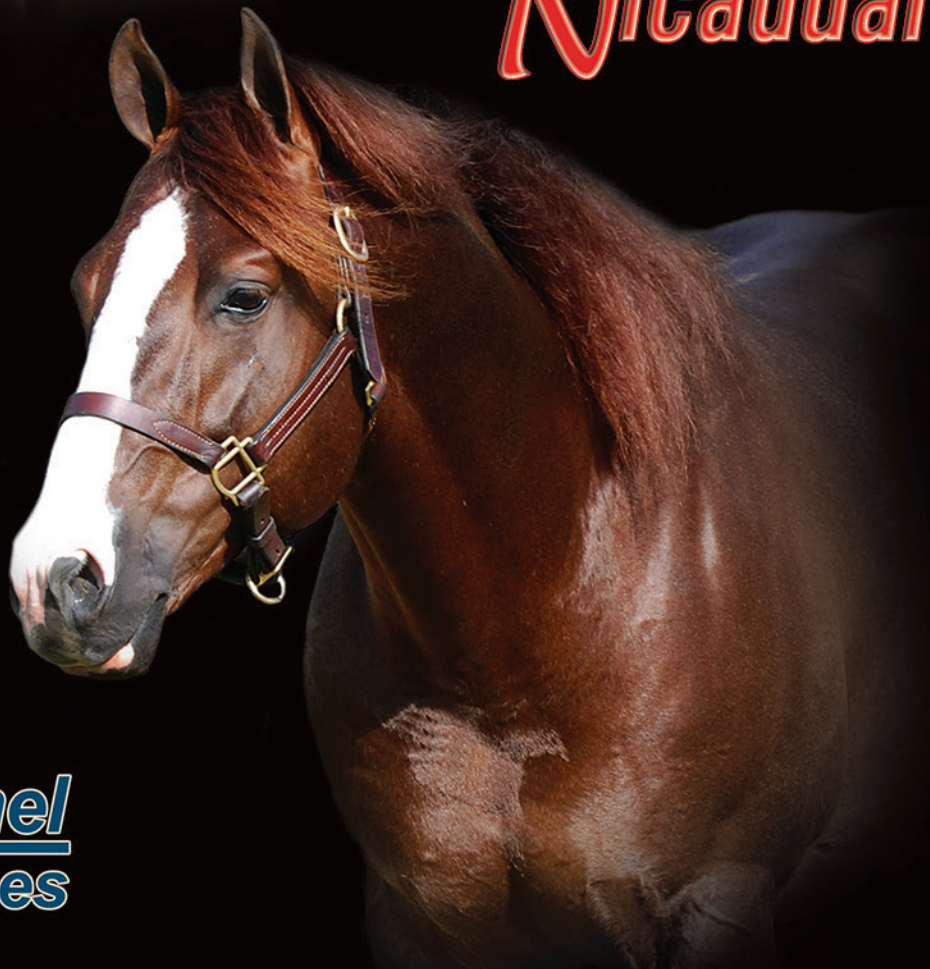

Team Belgium saw NRHA professional Cira Baeck ride Colonels Shining Gun, owned by Katarzyna Roleska, to a 221. The talented pair were second to go: "We started off really well today then I made a little couple of little mistakes, so I am not super happy, but I did my best," said Cira, following her pattern. "Four years ago we won the silver medal in Kentucky it would be very nice if we could bring home the second one."

And so they did! NRHA Million Dollar Rider Bernard Fonck, aboard past NRHA Open World Champion Sail On Top Whizard (Whizard Jac x Miss N Sis), owned by Danny Cerato, closed his run with a 219.5 and Belgium held the second highest total score, a 663. Ann Poels Fonck, riding Nic Ricochet, and Piet Mesdagh, riding RS Spat Man O War, had scored a 221 and a 216.5 respectively on the first day of competition. Once again, great ‘little’ Belgium conquered its second FEI Team Silver medal.

The Bronze medal is for Team Austria

Possible contenders for the podium were Team Australia (653), Team Germany (646.5) and Team Austria (644.5). Thanks to Martin Muehlstaetter’s score of 224, aboard Wimpys Little Buddy, Austria slid to the third step of the podium and conquered the bronze medal.

Martin is based in the US and qualified for the 2014 Games last year in Europe and in the States. “My horse was pretty good today! We purchased him from Andrea Fappani (who trained him) as a 4-year-old. He’s always been with us and always will be,” said the Austrian rider about his 10-year-old gelding by Wimpys Little Step and out of All That’s Dun (owned by Kim & Martin Muehlstaetter).

He continued, “Winning this medal here today is awesome.” Austrian team members were Rudi Kronsteiner and Dr. Lee Hook (221), Tina Kuenstner-Mantl and Cashn Rooster (214.5) and Markus Morawitz with Dun It Whiz Gerry (210).

USA SWEEPS FEI WORLD EQUESTRIAN GAMES INDIVIDUAL FINALS

Great horses, great riders, great horsemanship and an enthusiastic public are what made the Individual Reining Final Competition amazing at the Alltech FEI World Equestrian Games 2014 in Normandy August 30. Last to enter the arena, which counted some of the world’s best horses and riders, was NRHA 5 Million Dollar Rider, Shawn Flarida. Aboard Michell Kimball’s Spooks Gotta Whiz, Shawn had posted the highest score – a 229.5 – in the individual qualifier, which put him last to go in the seeded finals.

The score to beat, once he burst in the pen, was Andrea Fappani’s, also of the US, who slid Custom Cash Advance, owned by Silver Spurs Equine, to a 229, one horse before him. “I knew that the pressure would be on tonight and I knew that Andrea would put me in a position to go out and beat him,” said the World Champion who wore the Team Gold medal two days ago and who closed his run with a 233.5. “This is such a great horse, with an incredible athletic ability. He’s got so much motivation, all I have to do is put him in the correct position technically and he’ll give you all he has. There really isn’t much to work on with him, he’s just great. He’s been good all week, he warmed up well and I knew I had the horse that could make me do this. It’s been a great evening and my hat goes off to my team mates, Andrea Fappani and Mandy McCutcheon.”

For Flarida, this is the fifth FEI gold medal conquered at the Games: he was on the US Team gold and took the individual gold in Jerez de la Frontera in 2002, was on US Team Gold in Kentucky in 2010, and won the Team Gold here in the 2014 Games.

Native Italian Fappani, also part of Team USA Gold, settled for the Silver medal: "This is the fifth time that I've actually shown this horse," he said. "I started with a 215 the first time I showed him and he just got better and better. Jordan (Larson) and Duane (Latimer) have shown him in the past and I give it up to them for the great job they did. I knew this horse would fit me and my program and tonight I was more confident with him. I trusted him and he gave me back all he had. I knew it wasn't going to be easy and that the competition would be tough, but we did it and I'm thrilled."

Mandy McCutcheon wrote a chapter of the FEI Reining history book tonight as being the first female individual medalist. Mandy was also on the Team USA, winners of the gold medal in Normandy. "It's hard to put all I feel in words," she said after closing her performance aboard Yellow Jersey with a score of 227. "I couldn't be happier, my horse stepped up for me tonight and when they do that, they are great horses. To be behind two such great athletes as Shawn and Andrea is just an amazing feeling. It is an honor for me and I couldn't be luckier to have had the opportunities I've had in my career. My family has been the biggest support team of my life, and I once again thank them, just as I would like to thank all those that have been behind us in this incredible experience: the sponsors, our vet, our grooms."

Actually, each ultimate finalist took the lead when they made their run. Mandy and Yellow Jersey had the highest score at the time with the 227, then that was topped by Fappani, whose score of 229 was ultimately topped by Flarida for the USA clean sweep!

Summing up the competition was Team US Chêf d'Equipe, Jeff Petska: "We came here with a hope, which translated into reality: winning both the team gold and the three individual medals. We had the horses and the riders capable of doing this, but anything – as we saw tonight – can happen in a reining. I am very proud of all the athletes and would also like to thank everyone behind us."

SALGADO SWEEPS TULSA REINING CLASSIC HOLLYWOODSTINSELTOWN OPEN FUTURITY WITH MERADAS SHINING

Meradas Shining might have only been competing in her first show, but the three-year-old Shiners Sonita mare has likely traveled many more miles than her peers. In January she traveled to the United States from Argentina to be shown by Eduardo Salgado.

Salgado, originally of Brazil, moved to the US less than two years ago following some big wins at his first National Reining Horse Association Futurity. There, with Gunner Boy, he won the Open Levels 1 and 2 and finished Reserve in the Open Level 3.

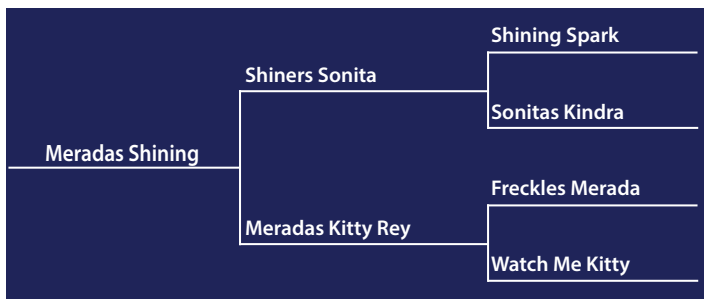

Now with another foreign-bred equine, Salgado looks poised to make an impact in Oklahoma City come November. "He's really confident in her. This (Tulsa) is a really nice show to get them ready and was a really good test. It showed him where he needs to work more and less to get her ready," said Eduardo's brother, Fernando, who was translating. "She felt the same in the show pen that she does at home, so it makes him feel that whatever he gets at home he's going to get in the show pen, so he's really confident."

Salgado and Meradas Shining topped the 94-horse field with a 221.5 and won more than $22,715. That will help pay for some of the expenses that owner Alberto Casasco has taken on. "Eduardo especially thanks the owner for the opportunity to ride this mare - especially because it is really expensive to bring a horse over from Argentina. Not only that, she was not nominated for the NRHA or NRBC, so they paid her up late and that's a lot of money. They put a lot of money up thinking it would work so he's really thankful," Fernando said.

Eduardo also expressed his appreciation to Luiz Desouza, who started Meradas Shining in Argentina. "He's very thankful to Luiz for thinking of him. Luiz started the mare and knew she was good. He thought she could be good in the United States and so he told the owner that Eduardo would be the right person to send her to." Fernando added, "He also thanks his family, especially his wife, who is there every day helping him work."

Although talented, Eduardo knew the mare was still a little green, so he really worked to show the mare to the best of her ability. "He's always known that she is a really, really big stopper and that is her best maneuver, but she wasn't really ready to go hard on her circles and turns. He really tried to be clean and safe there and go as fast as he could to his stops," Fernando said.

Eduardo now rents stalls from Joe Hayes in Gainesville, Texas. Fernando added, "He has been there for two months

- he moved there after the Derby. He gives a really big thank you to Joe for helping him out and everything he has done for him."

Franco Bertolani and Late Night Stopper (Jac's Electric Spark x Best Stop) tied for the Reserve Level 4 Co-Championship with Thiago Boechat and Xtra Vintage Step (Wimpys Little Step x All Thats Dun). Each entry marked a 220.5 and won $7,981. Late Night Stopper is owned by Cardinal Hill Training Center, the naming sponsor of the Tulsa Reining Classic Open Derby on Sunday, while Xtra Vintage Step is owned by Xtra Quarter Horses.

Finishing Reserve in the Open Level 3 was Todd Sommers, who piloted Spooky Dreams (Magnum Chic Dream x Spooks Stylin) to a 220. The score netted owner Sally Amabile $3,473, and an additional $5,863 for fourth place in the Open Level 4.

Gabriel Diano and his horse Wimpy Chic (Wimpys Little Step x Chics Fancy Lady) and Jamie Bissell and DP Gunnatashinya (Gunnatashya x Out Shinin Wimpy) finished as the Open Level 2 Co-Reserve Champions with scores of 219. Each took home $1,089. Wimpy Chic is owned by Thales Rocha Bordignon.

The American Paint Horse Association recently partnered with the Tulsa Reining Classic to award the high-scoring registered paint in the Hollywoodsintown Open Futurity. Winning the paint award was Ruben Vandorp and Capones Getaway Ride, owned by Janet Benson.

TURNABOUT FARM NON PRO FUTURITY AT THE TULSA REINING CLASSIC FEATURED $26,000 IN ADDED MONEY!

Topping the Non Pro Level 4 division was Jesse Asmussen, who piloted his horse Lil Light Juice to a 220, winning $5,624.

Asmussen has owned the Smart Like Juice stallion since the end of his yearling year. "He was really, really good today. He's always really quiet and laid back, but still has some spark, so he's a lot of fun. Today he circled really well. That's what he loves to do - lope slow - and he's little anyways so it looks good," he said. "He stopped good at the show in Minnesota and he stopped better here - he was a lot more free. I can't really pick his run apart here."

This is the second year that Asmussen has won the Turnabout Farm Non Pro Futurity, having claimed the title on another Smart Like Juice foal, Southside Juice, in 2013. "I have to give a lot of credit to Gabe Hutchins and Gaetan Gauthier for all their help. They did a tremendous job helping us get ready, and without those guys it wouldn't have happened," he said. "I love coming to this facility. I've been here since Saturday and it doesn't feel like I've been here that long." Asmussen is planning to show at the big

Jesses Asmussen & Lil Light Juice

National Reining Horse Association Futurity, and is contemplating where to compete in the interim.

Jose Vazquez and Juice N Shine finished reserve in the Level 4 as well as in the Prime Time with a 217. The win netted Vazquez, of Markham, Illinois, $3,856 and numerous prizes. Juice N Shine is by Vazquez's stallion Smart Like Juice.

Sarah Johnson and Sherruff won the Non Pro Level 3 and finished third in the Non Pro Level 4 with a score of 216.5, taking home $5,482. Sherruff, by Boom Shernic out of Ms Ruf Peppy, is owned by Sarah's parents, Craig and Lyn Johnson of Gainesville, Texas. "We raised her and watched her grow up and get trained, and she's growing up to be a very nice horse. I'm excited to see how she does at the rest of the big futurities," she said.

Johnson added that her family has always known the mare was talented. "She's been a little blue collar worker from the very first ride. Every day she comes out and does her job. I have another futurity horse that I thought was the better of the two – she proved me wrong today!"

When asked about her preparation for Friday's run, Johnson admitted she had to think a bit on her game plan. "I was a little concerned about the ground – I'm not complaining about it, but it's just different than what she's used to at home. She's been scared of it the last few nights because it's a little faster," she explained. "I was going through thinking about how I was going to do my run because I couldn't run very hard to my stops. I made sure that my circles were great and she turned amazing for me. I just went about three-quarters speed and she stopped really nice. I wish I could have run a little harder, but I'm happy anyway."

Allison Sutton and Zins Rowdy Whiz and Greg Gottschalk and Benz Smokin finished as Co-Champions of the Non Pro Level 2 and Co-Reserve Champions of the Non Pro Level 3 with scores of 215.5. Each took home $2,444.

Sutton found herself horseless in February after her 3-year-old was injured, so the search for another Futurity prospect began. She found the right one in Whitesboro, Texas. "We bought Fin (Zins Rowdy Whiz) from Pete Kyle. He was a little green at the time but he's a quick learner and picked up everything. Even though he was a stud when we tried him he was really sweet. He got gelded when I got him home and I fell in love with him quickly,” she explained.

Sutton hadn’t shown Zins Rowdy Whiz, by Topsail Whiz out of Smart Rowdy Lady, at anything but a schooling show prior to the Tulsa Reining Classic. “We got here and I was just trying to have fun and he started stepping up. I had no expectations so I am very happy with him,” she said. The winning duo doesn’t have much time to rest – next up is the High Roller Reining Classic and the Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity before the big Futurity in Oklahoma City.

Gottschalk, of Coloma, Wisconsin, also claimed the Non Pro Prime Time title for an additional $545. “I could have done some things different as the pilot today, but she was an absolute blast to show,” he said of the Cromed Out Mercedes mare, out of Dontquestionthischic. “She’s just fun everywhere so I’m very happy with her and I’m glad I get to take her home and show her more in the fall futurities before we go to Oklahoma City.”

Jordan Larson started Benz Smokin, but the mare didn’t make the roster for his top three horses and he needed to find her a new home. He sent her to fellow trainer Joe Schmidt to sell. “We’re quite a ways from Texas so I leaned on my friend Duane Latimer to go to Joe’s place to try her.

“He rode her and when I talked to him he said, ‘Greg, all I can tell you is that if I were looking for a horse for my wife I’d buy him.’ I asked if I needed to ride her and he said he didn’t think so, so I bought her sight-unseen,” he explained. He added, “I thank Jordan for telling us about him. I thank Joe for doing such a good job with her – I left her with him for a few weeks before the Derby. I picked her up at the Derby and took her home.”

CARDINAL REINING HORSES AND ARIAT OPEN DERBY WINNERS CROWNED AT TULSA REINING CLASSIC

Thanks to sponsorship from Cardinal Reining Horses, the Open Derby at the Tulsa Reining Classic featured $43,000 added money. Cardinal Reining Horses, located in Aubrey, Texas, is owned by Joao Marcos, who purchased the facility in the summer of 2013.

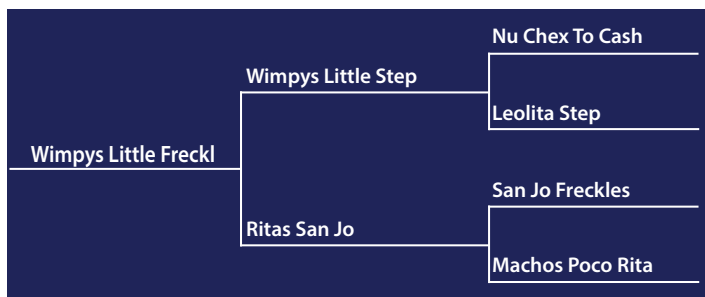

Taking the lion’s share of the pot was Peter DeFreitas of Leland, North Carolina, who piloted Wimpys Little Freckl, winning the Open Level 4 and Open Level 3 with a 224 - besting co-Reserve Champions Brian Bell and Casey Hinton by a scant half-point. All total, the wins netted $12,547.

It was the 5-year-old stallion’s last show of the year. “There’s not really any other big-money derbies this year. We want to be able to give him some time off before next year,” DeFreitas said. “I’ve shown at Tulsa a few times before. It’s a 19-hour trip but I like coming here. Winning definitely makes me want to come back!”

DeFreitas has ridden the Wimpys Little Freckl, by Wimpys Little Step out of Ritas San Jo, his whole career, which includes a Reserve Championship at the Quarter

Peter DeFreitas & Wimpys Little Freckl

Horse Congress and qualification to the finals at both the National Reining Breeders Classic and NRHA Derby.

“I was very happy with him today. He was with me the whole time and I couldn’t have asked for him to be any better,” he said.

Wimpys Little Freckl is owned by Monica Watson, who has raised several notable reining horses including Wimpys Little Step and Wimpys Little Chic. “She is a great lady to work for,” DeFreitas said.

Jordan Donnelly & Cash For Legends

Brian Bell and his horse Footwork Revolution (Einstein's Revolution x Fancy Footwork) tied with Casey Hinton and his horse Spooks Eclipse (Smart Spook x Chex Drive) for the Co-Reserve Championship in both divisions with scores of 223.5. Each took home $6,682.

If there was a "Horse with the Most Heart" award at the Tulsa Reining Classic, Cash For Legends would be a shoe-in. Only 150 days out from colic surgery, the 5-year-old gelding only began being legged back up a couple weeks ago.

"We brought him to Tulsa and we were just going to play with him and take it easy but he was doing so good that we decided to go ahead and show him," Jordan Donnelly, his rider, explained. "He recovered from his surgery so quickly that you'd never know."

But he started off on Thursday of the event winning the NRHA Intermediate and Limited Open classes. Then, on Sunday, he pulled a two-fer, marking a 223 in the Cardinal Reining Horses Derby, finishing fourth in the Level 4 and Level 3, and winning the Level 2 for $6,675. Barely an hour later, he went on to win the NRHA Youth 14-18 class with owner Allison Smith.

"He just tries his heart out - I've never rode a horse like him," Donnelly said. "We just rode him around lightly this morning. I showed him and then we gave him about an hour break, washed him off, then she got on him and took him in the pen and he was a 145!"

There was a three-way tie for the Reserve Championship of the Level 2 between Gabriel Diano and Paparazzi Princess, Marcy Ver Meer and Blue Chocolate Kid, and Dan Huss and Skeets Tricked Out. Each marked a 222 to win $857. Diano owns Paparazzi Princess (Gallo Del Cielo x Princess In Diamonds), while Blue Chocolate Kid (Chocolate Chic Olena x Blue Eyed Kid) is owned by Bar Double C Ranch and Skeets Tricked Out (Skeets Peppy x Miss Trickynic) is owned by Frederick Christen.

A run-off decided the Championship of the Ariat Novice Open Derby. Jason Vanlandingham and Loveandotherdiasters, Marcy Ver Meer and Blue Chocolate Kid, and Skeets Tricked Out all marked a 222. In the end, Vanlandingham and the Tinsel Nic gelding, out of HA Chic A Tune, were victorious, collecting $4,020. Ver Meer and Huss each took home an additional $2,141 for the Novice Horse Open Derby.

"I've had him a week. It's mainly been me trying to get to know him the whole time we've been here," Vanlandingham explained. "Sean Pulley has had him in training at Sterling Ranch. He came to our place last week to get some help on him and asked me to ride him. I tweaked a couple little things and he said 'Why don't you show him?'"

"I told him I didn't want to take his horse out from under him, and he told me to just show him here and that he could always show him next year."

Vanlandingham was complimentary of the horse, adding, "He's awfully nice. He's a really big stopper and I pushed him as hard as I could the first time I ran him. In the run-off he was exhausted because we had just come out of the pen, so I picked him up a little more, but I didn't need to."

MEDOWS CLAIMS SMARTPAK NON PRO DERBY CHAMPIONSHIPS IN TULSA

The SmartPak Non Pro Derby capped off a great 2014 Tulsa Reining Classic. The 54-entry class featured $25,000 in added money, and but for a lack of years, Jack Medows of Cuba, Missouri, would have swept the Non Pro divisions.

Medows and his horse Spooks Smoken Wimpy marked a 221 to win Non Pro levels 2-4 and the Novice Horse Derby, worth $9,101.

“When I ran in the gate he sort of leaned a little bit so my confidence wasn’t as high as it should be; but then he stopped really big and it went back up really quick,” Medows said following his win - his first time to show Spooks Smoken Wimpy. “I’ve never had a horse that stays the same inside the pen like he is outside. It’s a great confidence builder for the next time I show him.”

Medows purchased Spooks Smoken Wimpy, by Wimpys Little Step and out of Please Dont Spook, at the NRHA Derby this year. “I fell in love with him there. My sister is 12 and she’s rode him a little bit and gets along with him great. That’s actually where he’s going after next year,” he said. “She was watching me from home tonight and as soon as I got done I got a phone call from her telling me what I needed to do to fix him for her.”

Medows added, “This was a great debut - it was awesome. I ride with Gabe Hutchins and Gaeton Gauthier, so I thank them.”

Jesse Asmussen and Southside Juice, who won the Tulsa Reining Classic Non ProFuturity in 2013, made a bid for the Non Pro Level 4 and Novice Horse NonPro Derby Championships, but fell short by a half-point. Asmussen isn’t leaving Tulsa town empty handed though; along with the $3,500 he won in the Derby, he also took the top spot in the Turnabout Farm Non ProFuturity on Friday, worth an additional $5,624.

Lisa Bissell and Double My Chics and Julie Ridgeway and Freckles Nu Lil Gun opted to remain Co-Champions of the Prime Time Non Pro after each finished the class with a 216 and took home $511.

Ridgeway, of Loomis, California, has had a banner year at the Tulsa Reining Classic, winning the Affiliate Championship in the Rookie division Saturday. “It’s been a very good show and a lot of fun. The prizes were phenomenal and the staff has done an incredible job. I will definitely be back next year,” she said.

Ridgeway purchased Freckles Nu Lil Gun, by Colonels Lil Gun and out of Nu Bar Freckles, last year. “My trainer Matt Armenta found her for me and I started showing her last October. She’s an awesome mare and I feel very fortunate to have her. I’m very appreciative of Matt for not only helping me with her but also for being so patient.” She added, “I also thank my husband Michael for staying home and watching my children (William and Jessica) as well as all our pets.”

Bissell, of Fort Valley, Georgia, tagged along with her husband Jamie who had three futurity horses to show in Tulsa. Double My Chics, by Dreamin Bout Chics and out of

Jack Medows & Spooks Smoken Wimpy

Julie Ridgeway & Freckles Nu Lil Gun

Lisa Bissell & Double My Chics

Double My Quixote, was born and raised with the Bissells. “We raised him and actually showed both his sire and dam. Jamie trained him and I’ve shown him,” she explained.

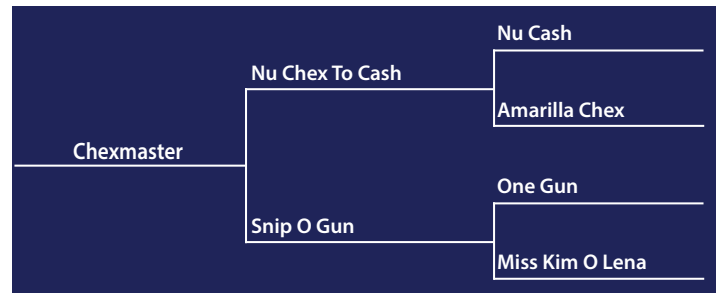

A maneuver had been giving the duo some trouble, but the kinks were worked out during the run on Sunday night. “We’ve been struggling with our right turn-around, but it turned out that I plus-oned it.

He’s a very strong stopper but tonight he wasn’t. He had over-reached and cut his heel and it must have scared him because he didn’t stop at all like he’s capable of.” She added, “I was really happy with his spins and circles.”

DARLING 888 RANCH DEVELOPING HORSE FUTURITY CHAMPIONS

The Darling 888 Ranch Developing Horse Futurity at the Tulsa Reining Classic was created with the goal of allowing reining horses to develop and perform at their own pace. This marks the fourth year of the Developing Horse Futurity, and with a 10% increase in entries over the previous year, it is evident that the exhibitors feel the same.

There were 82 entries that competed in the Ford Truck Arena at the Expo Square, and Franco Bertolani and Chexmaster bested the field with a 219.5 to win $3,982, a

Franco Bertolani & Chexmaster

Lawson bronze, a saddle from Santa Cruz Animal Health, and a sheet from Back On Track products.

“I was very happy with him today. He’s very easy to prepare and show, so it makes me comfortable and trusting when it comes to showing him,” Bertolani said of the Nu Chex To Cash stallion out of Snip O Gun. “I got him about a year ago and he has been a really good horse. I showed him in Colorado about a month ago and he was really good. I’m so proud of him.”

Bertolani will be taking Chexmaster to Las Vegas in a couple weeks, and noted that the Developing Horse Futurity was the perfect class to compete with the horse. “I have another horse entered in the (Hollywoodstinstown) Futurity on Saturday, and I wanted to show this horse a little easier and save him a little today since we’ll be showing him again soon.”

Now living in Aubrey, Texas, Bertolani moved to the United States from Brazil eight years ago. He says that Tulsa is one of his favorite places to show. “I love Tulsa. Last year was my first year here and I love it. It’s a nice facility with good ground and great arenas. You can really show your horse here,” he said.

Sebastian Petroll & Magnums Shining Rey

Josh Murphy & CBK A Nu Kinda Spark

Taking the Reserve Championship in the Open Level 4 and the Championship of the Levels 2 and 3 was Sebastian Petroll and Magnums Shining Rey with a 218.5. The wins netted $6,891, a pair of boots from Rios of Mercedes, a spa treatment from Equine Saltwater Spa, wraps from Back On Track, two Lawson bronzes, gift certificates from Santa Cruz Animal Health, and a sheet from Back On Track.

For Petroll, the Magnum Chic Dream gelding, owned by Kathy and Larry Barker, is special. “He is out of Shiners Miss Rey, who is part of a successful family and had a great show career herself. I was fortunate enough to be able to rider her a little towards the end of her career.” He added, “It’s fun to ride colts out of her because it feels like I already know them. This is the second one out of her. I knew early on that he was a pretty special horse.”

According to Petroll, Magnums Shining Rey must have read his playbook. “I wanted to show him here (in the Developing Horse Futurity) and be soft enough that I could get him started but I still wanted to get something done and test him out a little bit. That worked out really good. He must have read the manual,” he said with a laugh. “I just didn’t feel like I wanted to step on him too much at this point in time. I felt like if I put him here I could take a little more time and still push him a little bit.”

The week will be busy for Petroll’s barn. “I’ve got more to show. We’re in the Futurity and Derby and we have four million non pros, so we’re going to be riding all night and all day,” he said. “We love coming to Tulsa. The customers really want to bring their horses here because they enjoy how exhibitor friendly it is.”

Finishing Reserve in Open Levels 2 and 3 was Stefano Massignan and Ten Surprizes, by Hang Ten Surprise out of Holly O Jay. The pair scored a 218 was good for a $2,500 payday, as well as a saddle blanket from Yucca Flatts, denim product from Ariat, a spa treatment from Equine Saltwater Spa, and two pairs of wraps from Back On Track.

With a 216, Josh Murphy claimed the Open Level 1 Championship and fourth in the Open Level 2 on CBK A Nu Kinda Spark, worth $1,407. He also won a Morrison bronze, a headstall, and a $50 gift certificate from Santa Cruz Animal Health. “This is just a really good horse that anyone would love to show. He’s a huge stopper and great minded and he was great today – just like any other day riding him,” Murphy said of the Jacs Electric Spark Stallion, out of HR Wright On Cash.

The 21-year-old rides with Steve Defrang near Rochester, Minnesota. “It was a long trip – about a 12- hour drive, but it’s a great show. I’ll be showing another horse in the Derby on Sunday,” he said. “I thank the owners for letting me ride this horse – they’ve raised a good one.”

There was a four-way tie for Reserve, with each taking home $387. Saar Ben Hamo and Gunners Burnettechic; Kyle Shaw and A Great Red Bingo; David Hutton and The Gunsho; and Josh Crawley and Jessies Lil Dreamer all marked a 215.5.

The American Paint Horse Association also presented the high-scoring paint horse of the Darling 888 Ranch Developing Horse Futurity with a Gist Silversmiths buckle. APHA Director of Business Development Kalyn Sanders was on hand to present the award, which was won by Ruben Vandorp and Smokininthestarligh, owned by Duane Whitehouse.

EMPTY SADDLES – TOM SUMPTER

Past National Reining Horse Association President Tom Sumpter of Morriston, Florida passed away September 1.

Among his many contributions to the sport, he showed the Red Ant Rey to the 1994 NRHA Non Pro World Championship, in addition to numerous top ten finishes in world championship standings.

Memorial services for Tom will be held Saturday, September 6, at 11am at Williston Church of God, 850 SW 7th Street, Williston, FL. 32696.

NRHA CREATES NEW PROFESSIONALS MEMBERSHIP CATEGORY

The National Reining Horse Association will debut a new membership category to begin in 2015. The NRHA Professionals membership will be for individuals who are ineligible for non pro status and wish to show in NRHA open competition.

The change was recommended by the NRHA Professionals Committee with the goal of implementing activities to strengthen its segment of the industry.

Shane Brown, NRHA Professionals Committee Chair, said, "I'm excited to bring to fruition these new benefits of the NRHA Professional Membership. The value of being an NRHA Professional will continue to grow over the next several years, and we will look for more new ideas to help reining trainers be more successful."

He continued, "The committee will be working with staff on these additions and unveiling them in stages. The NRHA Professionals Membership will be a great step forward in helping our reining industry grow."

NRHA Professionals will receive multiple benefits beginning in 2015. Those benefits will include:

- Encourage industry growth by connecting NRHA Professionals in a worldwide system
- Create ongoing educational programs to include subjects such as promotional strategies for business, financial planning, communication tools, equine health topics, stable management, insurance, taxes for horse owners, etc.

- Create a mentoring program to facilitate communication between established and new trainers
- Expand the NRHA Professionals webpage to include more detailed information about each trainer to assist with promoting a business and growing a client base
- Provide reining and NRHA "on-boarding" materials to give to potential clients
- Organize an NRHA Professionals Forum to foster mentoring and interaction between trainers
- Expansion of NRHA Top 20 Professionals awards and Professionals of the Year awards

For more information about NRHA Professionals, contact NRHA Professionals Committee Liaison Todd Barden (Click here to e-mail Todd) or NRHA Professionals Committee Chair Shane Brown (Click here to e-mail Shane).
